When one comes to unearthing the administrative secrets of the late government, the secrets of the big bills the country has had to pay appears. A very little of the truth comes out in the shape of a contract for carrying mails being renewed without tender. Two tenders were sent in for this contract, but the then contractor, evidently a favourite with the government, asked to have the tenders ignored and his own contract renewed. This was done and the contract again awarded to the pet. The tenders were unopened till the present government was in power, when it was found that the lowest tender was over a hundred per cent. lower than the figures of the corruptly renewed contract. Mr. Mulock, Postmaster-General, protected the public from this palpable robbery by promptly cancelling the old contract and awarding it to the lowest tenderer. The amount involved was not large—the corruptly-renewed contract being $827.50 and the lowest tender was $100. But the principle, carried out in larger affairs, of paying $827 for work that can be done for $100 easily, explains why we have rolled up such a burden of debt under the old government. This is a sample of what has been going on and it amply accounts for the necessity of such large supply bills. There is another example in the same department, one so flagrant in its politically corrupt character that it will bear reference to hereafter. The Liberal Government has promised economy and retrenchment in the management of public affairs and the most important initial step is clearing up the masses of rottenness that befoul almost every department of administration. Mr. Foster and his associates will get enough of their ironical demands on the Liberal Government to carry out its promises of economy.

RAILWAY NOTES.

Sparks From the Wheels—Cinders for the Eye.

Every traveller by the East Coast route between Scotland and England has seen as he crossed the high level bridge to Newcastle the historic old locomotive, "Puffing Billy," which stands on a pedestal at the city end. "Puffing Billy" was one of the first engines built by George Stephenson for the Killingworth Coal Company, upon whose line it ran for many years, and its primitive construction is in striking contrast with the elaborate mechanism of the modern racer. When it had served its turn on the colliery line it was not broken up, but carefully preserved, and in 1881, on the centenary of Stephenson's birth, was presented by Sir C. M. Palmer to the Mayor and Corporation of Newcastle, who, with the consent of the North-Eastern Railway Company, placed it in its present position. There, however, in spite of regular coats of paint and other conserving attentions, it has suffered a good deal from the weather, and consequently it has been decided to remove it to a less exposed position under the roof the Central station, the exact spot being on the "nine-ten" or island platform. Here, after being thoroughly overhauled and smartened up in the repair shops at Gateshead, "Billy" will be set on a handsome stone pedestal, whereon an inscription will set forth by whom and when he was presented to the city.—Inverness Courier.

On the Grand Junction Railway about two and a half miles west of Campbellford there is a "pile" bridge which has survived its usefulness after long years of service, and it is now being replaced by an iron structure of more modern design. The girders of the bridge are to be placed in position this week, and the whole structure will be quickly erected.

On Wednesday of last week a ballast train was despatched to assist in the work and a gang of men with picks and shovels were engaged to clear out the two "cuts" east and west of the station. The gravel is being loaded on the cars and drawn to the new bridge to fill up the approaches thereto. About three weeks may be spent in completing the work.

The most comfortable smoking car now on the Midland Division of the G. T. R. is attached to Conductor Rundle's mixed, running between Lindsay and Toronto.

Mr. Peter Ryan, of Toronto, is president of the company recently organized to construct a line of railway from the Manitoulin Island to a junction with the Canadian Pacific Railway's Soo branch. The building of the road will open up an extensive timber country and a rich mineral district, and afford an outlet for the farming community of Manitoulin Island.

A through freight on the Grand Trunk came to grief yesterday a short distance west of Shannonville. The train was composed largely of beef and fruit cars, all loaded. When about two miles this side of Shannonville an axle under one of the cars broke and there was a general crash. Six cars left the track and were more or less badly smashed. Trainmaster Irwin, in charge of the auxiliary, soon reached the spot and began the work of clearing the wreck, which blockaded both tracks. At eleven o'clock there were ten trains at Belleville waiting to get out and five or six were tied up on the east side of the wreck. The mixed going east was cancelled. The 11.05 train went as far as the wreck, where it waited till the road was clear. The damage to rolling stock will be heavy, and a large quantity of freight was destroyed. The accident happened at a very inopportune time, as the freight traffic at present is heavy over the lines. One track was cleared about noon.

NORWOOD.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Last Thursday afternoon a football match between the High and Model Schools was played on the grounds here, and resulted in a victory for the High school by a score of one to nothing.

The Norwood Junior Football Club went to Hastings last Saturday to play the Juniors of that place, and were defeated by one goal to nothing.

The Model High School Football Club met the town team on Tuesday evening. The rain started just as the match began, and slow work was the result. Each side succeeded in scoring a goal, when the game was called off on account of the heavy rain.

Quite a number of Model students left town Friday evening to spend Saturday and Sunday at their respective homes.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Bertram of Peterborough were in town this week, the guests of Mrs. D. A. Fraser.

F. D. Roxburgh is expected home this week from his mission field in the Rocky Mountains.

The bills are out for the concert to be given here on the second night of the fair. The committee of management have Mrs. Caldwell, the noted soprano, and Mr. Geo. Fax, of Belleville, the great comic singer, besides other talent. They intend making this the greatest success of the season.

On Tuesday evening of this week a meeting of the Norwood district of Young People's Societies of Epworth League and Christian Endeavour was held in the Presbyterian church here. Mr. Martin, of Peterborough, read a report of the International convention held at Washington this year. A programme was also given, Rev. J. F. Sommerville acting as chairman.

ABOUT THE STRIKE.

There is Still Very Little Change to Report.

THE OPERATORS ARE STILL OUT.

Men in Other Departments Said to be Unlikely to Aid the Telegraphers—The Company Claims to Have Got the Upper Hand on the O. & Q. Division.

Toronto, Oct. 3.

It is still a difficult matter to say how the C.P.R. strike will end. Were the existing conditions on the O. & Q. division a criterion of the situation throughout the system it might be safe to venture that the road would uncle ot the upper hand but in view of the strong position of the men, both in the east and in the west, it is impossible to come to any other conclusion but that the railway, as a whole, is yet somewhat crippled.

The best way to get an idea of the position of affairs is to look at how things stand on the various sections of the system.

To start at Toronto. Passenger trains both from the east and west came in pretty well on time yesterday, while those from the north did not arrive so promptly. Freights were moving uncertainly. As far as could be learned last night, all lines in Ontario were being pretty well manned with either old or new operators. Assistant Superintendent Williams made the statement that as far as his division was concerned there was a full complement of agents and operators at work, and that only about ½ per cent. of these were new men. As far as he knew, there were only eight new men between here and Windsor, eight between here and Owen Sound, and two at Leaside Junction. The strikers had gone back to their instruments at Toronto Junction and Orangeville, while at Streetsville Junction Agent McHenry and Operator Kinsman had just resumed their duties. General Superintendent Leonard spoke in a similarly sanguine strain.

Over against these official observances, however, must be placed news more or less reliable from other sources. It was asserted at a late hour that most of the men between the Queen City and Smith's Falls had again gone out in obedience to another order from Montreal. It was impossible to verify this, but after 7.30 p.m. the local despatchers were unable to get any telegraphic connection with Smith's Falls.

It is understood also that an order has issued from the freight department instructing all O. & Q. agents to refuse to accept apples and other perishable goods for shipment.

A gentleman who came down from Owen Sound brought word that freight in that direction is altogether tied up.

What points meet towards a defeat of the operators in this section is the assertion freely made that the local members of the other railway orders have deserted the strikers. Yesterday a committee of conductors, engineers, firemen and trainmen appointed by a Junction mass meeting of railway employes in sympathy with the strikers waited upon General Superintendent Leonard with a view to bringing about a settlement of the difficulty.

After the meeting Mr. Leonard stated that the deputation had gone away satisfied that the company had done right in refusing to hear the complaints of the operators.

Later, a gentleman who was introduced to the reporter by Supt. Leonard as Conductor Hassard, chairman of the aforesaid committee, gave the scribe an account of the interview referred to. He said that a committee representative of all the railway orders yesterday waited upon the superintendent to see if they could not arrange an amicable settlement of the trouble; that Mr. Leonard had explained to them the company's attitude throughout; that each member of the committee had gone away satisfied that they could do nothing because their hands were tied by the way the operators had gone about the business; that they were still in sympathy with the strikers, but could not uphold them in the action they had taken. Mr. Hassard added that the committee felt that the railway had done a great deal in offering to take back the strikers.

It is understood that at the deputation's request the time for the operators to return to work was extended from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m. yesterday, and that the committee carried back to another meeting of the men at the Junction the result of their intercession. It is alleged, moreover, that the operators acknowledged thereupon that the sympathizing orders had done all that could be expected of them.

The local authorities continue to labor to relieve other divisions of the road. Eighteen new men went east in the afternoon to try and raise the blockade in Quebec, and Chief Train Despatcher Price is still receiving applications for positions from telegraphers willing to fill the vacant posts. Many of these have been instructed to report at the Union Station to-day. Many of the job-seeking messages come from American operators out of work, Grand Trunk employes, and even ladies, but no one included in these three classes is being employed.

Then, to go outside of the O. & Q. division, and look at the situation elsewhere, we may start at the Atlantic coast.

From Halifax a partial freight tie-up is reported, and, coming west, the company seems to be filling the vacant posts in Quebec. At Montreal the men are confident of victory.

As far as could be learned, there is no change in the situation.

Next a jump may be made to North Bay. Thence come reports that all passenger trains are 12 hours behind time, and that since Monday no freights have moved either east or west.

Up in that district the populace are all strongly with the men. Between Pembroke and Fort William the 12 new men whom the company have sent up to man important stations have been driven out of the various towns. At Chelmsford shantymen arrived with axes, made a "scab" operator fly for his life, while at Dieux Rivieres a non-union operator had to get out because the local hotels charged him $3 for every meal he ate.

At Winnipeg a bad tie-up exists, and the grain and wholesale jobbing trades are at a standstill. The fruit trade is paralyzed, and cases of perishable merchandise are being ruined on the track.

A blockade of traffic is said to exist on the Pacific coast.

General Superintendent Leonard received a telephone message last night from Assistant General Manager Tait that 13 men had gone back to work on the Quebec division, and that the outlook was never better since the strike began.

HOW IT LOOKS AT MONTREAL.

Mr. Pierson Sorry That Sir William Entered the Discussion—Engineers' Position.

Montreal, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—"I am sorry," said Mr. Pierson to-day, "that Sir William Van Horne has entered the discussion, because I feel satisfied that he does not know the whole truth of this matter and I am perfectly satisfied that if everything could be explained to him our demands would have received more careful attention. You must know as well as I do that there are a good many matters which come before subordinate officials that are never reported to the superiors. Any man in ordinary life must have heard of cases of this kind, in which the heads of business houses have learned of discontent for the first time and have been so annoyed that matters have been allowed to run on without their knowledege that it was not long before the head of the subordinate official came off. We did our very best to see Sir William; I pleaded, almost with tears in my eyes, to be allowed to do so, as case to him. You know the result."

Mr. Johnson Elliott, the mechanical superintendent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, was in the city this morning and discussed the attitude of the engineers towards the strike. "Our men are firm and will not come out," he said, "and if they have made any overtures in the direction of assisting at an arbitration of the differences it is only because they want to be once more running sharply on time, and would do all they could to get the old despatchers back to give them orders. They are only interested in so far as their personal safety and convenience is concerned. The backbone of the strike is broken, trains are running regularly, and it is only a matter of a few hours before the whole thing will collapse."

A member of the committee remarked to-day that the men were beaten and that all would be over within 48 hours.

THE SITUATION AT WINNIPEG.

Delayed Fruit Being Ruined—Will the Other Employes Go Out?

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 2.—(Special.)—The telegraphers' strike continues, and business in all lines is becoming tied up. The grain trade, which is of primary importance, is greatly hampered and the wholesale jobbing trade is practically at a standstill, as the railroad company declines to accept freight. The fruit trade is paralysed, and many cars of fruit delayed at points along the line will be ruined.

Rumors that the other trainmen will go out to assist the striking despatchers are still persistently circulated, but cannot be verified. If the engineers refuse to take orders from the non-union despatchers, the strike may be brought to a climax.

A force of operators from Chicago and Minneapolis is said to be on the way here. If they go to work there may be trouble.

Since men have been sent to guard the various stations telegraphic communication has been maintained between points where the operators are still on duty. Both sides maintain a confident attitude and to-day there is no brighter prospect of speedy settlement. Passenger trains continue to move but on uncertain schedule.

LOOKS BAD AT NORTH BAY.

The Situation Remains Unchanged and the Company Won't Arbitrate.

North Bay, Ont., Oct. 2.—The situation remains unchanged in this district as regards the telegraphers' strike. No trains have moved east or west of here since Monday, except passenger trains, which have all been late. The eastbound Winnipeg express, due here at 7.10 this morning, passed this evening 12 hours late. No attempt has been made to start freight trains yet except a stock train, which has been on the road from Cartier 48 hours, and was in bad condition passing here. As far east as Pembroke and west as far as Fort William only a few offices are manned by new men, but they have been driven out of town, and are returning to North Bay and making for home. This is accounted for by the fact that citizens are in sympathy with the telegraphers, and will not allow new men to take the strikers' places. Reports are coming in all the time of rough treatment of these men in some cases serious. Yesterday and to-day efforts were made by local labor leaders here to arrange a settlement of the strike by arbitration. A committee got authority from the Chairman of the Telegraphers' Committee to arbitrate everything, but the management of the C.P.R., after considering the offer, refused to accept the proposed settlement, and the sympathy of all classes of railway men is now with the telegraphers. Further trouble is anticipated, as trainmen and engine men claim it is unsafe to continue running under the present system of handling trains. Although no accidents have been reported at a late hour all railway wires were interrupted, with little hope of communication before morning. Assistant Superintendent Bury took a trip west to-day, but returned this evening.

OUT AT THE COAST.

"No Change in the Situation" is the Superintendent's Report.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 2.—"No change in the situation," was the reply yesterday by General Superintendent Abbott to an enquiry regarding the telegraphers' strike on the C.P.R. "A circular has been posted up at all stations giving the strikers 24 hours to return to work."

NEW YORK MEN REFUSE.

New York, Oct. 2.—"Wanted—Telegraph operators; good pay; steady work. Enquire immediately of E. V. Skinner, 353 Broadway, New York."

The above advertisement, which appeared in several morning papers yesterday, drew a number of applicants to No. 353 Broadway. When they learned that they were wanted to take the places of striking men on the Canadian Pacific Railroad, most of them refused the positions, and, as far as could be learned, only one man was secured out of 25 or 30 applicants. Mr. Skinner told all the applicants that he wanted only experienced men who understood modern railroading in all its branches. The salaries offered ranged from $35 to $55 per month. In some cases this was besides free house rent and fuel. While some of the men who replied to the advertisement were asked to pay their fares, free transportation was offered to others.

IN RHODE ISLAND.

Providence, R.I., Oct. 2.—Traveling Passenger Agent McKenna of the C.P.R. was in this city to-day looking for telegraphers to take the places of the operators of the road who are on strike. Free transportation, good food and big salaries were the inducements offered, but Mr. McKenna "got no recruits."

ALSO AT BUFFALO.

Buffalo, Oct. 2.—This advertisement appears in local papers here to-day: "Wanted—Telegraph operators, at once. Call at 21 Exchange-street."

21 Exchange-street is the office of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and the passenger agent of that road is making strenuous efforts to obtain telegraphers. He has been in communication with the Western Union and Postal Companies, to endeavor to secure surplus talent, usually to be found disengaged at this season of the year, but with what success has not been learned.

It is a Pleasure

For Mr. Davidson to Speak.

An Esteemed Citizen of the Ancient Capital.

What He Thinks of Paine's Celery Compound.

The following letter from Mr. Wm. Davidson of No. 2 Oliver street, Quebec, P. Q., is so very plain and lucid that it requires no explanatory remarks. His object is to draw the attention of the sick and afflicted to that fountain and source of life from which he received supplies of new health. He says:

"It is with sincere pleasure and gratitude I refer to your Paine's Celery Compound, and the wondrous blessings that I received from its use.

"To tell the truth, before using it I had little confidence in it, but concluded if it did me no good it could not make me any worse than I was.

"I had suffered for years from indigestion, liver complaint and kidney disease, and began with Paine's Celery Compound in order to give it a thorough testing. After a fair use of the Compound I am as well as ever I was, and all my troubles have disappeared, and I am enjoying good health.

"Your medicine is a wonderful one; it is far superior to all others, as it truly gives life, and puts the entire system in a healthy condition. As a purifier of the blood I find it has no equal, and I heartily recommend its use to all sufferers."

Can stronger proof than the above be required to convince any sick and diseased man or woman that Paine's Celery Compound is the best medicine in the world?

Surely, dear reader, you will admit it is worthy of a trial. You are seeking for new health, and therefore need the very best. Be sure you ask for and use only "Paine's," the only genuine celery preparation in the world.

n their Uppers

A good Shoe differs from its wearer in that it should always be properly "on its uppers." How it gets there, has everything to do with the comfort it brings to the foot. Putting soles on their uppers is hardly a spiritual work, but it's the big end of Shoe making.

There are three ways of doing it—by the use of pegs, Mackay stitching, and the Goodyear welt or hand sewn process (Slater method).

Pegged or Mackay stitched shoes are known from the other make by their putting welts on the sole of the foot instead of having them put on the sole of the shoe.

They do this, because the pegs, or stitching, go clear through the sole, under the foot, where the full weight of the body, pressing upon the surrounding leather, raises hard lumps around every peg or stitch, and these in turn raise painful callosities, and corny spots on the foot.

The soles of the Slater Shoes, are sewn to the welt (or strip of leather which projects beyond the sides of the shoe), away from the foot, leaving a smooth and pliant surface under the foot while retaining all the elasticity and springiness of the sole leather.

This is the Goodyear welted or hand made method, and these "best in the land" shoes are stamped on the soles at "$3.00 per pair." Other facts about feet you'll find in a little book "The Sick Man of Leatherhouse" Ask for a free copy from

MISS FAY.

Her Weird Entertainment at the Opera House Last Night.

The entertainment given by Miss Anna Eva Fay at the Opera House last night was most weird and at the same time deeply interesting. For three hours the audience was fairly spell bound by the mysteries which she revels in on the stage. Her cabinet work surpasses anything of the kind ever seen here, as whilst behind the curtains raising a medley of sounds with musical instruments, she was firmly bound to a post, and at another time took Mr. Wm. Bowman into the cabinet with her but the noises continued although he held both her hands.

Questions were written by people sitting in the audience who put the paper afterwards in their pocket, yet had the answer given them by Miss Fay, The trick in this is hard to detect. It is not a case of mind reading, as some of those who asked questions had left the hall before the answers were given. However it is done it is a very clever trick. On the stage with Miss Fay were Mr. R. M. Roy, Mr. Wm. Salisbury and Mr. Wm. Bowman, who watched closely but could solve none of the mystery which surrounded her. Miss Fay has several other artists who unite in making the entertainment peculiarly interesting. This evening should see the Opera House crowded to the doors.

Grafton & Co., can clearly afford to be more liberal now than ever before.

A Temporary Connection Gives Out.

The water backed up in the new sewer yesterday and caused considerable trouble. It was pumped out by the fire engine, when it was discovered that a temporary connection which had been made at the corner of Hunter and George streets, below the manhole, had given away, allowing the sand to enter. The break was repaired this morning.

The Boston Convention.

The Rev. W. R. Young delivered an address in George street Methodist church, last evening, on "Boston and the International Sunday School Convention." There was a fair attendance, and good attention was paid to the speaker's remarks. The meetings were held in Tremont Temple. There were twelve hundred delegates present at the convention. Mr. Moody, the celebrated evangelist, was present, and the convention was a decided success, in Mr. Young's opinion.

St. Luke's Church, Ashburnham.

Amongst the many interesting questions discussed at the recent Toronto Diocesan Conference there was none of wider importance than that of "Social Problems," and amongst the distinguished speakers on that occasion there was no more interesting personality than Rev. Dr. McConnell, who delivered a brilliant address on the subject of "The Law of Christ Concerning Wealth." Rev. H. Symonds will to-morrow evening give a resume of this address with the subsequent discussion of this great question. All seats free and unappropriated.

Our Flat.

Pretty Emily Bancker will appear at the Opera House in her new comedy success, "Our Flat," which is one of the latest New York farces. The story told is a pretty one and one that will appeal to theatre goers, as it is bright and piquant, and is filled with all manner of bright and funny situations. The music and singing and arranged especially for this production and is all new and pleasing. Miss Bancker is supported by a large company of comedians and the entertainment is said to be one of the best of its kind on the road. This company appeared at the Opera House last season and pleased an immense crowd.

THE C. P. R. STRIKE.

The Operators and the Company Both Claiming Victory.

The telegraph operators' strike is still on and seems to have gained renewed force and effect. The men seem to be working in a more systematic manner and now realise that to be effective they must be united.

The operators at Peterborough, who returned to work after being out for a few days, have again left their keys and are replaced by two commercial operators from the city.

From information gathered this morning, the freight service is badly demoralized, as it is almost impossible to receive communications along the line.

A few freight trains are passing through Peterborough, but the freight schedule is becoming much disorganized and the trains cannot be operated at all freely.

The men claim to be fully prepared for the emergency, but the company claim that the strike, as effecting them, is practically over, as they will have men in a few days to replace the striking operators.

TRENT VALLEY CANAL.

A Deputation Interviews the Minister of Railways and Canals.

Mayor Yelland and Councillor Hughes returned to town this morning after having interviewed Hon. Mr. Blair, Minister of Railways and Canals, together with others from along the line of the canal.

The mayor informs the EXAMINER that the reception accorded the delegation was very pleasing and business-like. He promised, as soon as possible after the completion of the session, to run over the route of the canal and make himself thoroughly acquainted with its possibilities and feasibilities. He explained that it could not be expected that in the short time elapsing since he took charge of his department, that he could be acquainted with every public work in the Dominion, but that he would make it his duty to so acquaint himself with all the particulars concerning the waterway under consideration, as to be able to make a full report to the government on the advisability of the further prosecution of the work. He promised the deputation to give the matter speedy attention and to base his recommendation to the government on his opinion of what was in the best interests of the country, generally.

Sir Henri Joly de Lotbniere, who was present at the time the deputation was waiting on the Minister, stated that he had been agreeably surprised at the work that had been done upon the Canal. He had occasion to visit a portion of the work in the locality of Peterborough not long ago and was astonished at the great reservoirs of water and from the natural advantages in this particular, he felt that the scheme should not be abandoned without being thoroughly looked into and proven to be impracticable.

OUR SHARPSHOOTERS.

They Carry Off Prizes at the Victoria County Rifle Association Matches.

The County of Victoria Rifle Association held its annual meeting on Thursday at the ranges, just north of Lindsay, and some excellent scores were made, despite the dull weather and somewhat tricky wind. The 57th Battalion was represented by Staff-Sergeant Bartlett and Privates George Fitzgerald, Chas. Curtis and T. F. Ritchie.

In the first match Ritchie won $5, Curtis $1, Bartlett $2, and Fitzgerald $1.50.

In match No. 2 Bartlett won $3, Ritchie $2, Fitzgerald $1.50.

In the Extra Series Match Ritchie won $3 and Curtis $1.50.

In the aggregate Ritchie came fourth with 118 points, and Bartlett sixth with 116 points.

Warm Words of Praise.

Messrs. J. J. Turner & Son have received the following valuable letter of commendation:

PRINCE EDWARD COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.
PICTON, October 2nd, 1896.

J. J. Turner & Son, Peterborough.

Dear Sirs,—The flags we got from you to decorate our town in honour of the visit of Lord and Lady Aberdeen, were very fine. Our town never looked better. Lord Aberdeen was well pleased, and spoke very highly of the decorations.

Yours truly,
T. Bog.

Tuesday Night's Attraction.

What the DAILY EXAMINER of Feb. 11, '95, said of the Tornado:—"A good attendance greeted Lincoln J. Carter's Company at the Opera House Saturday night, when that well known drama "The Tornado" was presented. The company was first class in every respect, and unlike other companies kept the audience interested. The scenic effects cannot be beaten and the destruction of the old was grand and was loudly applauded. One of the most beautiful scenes of the evening was the sailors furling the sails. The company is certainly one of the best that has come to Peterborough." This company appears at the Opera House, Tuesday night next.

TRENT VALLEY CANAL.

A Couple of Hours Can be Pleasantly Spent in Examining the Progress of the Work.

A couple of hours can be passed away any afternoon very pleasantly in walking across over to Ashburnham and inspecting the work which is now being carried forward on the Nassau-Little Lake section of the Trent Valley Canal.

The C.P.R. embankment forms a capital dam to keep the water back and just north of it the canal has been excavated to its intended depth, although the sides are being raised somewhat yet. The concrete foundations for the pivot pier for the Maria street bridge are constructed, as well as the glance piers to protect it.

Above the Grand Trunk tracks a big force of men are engaged in raising the sides of the canal. The bottom is also being levelled off, but there will be no more excavating just here, as the proper depth is already reached.

Proceeding up past the blacksmith shop and the big boarding house, a noise like thunder assails the ears. It comes from the monster stone crusher, which is operated by electric power from town and chews up great waggon loads of stone in a wonderful manner. The rough boulders are fed into a gigantic hopper and are passed out into carts which are waiting below it and receive the discharges as rapidly as they come up. The stone is crushed up into pieces about the size of an egg is are carted over to a spot where a force of men mix with it the proper proportion of water, sand and Portland cement. It is then wheeled up in barrows to the top of the first of the big piers on which the Norwood Road bridge over the canal is to be supported. The pier is already about 25 feet high and will be raised to the height of 36 feet. The foundations are just being laid for the twin pier on the other side of the canal, as well as a couple of similiar piers for the Warsaw Road bridge a little higher up.

The whole face of nature is being changed just along here, and old residents returning after the absence of a few years will not recognize Ludgate's Hill if approaching from the east.

Another object of interest to the visitor is the laying of the big iron conduit under the level of the canal. It is intended to carry off the drainage of the hill instead of allowing it to run into the canal or be blocked by the high banks.

No more interesting a spot can be found in the district and the distance is but short. A couple of hours will reveal many things of which the majority of visitors are entirely ignorant, and there is generally one of the staff around who will take the trouble to explain anything which is not understood.

Grafton & Co., sell direct to their customers at close wholesale prices.

OTONABEE AGRICULTURAL EXHIBITION.

Some of the Most Important Features Particularly Dealt With.

The following is a continuation from yesterday's issue of the special exhibits at the Otonabee Agricultural Exhibition held at Keene on Thursday.

SPECIAL EXHIBITS.

OAK HALL REPRESENTED.

Though this enterprising and high-class establishment had no exhibition on the ground, the firm was represented by Mr. Jas. Best, and for a time the air was full of Oak Hall; and Oak Hall occupied as high a place in the eyes of thousands as it occupies in the hearts of the grand circle of customers it has gathered around it since its establishment in Peterborough. Three hot-air balloons were sent up, with "Oak Hall" blazoned in huge letters, careering this way and that, as they passed through varying currents of air, accommodating themselves to every change. They were a fitting type of the real Oak Hall, which with its immense and varied stock, accommodates itself to every need and demand that can be made upon it in the shape of clothing for all sorts and conditions of men. The Oak Hall quality of clothing is characterized by exceptional high quality of material, strength of make, neatness of fit and correctness of style, in a word, it has all the good qualities of made-to-measure clothing, with nothing of its special draw-back in the nature of price. In fact, high-class goods at low-class rates distinguish every garment on the tables or shelves of Oak Hall. No one who has not investigated the subject can form any idea of the excellent values that characterize the clothing of this establishment. It is only by extensive operations that this combination of high value with low prices can be brought about. Oak Hall, in Peterborough, is only one of nearly half a score of branches in the important commercial centres of Ontario. These are supplied with perpetually fresh and up-to-date stocks of men's, boys' and youths' clothing—suits, overcoats, etc., without any intermediate profit, to increase the price to the consumer. When all the fall fairs are over, the perpetual exhibition will be continued at Oak Hall, corner of George and Hunter streets, Peterborough, where there is a big prize in extra values to every purchaser. Mr. Wattam is the energetic manager, who loses no opportunity of advancing the interests of the firm he represents.

GRAFTON & CO.'S EXHIBIT.

As mentioned above, Messrs. Grafton & Co., manufacturers of clothing—not mere sellers, but actual producers,—had a small but beautifully selected display of clothing from the immense stock in their Peterborough branch. It was laid out in the main building, and most tastefully displayed. It was in charge of Mr. Wm. Armstrong and Mr. —. Cooway, but Mr. W. E. Conway, the energetic manager of the local branch was present on the grounds exercising a general oversight and greeting the hosts of customers of the establishment that are to be found on every exhibition ground in the county and district. This firm courts the widest publicity for their "hand-cut and tailor-made clothing," that fits the public in every sense—it fits the purse as well as the person—the quality is of the best, the price is of the lowest. Under such conditions it is not surprising that their business has grown so rapidly in Peterborough, as Peterborough is only a sample of the manner of growth that characterizes the spread of Grafton & Co's. business throughout the province. Their great central manufactory in Dundas, is supplied by material purchased direct in the leading markets of the old world, and wrought by the hand-cut and tailor-made process into suits of every range of quality and price, and sent broadcast to their half dozen agencies at first cost. Other clothiers may boast of buying direct from the manufacturers—Grafton & Co. go them one better—they are the manufacturers themselves. In reality, therefore, the retail purchasers of a suit or garment at Grafton & Co's. in Peterborough, is as really and actually buying at wholesale rates as if he were buying a ten thousand dollar stock to start a shop of his own. The Grafton & Co. manufactory, Dundas, buys cloths and tweeds by the barnful, they are the next customer from the sheep's back and the people of Peterborough are the next. The people have got that idea into their heads. Grafton's prices are low and Grafton's qualities are high. The proverb says that extremes meet and the one place they meet is at Grafton & Co.'s establishment George street, Peterborough. Grafton & Co.'s little branch establishment at Keene exhibition was the centre of a lively interest and no doubt a rich harvest of custom will be reaped from the personal contact of hundreds with the splendid goods, whose samples were one of the most important features of the best exhibition the Township of Otonabee ever had.

GOUGH BROS.

The conspicuous presence in the grounds of the Keene Fair of Gough Bros. elaborately gorgeous chariot of cheapness and vehicle of values was an instructive lesson. Its revolving wheels, as it moved among the masses, were a type of the revolution in the clothing trade created by Gough Bros., the Wonderful Cheap Men. When they came to Peterborough cheap and good clothing for the multitude became an accomplished fact. Not only have they been positive benefactors with the boon of bargain-giving to their own customers, but they have set the pace of low prices and modest profits to other establishments and the few people of this district that are not customers, when they do buy at other shops use Gough Bros'. figures as a lever to bring down high prices to a bargain basis. So Goughs have have been a blessing to the whole community. The had no clothing on exhibition at Keene. They didn't need to have. Their name, their motto, — "always good at Goughs" — is as familiar as household words. Everybody, from the tottering grandsire to the toddling grandson, knows that Gough's is the head centre, fountain-head, source and spring of bargains in clothing. If Gough Bros. had been in business in the days of Adam and Eve they would certainly have raised Cain among the other clothiers and have given bargains in fig leaves at rock-bottom prices. And Gough Bros. are as comprehensive as they are cheap. Their mission—and they are equipped to the hilt for the purpose—is to clothe the human form divine—from head to foot, from crown to corns—with the cheapest and best goods the markets of Canada can yield. They are ever on the watch for bargains for their customers. Some big wholesale ship is wrecked on the rock of hard times; Gough Bros., with the long, strong grapnel of ready cash rake in the cargo at a fraction of its cost and next week it smiles from their shelves in the shape of sunny bargains in Overcoats, Ready-made Clothing, Gentlemen's Furnishings, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes. In fact everything that the heart of man can desire or the body of man can wear, is found "always good at Goughs." The biggest stock of the best goods in Canada is the significance of the brilliant vehicle that majestically meanders among the multitudes at Keene and other exhibitions, in charge of "Jimmy" Tully.

"I HAD NO FAITH."

But my Wife Persuaded Me to Try the Great South American Rheumatic Cure and My Agonizing Pain was Gone in 12 Hours, and Gone for Good.

J. D. McLeod, of Leith, Ont., says: "I have been a victim of rheumatism for seven years—confined to my bed for months at a time; unable to turn myself. Have been treated by many physicians without any benefit. I had no faith in rheumatic cures I saw advertised, but my wife induced me to get a bottle of South American Rheumatic Cure from Mr. Taylor, druggist, in Owen Sound. At that time I was in agony with pain. Inside of 12 hours after I had taken the first dose the pain had all left me. I continued until I had used three bottles, and I now consider myself completely cured." Sold by H. S. Macdonald.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

W. Milburn rode an exhibition mile in 2.27, lowering James Hamilton's last year's record of 2.49 1-5.

The teachers' bicycle race was one of the features of the day. The staff crossed the tape in the following order:—1, J. Jeffreys; 2, M. O'Brien; 3, J. A. Fife; 4, H. R. H. Kenner; 5, J. McCaig.

Mr. H. Philp, who won the cup last year, is not attending school this term.

No competitor will be allowed to hold more than two prizes.

In the team race six prizes were awaded—one to each member of the two winning teams, and a first and second to the two competitors, not of the winning forms, who first crossed the line.

Mr. H. S. Macdonald has kindly donated a handsome cup for the junior champion. It will be awarded for one year to the competitor under 15 years of age who obtains the highest number of points in competition. Fred. McGrath wins the cup for the first year.

Those who have held the senior championship and the staff cup are:—H. Orde, 1892; R. Kearns, 1893; Garnet Bell, 1894; H. Philp, 1895.

All the events were most keenly contested and, as will be noticed, quite a number of the old records were cut.

Little Willie McDonald's great spurt in the junior bicycle race was something wonderful to see.

A large number of ladies, as usual, turned out to see the sports.

The team race was a new feature on the programme and was most interesting. Hereafter each form will see that it has two men picked out who will do their best to reflect credit on their class mates. Here is a chance for another cup to be donated, as the event is well worth a trophy.

The obstacle race created lots of fun The contestants had to run fifty yards, remove their shoes, run fifty more, put on their shoes and run the 100 yards back again, and then work out a sum in long division. Mr. Fred. Roy won first place in this combined effort of the physical and mental forces.

The general committee of pupils in charge—W. Beer, F. Burnham, W. Poussette, S. Hall, F. Beer and A. Collins, are to be commended and congratulated upon the success of the sports and the excellent working of the programme from start to finish, to which their efforts chiefly contributed.

The Committee have to thank the following gentlemen for donations:—Dr. Burnham, Boys' Own, bound; P. H. Green, dozen cabinet photos; A. Mercer, sweater; Dr. Halliday, knife; W. Many a boy starts out in life with the firm determination of conquering the world. He means to achieve success and wealth and fame. His intentions are good, and his will is strong. If he has the bodily strength to carry him through, his efforts will be crowned with achievement. Bodily strength and health are his greatest capital. Without them he can hope for nothing. How many young men and young women are cut off just when the future seems brightest and fullest of promise! They are taken away by the disease which causes over one-sixth of all the deaths in the world—the disease which doctors call consumption. Consumption has been considered incurable, and the medical profession has never made a greater mistake than this. There is absolutely no reason in the world why consumption should be fatal—why it should be even serious. It is a disease of the blood, and can be cured absolutely and always by purifying and enriching the blood. The only exception to this is the case where the disease has been neglected and improperly treated until it is stronger than the body—until the body has become so weak as to have lost the ability to recuperate. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption if used according to directions. It also cures all lingering coughs, bronchial and throat affections. There is no reason why the child of consumptive parents need ever have consumption if its blood and lungs are strengthened by the proper use of the "Discovery." All who have any reason to fear consumption, should read the chapters on that disease in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. This great medical work of 1008 pages, profusely illustrated, has reached a sale of over 680,000 copies. It will be sent free of charge on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to cover cost of customs and mailing only. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

STRIKE AGAINST ALIENS.

Windsor Bricklayers and Masons are Determined to Drive Out Detroit Workmen Unless They Join Windsor Union.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 1.—The striking bricklayers and masons of the International Union, Windsor, to-day in session, decided to continue the strike until every one of their demands has been granted. The strike started because G. A. Goodman, contractor, engaged Detroit masons, who would not join the Windsor union, but since the men have entered upon a strike they are broadening their demands. They to-day drafted a list of what they want, and have told all the contractors in the city that they must agree to it or they will not do another stroke of work, nor will they allow outsiders to do it, unless they join the union, which, of course, means that outsiders must also agree to the same demands the local men are making of contractors. In short, as one of the strikers said to-day, "We are going to run our trade in this city ourselves." They declare they are ready to hold out for months to gain their demands. Goodman tried to make terms to-day. He offered to discharge all the Detroit men, but the strikers could not agree to other conditions of his agreement. They refused to announce what those conditions are until the Committee of Arbitration has decided upon them. Goodman has doubled the number of Detroit employes and the work is going ahead.

A TRAPER'S STORY.

A CALLING THAT ENTAILS MUCH HARDSHIP AND EXPOSURE.

One Case in Which the Exposure Brought on La Grippe and Serious After Troubles—How the Victim Secured Renewed Health.

From the Brockville Recorder.

Rockport is but a small hamlet, but it has achieved a wide reputation owing to the fact that it is situated in the very heart of the far-famed Thousand Islands, and for this reason attracts during the summer months hundreds of pleasure seekers. Among the residents of the village none is better known than Wilson A. Root. During the summer months he follows the occupation of an oarsman, and none knows better than he the haunts of the gamey bass and pickerel. In the winter and spring months Mr. Root follows the occupation of trapping and this pursuit requires one to be out in all sorts of weather, and in the water frequently at a time of the year when the water is none too warm. As a result of a wetting Mr. Root took a severe cold which developed into la grippe, which took such a firm hold upon his system that for a time he was was unable to leave the house. His kidneys became affected, and he suffered from severe pains across the back. There was a feeling of continuous tiredness, which no amount of rest or sleep seemed to relieve. The appetite was fickle, and there was an indisposition to exertion or work. A number of remedies were tried, one after the other, but without any beneficial results. At this juncture a friend strongly advised that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills be given a trial. They had cured thousands of others and why not him? Acting on his friend's suggestion Mr. Root procured a single box of the Pink Pills, and before all were used felt an improvement. This encouraged him to persevere with the treatment, and after the use of a few more boxes of the pills Mr. Root found his health fully restored, all the pains and aches had disappeared, and with their disappearance came renewed strength and activity. Mr. Root says: "I firmly believe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to be unsurpassed as a medicine and I advise any who are ailing to give it a fair and honest trial."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills strike at the root of the disease, driving it from the system and restoring the patient to health and strength. In cases of Paralysis, spinal troubles, locomotor ataxia, sciatica, rheumatism, erysipelas, scrofulous troubles, etc., these pills are superior to all other treatment. They are also a specific for the troubles which make the lives of so many a burden, and speedily restore the rich glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. Men broken down by overwork, worry or excesses, will find in Pink Pills a certain cure. Sold by all dealers or sent by mail postpaid, at 50c. a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N.Y. Beware of imitations and substitutes alleged to be "just as good."

Every person who is deprived of outdoor air and exercise, should take Miller's Compound Iron Pills. They keep the bowels regular and tone up the nervous system. 50 doses for 25 cts. Sold in Peterborough by Wm. Madill, druggist.

MRS. STERNAMAN

Defended by the Mother of Ezra A. Chipman.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS THREATENED

Sensational Stories in Canadian Papers Indignantly Denounced as Fabrications—Buffalo Doctors Will Not Say the Symptoms in the Cases Indicated Poison.

Buffalo, Oct. 1.—The Express to-morrow will have a lengthy story on the alleged poisoning case at Rainham Centre, Ont. It was with difficulty that Mrs. Sternaman was located, she having moved from Elsie-place. She was, however, traced to the house of her first husband on Anna-place, and there a reporter called. Mrs. Sternaman, acting under legal advice, declined to be interviewed, but her mother-in-law talked freely, declaring with much indignation that the tales in the Canadian newspapers connecting her daughter-in-law with the deaths of Chipman and Sternaman were malicious calumniations, and that at the proper time, if it became necessary, her side of the case would be presented. The doctors who attended Sternaman and Chipman were interviewed and state that there were no symptoms, nor was there any suspicion of poisoning. Mrs. Sternaman has secured local legal talent and threatens prosecution for libellous statements. Her lawyer will also protect her interests when the continuation of the inquest is begun.

Dr. E. L. Frost, who is a comparatively young practitioner, attended Sternaman, and was interviewed as follows:

"What was Sternaman's condition when you first saw him?"

"He was suffering from stomach trouble. He had what I diagnozed as gastric catarrh."

"Did the symptoms indicate that poison had been administered?"

"Well, I really do not care to discuss his illness, save telling you that he had stomach trouble."

"Did you know whether he had insurance on his life?"

"I understand that he carried something less than $2000 life insurance."

Dr. Frost declined to talk further on the subject. He said that there was a good deal of doubt that Mr. Sternaman had been poisoned. Whether or not he thought poison to have been the cause of death he would not say.

After having her husband under the care of Dr. Frost for several weeks, Mrs. Sternaman summoned Dr. W. B. Saltsman, who is a still younger practitioner.

"When I first saw Sternaman," said Dr. Saltsman to an Express reporter, "he was suffering from terrible thirst. He had a cold rag stuffed in his mouth. He was unable to keep anything on his stomach, and, consequently was weak. Besides this, he was partly paralyzed. I gave his several things to nourish him, and in the course of a short time had him so he could retain eggs, toast and steak in his stomach. His paralysis was leaving him slowly, also. The case was a peculiar one, and I took much interest in it. After a time he grew some worse. I suggested both to him and to his wife that he go to a hospital, where he could have professional care, but to this he and Mrs. Sternaman objected. One night when I called Mr. Sternaman said that he had about decided to go to his home in Canada. His mother desired him to go there, he said, and he thought he would do so. I told him that it would be next to impossible for him to travel, and half relieved him of the notion. The nexe day, however, he said that he had fully decided to take the chances. "I might as well die one way as another," he said. He went. A few days later I heard that he had died.

"Did the case look to you like one of poisoning?" was asked Dr. Saltsman.

"Well, such a malady could result from poisoning, and it could result from other things."

"Multiple neutritis is an uncommon disease, is it not?"

"Well, you see it occasionally, but not so often as other diseases."

Mrs. Chipman, the mother of Mrs. Sternaman's first husband, was asked if Mrs. Sternaman had anything to say with respect to Sternaman's death and replied: "She has lots to say, but she will hold her tongue till the time comes for her to talk. She has been terribly treated. It's an outrage. She has engaged a lawyer and she will see that the guilty ones are attended to. The Canadian papers have made a sensational story out of what they infer was a murder, and not only that, but they have insinuated that Mrs. Sternaman was the one who is responsible for the murder. It will be attended to. We have a lawyer to see to it."

Sternaman was a brother of Mrs. Chauncey Sevenpiper of this city. Sevenpiper was a patrolman of the first police precint, and died about three days after the death of Sternaman. He died after an illness lasting only four days, death having resulted from a complication of liver and kidney trouble. His wife at the time of his death was in Canada attending the funeral of her brother, George H. Sternaman. Just as she was able to return home she received a telegram apprising her of the death of her husband. She remained in Canada. The body of her husband was sent thither and buried beside that of Sternaman's.

Burlington, Iowa, Oct. 1.—Just after the procession in the semi-centennial celebration got under headway to-day, and while 20,000 people were in the streets, a reviewing stand broke down. AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled.

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent la grippe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known."—Mrs. MAY JOHNSON, 368 Elder Avenue, New York City.

MAY BE QUEEN OF FRANCE.

The Beautiful Austrian, the Archduchess Maria Dorothy.

It is not impossible that the beautiful and remarkable Archduchess Maria Dorothy may one day be Queen of France. She is the most popular of all the Austrian archduchesses, and was betrothed the other day to Duke Phillip of Orleans, the Bourbon pretender to the throne of France. The couple will be married in Vienna in October. The match is said to be purely a love affair, the chance to the Duke ever becoming King of France being so remote as scarcely to bring politics into the question.

The archduchess is the eldest child of the Archduke Joseph, and was born at the castle of Alcsuth, near Buda-Pesth, in 1867. From childhood she has had a passion for study, and insisted upon receiving the same education that was given to her brothers. She has also been a diligent student of art and music. She especially excels in water colors, and her paintings, exhibited at Vienna and Buda-Pesth, have attracted much favorable comment, not only from Austrian and Hungarian critics, but from those of other nations.

She has composed many creditable pieces of music, and has especially devoted herself to Hungarian ballads. Many of these ballads have become popular and are sung by the Hungarian peasants. Maria Dorothy's mother was a princess of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, so she is related to the reigning houses of Great Britain, Germany and Russia. Her cousin is queen regent of Spain. The archduchess is a woman of strong personality and decided ideas, but is nevertheless much beloved because of her constant work in public and private charities.

Sometimes it seems to weary woman that she must certainly give up. The simplest and easiest work becomes an almost insurmountable task. Nervousness and sleeplessnes and pain harrass her and life seems hardly worth the living.

Dr. Pierce's Favourite Prescription was made for her. Dr-Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was made for her. The former is for ills distinctly feminine, the other for her general system. Together they supply a scientific and successful course of treatment. The "Favourite Prescription" restores healthy regular action to the organs distinctly feminine. It forces out all impurities, strengthens the tissues, allays inflammation. The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes appetite, helps indigestion, promotes assimilation, fills out the hollows in cheeks and neck with good solid flesh and brings back the gladsome glow of girlhood.

THE RED PLANET MARS.

Mr. Percival Lowell on the Canals That Water Its Oases.

One great difficulty that has always stood in the way of the acceptance of the theory that the canals are really artificial in origin arises from their great dimensions. Nearly all of them are several hundred, and some of them thousands of miles in length, while they vary in width from thirty to fifty or sixty miles. This difficulty vanishes, however, if we accept Mr. Lowell's interpretation of the canals. According to him they are not really canals, but lines of irrigation. Canals no doubt exist there, but they are too small to be separately visible. So the round spots at their junctions, some of which previous observers had detected, are, in Mr. Lowell's opinion, not lakes of water, but irrigated oases, the broad red-ochre expanses in the midst of which they appear, and which the canals intersect in every direction, being dry land in the most emphatic sense—in other words, deserts.

This statement gives the clew to Mr. Lowell's theory of Mars. His observations, and those of his assistants, have convinced him that the only considerable body of water on Mars is the dark blue band surrounding the polar cap. That cap, he thinks, as others have done, represents the winter accumulation of snow and contains, locked up by frost, practically all the water on the planet. As the polar snow begins to melt with the approach of spring, a circular sea forms around its edge. This sea gradually drains off, and its waters are lost in the dusky areas toward the equator. These areas are not entirely desert, like the broad red-ochre region, but contain the germs and roots of vegetation, which quickens with the annual access of water from the melting polar snows, and so the dusky expanses visibly darken in hue. Then the canals begin to make their appearance, first in the neighborhood of the dark areas. They are due, Mr. Lowell thinks, to the leading off of the water through channels of irrigation traversing the deserts, and the consequent growth of vegetation upon long narrow belts. There is not enough water to irrigate the desert continents as a whole, and so the inhabitants do the best they can by freshening certain belts and spots once every Martian year. Soon after the polar snows have completely disappeared, and the polar sea has been entirely drained off, the areas of vegetation begin to fade, and the canals and oases vanish, to make their appearance again when the proper season returns.

Remembering the sequence of observed phenomena on Mars as described above, it will be seen that this theory accounts very well for what is seen. At any rate, it is the most complete theory that has yet been advanced.

In regard to the suppositious inhabitants themselves, dwelling upon a half-dried-up world, and compelled to husband its small remaining store of water with such infinite pains, Mr. Lowell has nothing to offer. He accepts the opinions, previously advanced by others, that the people of Mars may be of gigantic stature, on account of the small force of gravity there, and therefore capable of greater physical feats than we can perform, and that, their world being further along in its geographical history than ours is, they also may have attained a more advanced state of civilization and culture than yet exists among the people of the earth.—Harper's Weekly.

Manufacture of Condensed Milk.

Condensed milk, which is so much used for the food of infants, is prepared by slowly evaporating the water of milk by moderate heat. There are two varieties, the plain, which is condensed to about one-fourth of its bulk and superheated, and to which no sugar is added, and the stronger variety, which is more condensed and to which suger cane is added in excess, holding about 45 per cent. of sugar among its solid ingredients. This excess of sugar prevents the decomposition of the milk, which will keep fresh for many hours after the can has been opened.

Tired, Aching Feet.

Those who are troubled with tired, aching feet will find great relief by bathing them at night in hot water, then annointing them with vaseline, which should be rubbed in until they have become dry. In the morning rub them with a solution of alcohol and salt. This may seem a little trouble at first, but it really does not take much time, and the relief obtained more than pays for the effort demanded.—Mrs. Woods in Housekeeping.

PRICELESS RECORDS IN DANGER BUT ALL SAVED.

Hundreds of Gross of Dodd's Kidney Pills Burned—The Dodds Medicine Company in New Quarters—Orders from Ocean to Ocean—Energy and Enterprise Conquer.

The extensive establishment of the proprietors of Dodd's Kidney Pills, at Nos. 1 and 3 Jarvis street, with its contents, excepting the offices, was entirely destroyed by fire on the afternoon of the 15th Sept.

The fire broke out in an adjoining warehouse, but spread so rapidly that in less than ten minutes the employees of the Dodd's Medicine Company, from the labratory, the advertising and the shipping departments, were all in panic flight for their lives.

The perfect safety of all these persons once assured, and while more than two hundred and fifty gross of Dodd's Kidney Pills, together with labels, wrappers and tons of advertising were being consumed, interest and effort all centered in the rescue from the advertising rooms of a mass of seemingly old and worthless letters. These, as afterwards learned, proved to be the accumulations of years, consisting of thousands of testimonials from persons cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills, and dating from the inception of the business up to the day of the fire. These records of triumph, these proofs of the supreme merits of this great kidney treatment were the most precious of all the possessions of the firm, and were to be saved if possible, as they fortunately were, at the last possible moment.

On the invitation of the president of the company a reporter of The News visited the quarters, located at Nos. 6 and 8 Bay street, where new premises have been promptly opened. Here a rapid glance revealed many busy hands rushing the several details of completion of new goods to fill orders continuously arriving from all points in Canada, the United States and other parts of the world. Judging from the accumulated orders on file, of which your reporter got a glimpse, the output of Dodd's Kidney Pills is already almost beyond the conception, and one can easily understand that their merit alone can such an incredible demand.

Characteristic of the energy and enterprise of the Dodd's Medicine Company, it may be mentioned that, though absent in Buffalo during the fire, the manager was made aware of the probable extent and outcome of the disaster, and while the premises were still burning orders had been wired and goods from New York and other points were speeding towards Toronto for the reproduction of Dodd's Kidney Pills, so that no order should remain unfilled.—[From Toronto News.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB COLUMN.

No. LXXII.

Child Life in Peterborough.

In the early part of the summer the attention of the public was drawn to the number of children brought before the police magistrate for serious offences. The Editor of the F. C. C. was requested to ventilate the matter in the column, which he now takes the opportunity of doing. The subject will be continued for one or two weeks and correspondence is requested from those interested in it. All letters should be addressed to the "Editor of the Fortnightly Club Column, Box 194." They will then appear in both the evening papers.

ED. F. C. C.

It is hardly necessary to say that the well-being of this or any other nation is founded upon the care with which we bring up the rising generation. In "old times," as they are called, when the means of communication such as the postoffice and the telephone were not in general use and when the means of travel were not, as at present, at everybody's door, home life was at its best. Nowadays, however, home life is largely at an end. Instead of the homestead's being the centre of attraction it is chiefly the point from which operations are conducted in the street, the place for eating and sleeping but not for living. A wholesome diet is more or less a severe one. A wholesome training for a child should be, like the diet, based upon principles of restraint. Since the old regimen in a well-ordered household has gone so largely out of vogue we may look, as the diagnostician would say, for an outbreak somewhere. If you look in the police court you will find it. This summer thirty-nine lads ranging between five and sixteen years of age appeared before the magistrate for offences of house-breaking, larceny and highway robbery. A pretty bad outbreak you will say and the magistrate and Children's Aid Society will agree with you. Moreover it is an outbreak which, as the police say, is spreading

INTO AN EPIDEMIC.

Now let us speak of the requisite precautionary measures. The first imperative necessity is the re-establishment of domestic discipline. "Train up a child in the way he should go." It must follow and does, unfortunately always follow that if they are not trained up, children incline to evil ways. If the clergymen of this town want a topic for a series of sermons they can find none better than this. For of all the phases of our present day life the decay of home-training is the most apparent and the most serious. Some children will go astray. But that thirty-nine little criminals should throng the police court in one short summer is surely a matter of the gravest possible import. "In one short summer," you say? yes; and take note that the summer is the period when children are not at school and are under the sole authority of their parents. It is plain, then, that it is parental authority that is at fault. Why then, as you will ask in the next breath, are parents so lax? If you pursue the matter to its last analysis you will find that it is because there is a decay amongst parents of the old time admiration for intrinsic merit as against vulgar show. That dear little Willie is clever and can "show off," is enough to satisfy the vanity of the average parent nowadays. That he is merely a is nothing to to them. Profound reverence for true virtue no longer permeates the life of the people. "The love of money is the root of all evil." The writer is not seeking in this article to air theories or to indulge in a diatribe at the expense of parents. He was asked to put the actual condition of things in shape for public perusal, from what he knows and not from what he hears. That is why he is speaking so frankly. Keep on neglecting the substance in favour of the shadow, and next summer we may read of fifty little boys in the police court who are going to the devil, while their parents shine at church meetings or in the arena of what they they think is "society." What does Mr. Dumble say? He says it is really a terrible state of affairs. What does the Chief of Police say? He says that if any one wishes for a chance to reclaim the heathen here's one. Now then, let the careful observer saunter through the streets and talk to people and what does he say? He says that self-complacency is the popular characteristic. Thales of Miletus, one of the seven wise men of Greece, laid it down as absolutely true that—

THE PRECURSOR OF RUIN."

This deliverance applies to us now. We are so satisfied with our schools and our manners and with what we do NOT know that we neglect our first and plainest duty, the bringing up of our children. Of course it is no easy matter to bring up children except for old maids and bachelors, but the truth of this little joke is a poor excuse for the appearance of thirty-nine children, who were adjudged "guilty" in the police court. The magistrate did not sentence them, except that they should be flogged at home. What was the use? You can't put children in prison. We will suppose them flogged accordingly. Does any one think that one lesson at an odd hour constitutes the training of the young? The good counsel, the kindly word of advice, must continue from hour to hour and day to day. If the rod must fall then, let it fall, but the use of the rod is frequently the putting up of the bar after the colt has escaped. Those confronted with the actual state of the young in Peterborough from Magistrate to police, all agree that something must be done, and without delay, if you will save a largely increasing percentage or the rising generation from the fate of infamy and failure.

NEVER HEARD OF.

A Single Instance in Which Dodd's Kidney Pills Failed to Cure Kidney Disease.

Mount Forest (Special) Sept. 21.—The proprietor of the Queen's Hotel of this town declares that he has every reason to believe, that any claim made by the people who are advertising and selling Dodd's Kidney Pills is true. These people were the first to inform, and instruct him as to the cause of his long continued suffering from extreme nervousness. He says that "unable to obtain any relief from other sources, that it was on account of reading the particulars of other cures that his confidence was gained." Two boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills were all that were required to complete his cure.

BELIEVES STEADFASTLY

And Speaks Voluntarily.

Never having had a strong constitution, Mrs. Ann Glover, 23 Homewood Ave., Hamilton, was always more or less a sufferer from violent headaches and finally her system became so run down that she was unable to sleep at nights and the pains in her head caused such intense agony that she frequently had to rise and use local application in order to get any relief. She lost her appetite and her stomach was in a very disordered condition. Her health improved from the day she began to take Ryckman's Kootenay Cure. After taking a moderate amount, she regained her appetite, the pains left her and she was at last able to get the refreshing sleep so long denied her. Mrs. Glover gratefully recommends the medicine and believes steadfastly in its virtues.

LINING UP

AFTER THE FAIRS.

Our Prize Clothing.

Our Clothing has had the call at all the Fairs. It was nothing new to find the Directors decorating our display with the Red Prize Tickets. It would have been a surprise if we didn't capture First Prize—not because competition was weak, but because the Clothing could not be bettered in Canada. The reputation of the big store was at stake, and we're more than proud to have deserved the good opinion of the directors as well as the thousands of men folk at the Fairs.

Now we're lining up for a rattling big fall business. We've had a good start already, but the price cards are becoming a more interesting study every day, and the figures startling enough to bring us the trade of the masses.

FASHIONABLE DRESS-MAKING

Dress-Making was a woman's invention.

Never was the art of Garment-Making brought to such a point of fineness as that at which it has now arrived.

The house that would succeed must recognize this fact and work accordingly.

THE GOLDEN LION faced it when it inaugurated its Dress and Mantle-Making Department years ago.

Begun right as to designing, put together as it should be, trimmings, buttons and braids matched artistically, we can confidently commend this department to the patronage of the ladies.

Big sleeves are going out of fashion, but the ladies do not appear to mourn over it. Our lady patrons, however, have the advantage of ripe judgment and skilled help in faithfully carrying out to the minutest detail every suggestion of personal taste.

MISS NEILD who was installed as head of our Dress and Mantle-Making Department, thirteen years ago, still presides here, and the mutual confidence which has existed between her and our customers has always been of the most satisfactory character.

THE GOLDEN LION has always been a long way ahead in Dress Goods, Mantle Cloths and Trimmings. Fair's Dress Goods were the talk of the ladies for several years, and the supremacy secured then has been more than maintained in these latter years.

Remember there is only one Golden Lion in Peterborough and FAIR has made it famous. That's Fair's Way.

DUNLOP ROAD RACE

Many Spills Over the Course at London.

ROYAL CANADIANS WON THE CUP

Toronto Won Nearly All the Best Places—The Philadelphia Cricketers are Making a Better Stand Against the Antipodeans This Time.

London, Oct. 3.—The Royal Canadian Bicycle Club of Toronto take the Dunlop Trophy, winning the right in a splendid finish this afternoon. The names of the winning team are: Lou Bounsall, Chris Leaman, Percy Humphreys, A H Oake and H. Parkin, finishing, respectively, third, fourth, fifth, sixth and eighth positions. Total points scored, 379. The other teams finished as follows: Queen City Bicycle Club, Toronto, 344 points; Western Association B.C., Toronto, 325; Ramblers B.C., Toronto, 306; Tourists B.C., Toronto, 286; Meteor B.C., Ingersoll, 264; London B.C., London, 231; Toronto B.C., 210.

The Tourist team figured in a bad spill while on the Queen's Park track, which threw them out of the race. T W Jones, Lou Scholes, A E West, W M Wallace of the Tourists, N Cassidy of the Western Association and O Gibbons of the Meteor B.C., Ingersoll, all went down in a heap, and on disentangling it was found that four wheels were smashed and that Lou Scholes had sprained his wrist. With the exception of Scholes, the Tourist boys secured new wheels after a delay of several minutes, and, considering this mishap, they made a much better race than was expected. While passing through the main gateway in the lead for the home stretch, Lou Bounsall and A H Oake of the Royal Canadians and J Moore of the Ramblers were mixed up in another spill, in which Moore's wheel was smashed. This spill allowed Wm Greatrix of the Queen City B.C. to finish first. His time was 58.43 2-5, just 35 2-5 sec. behind the 20-mile road record.

FREIGHT IS MOVING

So the Officials of the Canadian Pacific Say.

BUT THE STRIKERS HAVE FRIENDS

And are Said to be Making the Lives of Some of the New Men a Burden—One Got a Ducking and Another a Coat of Tar and Flour.

Toronto, Oct. 5.

The C.P.R. is having a difficult time in filling the stations vacated by the striking operators between North Bay and Winnipeg. As fast as the non-union men arrive at their posts they are driven out by the inhabitants, who seem to be all in sympathy with the employes who have quit work.

Some of the tales of hardship told by the few returning men who have reached the city are almost blood-curdling. Operator Tyler of No. 2 College Place, who was sent to North Bay by Train Despatcher Price early in the week, got home last night, and his story is an entertaining one. From North Bay he was forwarded on 400 miles to take charge of the station at Cache Bay, but he soon found that he did not like the place at all, and his reminiscences of his brief visit are vivid.

He had occupied the post just half an hour when a mob of men paid him a formal call and proceeded to initiate him into the ways of the place. Tying a rope around his waist, they dragged him out of his office, and dropped him into the river near by. Then, pulling him out, for twelve long, cold hours shivering in his wet clothes, they kept him a prisoner on an island. When he finally escaped he could get nothing to eat in the place. All the inhabitants closed their doors in his face, and, nearly starving, he walked down the track to the next station. Here he found that the Cache Bay people had wired ahead of him, and when he applied at a hotel for food the proprietor charged him $3 for a meal. After other adventures he managed to make his way by train to the Queen City.

Another relief operator at a neighboring station was surrounded by the natives, covered with a mixture of tar and flour, and let go with the sign "Scab" inscribed in large letters upon his back. This unfortunate is said to be now walking home.

The railway is making every effort to protect the operators they are continually forwarding to this unsettled district, and on Saturday they despatched a force of twelve constables from Toronto to North Bay. The squad included C.P.R. Detectives Ross, two York county constables named Brown and ex-P.C.'s Paton and Watson. Police are also being forwarded from Montreal, and soon the whole north shore of Lake Superior will be patrolled by bluecoats.

Assistant Superintendent Williams last night made this statement in regard to the strike:

"We are on the high road to victory, and a greased highway at that. The despatchers and operators on the Moose Jaw division, the Winnipeg division and as far east as White River on the north shore of Lake Superior have all gone back to work. There is a complete circuit from Montreal to Fort William and the Quebec division is in good shape.

General Superintendent Leonard has gone down to Montreal to consult with the C.P.R. chiefs.

It is reported that W. H. Allison, the Toronto despatcher, who is chairman of the Grievance Committee, is at the point of death in Montreal.

LAST NIGHT AT MONTREAL.

Mr. Tait Claims that the Company is Master of the Situation.

Montreal, Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Mr. Pierson left this evening for Toronto, and although the remaining members of the committee claim that they still hold the fort, everything outward indicates that the end is near. Mr. Tait claims that the company is again master of the situation, and the outlook this evening would seem to confirm the assistant general manager's statement.

When asked regarding the offer of arbitration that had been made from North Bay, through General Superintendent Spencer, Mr. Tait furnished the following reply that had been sent to Mr. Spencer, in explanation of the company's position:

Montreal, Oct. 1.

C. W. Spencer, North Bay: Surely no engineer, conductor or trainman familiar with the rules of the company and the universal practice in dealing with strikes will attempt for one moment to justify the operators in declaring a strike simply because the management at Montreal insisted on the carrying out of the rule of the company that grievances shall first be submitted to the divisional officers and an endeavor be made to adjust them with those officers before appeal to the higher authorities, nor will any of our men surely uphold the operators in ignoring their divisional officers as they have done. We are now and have been at all times prepared to accord to the telegraphers exactly the same consideration that is accorded to the engineers, conductors and other employes. The action of the operators is without precedent, is unjustifiable, and is contrary to discipline and universal practice and is a source of serious loss and inconvenience to the company, and these men have no right to ask for any consideration while they remain in default. Those of them whose places have not already been filled, and who have not been guilty of criminal acts, will be permitted to resume work without conditions if they do so immediately, and our divisional officers will be prepared to hear and deal with their grievances in a fair and unprejudiced manner. I venture to say if the engineers, conductors or trainmen on any section of the system pursued the irregular, unprecedented and unjustifiable course adopted by the telegraphers, they would be promptly called to account by the members of their respective orders on the other sections of the line and elsewhere.

Thomas Tait,
Assistant General Manager.

FROM C.P.R. SOURCES

It Would Appear That the Strikers Have Been Beaten.

The following despatches on the strike situation have been sent by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's telegraphs for publication:

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 4.—The situation on the Pacific division has never been serious, as the train despatchers and operators who left their places have not tampered with the wires, nor endeavored to interfere with those who were sent out to take their places. All trains are to-day running on time and all vacant positions have been filled.

Moose Jaw, Oct. 4.—The despatchers and operators who went out on the Broadview section returned to work to-day at noon, availing themselves of the company's offer to take such men back who had not committed any criminal offence. All trains, both east and west of this point, are running on time.

From Winnipeg

Winnipeg, Oct. 4.—The strike on the Western division is about over. Passenger trains have been running on time and freight trains are now running as usual. A great deal of trouble has been caused by tampering with the wires, particularly between Winnipeg and Fort William, but to-night all the wires are working from Fort William to Vancouver. The strikers have been very much disheartened by the steady flow of despatchers and operators of a very high grade who have come in on this division from the Western States, the large majority of whom are old Canadians who jumped at the opportunity of returning to their native country. There has not been a single accident during the past week, the strikers and operators west of here having behaved in a very gentlemanly manner.

From North Bay

North Bay, Oct. 4.—There has been more discussion and excitement at this point and between here and Sudbury than on any other section of the line, and great efforts have been made by the strikers to prevent those who have been sent from the east, to replace them, from going to work. At a late hour to-night everything is quiet in this section, and the wires are working east and west of here. The strikers were willing yesterday to return to work on the assurance of General Superintendent Spencer that any grievances they might have would be looked into by the assistant superintendents, to whom they should be submitted, and that the company would refuse to take back such operators as had committed criminal offences. The committee of strikers in Montreal, however, refused to allow the despatchers and operators to return. There is a great deal of discontent existing here among the operators, who fear that in the collapse which they see is inevitable within the next twenty-four hours their positions will be jeopardized by the action of the committee in Montreal.

Cartier, Ont., Oct. 4.—Superintendent Spencer reached here this afternoon and reports that the wires are working through both sides and that the striking despatchers have returned to work at Chapleau

From Ottawa.

Ottawa, Oct. 4.—Everything is quiet here and trains are moving in both directions. The striking operators seem to have given up all hope of any assistance from the other departments of the road, all of whom condemn the committee in Montreal for having gone about their work in such a manner as made it impossible for their claims to be listened to. At the various meetings held by these different organizations there has been nothing more than resolutions of sympathy passed; in fact, the rules and regulations of all these orders would not permit of anything further being done, without consultation with the various local organizations throughout the country, and no concentrated action of this nature has been attempted.

Kamloops, B. C., Oct 4—Freight and passenger trains are moving east and west of this point in good shape and with very little delay

At Quebec.

Quebec, Oct. 4.—Trains are arriving and leaving here on time. The operators who went out on strike last Monday, most of whom lived with their families in the stations, returned to work Thursday night, when they were given to understand that if they did not do so they and their families would have to make room for their successors.

St John, N. B., Oct. 4.—Everything is moving in good shape along the Atlantic division. In fact, matters are running so smoothly that a new time table went into effect to-day. There has never been at this point any serious delay to either passenger or freight trains, and there has always been a large supply of operators from the Eastern States and Maritime Provinces.

At Headquarters.

Montreal, Oct. 4.—Reports received at the C. P. R. offices from all quarters show that the strike of the telegraphers is virtually over, and that a large number of strikers on most of the divisions have returned to work. The committee in Montreal seem to have lost control over the men at outside points, and the only people they are holding together are those in Montreal, who are under their immediate supervision. There is a general feeling of relief in business circles that the matter has ended so quickly and so quietly, and without any serious damage to the company's property in any part of the country.

Cartier, Ont., Oct. 4.—Electrician Camp of the C. P. R. found wires tampered with near this station, strikers adopting same methods here as at other points on the system both east and west, using the finest silk-covered wire, which is hardly visible, to tie wires together. The company has increased the reward to $2000 for the detection of the miscreants.

CALLED TO A CONFERENCE.

Winnipeg Engineers, Conductors and Firemen Summoned to Montreal.

Winnipeg, Oct. 3.—(Special.)—The telegraphers' strike is bringing about a very serious state of affairs in this country. The wheat elevators are filled, and if freights are not soon moving and the pressure relieved the situation will become alarming. Supt. White says public sympathy is with the company, which will not yield. The delegates from the Western Engineers, Trainmen and Conductors left for Montreal to-day, having been summoned to attend a conference.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1896.

A FAT MAIL CONTRACT.

On Saturday we referred to the manner in which the money of the country had been corruptly wasted in the renewal of a mail contract to a party favourite by the late Conservative Government, and pointing out that a similar system applied to other department necessitated the necessity of huge and burdensome expenditures. The matter referred to was not very bad so far as amount was concerned, but it was iniquitously bad so far as the principle goes.

A few days ago the matter of the contract for carrying the mails between Sidney and Port Hawkesbury, Nova Scotia, came up, and a friend of the late Government pathetically pleaded with the Postmaster-General to allow a certain Mr. Morrison who had this fat contract of $9,000 a year to enjoy the spoil a little longer. But Mr. Mulock was obdurate; he could not reconcile it with his duty to the people to continue a contract for $9000 for work that could be done for $3,600. For many years the contract had been held by Morrison or his son. The contract was first entered into for $5,700 a year, but under peculiar circumstances it was renewed in favour of the same contractor in 1890 at $9,000. There was no public competition for the performance of the service. The official papers in connection with the subject, which were submitted by Mr. Mulock, presented a most extraordinary state of affairs. They are so interesting to the people, who will see how the late government and Sir Adolphe Caron, Postmaster-General protected their interests, that they are worthy of careful reading :—

The correspondence opens with the following letter from Mr. Gillies to Sir Adolphe Caron :

"Please continue John Morrison's contract for carrying mails from Hawkesbury to Sydney for another year. This is essentially important to me. Write me an answer."

Sir Adolphe Caron to Mr. Gillies thus :—

"Regret exceedingly that I cannot comply with your request to continue Morrison's contract. Cost would be $6,000. Receipts from all offices served only $945."

A good running this for the Tay Canal.

On October 18, 1892, Mr. Gillies wired Col. White, Deputy P. M. G. :

"Please urge the P. M. G. to continue Morrison's contract on present basis for another year. Do this for me. It is absolutely necessary."

Later Mr. Gillies went to headquarters and telegraphed Sir John Thompson :

"Will you kindly see Sir Adolphe Caron immediately and get him to allow Morrison's contract for carrying the mails from Hawkesbury to Sydney to remain upon the present basis. It is absolutely important and I wish you to carry it out for me."

Next he went a step higher and brought to bear the influence of the church. Rev. Father McInnis wrote to say that the Morrisons had stood by the Government in the last two contests and "the friends" entertained the hope that the P. M. G. would see his way clear to a renewal of Morrison's contract for another year "upon the present basis."

Mr. Gillies wrote later urging the renewal of the contract and saying : "If this line be disturbed this year it will ruin me in Richmond County politically."

Again Mr. Gillies wrote to Sir Adolphe :

"Will Morrison's contract be continued for another year as at present? If not matters will be more than serious."

And again he wrote :

"It is extremely and essentially important that Morrison's contract should be renewed."

On October 22, 1892, Sir Adolphe telegraphed Mr. Gillies regretting that he could not renew Morrison's contract and adding :

"It would be impossible for me to justify such an expenditure."

To most men this answer would have been final, but Morrison knew his government and knew his man; besides his appetite for plunder fed his persistence. Some pressure not disclosed in the correspondence must have been bought, for a few days later Sir Adolphe yielded to the exigencies of the situation. On November 9, 1892, he authorized the expenditure of $9,000 that on October 22 he had declared it impossible to justify. He wired Mr. Gillies :

"Present arrangement to continue until December 31. New arrangement to be for one year from that date if Morrison accepts terms offered."

In 1893 the Government decided to call for tenders for this service. Mr. Gillies wrote :

"Please send forms of tender to the postmaster at Sydney and as there will be no infringement of the regulations, you will not send any to St. Peter's."

Sir Adolphe replied that the request that no notices be sent to St. Peter's could not be entertained. The tenders were invited in December, 1893, but the time between the reception of the tenders and the commencement of the service was so short as to permit of no real competition. On Feb. 2, 1894, Mr. Gillies wired to the department :

"Have been expecting letter from Postmaster General, but none arrived yet. Please wire me names and amounts of tenders Hawkesbury and Sydney route."

On the same day Sir Adolphe wired Mr. Gillies :

"Replying to your telegram of to-day asking to be informed as to the names and amounts of tenders, I regret exceedingly that it will be impossible for me to accede to your request in this matter, as the regulations of the department impose on me keeping inviolably secret all information regarding tenders until contracts are awarded. I will stretch a point and tell you confidentially that the lowest tender is $6,970, and the person making it is strongly recommended by Dr. Cameron and other influential gentlemen in the locality."

The tenders were: McInnes, $6,970; Morrison, $9,000. Subsequently McInnes asked to be allowed to withdraw, doubtless for a "consideration," and the modest Mr. Morrison got the contract for $9,000. On May 29, 1895, N. Paint, the former representative of Richmond, made a declaration setting forth how the price of Morrison's contract has been increased from year to year without competition until it reached $9,000. He alleges that in the beginning of 1894 the competition had been bought off. He expressed a willingness to perform the service for $4,950. Mr. Paint brought the matter to the attention of Sir Mackenzie Bowell, who asked Sir Adolphe Caron to investigate the matter. No investigation was made. On August 6th Mr. Paint wrote Mr. Mulock, stating that the work could be done for $3,600, if not less.

Can any person, after reading the above details of a cold-blooded plot to bleed the public treasury, for a moment be surprised that the post office service doesn't pay expenses, or that the national expenditure has mounted to enormous figures. But this gigantic leakage taking place in a thousand places cannot be detected and stopped at once and as far as it is discovered the remedy will be applied and a Liberal Government will as rapidly as possible redeem its promises of retrenchment and economy.

Sometimes it seems to weary woman that she must certainly give up. The simplest and easiest work becomes an almost insurmountable task. Nervousness and sleeplessness and pain harrass her and life seems hardly worth the living.

Dr. Pierce's Favourite Prescription was made for her. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was made for her. The former is for ills distinctly feminine, the other for her general system. Together they supply a scientific and successful course of treatment. The "Favourite Prescription" restores healthy regular action to the organs distinctly feminine. It forces out all impurities, strengthens the tissues, allays inflammation. The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes appetite, helps indigestion, promotes assimilation, fills out the hollows in cheeks and neck with good solid flesh and brings back the gladsome glow of girlhood.

OUR APPLES IN ENGLAND.

The Arrivals at Liverpool are Very Heavy and Prices Down, But Better in London.

London, Oct. 3.—Woodall & Co. of Liverpool report the arrival up to date of 200,000 barrels of apples, against 11,000 at this time last year, but being almost entirely early soft varieties they have completely congested the market.

The week's quotations for sound apples per barrel are: Culverts, 6s to 8s; Snows, 9s to 13s; Kings, 10s to 14s 6d; Blenheims, 8s to 11s 3d; Hollands, 8s to 9s 6d; Greenings, 8s to 10s 9d.

The condition of much of the apples is anything but satisfactory, and the position causes anxiety.

It is a serious question if, with similar quantities arriving, the winter fruit will much improve quotations.

White & Co. of London report their arrivals this week much heavier.

Prices here are two to three shillings per barrel better than at Liverpool, especially for good fruit. Greenings seem in good demand here, as the apples coming are chiefly Baldwins. White & Co. advise shippers to send via Montreal, Allan or Thompson Lines, till the port closes. They have a contract with these lines and if given notice 10 days beforehand that any person intends shipping so many barrels to White, London, they will give the space, especially if mentioned that they are to come off contract.

FAREWELL TO BRITAIN

The Russian Visitors to the Queen Take Their Departure From Balmoral Castle for France.

London, Oct. 4.—The Czar and Czarina left Balmoral Castle this morning for Portsmouth, there to embark for Cherbourg, France. They arrived at Portsmouth this evening at 5.30. Both the departure from Ballater and the arrival at Portsmouth were marked by great ceremonies. At Balmoral bonfires were lit and a torchlight procession escorted the visitors to Ballater, where they took train. On arrival at Portsmouth every attention was paid, many admirals and statesmen receiving Their Majesties. Two cars of British and Russian detectives were in the train, and the whole route was carefully guarded. After a short delay the party boarded the Imperial yacht Polar Star and, surrounded by a score of British and Russian warships, started across the Channel.

ONTARIO'S MINERAL WEALTH.

Probabilities of a Boom in North Hastings.

Ald. W. A. Hungerford, one of the best informed men in Ontario on the subject of mines in North Hastings, has returned from a trip through the northern part of the country, and emphatically corroborates the statements recently made in the Globe regarding the operation of the consolidated mine near Deloro. He says that eighty men are at work, and more will be put on before the end of the week. The English sydicate which is at present operating the mine, has between five and six millions of pounds invested, and has bonded between 14,000 and 16,000 acres of land in that vicinity. "We have already seen more and better paying ore than we've ever seen in South Africa, and we've seen the best in the Transvaal," remarked one of the engineers to Mr. Hungerford. Another company is securing lands near Bannockburn, and will commence operations in the spring. Mr. Cross, of Madoc, has discovered a very valuable deposit of ore within the limits of Madoc village.—Belleville Ontario.

FAST S. S. SERVICE.

Papers on the Subject Brought Before Parliament.

THE NEW GRAIN STANDARDS

Saturday's Proceedings in the House of Commons—A Little Discussion Indulged in Over Some of the Items—Business of the Session Wound Up.

Ottawa, Oct. 4.—Further papers in regard to the fast line project were presented to Parliament yesterday. They are in great measure an amplification of those presented to Parliament a few days ago, and are chiefly letters covering the telegrams which have already been presented to the House. Writing under date July 10 Sir Donald Smith says that he saw Mr. Chamberlain on the 1st inst., regarding the acceptance of the Allans' offer, and continued:

"Mr. Chamberlain took the position immediately that it would be impossible for Her Majesty's Government to come to any decision having regard to the result of the recent elections until they were made acquainted with the views of the incoming Government. His determination upon this point seemed to be strong and I at once deemed it my duty to communicate it to you."

Sir Donald saw Mr. Chamberlain on the 9th and of this interview he says:

"I read the telegrams which had been exchanged, to which he listened with much interest. He told me again, however, that it would be impossible for him to take any action in the direction desired (i.e., the acceptance of the Allan tender) until he had before him the tender sent him by Messrs. Allan and any other tenders and offers that have been submitted and any correspondence that had passed between the Government and any of the tenderers or others.

"He also disclaimed any undertaking on the part of Her Majesty's Government to contribute any specific sum towards the undertaking, and said all they had committed themselves to was a general offer of assistance on certain conditions, the assistance not to exceed in any case the annual sum of £75,000."

Sir Donald, in conclusion, says that Mr. Chamberlain's interest in the project is unabated, and he is sure he is animated by a desire to see a fast line between Canada and the United Kingdom.

BUSINESS WOUND UP.

The House of Commons Pretty Well Deserted on Saturday.

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—Only about 30 Ministerialists and 15 Oppositionists were in their places when the House opened this afternoon.

By unanimous consent the House met at 2 o'clock. The House at once proceeded to concur in the estimates on post-office appropriations. Mr. Mulock, replying to Mr. Foster, explained that the profits which had accrued to the stamp vendor at the Toronto post-office amounted to $1300 a year, being at the rate of 1 per cent. on sales of stamps, amounting to $13,000. Mr. Dixon was a member of a wholesale firm in Toronto and in good circumstances. Mr. William Hewitt, the new licensee, was a resident of Toronto, and was aged 70 years. He was not aware until he saw it in The Citizen that Mr. Hewitt had been private secretary to a governor-general. At one time he was a merchant, but had been unfortunate and had never recovered from his straightened circumstances. There had been some talk about Mr. S. H. Blake having written him (Mr. Mulock) protecting against thechange. All that Mr. Blake did was to write to him for information, and after this had reached him, he wrote expressing his entire approval in the Postmaster-General's course. He was sure Mr. Dixon would acquiesce in it. The item was concurred in.

On the penitentiary vote Sir C. H. Tupper objected to an item of $3000 for the penitentiary enquiry, unless the Goernment promsed to ask the inspector to report on the average cost of the maintenance of prisoners in the penitentiaries as compared with the Central Prison, Toronto. Te pointed out the unfairness of the comparison given by the Solicitor-General the other day. In the statement of penitentiary expenses salaries were included, while they were excluded from the Central Prison statement, thus eliminating the salaries in each case, the comparison would be, Central Prison $89 per head; St. Vincent de Paul, $115 per head, instead of $234, as mentioned by Mr. Fitzpatrick. Similarly the Manitoba penitentiary comparison, instead of $541, should be $197, included in which was $50 per head for heating.

The item was adopted on division.

On the item of $25,000 for the subsidy to Beaver Line for a winter steamship service from St. ohn, Mr. Fielding moved that the vote be reduced to $20,000.

Mr. Foster remarked that he hoped the service would not be impaired. The company had given 14 trips instead of 10, and as the steamers carried full cargoes it was important for trade.

Sir Richard Cartwright answered that they hoped to get a better service and that the company would make more money. There had been a large increase in freight rates. "I am happy to say," said Sir Richard, "that freight rates are 50 per cent. higher than last year."

"I fear my hon. friend is getting optimistic all at nooe," said the ex-Finance Minister.

The item was concurred in.

The item of $2000 for an extra County Court judge had been reserved for discussion and Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper to criticize the proposed vote. The contention of the Government had been that under the constitution Parliament had no recourse but to vote the money for a judgeship created by the provincial legislation.

Sir C. H. Tupper, with the correspondence in his possession, showed that Manitoba had not even passed an Act readjusting the judicial district in question; there was no local Act. All Parliament had was the statement of the Attorney-General of Manitoba that if this extra judge was appointed it was "the intention to readjust the judicial district in question." The local legislature had taken no action, as contemplated in the constitution. There was at any rate no provision for the appointment of a temporary judge in Manitoba. A temporary judge would therefore be a legal impossibility.

Mr. Davis contended that the power of appointment was vested by the B.N.A. Act, but Sir Charles held it was by statute of Canada that provision was made for the appointment of County Court judges.

The subject then dropped.

Sir Charles Tupper asked if Sir Richard Cartwright had been able to find a draft of the contract for the Fast Atlantic service submitted by the late Givernment to the Allans and practically assented to by the latter. The late Government had attached great importance to this question and had furthered negotiations as nearly as possible to a conclusion with a view to have a year in the establishment of the line.

Sir Richard Cartwright replied that he had made careful enquiries in his department, and his deputy had never seen the contract.

Sir C. H. Tupper suggested that the Department of Justice should be resorted to as that department had revised the contract.

Sir Richard Cartwright said that the papers just brought down were all that the Privy Council office ould furnish. These papers showed that the Allans made certain very proper reservations as to speed ,etc., during fogs, and showed that the company did not withdraw the stipulation that they should have four months within which to go on with the contract or throw it up. As this was a question of the greatest importance and magnitude the new Administration felt it should proceed with caution before coming to a conclusion, but the Government would lose no time in obtaining such informaton as would enable them to include an arrangement as soon as possible.

Sir Adolphe Caron said he was glad to hear the Gvernment proposed to take up this question seriously immediately after the session. Quebec was greatly interested in the consummation of this project and the people of that city had been greatly disappointed at the recent utterances of Mr. Dobell. He (Sir Adolphe) hoped to see the fast line project realized soon.

Sir C. H. Tupper said the papers brought down to-day showed there was no doubt about the contribution of the Imperial Government. It was understood that the contribution would be one-third or £75,000 pearly, but if the service could be secured for less than £225,000 per annum then the Imperial contribution would be proportionately smaller. He mentioned also that the Allans tender was made a definite one by the withdrawal of the reservation of four months in which to float their company. There was no question about their's being the lowest tender.

Mr. Tarte twitted the Opposition with having talked about the fast line for years aid accomplished nothing. This Government would be a Government of action.

Mr. Foster—"Business is business." (Laughter).

This item, the last in the estimates was concurred in and the work of Parliament was concluded.

The supply bill was introduced and put through the different stages.

The House adjourned at 6 p.m., to meet again on Monday at 11 a.m.

The Upper House met on Saturday afternoon in order to keep step with the Commons in Parliamentary work. When the House reassembled Sir Oliver Mowat announced that there was no prospect of the Supply Bill being sent up from the House of Commons until Monday, and suggested an adjournment until that day at 2 o'clock. About this time it became apparent to Sir Oliver's mind that there might be no quorum of the Senate on Monday if the Senators continued to leave for home as they had been doing, and at that time there were only eighteen Senators in the House. He asked those present to give assurance that they would remain in the city. Several of the eighteen said they could not remain. This made things a little awkward and Sir Oliver asked those who could remain to stand up and only thirteen rose. Finally two more reluctantly rose. This did not seem to satisfy the leader of the House, who remarked that this was sailing too close to the wind, as a quorum of the Senate was fifteen Senators, including the Speaker. He made a strong appeal to all the Senators present not to leave the city. It was most important that there should be no doubt about the Senate having a quorum on Monday. If there was not the supply bill could not be passed.

The Senate then adjourned until Monday afternoon.

TRIED TO BEAT THE A. O. U. W.

Cornelius McMillen of Traverse City, Mich., Didn't Die as Per Program.

Traverse City, Mich., Oct. 2.—In April, 1893, Cornelius McMillen of Manistee suddenly left his wife and disappeared. In July a mangled body was found on the M. and N.E. Railroad, which was identified by Sheriff Mungasser and several others as that of McMillen. Mrs. McMillen sued to collect $2000 insurance from the Ancient Order of United Workmen, the society refusing to pay without further investigation. Yesterday the attorney for the society produced McMillen, who had been in Canada all the time. His wife at once swore out a warrant for his arrest for non-support. McMillen penitently agreed to provide for her, and was released on suspended sentence.

In the police court this morning Wm. York was acquitted on a charge of stealing a backboard from George Stevens. York owned the backboard in the first place and sold it to Stevens for $2. He then borrowed it for a week and sold it. As there appeared to be some doubt about the intention of York to commit a theft, he was discharged. After making the sale he refunded to Stevens the $2 received for the rig. Mr. Geo. Hatton appeared for the Crown and Mr. F. D. Kerr, of Kerr, Gladman & Kerr, for the defence.

Guy Bros'. Minstrels.

What the Belleville paper of Saturday says:—"Guy Bros'. Minstrels played at Power's opera house last night to a good audience. The performance was exceptionally good throughout, the first part being particularly pleasing, while the various specialties presented during the rest of the evening were of an unusually high order. During the entire performance there was nothing to which objection could be taken." This company appears at the opera house here on Friday night, Oct. 9th.

DEATH OF MR. THOS. KENDRY.

He Form ly Resided in Peterborough —His Demise the Result of an Accident.

The sad news of the death of Mr. Thos. Kendry was received in town on Saturday night.

During the afternoon Mr. James Kendry, M.P., received a telephone message stating that his father had been seriously injured in Chatham by falling from a chair on which he was standing whilst removing something from a nail in the wall. It seems that in the fall Mr. Kendry fell across the footboard of a bed and several of his ribs were broken, the point of one being driven into the lung. During the evening word came of his demise.

His wife has been visiting in town with her daughter, Mrs. Burnett, for some time. Both left this morning for Chatham, accompanied by Messrs. William and Emmet Kendry, two sons of the deceased. Mr. James Kendry, followed them this afternoon.

The deceased was well known in town having lived here until about twenty years ago. He has recently been a resident of Cornwall, but was in Chatham in connection with a patent fixture, which he was engaged in perfecting. This is the second patent of this nature which Mr. Kendry had invented and he had travelled through the United States and been in England several times in connection with the establishment of it. At the time of his death he was living at the Idlewyld Hotel in Chatham.

Children's Aid Society.

The generous gift of $10 to the Children's Aid by Mrs. (Dr.) Geo. Burnham, as mentioned in Saturday's issue, is an example that might well be followed. Others who would not miss the amount of a liberal gift would greatly assist a most deserving charity, if they went and did likewise.

Shot a Hawk.

On Saturday at noon a large crowd of citizens gathered at the corner of Simcoe and Aylmer streets attracted by the novel sight of a sparrow hawk sitting on the top of a telephone pole, enjoying a meal on a small bird. Mr. R. H. Jackson procured his gun and brought down the hawk at the first shot. He will have the bird mounted.

A Partridge Shot on Brock Street.

Mr. Harry Rush shot a partridge in his garden, on Brock street on Saturday. The bird had been frequenting the place for two or three days and it presented a temptation that Mr. Rush could not resist, and on Sunday morning it ornamented a plate of toast on the breakfast table. Partridge are said to be plentiful this year, but it was not before thought that they would be obliging enough to come to town to be shot.

Work Well Done.

The following from the Chatham Planet refers to the work of decoration done by Messrs. J. J. Turner & Son at Chatham on the occasion of the visit of the Governor-General: "The decorations which have been so much admired both along the city streets and on the fair grounds, were put up by Messrs. J. J. Turner & Sons, Peterborough, Ont. The artistic manner in which they carried out their work have brought them well-merited praise from all sources. This well-known firm have a provincial reputation for the manufacture of sails, tents, awnings, flags and horse and waggon covers. The capable manner in which they did their work here indicates their thorough reliability in the lines mentioned, and no doubt their presence here will result in the extension of their trade with this section."

STRIKE OF THE OPERATORS.

MATTERS APPROACHING THE CRISIS.

The General Situation—The Position of the Respective Parties—The Green Hands Called In—Popular Feeling Makes Itself Felt Against "Scabs" —Derangement of Traffic—A Few Hours May Make Great Changes in the Situation.

It may not be technically correct to designate the strike of the operators as a tie-up of the line, but it is claimed by the strikers and their friends that the service is tied up from Halifax to Vancouver and that nine hundred men will remain out till their grievances are redressed. On the other hand the C. P. R. company claims that the service is improving and that while they will be put to temporary inconvenience this will be speedily overcome.

But there seems to be a little over-confidence in this respect. At this writing the situation seems to be extremely uncertain, and unless a speedy understanding is reached between the company and the men there is danger of the trouble being very seriously intensified.

Of course it is difficult for outsiders to get an accurate estimate of the situation. Both company and men are naturally reticient and will talk little to the point on the subject with outsiders, both recognizing the importance of not showing their hands.

THE LOCAL SITUATION.

There is considerable excitement over the strike situation, which was evident yesterday. It was a general theme of conversation. Of course the popular sympathy is with the men—corporations, whether railway or otherwise, seldom have friends or against their employers.

It was rumoured on Saturday night that popular feeling towards the "scabs" that had taken the place of the striking local operators would assume something of the form it did at Havelock, Kaladar and Sharbot Lake. At Havelock the new men were boycotted outright. They could get neither food, drink nor lodging, and if they had not been recalled they would have to have taken to the woods, as did the operator at Kalader, where, it is said, the farmers of the vicinity made it so hot for him that he took to the woods and hasn't been seen since. At Sharbot Lake a "scab" was soaked in the lake as a mild hint that his presence was not agreeable to the community.

But the necessity of taking any such action against the Peterborough substitutes was obviated by the operators, who had been sent out to take the place of the strikers, being recalled. On Saturday evening at about eight o'clock a special passed west with a car load of the new men who, it was asserted, were to be taken to points west to fill vacancies.

The recalling of these operators was by some regarded as an olive branch held out by the company—a concession that might influence the strikers to return. If this were true such a disposition manifested by the company and fairly met by the men would result in a speedy settlement. But it seems too good to be true.

The strikers, or at least those speaking for them, say that they will they complain of are redressed. The local men are of the same mind and lead one to believe that they are out to stay. The apparent collapse of the strike in the beginning and the return of some men to their places is claimed to have been done by false reports of strikers returning to work. But it is claimed now that the strike is better organized and that there is no danger of a relapse. The attitude of the strikers in Peterborough is commendable; they are only seeking justice by legitimate means. They have no sympathy whatever, but the most positive disapproval, of the methods employed in tampering with the company's wires. On Saturday it was found that between here and Indian River fine wires, too fine to be easily seen, had been woven between the wires, to interrupt the circuit. Near Indian River similar wires had been placed, and again at Havelock. The local strikers denounce this sort of thing, and express the opinion that it is a much mistaken kindness on the part of sympathisers, if it is done by such persons. If the cause of the strikers can't win on its merits they do not care to have it win at all.

DERANGEMENT OF FREIGHT TRAFFIC.

The company claims that the traffic on the Ontario & Quebec branch is all right. This may be true in a very general way, but it is hardly literally correct, if the movement of trains is any evidence. On Sunday, 20th of September, up to 4 o'clock p.m., there passed through town fourteen freight trains; up to the same hour yesterday only four trains had passed through. And before the strike about ten cars of ties were handled daily, but that is now done away with.

There was a slight falling off in the offerings of local freight, though on Saturdays there was accepted for shipment east for export four cars of cheese, a car of bacon and a car of live stock. These went forward all right this afternoon, and Mr. Bamford, station agent, who with the baggagemaster is for the present looking after the station, says that so far as Peterborough is concerned, the company is in a position to handle all current freght that offers.

The passenger traffic seems to be moving fairly well, trains being run pretty generally on time, but the developments of a few hours, however, will decide whether this is to continue as it is. In a very short time the crisis will come and we shall know whether the striking operators will get better pay, reasonable hours and the recognition that other railway organizations enjoy at the hands of the Canadian Pacific Company or another abortive strike for, what the strikers consider justice and fairplay, shall be added to the sadly long list of fruitless strikes.

The interruption of traffic may lead to a spread of the complication and involve the other roads. A representative of THE EXAMINER was informed that on Saturday, in Belleville, there was a rumour that the C.P.R. would try to by moving it over the G. T. R., and that the trainmen of Belleville, in that event, threaten to go out. A meeting of the trainmen was held at Lindsay yesterday, but whether it was the regular fortnightly meeting or one called to consider the C. P. R. strike is not known.

Whatever the possibility of the trouble extending to another line, those who profess to known think there is not much danger. There seems to be danger of the C. P. R. trainmen being drawn into more active sympathy with striking operators. The drivers have the greatest aversion to take orders from green operators who take the place of the regular men that have gone out. They feel that they risk their lives in running on such orders. They are willing to take the ordinary risk in working on orders sent out by competent men, but they feel strongly inclined to draw the line at taking orders from "scabs" and risking their lives in carrying them out.

Considerable sub-surface excitement existed in town over the rumour that a meeting of the disaffected operators and their sympathisers was to be held in Peterborough yesterday and every possible railway avenue of access to town from an express train to a freight train was anxiously watched. But, unless the strikers used flying machines and cloaks of darkness they did not come to town and consequently held no meeting.

It is to be hoped that efforts that are being made for an amicable arrangement of the difficulty will be arrived at.

There is little doubt in the minds of any person that has taken the pains to elicit expressions of public sentiment that the popular feeling is with the striking operators. But this is largely on general principles and not in many cases from any knowledge of the merits of the points at issue.

The developments of the next few hours will be anxiously awaited.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB.

The Fortnightly Club will open the season to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock in the Judge's Chambers. A paper on New Zealand will be read by Mr. Louis Rye. Several important notices of motion will be dealt with, including one to give women the privileges of membership. Programmes will be issued on payment of the membership fee.

"For several months, I was troubled with a persistent humour on my head which gave me considerable annoyance, until it occured to me to try Ayer's Hair Vigor. Before using one bottle, the humour was healed."—T. T. Adams, General Merchant, Tubeville, Va.

A Good Joke.

The other evening a young lady from a well-known boarding house, asked one of the gentlemen boarders to call for her and bring her home from the south end of the town, where she was called on business. On their arrival at the boarding house they were met by a shower of rice and a medley of music proceeding from fish horns, bells and tin pans. The neighbours, thinking that a bona fide wedding had taken place, joined in the fun, and the young lady and gentleman have been busy making explanations ever since.

Looks Like Business.

It looks like business around Robert Fair's to-day. The representative of a big carpet manufacturer in Kidderminster, England, has arrived and is taking away with him the biggest order ever given from the Golden Lion for Brussels, Axminsters, Velvets, Royal Wiltons Rugs and Squares. Mr. Fair feels justified, in view of his rapidly increasing business, to give large orders these days. The sample cases of the traveller, seventeen in all, are attracting considerable attention, as they are piled up in front of the Golden Lion.

To-Morrow Night's Tornado.

The claim is made for Lincoln J. Carter's new scenic play, "The Tornado," which appears at the Opera House to-morrow night, that its realisms are of such an imposing nature that even the pictorial matter used in advertising the play does not do the piece justice, that the scenes depicted by the posters are actually so much more impressive when seen, as Mr. Carter presents them in his play, that one must acknowledge that for once the printer's ink has not overdone things. This of course is a novelty in theatrical advertising. But we promised that there should be nothing but novelties in "The Tornado."

A TIMELY SERMON ON CURRENT TOPICS.

SOME FOREIGN FEATURES AT AGRICULTURAL FAIRS.

Rev. J. J. Rae Advocates a Conciliatory Policy to Raise the Standard of Entertainments—The Labour Question and the Operators Strike on the C. P. R.

Rev. J. J. Rae preached an interesting sermon last evening on current events of the day.

He took his text from Matthew xviii., 15—17 :—

"Moreover, if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone; if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word be established. And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church; but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican."

Christ, he explained, had been dealing with the faults of the age and in these words summarised the manner in which trespassers should be met.

If a man, a church or a society had trouble with a fellowman, there were three courses open. Firstly and foremost came the admonition to meet him in a friendly spirit and talk the matter over alone in an endeavour to conciliate and

MAKE A SETTLEMENT.

This is the result that Christ seeks for. If conciliation will not do, then by the text it would appear as though arbitration should be resorted to. Two or three others should be taken into the conference, each party chosing representatives. These should ajudicate upon the matter and an amicable settlement being reached means a brother gained back.

If this fails then appeal should be made, the text says, to the church—to the legal authority, or as it is now known—the law, the constituted court for maintaining order.

Christ lays down these three methods to govern all manner of controversy, so far as it relates to man's association with his fellow-man.

The speaker thought that a solution of the Armenian difficulty could be found in his text. The two first methods failing, appeal, he urged, should be made to the law—this only as a last resort, as the whole spirit of the Lord Jesus Christ is opposed to war. He was the Prince of Peace.

The diplomacy of the present day, Mr. Rae pointed out, was simply the conciliatory policy advocated in the TEXT OF THE EVENING.

Through it riot was avoided. Without it vexed questions between nations would be settled by the thunder of cannon and the terrors of war.

A movement, he believed, was on foot to establish a great international court of arbitration. This would do away with war and would befollowing along the lines laid down by the Saviour in his admonition.

The text could be applied to the labour question.

Canada was now in turmoil over a strike, and the speaker urged that the first verse of the text be applied as a remedy. He spoke of the manner in which labour was first driven to organize itself to oppose capital in Manchester, where the large manufacturer, by cutting the wages of his employees down by ten cents a day, effected a saving of over $30,000 a year. It was unrighteous, but the individual at first submitted rather than become himself unrighteous by allowing his family to want, which would be the case if he threw up his situation. When the employees organized, however, they were able to demand and get their rights.

LABOUR UNIONS,

in his opinion, were a necessity, but when a strike is organised it is a violation of the Scripture as it virtually means war—a throwing down of the gage of battle. It closes the doors to a peaceable settlement.

In the last seven and a half years there have been 6,000 labour strikes and in them capital has suffered to the extent, it is estimated, of $350,000,000 and the employees to the extent of $28,000,000. This means a terrible loss to both sides and should not be. The loss to both sides is almost equal, but the end does not justify the means, even if labour has a little the best of it, as it sets man at war with his fellowman and afterwards each is contriving as to how he can best his brother. Until the spirit of Christ enters more fully into such matters the questions cannot be settled. A question of personal rights cannot be referred to arbitration. The gage of battle must be thrown down when a man oversteps these rights. If an employer says to his workman that he a labour organization, then that workman is justified in standing by his rights and dying rather than have them infringed upon. On the other hand no labour organization has the prerogative of stepping in and saying to a man that he must employ none but union men. The employer in this case is justified in losing everything in preserving his rights.

The labour question was dismissed by the statement that the day was surely coming when no great railway would be forced to suspend operations without some organization or power stepping forward and saying that the originators of the trouble would have to be answerable for the consequences.

We are coming, continued the speaker, to a time when all are asking for entertainment and there is felt to be a need of having the nature of our amusements guaranteed. The Christian world feels that it should have some voice as to what is to be provided for the growing generation. The theatre arose out of the necessities of the human race. Originally it was all right, and many plays are presented today which are instructive in the highest sense of the word, and many benefits flow from them. Again there are others which are immoral only. No one could say that they constantly attended the theatre and did not see anything immoral, and if this was the case the plays were not what they were advertised to be, as in this respect they were licentious and disgraceful in the extreme, and the world has come to a time when it had the right to demand a change.

There was a time when the agricultural fair was an agricultural fair and nothing else. Those who attended expected nothing else, and were perfectly satisfied. Innovations were introduced in the large centres, and the smaller places followed their example, until it had come to such a pass that the standard of the fairs had been lowered to a desperate degree. Features which were degrading in their tendency and entirely foreign to anything which could be associated with an agricultural fair and had no connection with it. The time had come when the public had a right to know what was going to greet the ears and eyes when the entire family was to be taken. Still, when faults were committed there were those who were eager to throw condemnation where condemnation did not belong, and consequently men who had the purest ends in view came in for unjust censure.

If the standard of such entertainments was to be raised it could not be done by throwing down the gage of battle, but by conciliation—by quiet reasoning among a few. The men who are managing fairs and theatres are pure in soul, but are catering to the demand of a degraded public. The great moral public should stand by these men who are trying to give a pure entertainment, without making them supply other features which wield an especially evil influence on the minds of the young. To raise the standard of the entertainment, then, "go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone; if he shall hear thee thou hast gained a brother."

If your child is puny, fretful, troubled with glandular swellings, inflamed eyes, or sores on the head, face or body, a course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is needed to expel the scrofulous humours from the blood. The sooner you begin to give this medicine the better.

His presence in the final games for the lacrosse championship will be sadly missed, and the hockey rink will not seem the same without him this winter, if he does not return.

Mrs. George T. Blackstock, who has for years been a resident of Toronto, and was the wife of the well known lawyer there, has been granted a divorce at Newport, R.I., on the allegation of non-support. Mrs. Blackstock, it was stated some time ago, was stage struck, and left her husband last spring, stating that she desired to devote her life to opera. She has claims as a composer. Many of the young bloods of the Queen City will miss Mrs. Blackstock's drawing rooms and parties this winter. It is said that she has considerable wealth of her own. Mr. G. INFLUENCE OF THE PRESS.

ESPECIALLY THOSE OF THE MODERN NEWSPAPER.

Rev. W. R. Young's Sermon on the Subject—The Secular Press Approved and the Religious Press Warmly Commended.

Last night in the George street Methodist church there was a large congregation to listen to the sermon of the pastor on the announced subject, "The Press and the Influence it Wields."

The preacher cited as bearing upon this subject the following passages of Holy Scripture :

Esther, viii chap, v. 10—And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by post on horseback and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries.

Ephesians, chap. iv, v. 29.—Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

The preacher began by pointing out that two things had chiefly contributed to the progress of the world—the discoveries of the hidden forces of nature and the invention of some means by which these forces could be utilized for the benefit of mankind. After referring to the discoveries of Galileo, Newton, Watt, Stevenson, etc., and to the fact that though the truth underlying these discoveries was scouted by their contemporaries, still the truth remained and triumphed. Among the inventions that had advanced civilization, none had been more important and fruitful than the art of printing. Lord Rosebery was quoted as saying that outside of Christianity, no power was so great in advancing the greatness of England as that of the printing press. The power of the press in promoting the interests of civilization and religion was warmly eulogized. Through its agency the British and Foreign Bible Society had circulated over of the Scriptures in a score of languages. The incalculable influence for good of several notable books was referred to, and the far-reaching influence of a single religious tract graphically depicted. But the burden of his discourse, the preacher said, would relate to the daily, weekly and monthly periodical press of the present. No one would deny that this press had a great power for either good or evil—for elevating or debasing its clientale. The formation of character was in the hands of the individual, but the daily press was a great factor in making or marring a man's reputation. A political candidate emerging from the comparative obscurity of private life into the prominence of a candidature felt the force of this truth, for the party newspaper could, according to political bias, transform him into a very good or a very bad man. A brief sketch of the rise and progress of the secular daily and weekly newspapers was given, and the three-fold character the newspaper should assume was described to be independence, truthfulness, and to exclude from its columns everything that would not enoble mankind. Dealing with the difficulties that stood in the way of maintaining such a standard, it was pointed out that the commercial element must necessarily enter largely into the publishing of a newspaper—the making of bread and butter was the primary object. What was the natural result? As the business men catered to the wants of his customers in the matter of the kind of goods he kept for sale, for the purpose of making money, for the same object the newspaper publisher catered to the wants and wishes of his readers and published the matter they demanded. The readers of the Toronto papers, during the Hyam's murder trial, wanted circumstantial and elaborate reports, and the public got what they demanded. During Moody's visit to Toronto, lengthy reports of his sermons and of the services were in demand, and the demand was supplied. As a rule, the preacher said,

WHAT THE PEOPLE WANTED THE PRESS GAVE.

Referring to the average careful editing of newspapers, the preacher asserted that if it was desired to find out what evil was excluded from their columns we should go to the waste paper basket. The average newspaper excluded nearly all that was of evil tendency. We might get a higher standard of the secular press if it were possible to make the publisher independent of monetary considerations. Reference was made to the gratifying tendency of the modern daily press to deal in a more independent and fair manner with the reports of the utterances of public men. In relation to the demand made for the exclusion of the reports of objectionable trials, the speaker asserted that he never saw a fairer press in this respect than that of Peterborough in regard to its police court reports. It contented itself generally with the mere mention of the name of an offender and the sentence imposed. But in most cases, it was asked, if even this was necessary, and a pathetic picture was drawn of the pleadings and tears of a respected mother of a bad boy who had come before the police court, to have her son's name kept out of the report, so that the shame of the family should not be scattered broadcast—appeals which the papers generally heeded. A word was put in also for the homeless and friendless youth who had no mother to plead for him; was it too much to ask that his name, too, be kept out of print? The preacher could not agree with Sir William Meredith that the publication of the full details of a murder trial, by way of deterrent, would be in the interests of justice. We learned by experience but very seldom by example. The obligation of the world to the press were very great. Young men by it had a chance to rise. When the water was at its height in the Otonabee river a vast proportion of its power was rushing by unused. And a stream of elevating literature was flowing through the land, and young men were earnestly enjoined to use it. There were young men earning $5.00 per week and paying $3.00 for board, who were paying for bicycles at the rate of one dollar per week. They had and so improve their knowledge that they could rise above $5.00 per week. Young men were urged to make their present situations, or whatever their calling, by the study of good literature—to be stepping stones to higher positions. A few words were directed in closing to the power of the religious periodical press. Every denomination of any note had its religious paper, and parents were urged to have, in the interests of their family, such in their homes. They were made so cheap—almost to the point of being published without profit—that every home could have its denominational religious paper. The speaker closed his address by enjoining young men, with all their reading, not to neglect the reading of the best of all books—the Bible.

DR. RYERSON,

EYE, EAR AND THROAT,
60 College Street, Toronto
May be consulted at Oriental Hotel Peterborough, Saturday, Oct. 3.

Before the finished fruit come bud and blossom. Bud grows into blossom and blossom into fruit. And so girlhood merges into womanhood and the woman into motherhood.

The two most critical times in a woman's life are the times which make the girl a woman, and the woman a mother. At these times, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is of incalculable value. It turns danger into safety and pain into ease. It is a medicine which has but one object. It is good for but one thing. It strengthens and invigorates the organs distinctly feminine, it promotes regularity of the functions, allays irritation and inflammation, checks unnatural, exhausting drains, and puts the whole delicate organism into perfect condition. Almost all of the ills of womankind are traceable to some form of what is known as "female complaint." And this generally begins either at the time of puberty or childbirth, or at the "turn of life."

There are not three cases in a hundred of woman's peculiar diseases that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will not cure. Thousands of grateful women have been rendered healthy and happy by its use, and the experience and testimony of many of them has been included in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser.

When Dr. Pierce published the first edition of his work, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, he announced that after 680,000 copies had been sold at the regular price, $1.50 per copy, the profit on which would repay him for the great amount of labor and money expended in producing it, he would give away the next half million free. He is now distributing absolutely free, 500,000 of this most complete, interesting and valuable common sense medical work ever published—the recipient only being required to mail to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, at Buffalo, N.Y., 21 one-cent stamps to pay cost of customs and mailing only, and the book will be sent post-paid. It is a veritable medical library, complete in one volume. It contains over 1000 pages and more than 300 illustrations. The Free Edition is precisely the same as that sold at $1.50 except only that the books are bound in strong manilla paper covers instead of cloth. Send now before all are given away. They are going off rapidly, therefore, do not delay sending immediately if you want one.

DESOLATION AND DEATH.

These are the Words That Describe the Condition of Cedar Keys, Wiped Out by the Hurricane.

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 2.—Cedar Keys is a place of desolation and death. Monday it was a thriving town of 1500 inhabitants. To-day many of the people are corpses, scores of others are injured, and there are but few houses left standing. Twenty corpses have been recovered. It is known that many others have been killed. Of those recovered but few have been identified, so mutilated were they by falling timbers.

The storm struck the place at 3.30 o'clock on Tuesday morning and continued for several hours. At 4 a.m. it blew a perfect tornado and suddenly changed to southeast, bringing in a deluge of water, the tide rising two feet higher than in the memorable gale of 1854.

At 7 o'clock an immense tidal wave came in from the south, carrying destruction with it. Boats, wharves and small houses were hurled from the shore, and, breaking into fragments, covered the streets with wreckage and rendered them impassable, while the torrents of water rushing through every open space would take the strongest man off his feet. It was this tidal wave that caused the principal loss of life, many houses being swept from their foundations and the inmates drowned.

Of the twenty bodies recovered twelve are white and eight colored. Of the whites six belong to the Whitson family, a mother, four children and a young woman visitor. The other white victims are men, and have not yet been identified. Of the eight colored, only one, Peter Woodson, has been identified.

Most of the victims were buried deep in mud by the tidal wave, and many of the bodies will probably never be recovered.

Deplorable as is the loss of life in Cedar Keys proper, it is as nothing in comparison with the number of spongers and fishers who are drowned. The Mary Eliza, a fishing schooner, reached Cedar Keys yesterday and reported that at dark Monday night nearly 100 vessels were anchored on the Sponge bar just below Cedar Keys, and that nearly every one of them was sunk by the hurricane.

As these vessels carried from four to ten men, the loss of life is horrible to contemplate. It is possible that many of the vessels were blown into the Gulf and rode out the hurricane, but the Mary Eliza's captain thinks by far the greater number are beneath the water with their crews.

The men who went down the coast a few miles returned to Cedar Keys late yesterday afternoon and reported finding the bodies of eight men, which had been washed ashore. These men were the crew of sponging vessels, and the crews of most of the other vessels undoubtedly met a similar fate. Four men reached Cedar Keys in a dingy. They were part of the crew of the schoner Rosalie, and report the vessel sunk and eight of their companions drowned. The schooner Gertrude is dismasted and abandoned 15 miles south of Cedar Keys. The Mallory is fast in the Suwanee River swamp. Steamers Belle of Suwanee and S. D. Owens were both wrecked in the Suwanee River. The Owens is fast in the river's swamps, while the Belle steamed yesterday afternoon into Cedar Keys with both smokestacks and all her upper works gone.

PRETTY BALLET GIRL

Danced Her Way Into the Heart of a Count.

A SCION OF AUSTRIAN NOBILITY

Lured From Parental Authority by Nina Conti, With Whom He Eloped to New York—His Father Has Died and Now He is Being Eagerly Sought After.

New York, Oct. 2.—Ever since the death of Count Oswald Kielmansegg, Privy Counsellor, and Field Marshal, Lieutenant Grand Marshal of the Court of the Duke of Cumberland, at his villa at Gummden, Austria, on Saturday, private enquiries have been made at the office of the Austrian Consul-General in this city about his son, Count Karl Edward Thedel Oswald Joseph Kielmansegg, who came to this country last January, accompanied by his young wife, who was Nina Conti, the dancer.

The young man—he is only 26 years old—is now said to be somewhere in this city, while his pretty little wife is said to be with a company traveling in Canada. Its present address is unknown at the office of the Austrian Consul-General. Un l about a month ago the Count lived with his wife in a neatly-furnished flat at 168th-street and Amsterdam-avenue. Two weeks ago the young Count received a letter from his father. It was the first message the Field Marshal of Austria had sent to his son since his marriage. It is said that the proud old Austrian Count urged his son to return home and re-enter the service of his Emperor. The young Count's leave of absence from the army expires next May and he told friends in this city that he would not break his leave.

The elopement of the young Count with Nina Conti caused no end of trouble at the Court of Austria. The Court circles always admitted that the prima ballerina of the Imperial Opera was a most distinguished person. But when a man like Count Karl von Kielmansegg, Lieutenant of the 7th Imperial Regiment of Dragoons, known as the Leibgarde, or body guard, whose father was one of the chief commanders of the army corps, whose uncle is Count von Kielmansegg, one of the chief Ministers of the Empire and Governor of Upper Austria—when a nobleman whose family dates back to the year 1300, wants to marry, actually marry, Nina Conti, principal dancer of the Opera, it made a great scandal in Court circles. There is no more exclusive society in the world than that of the Austrian Court.

Count Karl is very tall. His chest is thrust out like a pouter pigeon's, his back curves in and he has a little waist. He has a sweeping military mustache and side-whiskers of a beautiful blonde hue. His hair is curly.

Count Karl first met the dancer at Prague. The Emperor went thither on a visit, so of course the Count and the Imperial Opera went too. Nina Conti was at her best, and she danced straight into the heart of Count Karl.

They were introduced and the lieutenant of Dragoons promptly became the ballet dancer's slave. It was not long before all Vienna was talking about Count Karl's infatuation for Nina Conti. His father heard about it and summoned his son. The old general laughed when the young man said he wanted to marry the dancer. Such a thing was so ridiculous that he could hardly compose himself sufficiently to give the young man a lecture. But his wrath broke over Count Karl. He shouted that no son of his should disgrace the house of Kielmansegg, which is 500 years old and equal to the house of Hapsburg. He said many things totally unfit for publication, even in German. In the end Count Karl was sent to a private institution. His friends explained that he was suffering from nervous prostration. He remained in the place several weeks. When he was released he eloped with Nina Conti, and they came straight to this country, where they are supposed to be to-day.

The young man's friends wonder now whether, when he returns to Austria to take charge of his estates, he will be accompanied by his pretty wife.

CARPENTER SENT UP.

The Man From Tuscarora Charged With Murdering His Wife Committed for Trial at Brantford.

Brantford, Oct. 2.—To-day the case of Robert Carpenter of Tuscarora, whom the coroner's jury found guilty of murdering his wife, had a preliminary trial. The most important evidence was that of Dr. R. McDonald, who testified that he was Mrs. Carpenter's physician for years. He believed the bruises were inflicted at the hands of some party; did not think the bruises could be caused by a fall; there was nothing to show that deceased had died in a fit; she was a weak, scrofulous woman, and very little might produce a shock she could not bear.

H. J. Scott, Registrar of Hagersville, and W. Johnston were the next witnesses, who repeated the same evidence given at the coroner's inquest.

Carpenter was sent up for trial at the next Assizes.

AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled.

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent la grippe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known."—Mrs. MAY JOHNSON, 368 Rider Avenue, New York City.

AN INCUBATOR BABY.

MIDGET GRANDDAUGHTER OF PHILIP ARMOUR OF CHICAGO.

What Money and Science Are Doing to Keep Life in Her—An Interesting Mechanical Human "Brooder"—The Food Supply of the Machine Baby.

A midget baby, the only granddaughter of Philip Armour, the Chicago pork packer, is living in a little world of its own, quite cut off from the rest of humanity. The tiny girl was born before she was quite sturdy enough to breathe the air that mortals breathe, and she was at once put into a "brooder," or incubator, as it is commonly called. If the doctors succeed in making her live old Phil will give the midget $1,000,000 when they are able to take her out of the machine.

The sky of Miss Armour's world is only twelve inches above her head and from one horizon to the other the space is only two feet, and yet the young lady does not find her sphere of action limited, for the only movement she makes is to wiggle her pink toes and open and shut her microscopic fists.

When a chicken first comes out of the shell it hides under the wing of the brooding hen, cozily nestled against the mother down, breathing an atmosphere tempered by passage through the close-set barbules of the plumes. In the mechanical brooder in which the Armour baby may have to spend several months, the air is sifted through layers of cotton wool and thus cleansed is supplied with an added proportion of oxygen from a tank attached to the apparatus before being warmed and fanned into the tiny cell.

The temperature inside the brooder is kept at 95 degrees Fahrenheit so that no part of the child's strength need be wasted in the generation of animal heat. Warmth, darkness and silence are the three chief characteristics of a child's environment before it is born, and the use of the brooder makes it easy to exclude both the light and the noise, which disturb the incomplete human being.

Another requirement is that the delicate morsel of humanity should be touched and handled as little as possible. If it were possible to keep it floating in a bath all the time so that there would never be unequal pressure on its body, this would be done, but it is not practicable to do more than provide the softest of beds. As it is necessary to have a minute knowledge of its changes in weight from hour to hour, the mattress on the brooder is supported by a scale which can at any instant be observed by the nurse without disturbing the baby.

A special form of stethoscope, fitted with an India rubber cap and made of such small calibre that it can be easily introduced between the ribs of the smallest child, is fitted into the roof of the brooder and the attendant physician is thus enabled to detect the earliest symptoms of derangement in the chest.

Miss Armour's wardrobe at present consists of nothing but absorbent cotton, in which she is carefully wrapped, and this is changed so often that she does not miss the bath which she is not yet strong enough to take.

Her nutrition, too, is a complicated task. The old system of "gavage," which was to stuff food down the throat of a child too weak to eat, just as meal is stuffed down the throats of chickens which are being fattened for the market, proved unsatisfactory, for the baby made an involuntary effort to struggle against this process of stuffing, and every effort involves fatigue where fatigue is to be most rigorously avoided.

A little glass cylinder was then arranged so that it would hold half a dozen spoonfuls of milk, and at the ends of the cylinder two rubber bulbs were placed, one of which was perforated.

From this tiny exit the milk is slowly forced down the child's throat, a drop at a time. A spoonful of milk is given every hour throughout the twenty-four hours of each of the first few days of life, and the weight of the little girl, which was four pounds, four ounces when she was born, has not yet decreased at all. This, in itself, is considered a great success, and it will not be until the fourteenth or fifteenth day of her life that any increase will be expected.

When she is a month old she will, if all goes well, weigh about eight ounces more. At five weeks of age her weight ought to be five pounds, at seven weeks six pounds, and at ten weeks she will probably weigh seven pounds, and be removed from the brooder. Throughout this time she will have four or five drops of brandy half a dozen times on any day when she seems to be losing strength.

The milk upon which she is fed is in itself an extraordinary product of the chemist's skill. When a child is especially delicate the quality of the milk upon which it is fed has to be changed every day, and sometimes even every hour. The proportion of fat, of sugar, of proteids, not only varies greatly in the case of milk from different cows, but varies also in the milk of the same cow. One day a cow will feed at a part of the pasture in which the grass is of such a quality as to put more or less fat into her milk than would be produced by the grass only a few yards away. In the same way human milk varies from hour to hour, according to the food taken by the mother, the condition of her general health and the amount and nature of the exercise she takes. It cannot, of course, be expected that these variations in the constituents of natural milk should coincide with the variations for the best possible nourishment of a feeble child.

The artificially modified milk is prepared by a sequence of chemical processes, the first of which is sterilization. When this has been accomplished, the milk is cooled and its respective proportions of fat, sugar and proteids ascertained. These proportions vary so greatly that in an assortment of a hundred tubes of natural milk there will be found samples in which the percentage of fat is as low as 0.03 or as high as 4.5. The percentage of sugar will be seen also to range from 0.27 to 20, while there may be from 0.22 to 4.0 of proteids. These various sorts of natural milk can easily be so arranged and altered that the attending physician may write a prescription for any quality of milk he wants.

At first sight it seems hard to believe that a child whose health is in so unstable an equilibrium that a brooder is advisable, should be as well nourished by another food as it would be if it received the nutriment provided for it by nature.

The Armour baby was on the first day fed with a modified milk, of which the proportion of fat was 1 per cent., sugar 3 per cent. and proteids 1-2 of 1 per cent., and to which 5 per cent. of lime water was added. The proportion of sugar has been increased from day to day, and the milk enriched by a somewhat slighter increase of the proportions of both fat and proteids.

Each indication given by the condition of the delicate stomach is immediately followed by the change in the composition of its food which seems to be called for. As a rule the clearest indication is afforded by the readings of the scale, which show the minute alterations in the little girl's weight from each morning until each afternoon.

DIAGRAM OF THE INCUBATOR.

L. shows the open lid of box which the fresh air enters at A, passing through loose cotton, C, and turning downward to the clockwork fan, F, passes through valve, S, and receives additional oxygen from the pipe, O, is heated as it passes both above and below the cylinder of hot water and is passed in over the child's head.

The temperature of the "brooder" will be decreased from day to day. It has already been brought down to 88 degrees, and although during the three weeks it may probably be necessary to raise it again to 87 or 88, it is hoped that at the sixth week, when a little light will be for the first time admitted, the temperature can be brought down to 78. Seventy-five ought to be reached about the seventh week, and at the tenth week the "brooder" will be heated to a temperature of only 70 degrees, no more than that of the well-warmed room of the nursery to which Miss Armour will emerge from the little world of her own, in which she is at present experimenting and trying to make up her mind whether the larger world looks like an agreeable sort of a place.

At the New York Nursery and Children's Hospital, Lexington-avenue and Fifty-first-street, "incubators" are in daily use, and although the babies who inhabit them from time to time are not millionaire babies, Dr. Evans and the nurses take as much care of them as if they were.—New York Journal.

An Old Family Society.

The Buchanan society, as the name denotes, is composed of individuals of the name and clan of Buchanan, and is the oldest named society in Scotland. It was instituted in Glasgow so far back as 1725. At a friendly meeting of some of the name of Buchanan held there on March 5 of that year, the following proposal was made:

"That the name of Buchanan, being now the most numerous name in the place, and many poor boys of that name, who are found to be of good genius, being lost, for want of good education, a fund might be begun and carried on by the name, the interest of which in time might enable some of them to be useful in church and state."

This society has since gone on with almost uninterrupted success. It has attained a position of high importance and is of great practical use.—Notes and Queries.

Have Since Improved Rapidly, and Am Now Completely Cured—So says Mr. David Reid, of Chesley, Ont.

What ills come to humanity from a disordered liver! Henry Ward Beecher has said that it was impossible for a man to hold correct spiritual views if his liver was out of order. The liver is so important a part of the mechanism of man that when it ceases to work with ease the whole man is unable to do his work aright. Can we not appeal to thousands, nay, tens of thousands, for a verification of this fact? Certainly it is, that Mr. David Reid, of Chesley, Ont., felt that the enjoyment of life had been taken from him, through the unhealthy condition of his liver. For ten years he says he was troubled with liver complaint and dyspepsia. Employing his own language: "At times my liver was so tender I could not bear it pressed or touched from the outside. Had tried a great many remedies without any benefit. Was compelled to drop my work, and being worse than usual, I decided as a final resort to try South American Nervine, which had been recommended to me by friends who had been cured by it. I got a bottle from A. S. Goodeve, local druggist, and commenced taking according to directions. Before I had taken half a bottle I was able to go to work again, and I have improved steadily since. I can conscientiously recommend South American Nervine to any suffering from dyspepsia or liver complaint." This is Mr. Reid's story as he tells it in his own words. Were it thought necessary it could be corroborated by a host of witnesses. Mr. Reid has lived a long time in Chesley, and his case was known to be a very bad one. But that makes no difference to Nervine. This great discovery rises equal to the most trying occasions. Let it be indigestion, the most chronic liver trouble, as with Mr. Reid, nervous prostration, that makes life miserable with so many, sick headaches, that sap all the effort out of man or woman, Nervine measures to the necessities of the case. It is a great medicine and thousands to-day in Canada are happier and healthier men and women, because of its discovery. There is no great secret about it, and yet there is an important secret. It operates on the nerve centers of the system from which emanate all life and healthfulness, or if disordered, sickness, even death. Nervine strikes promptly at the nerve centers, hence, as with Mr. Reid, where ten years' use of other medicines had done no good, less than a bottle of Nervine brought about encouraging results, and a few bottles cured.

THE MILLBROOK FAIR.

UNION EXHIBITION OF EAST DURHAM AND CAVAN.

This Year's Fair Was so Successful That a Three Days' Show Will Probably be Held Hereafter—Results of the Races.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The annual exhibition of the East Durham and Cavan Agricultural Societies was held in Millbrook on Thursday and Friday of last week and as to attendance, number of entries and magnificence of exhibits it proved to be a record breaker. This is fast becoming one of the most popular fall shows in this district and the success which crowned the efforts of the directors this year was more than the most sanguine looked for. Success in the past encouraged the directors two years ago to add an additional five acres to their grounds and make a good one-third mile track. This year a large addition was built to the agricultural hall (and even this appeared none too commodious for the many inside exhibits) and now it is said the society will branch out into a three days' show. The rain which had been falling the first few days of the week fortunately cleared away and the exhibition was favoured with as beautiful weather as could be desired. The first day was of course taken up with placing the exhibits, etc. The second day, however, was the day that drew the crowd. From early morning the people of Cavan, Manvers, Hope and Monaghan came streaming in and according to gate returns there was four thousand people on the grounds.

The exhibits in almost every class were up to the mark and in many cases gave the judges no small task in reaching a decision. The speeding in the ring resulted as follows:

THREE MINUTE TROT.

Duke, P J Clunan, Peterborough.....1 1 1
Hal P in or, R Croft, Cobourg.....2 2 2
Gold Dust, R Gilman, Millbrook.....3 3 3

TWO-THIRTY TROT.

Daisy, R Stewart, Fraserville.....1 1 1
Bain, J Nattress, Millbrook.....2 2 3
Geo Jackson, L G Bennett, Port Hope.....3 3 2

RUNNING RACE.

Silver Star, L G Blewitt, Port Hope.....1 1
Jessie R, R T Rowe, Orono.....2 2
Nellie Gray, West Gray, Millbrook.....3 3

The usual number of special exhibits were on the ground, including Gough Bros., Grafton & Co. and Oak Hall of Peterborough. The latter sent up several balloons during the afternoon.

The Citizens' Band was in attendance and added greatly to the enjoyment.

In the evening a grand concert was given, at which Mr. Jas. Fax and Mrs. Harvard of Toronto were the principal attractions. The proceeds of the concert, which were in aid of the society were about $100.

LACROSSE.

THE EXAMINER boys won a great lacrosse victory on Saturday afternoon, when they trimmed the united staffs of the Review and Times to the tune of four goals to one.

The match seemed to be amusing to the spectators, as they laughed from the start until time was called, but to the contestants it was a very different matter and after the game an examination proved that few indeed of the players escaped without being more or less bruised.

THE EXAMINER boys had it all their own way from start to finish and the play was on their opponents' goal nearly all the time. The players flocked around the flags and the rest of the field was bare. The massing of so many men at one end of the field made scoring difficult. Costello and Sheridan played a neat combination for THE EXAMINER and were well fed by Begley from centre field. Anderson also did well on THE EXAMINER'S home, and Glover, of course, was "all the way" on defence.

The teams lined up as follows:

Examiner.		Review and Times.
Terril	goal	Barry
Glover	point	McCabe
Benton	cover point	Jamieson
Dredge	1st defence	Mein
Stott	2nd defence	Cairns
Martin	3rd defence	Buchanan
Begley	centre	Whitcroft
Paxman	3rd home	Campbell
Lillico	2nd home	LaBelle
Anderson	1st home	Canning
Sheridan	outside home	McWilliams
Costello	inside home	Lewis
Jamieson	field captain	Hickey
Taylor	umpire	Perry

Referee—E Rutherford.

For the Times and Review Jamieson played well on defence, and got lots of grand stand applause.

Stott and LaBelle made a great pair to check one another.

Mein promises to play as fast as his brother.

McCabe tried to stop a ball with his head when Terril was shooting on goal, but as such tactics are not allowable the goal was given the EXAMINER.

If Dobbin had been able to get over and participate it is hardly probable that the EXAMINER boys would have won as easily.

Benton and Canning had a great struggle for the ball whenever it came near them.

Paxman was a beautiful ornament. He was gotten up "quite regardless."

Dredge held the wily McWilliams down well.

The boys had great trouble in keeping from falling over their sticks when they dug them too deep in the ground in trying to pick up the ball.

THE CLOTHIERS' CHALLENGE.

A prominent clothing clerk of the town, who possesses about as much knowledge of lacrosse as Li Hung Chang does of golf, presented the manager of the EXAMINER champions with a challenge this morning from the clothiers of the town to play a game on Thursday. The champions have to day received a large number of invitations from different parts of the province including one from the directors of a township fair to play for a dozen pumpkins, all of which we have been forced to decline. We would earnestly advise the clothiers to play our opponents of Saturday and secure a record before running up against a team like the EXAMINER twelve, which understands the game in all its details. If they are successful with the victims of Saturday's game, their challenge will be considered. Next season the champions will make a tour of the province like other professional teams. The manager wishes further to thank those prominent citizens who are endeavouring to arrange a banquet for the twelve champions. It is really more than the boys could stand. But if they wish to display their generosity, kindly turn up during intermission at Saturday's game when the down town contemporary team will be annihilated.

Georgetown, Oct. 2.—The first game of the semi-final series between Stouffville and Georgetown was played here to-day and resulted in favour of the home team by nine goals to nothing. At no time during the game did the visitors appear to have a chance to score, and the Etnas appeared to be able to do it every time the spectators asked them. The Summary:

First game, Sutton, 11 minutes; second, Sutton, 9 min.; third, McKenzie, 8 min.; fourth, Sutton, 5 min.; fifth, Sutton, 3 min.; sixth, McKenzie, 14 min.; seventh, Bradley, 7½ min.; eighth, Sutton, 5 min.; ninth, Wheeler, 4 min.

THE WHEEL.

An exchange gives the following pointers on the care of the chain:

"A few condemn oil, and another few may condemn graphite, but the understood thing is that both go on the chain. The easy rider, grooming for the start, drizzles a stream from the oil can along his chain, spinning the wheel the while, then holds his graphite stick on the inner surface and rubs off a thick layer. This is the lazy way—whether it is the easy way depends on one's understanding of and care about consequences. The first result is to catch dust and cover sprocket and chain with a smeary mixture. On the contrary, the first rule I lay down is that the chain should always be dry—that is, that there should be no moisture on it, either of water or oil.

"The pin friction should be treated with oil, largely because graphite cannot well be worked in; the block friction should have graphite. When dirty enough — that is, occasionally depending on amount of use and exposure to mud—the chain should be removed and put to bath in that great solvent and cleaner, kerosene; between those times, wipe it with kerosene. The surfaces all being clean, including teeth and the spaces between the blocks, begin at the fastening screw and give each pin a drop of oil, going around in order; spin wheel a few minutes, then wipe off carefully all visible oil, thus leaving a dry chain, since oil is wanted in the chain, not on it. Then take a knife blade and lay a little graphite on the back face of each tooth in the small sprocket and on forward face of each tooth in the large one; spin the wheel again and wipe off any excess, observing that only a thin coating, not a dab or a chunk, is wanted on each tooth. The oil is now inside, where it belongs, and the graphite will distribute itself. The wearing surfaces are now lubricated, no matter how 'dry' the chain may look; and the dust which falls on it will not mix with the graphite."

A ROAD RACE.

The Wheelmen to Have a Long Distance Contest.

Arrangements are being perfected for the holding of a road race for local and outside wheelmen and by the enthusiasm already evinced it is evident that the affair will be a big success.

The committee in charge is composed of George Horkins, Will Lytle, E. Wasson, Bert Giroux and Alf. Tearill and through the help of the town merchants who are interested in wheeling it is thought that a first-class prize list can be offered for the inspection of competitors.

It is hoped that wheelmen from Norwood, Port Hope, Cobourg, Lakefield, Campbellford, Hastings and Millbrook will enter for the event. An entrance fee of twenty-five cents will be charged, and the handicappers will make an effort to adjust matters so that every rider will have a fair chance of winning something. The course will probably be to Lakefield and back, and the finish, it is thought, will take place on the Nicholls Park track. The date for the big race has not as yet been fixed, though it will be brought on before the 15th of October.

A meeting of the committee will be held to night, at seven o'clock, in THE EXAMINER office, when officers of the course will be appointed and other preliminaries considered.

DOCTORS DISAGREE

A Former Peterborough Physician Brings a Brother Chip to Book.

The following from the report of legal proceedings at Osgoode Hall refers to an action brought by Dr. Wilkinson, formerly of Peterborough to recover damages for false representations in respect of a practice purchased by him:—

Wilkinson v. Shepherd.—Neville for plaintiff, appealed from order of a Divisional Court (Meredith, C. J., Rose, J., MacMahon, J.) directing a new trial as to one branch of the case. Action by one physician against another for deceit and false representation upon the sale of a medical practice at Mono Mills by defendant to plaintiff, who gave up his practice at Peterborough, removed to Mono Mills, and took over defendant's practice, but did not find it as lucrative as he expected. The false representations alleged were as to the value of the practice. The trial Judge, Robertson, J., awarded plaintiff $1,500 damages. The Divisional Court upon motion of defendant, ordered a new trial as to the branch of the case relating to the books kept by defendant showing his earnings in previous years. Appellant contended that the judgment of the trial Judge should not be disturbed. Elgin Myers, Q.C., for defendant, contra. Reserved.

A very pleasing event took place at the residence of Mr. Hart Williams, Omemee, on Wednesday, Sept. 30th. It was the marriage of his youngest daughter, Miss Isabella, to A. L. Williamson, of the same place. The ceremony was performed at 7 p.m., by the Rev. John U. Tanner, B.A., in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride, in an elegant gown of golden brown silk, trimmed with lace, and wearing cream roses in her hair, looked her own bright self. The bridesmaid, Miss Rose Williamson, in a cream cashmere, trimmed with cream lace, added to the attractiveness of the occasion. The groom was assisted by the bride's brother, J. J. Williams. After the ceremony the bridal party partook of a rich wedding repast. The bride received many useful and valuable presents, showing the high esteem in which she is held by a large circle of friends.

LINING UP

AFTER THE FAIRS.

Our Prize Clothing.

Our Clothing has had the call at all the Fairs. It was nothing new to find the Directors decorating our display with the Red Prize Tickets. Now we're lining up for a rattling big fall business. We've had a good start already, but the price cards are becoming a more interesting study every day, and the figures startling enough to bring us the trade of the masses.

DRESS-MAKING

Dress-Making was a woman's invention.

Never was the art of Garment-Making brought to such a point of fineness as that at which it has now arrived.

The house that would succeed must recognize this fact and work accordingly.

THE GOLDEN LION faced it when it inaugurated its Dress and Mantle-Making Department years ago.

Begun right as to designing, put together as it should be, trimmings, cuttons and braids matched artistically, we can confidently commend this department to the patronage of the ladies.

Big sleeves are going out of fashion, but the ladies do not appear to mourn over it. Our lady patrons, however, have the advantage of ripe judgment and skilled help in faithfully carrying out to the minutest detail every suggestion of personal taste.

MISS NEILD who was installed as head of our Dress and Mantle-Making Department, thirteen years ago, still presides here, and the mutual confidence which has existed between her and our customers has always been of the most satisfactory character.

THE GOLDEN LION has always been a long way ahead in Dress Goods, Mantle Cloths and Trimmings. Fair's Dress Goods were the talk of the ladies for several years, and the supremacy secured then has been more than maintained in these latter years.

Remember there is only one Golden Lion in Peterborough and FAIR has made it famous. That's Fair's Way.

BOTH CLAIM VICTORY

And It's Hard to Say Which Side is on Top.

THE C.P.R. COMPANY SATISFIED

That They Have the Best of the Men in the Fight, But the Operators Talk Confidently—Freight Moving at Winnipeg—Conference in Montreal To-Day.

It was rumored last night that the C. P. R. strike was over, an agreement having been come to at Montreal between the railway and the men to submit the difficulty to arbitration. The story, however, was not confirmed.

Supt. Leonard in the evening telephoned from Montreal to Asst. Supt. Williams at Toronto that the outlook was brighter than ever as far as the road was concerned, and that the trouble was practically over.

Only an hour later a striker stated that the prospects for the men were never better.

Thus it is seen that the two parties to the difficulty look at the situation from very different standpoints. Both the corporation and their employes seem assured of victory.

The men who are out are evidently depending on some card they have yet to play. In reply to a question yesterday as to whether they thought the conductors, engineers, firemen and train men would go on strike, if called upon, a striker observed:

"We know that if necessity arises we have them. Is that positive enough?"

The O. & Q. division is in good working order, but the blockade continues between North Bay and Winnipeg. Twenty "scabs" who were sent west from North Bay have all returned, having been driven from their posts by the inhabitants. The force of constables who were sent north from Montreal and Toronto are evidently not doing effective work. A fresh batch of police and operators was despatched to North Bay yesterday.

Some trouble has also arisen between here and Smith's Falls, for Detective Wasson went east by last night's C. P. R. express on behalf of the railway authorities.

Supt. W. Whyte wired from Winnipeg yesterday:

"Understand report being circulated that serious collision occurred between Winnipeg and Fort William; this is absolutely without foundation. There has been no accident of any kind on the Western division since strike began."

THE SITUATION AT MONTREAL.

Canadian Pacific Said to be Well Satisfied With it Last Night.

Montreal, Oct. 5.—(Special.)—There can be no doubt that the operators are in desperate straits, and if they do not get help within the next 24 hours it will be all up with them. The Canadian Pacific people are so well satisfied with the situation that Mr. Tait will leave to-morrow night for New York to attend the American Railway Association meeting. In the strikers' camp they declare the situation is still unchanged, yet they complain that they have not had a fair show from the public. Mr. Pierson has left the city and Mr. Powell cannot be seen, although it is believed he is in the city.

THEY MUST HAVE HELP

From the Other Members of the Service if the Operators Win.

Winnipeg, Oct. 5.—(Special.)—The leaders of the telegraphers' strike at this point profess to be quite as confident of winning as ever. As a matter of fact, however, the impartial observer cannot help seeing that the strikers are gradually losing ground, and even those who favor the cause of the telegraphers predict that they will lose the battle unless the other trainmen by a sympathetic strike come to their assistance. This is, no doubt, what the strike leaders are counting on. The Canadian Pacific Railway Company is now not only moving passenger trains, but is able to ease the pressure off a little by moving occasional freight trains. Telegraphic communication has been restored with several more points, which means that operators must be at work. The restoration of communication is aiding the grain men to straighten their counties grain trade, and, while things generally are still in a muddle, the situation is not so serious. Everything depends on the conference at Montreal to-morrow. If the trainmen go out the chances are all in favor of the strikers winning, but if the company can induce the men on the other departments of the service to remain at their posts the telegraphers will be likely to lose the day. Such a forecast may not be correct, but it is according to the best judgment of impartial observation of the situation.

DROVE OUT THE "SCABS."

People in the Vicinity of North Bay are With the Strikers.

Ottawa, Oct. 5.—(Special.)—In a letter received from a gentleman at North Bay this morning he states that there do not appear to be any signs of an agreement being reached between the operators at that place and the C. P. R. officials. He states that on Saturday morning 20 "scabs" arrived at North Bay and were sent to different stations along the route. The "scabs" returned to North Bay the same evening, having been driven from their posts. The Winnipeg train was on time this afternoon.

A MASS MEETING

In the Interests of the Strikers Held at Winnipeg Last Night.

Winnipeg, Oct. 5.—(Special.)—A mass meeting in the interests of the striking telegraphers was held here to-night. Mr. Dolphin, Grand Chief of the Order of Railway Telegraphers, made an address, urging the strikers to stand firm, and appealing for public sympathy, while city clergymen spoke counselling moderation.

BUCKING THE VANDERBILTS.

The Grand Trunk is Reaching Out—Will Run Trains From Chicago to New York.

Buffalo, Oct. 5.—A traffic alliance between the Grand Trunk and the Lehigh Valley Railroads has been concluded, which will enable the Grand Trunk to run through trains from Chicago to New York. Next spring, it is said, the Lehigh Valley will run its Black Diamond special through to Chicago over the Grand Trunk. If this is done the Vanderbilt lines will be compelled to run faster trains in

A SWELL WEDDING.

Dr. Morton Grinnell of New York, a Nephew of Levi P. Morton, Married to a San Francisco Belle.

San Francisco, Oct. 5.—Miss Jennie Stanford Catherwood of San Francisco, and Dr. Morton Grinnell of New York, were married this morning at the Presidio. The bride is a granddaughter of the late Judge Hastings of California, and a daughter of Mrs. Clara L. Catherwood, who herself was married here a year ago to Major John A. Darling, of the Fifth United States Artillery. Dr. Grinnell, who is a nephew of Gov. Levi P. Morton, is equally well-known in New York professionally and socially. The high position of the families which are thus united and the beauty and culture of the bride, who has been a belle in San Francisco, New York and Europe, have made this wedding one of unusual interest. All of the appointments at the Presidio were exquisite in their quiet elegance, and every essential and incidental detail of decoration and personal adornment that taste and wealth could furnish was utilized in giving eclat to the occasion.

AUSTRALIANS BEATEN.

Philadelphia Cricketers Won the Last Match by an Innings and 60 Runs.

Philadelphia, Oct. 5.—The cricketers of Philadelphia won a great and merited victory over the Australians by defeating them this afternoon by an innings and 60 runs in the concluding day's play of the third and last match of the series.

In their first innings the Australians made 121 runs. The Phillies then went in and scored 282 runs and the Australians were retired in their second innings for a total of but 101. The result of the last match reflects credit upon the pluck and skill of the home players, as in the first two matches they seemed badly outclassed by the Antipodeans.

The first two matches went to the credit of the visitors by a margin of 123 runs in the first game in two innings, and by an innings and 71 runs in the second. By those two defeats the Phillies learned a good lesson and by hard practice completely reversed their form in the match just closed. On the other hand the visitors played away below the form they showed in the first two matches and evidently they were not very hungry after the game. Thus the exhibition of batting given by the visitors this morning was not above the form any respectable second eleven would show. After the retirement of Giffen, it was simply a procession of batsmen to and from the wicket. The bowling of King and the two Clarks and the batting of Wood, Noble and H. I. Brown were very good.

The weather was showery and cold, and but few spectators were present. The Australians leave here to-night for Chicago.

PARLIAMENT CLOSED

The Last Day of the Session Was Pretty Lively.

MR. FOSTER WAS VERY INQUISITIVE

Had a Lot of Fault to Find With the Policy of the Government on the Mail Subsidy — Also Pounded Away at the Financial Statement, But Got His Answer.

Ottawa, Oct. 5.—The proceedings of the House to-day were of an important character, notwithstanding that there were less than two score members present. After the House met at 11 o'clock, Mr. Foster asked for a statement of the Government's policy regarding the Atlantic Mail subsidy.

Mr. Fielding, in reply, said that reference had been made in the House to the passing of the order-in-council last February, proposing to cut off any subsidies to a steamship company making its terminus in a foreign port, meaning particularly Portland. The impression in some quarters was that the contract with the Allans should be brought to a summary close. The orders-in-council which had extended the contract to the Allans' contained the words, "subject to existing contracts." In a technical sense there was no existing contract, the contract of 1891 having been extended from year to year by order-in-council. It was the opinion of the present Government that, in view of the very long time the Allan Company had been performing the service, it was not reasonable that they should be summarily disposed of, as was proposed by the late Ministry. Under these circumstances the Government had decided to extend the contract until the end of the next season of navigation, when they supposed it would be terminated.

Sir C. H. Tupper: Has notice been given to the Allans?

Mr. Fielding: I do not know if formal notice has been given.

Mr. Foster: Has any order-in-council been passed to that effect?

Mr. Fielding said he could not speak positively on that point, but if it had not, an order-in-council would certainly be passed.

Mr. Foster said that for the last ten years there had been a growing sentiment in this country that the time was approaching when the money of Canada should not be given towards a service making its terminus in a United States port. In 1889, when the fast Atlantic service was under consideration, the Government stated it as their policy to cease granting subsidies in that way. He detailed the steps which led to the subsidising of the line from St. John last winter, and the adoption of the order-in-council of Feb. 21 this year, declaring it to be the settled policy of the Government not to subsidise any line making its terminus in a foreign port. Dealing with the statement of the Finance Minister, who said there was no real contract with the Allans at present, Mr. Foster stated that the last contract with the Allans was on the 24th Dec., 1891, to "absolutely cease and determine on the 24th Dec., 1892." That contract has been extended from year to year by order-in-council up to the present time. In September, 1895, it was renewed until the 25th Nov., 1896, and on the latter date it would "absolutely cease and determine" unless renewed again.

Clearly the present Government had determined to go against the well-understood policy of Parliament and of the late Government. No one had even stated that the contract would absolutely expire next year. No Minister had made such a statement.

Mr. Blair: Did you hear the answer given by the Minister of Trade and Commerce the other day?

Mr. Foster said he had listened carefully to Sir Richard Cartwright's answer, but there was nothing to indicate that the contract would absolutely cease and determine next year.

Mr. Blair: The words "and no longer" appear.

Mr. Foster said they did not so appear on the record. He proceeded to comment upon the proposed services during the winter from St. John and showed that if the policy of the late Government had been carried out and five-twelfths, or over $50,000, out of the annual subsidy of $125,000 had been given to Halifax and St. John during the coming winter instead of to Portland those ports would have done a far larger amount of business and the winter trade would have been greatly encouraged. Practically the action of the Government meant that they were pulling back with one hand that which they were advancing with the other. At the present time Portland was putting forth strenuous efforts to build up her trade and the Government should not have been a party to have assisted in this at the expense of the Canadian ports, when a policy had been announced calculated to divert trade from Portland to our own country.

Mr. Ellis said that regret had been expressed in the Maritime Provinces that the Government did not carry into effect this year the announced policy of the late Ministry. One could understand that difficulties might arise in making a change so suddenly. On the whole, he thought the people of the Maritime Provinces would be perfectly satisfied with the arrangements which had been made, believing that the Government next year would carry out this policy.

Sir Charles Tupper said that undoubtedly Confederation was carried largely on account of the desire of old Canada to secure an outlet for her winter trade through Canadian ports. The present Government had lost a glorious opportunity. Had they carried out the policy of the late administration, the Allan Company were perfectly prepared to adopt St. John as the winter port and to have transferred their valuable line of steamers from Portland to that port.

Mr. Fielding said that any professions from the Conservatives of a deep and abiding interest in a winter port question would be received with the broadest smiles in the Maritime Provinces. The only benefit of the winter port business which the people of Halifax had ever received was the outcome of arrangements made by the Mackenzie Government. The hon. gentlemen opposite had talked

THE SESSION.

The first session of the Eighth Parliament of the Dominion of Canada was marked by the accession of the Liberal party to power, and on this account it is further distinguished as the beginning of an era of good government, sharply contrasting in spirit and methods with the reign of nearly twenty years that preceeded it. The last session of the previous Parliament, or rather the stolen session, was practically an attempt on the part of the Government to hold on to office without possessing the confidence of the country. This move was checkmated by the Opposition refusing to grant the supplies that would have made possible a continuance in office for some time longer, in defiance of the popular will. Therefore the accession of the new Government to power made it their first duty to provide supplies for carrying on the public service, and the session just closed was called almost especially for that purpose. It was to be expected that the session would be a short one, so short as to preclude the necessity of paying each member the full sessional indemnity of $1,000, thereby effecting a great saving. The government earnestly desired something like a fortnight's session and it would have been confined to that length if the Opposition had co-operated with the government. There was nothing to prolong the session as it has been prolonged, but the evident desire of the Opposition, which the rules governing parliamentary proceeding permitted them to carry out. The Opposition being demoralized by the overwhelming defeat of the elections, it is just to say of it, lost its head, and by a fatuous desire to test its strength and to embarass the Government, unduly and profitlessly prolonged the session. Both of its objects were gained. A test of its strength was gained and it is to be hoped that the Opposition is satisfied with the result; the government and the country certainly are. The Opposition embarrassed the government to the extent of preventing the carrying out its programme announced in the speech from the throne, of a short session. Of course the Opposition had a perfect right to take the course it did take in making inquiries and precipitating debates that greatly consumed the precious time of Parliament. But the question of right is one thing and the question of wisdom another, as is shown by the results. Parliament emphatically condemned the Opposition in respect of every proposition they dared to submit to the expression of parliamentary opinion on a division. Not only did the means taken by the Opposition disclose the weakness of that body in the course it took, as well as in the matter of its policy, but the prolonging of the session unearthed many scandals, which revealed more than was known of the ruinous character of the administration of the late Government, and showed the determination of the government to put an end to such corrupt and ruinous a style of administering the public service. The Opposition may have gained financially in prolonging the session so as to draw their full sessional indemnity, but they lost very greatly in having the weakness of their numbers as well as the weakness of their policy emphasized; and they lost indirectly by their tactics leading up to revelations that permitted the Government's policy, in the matter of economical and pure administration, to receive the endorsation of parliament and the approval of the public. The session has had two distinctly important results. It has shown that the Opposition is weaker and more unworthy of public confidence than many had thought. It has shown that the Government is stronger and more worthy of confidence than many had thought. In effect the people have received, in the weakness and effectiveness of the Opposition and in the strength and administrative capacity of the new Government, ample evidence that their verdict of last June was completely justified, and that they made no mistake in the course they then took.

MISSIONARIES FOR CHINA

Fourteen of Them Will Leave Toronto to Work Under the Direction of the China Inland Mission

Yesterday will long be held in remembrance by those who heard the inspiring addresses delivered in Association Hall in the afternoon and evening, when words of farewell were spoken to 14 young men and women, missionaries bound for Inland China.

The afternoon meeting was presided over by Mr. H. W. Frost, home director of missions for North America, and was one of interest throughout. Rev. F. A. Stevens, the secretary, in his report gave a short history of the work done in China.

In the evening the large hall was packed to the doors, many not being able to obtain standing room. Rev. Thomas Wardrope, D.D., was in the chair. With him on the platform, besides the 14 new missionaries, were: Rev. Drs. McTavish and Parsons, Rev. A. H. Scott of Perth, Rev. William Frizzell, Messrs. J. D. Nasmith, Alexander Sampson and Rev. J. McP. Scott.

The secretary, Mr. Stevens, introduced the new missionaries. There were 14 in all, and they represented six denominations: One of the Church of England, two Baptists, three Congregationalists, four Presbyterians and four Methodists. They also represented the English, Swedish, German, Scotch and American nationalities. He called upon them one by one, each making a short and appropriate speech. They were:

Mr. Bevis, a Toronto boy, but who studied under Mr. Moody in Chicago.

George L. Haight of Syracuse, N.Y., who spent four years in the Bible Training Institute in Brooklyn.

R. T. Moodie, from Perth, Ont., a student of Queen's and Chicago.

Mr. Ramsay of Baltimore, Md., who studied in Chicago.

Auber P. Quirmbach of Berlin, Ont., but who studied in Brooklyn.

J. W. Wilcox of Toronto, who studied in the Bible Training School here.

An Ottawa Lady Delights to Speak About Paine's Celery Compound.

Had Spent a Great Deal of Money for Other Medicines That Did Not Help Her.

Paine's Celery Compound Always Makes People Well.

Mrs. K. Croteau, 287 Dalhousie street, Ottawa, like thousands of others, unfortunately experimented, with many of the loudly advertised medicines of our times, but received no relief or benefit to recompense her for her large expenditure of money. Even her family physician failed to give her the results that she so anxiously longed for.

While sick and suffering, Mrs. Croteau was led to use that heaven-given blessing and remedy, Paine's Celery Compound. In the following brief letter she gives her experience:

"It is with much pleasure I write to inform you of the great benefit I derived from your Paine's Celery Compound. I was under the doctor's treatment for a long time without obtaining any relief, and spent a great deal of money on other medicines that did me no good. After using three bottles of Paine's Celery Compound I can go about my daily duties with spirit and great energy, my appetite has returned, I sleep well, and have got rid of my complaint. I cannot speak too highly of your Compound, and you have my permission to use my name in connection with it."

WILL CUT OFF TRAINS.

The New G.T.R. Trainmaster Thinks There are Too Many on the Welland Division.

Welland, Ont., Oct. 5.—(Special)—Trainmaster Cunningham of Hamilton was over the Welland division of the Grand Trunk Railway on an inspection tour Saturday. He claims the road is giving too much service for the patronage it gets, and says that a big change will be in order in a short time. The residents of the locality will make strenuous objections to having any of the present trains cancelled, and as the charter calls for eight trains a day Mr. Cunningham will have difficulty in completing his contemplated change.

Official orders were issued yesterday to keep the canal open Sundays until the closing of the season.

Fred Cameron had his foot badly smashed this morning while unloading steel rails along the G. T. R. between Welland and Port Robinson.

Sometimes it seems to weary woman that she must certainly give up. The simplest and easiest work becomes an almost insurmountable task. Nervousness and sleeplessness and pain harrass her and life seems hardly worth the living.

Dr. Pierce's Favourite Prescription was made for her. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was made for her. The former is for ills distinctly feminine, the other for her general system. Together they supply a scientific and successful course of treatment. The "Favourite Prescription" restores healthy regular action to the organs distinctly feminine. It forces out all impurities, strengthens the tissues, allays inflammation. The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes appetite, helps indigestion, promotes assimilation, fills out the hollows in cheeks and neck with good solid flesh and brings back the gladsome glow of girlhood.

PARLIAMENT CLOSED.

on this question year after year, but had practically done nothing. Last year's subsidy to the Beaver line was a sort of deathbed repentance on the part of the Conservatives. Halifax men had only the friendliest feelings towards St. John, and if the winter terminus could not be made at Halifax they wanted it to go to St. John. Adverting to the question of the contract he said the words "absolutely cease and determine" certainly meant nothing, the late Government having extended the contract year after year. There was no technical contract to continue the subsidy after the present year, but there was a moral contract which the Government unhesitatingly acknowledged. As to the policy of the Government after next year, he read from The Montreal Gazette's report of Sir Richard Cartwright's answers, that the words "and no longer" were used by Sir Richard Cartwright, although they did not appear on the Hansard.

Sir C. H. Tupper quoted a speech of Mr. Fielding's delivered at Halifax on November 30th, 1895, as reported in The Chronicle, in which he said: "Halifax should look with pleasure on the accomplishment of the fast Atlantic service. For her passenger and mail service by water and land Canada wants the fastest, and that is through the port of Halifax. We cannot make a success of it by sending it up the St. Lawrence. It is clear that for a summer and winter service some point of the Maritime Provinces must be selected. If Halifax has the advantages which we think she has, then Halifax will be selected." He trusted that as a Minister Mr. Fielding would live up to his professions.

Mr. Fielding said whenever he made a promise he hoped he would be able to carry it into effect.

Mr. Blair said he could not take the statements of hon. gentlemen opposite very seriously. Whatever they had done last year to subsidise the Beaver line, it was on their own initiation, but at the request of a civic deputation from St. John.

The matter then dropped.

Mr. Foster, on the third reading of the Supply bill, said he felt it his duty to call attention to the financial situation. The estimates for 1895-96 amounted to $37,832,353, and for 1896-97 to $39,763,259. To the latter amount must be added the sum of $400,000, which would be required for the meeting of Parliament next session, making a total of $40,163,259, or an increase of $2,330,906 over last year. The estimated expenditure on capital account last year was $3,936,220, and for this year $4,498,091, or an increase of $561,871. The total estimated expenditure last year was therefore $41,768,573, while for this year on consolidated and capital accounts it was $44,661,350, or an increase of $2,892,773 over last year. To the estimated expenditure for which the Government had provided there would have to be added also the amount of the supplementary estimates, which will come down next session. Looking at the estimates in detail it would be found that the decreases were few and far between, while the increases were many. In all the principal controllable items there was a very large increase.

Mr. Fielding said it was an extraordinary thing for Mr. Foster in the last minutes of the session to present a marvelous speech, which he had done to-day. The country would not be alarmed at a comparison of the estimates of expenditure, especially coming from a gentleman who had the high honor in three successive years to roll up a deficit of $8,000,000. It was not the estimate of expenditure that should be criticised; it should be the actual expenditure itself. He thought the people of Canada would be content to wait until the end of the current fiscal year before making comparisons. He pointed out that Mr. Foster last session had himself brought down estimates exceeding by two million the prospective revenue, and if his supplementaries could not be added it was well known that he had intended bringing down a large amount. With regard to the supplementaries brought down this session, there was hardly an item put there except to carry out the engagements of the late Government, or to cover public works which had received the approval of the late Ministers. As an instance, he pointed to the item of $1,165,000 for militia arms and ammunition as one of the obligations incurred by the late Government, which the present Government had to meet. He thought the country, after the present Government had had full charge of their own estimates, would find that they were prepared to practice economy, but not parsimony, not niggardliness; but, at the same time, spending some money on useful public works in the country, for which they would challenge the approval of Parliament and the verdict of the country. (Ministerial applause.)

Sir C. H. Tupper said that Mr. Fielding's reply was wholly inadequate. The supplementaries showed that grants were being made for party purposes.

Sir Charles Tupper said that Mr. Fielding had wholly failed to meet the gravamen of the charge made by Mr. Foster. The estimates of the Government were an emphatic contradiction to their professions. No attempt had been made to show how the difference between revenue and expenditure was to be met. It was as striking a case of Government impotency as was ever shown in Parliament, and was calculated to inflict a severe blow at the credit of this country. (Hear, hear.)

Mr. Davies said it was difficult to maintain one's temper or equanimity in the face of the wild, reckless and reprehensible statements that had been made by the Opposition. He spoke vigorously for some minutes in justification of the Government's position, claiming that the estimates were to meet obligations incurred by the Conservatives.

At 2 o'clock the House rose for an hour.

The Senate met at 2 o'clock, put the supply bill through and then took recess. At 3 o'clock Lord Aberdeen arrived. There were only about 30 ladies present on the floor of the chamber at the time, all being in morning dress. In the Commons chamber the representatives of the people sat waiting for the summons. At 3 o'clock there were only seven members present, but within five minutes about a dozen others dropped in. The customary exchange of complimentary speeches was dispensed with. Dr. Montague essayed to jolly the Controller of Inland Revenue, but Sir Henri was equal to him. The doctor said the House could not disperse without an explanation of the $4000 spent on Li Hung Chang. Sir Henri, in a stage whisper, said: "I have accounted for $53."

Black Rod, on unsteady understandings, entered and summoned the faithful Commons to the Upper House, where Lord Aberdeen read the following Speech from the Throne:

His Excellency was pleased to prorogue the first session of the eighth Parliament of Canada with the following speech:

"Honorable gentlemen of the Senate and gentlemen of the House of Commons: I am glad to be able to relieve you from further attendance in Parliament. I am happy to repeat the assurance already given that I have every expectation that an amicable settlement of the Manitoba school question will shortly be arrived at. In conformity with the statement made you at the commencement of the session, it was not considered advisable to submit any important measure of legislation for your consideration.

"Gentlemen of the House of Commons: I have to thank you for the liberal provision you have made for the services of the current year."

And then the first session of the eighth Parliament of Canada was over.

Capt. Sinclair Pemberton, R. E., Department of Militia Intelligence, of the War Office, is here, en route to British Colmbia to inspect the fortifications now under construction at Esquimalt.

It is reported that J. E. Prendergast, former member of the Greenway Government, who resigned on account of the passage of the act abolishing Catholic schools, is to be the new judge for Manitoba. This is preliminary to a settlement of the school question, as by getting Mr. Prendergast out of the way a settlement will be easier to reach.

A number of seamen and petty officers passed through en route to Victoria, B. C., to join the British squadron at that place. The Atlantic express was eight hours late.

The Inter-Provincial Christian Endeavor Convention commences here to-morrow.

Parliament is prorogued pro forma to Nov. 14.

After prorogation to-day Mr. Speaker and Mrs. Edgar held their farewell levee, all the members in town paying their respects. His Honor and Mrs. Edgar will be in town for a couple of days yet.

COUNTY REGISTRAR.

All Else Failing Mr. Geo. C. Ward is Cured by Eight Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

PORT HOPE (special) Sept. 28.—No case of recovery from serious illness that has ever occured in this community has caused as much talk as that of our esteemed townsman Mr. George C. Ward, Registrar of this County, residing here. For a long time it has been well known to his intimate friends that he was a sufferer from kidney disorder. But for the past year he grew worse and all efforts to regain his strength were without avail. He is now cured as he says, by using eight boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and is as well as ever he was in his life.

Wasn't Afraid of the Queen.

An amusing story of ingenuous childhood is told by a former maid-of-honor in the service of Queen Victoria, says the Youth's Companion. A little niece of hers visited her one day at the court. The queen caught sight of the child, and, pleased with her innocent prattle, asked the lady-in-waiting to have the little visitor come to luncheon some day at the palace. The child was taken on an appointed day to the royal table. While quite unconscious of the honor conferred upon her, she was quiet and well-behaved, and not inclined to talk unnecessarily. During the luncheon chicken was served. The child ate her portion with keen relish, and was careful in the use of her knife and fork. Suddenly she stared at the Queen with eyes like round towers. Then pointing her small finger in the direction of her majesty, she exclaimed with a tone of reproof: "O, piggie! piggie!"

The Queen had taken one of the chicken bones quite delicately in her fingers, but the carefully trained child, who had been warned in the nursery that this was a breach of propriety in young people, could not refrain from repeating an expression that she had often heard her governess use. Every one at the table was startled, but the Queen at once led in the laughter, enjoying quite keenly the joke at her own expense.

Seen in the Shops.

Both useful and ornamental are the bread forks with pierced tines and heavily chased handles.

Furless sealskin is a novelty introduced in the making of card-cases, jewel boxes and other leather goods.

New cane cabinets and tables are reproductions of empire styles in rosewood, enriched with applied decorations in gilt.

A useful addition to the toilet articles is a pumice stone set in silver, after the style of a nail polisher. It is designed to remove ink spots, fruit and other stains from the hands.

A holder for handkerchiefs has appeared. It is in the form of a clasp, with a safety pin attachment, for fastening to the belt. Made of gold or silver, this clasp is variously decorated, enamel being effectively employed.

Jewelers continue to cater to the athletic of both sexes. Shirt-waist sets, sleeve links, studs and scarf pins simulate golf sticks and ball tennis racquet and ball or bicycle wheels, as the case may be.

A Royal Dairymaid.

Like Marie Antoinette of old, the Princess of Wales positively revels in her dairy. Its walls are decorated with tiles which the Prince thoughtfully brought with him from Bombay—tiles of dark blue, ornamented with a design of roses, shamrock and thistle, and the motto, "Ich dien." The dairy also contains a long milk pan, artistically ornamented by the brush of the Marchioness of Lorne, a beautifully mounted head of the Princesses' favorite deceased Alderney, and a silver churn expressly modeled for the hand of royalty.

If your child is puny, fretful, troubled with glandular swellings, inflamed eyes, or sores on the head, face or body, a course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is needed to expel the scrofulous humours from the blood. The sooner you begin to give this medicine the better.

She Imbued Western Notions.

Mme. Hanna Korany, who remained in New York for a year after the close of the World's Fair, to which she came as a delegate, has gone back to her home in Syria, so deeply imbued with Western notions that she has started a women's club. It is near her home, in Beirut, and is the first to be established in that part of the world.

A Royal Swimmer.

The Czarina of Russia is an expert swimmer, and recently had a magnificent swimming tank erected in the Winter Palace, covering an area of 3400 square feet.

Foresight.

"When a Chinaman is introduced to a woman he always asks her how old she is."

"Why does he do that?"

"Wants to make her so mad at him that she won't try to marry him."

Women who are weak and nervous, who have no appetite and cannot sleep, find strength and vigor in Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry cures Diarrhœa, Dysentry, Cramps, Colic, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, and all looseness of the bowels. Never travel without it. Price 35c.

A Comfort Sometimes.

When health is far gone in consumption, then sometimes only ease and comfort can be secured from use of Scott's Emulsion. What is much better is to take this medicine in time to save your health.

Railway Notes.

The extension of the L.B. & O.R.R. from its present terminus, Baptiste Lake, to the village of Bancroft, Hastings county, appears to have been indefinitely postponed. The necessary rails were delivered at the Kinmount junction last spring by Montreal parties, and some of them were taken up the line, but they are now being shipped back to the consignors. Some twenty carloads went east last week.—Lindsay Post.

The Army Worm.

To protect against the army worm next year, it is advisable to clear off, and where possible, burn over land that was infested this season. If this is done wherever the worms appeared, their ravages will be largely prevented next year. The chrysalides should be looked for under stones, bunches of field grass, bits of board or any rubbish which may be found in the fields or along the fences. Experience in various parts of the country the past year shows that the advance of the pest may be checked by plowing furrows, rolling, or by poisoning a portion of the crop attacked, but prompt action is always necessary to secure the best results.

A Muscular Young Athlete.

The Paris Review contains the following reference to a young athlete, who is well known in Peterborough:

"Mr. Ed. Howell received on Saturday a box from his Paris friends. The box contained a varied assortment of articles and was sent, "not for its intrinsic value," but as a mark of appreciation at his winning the cup at the Woodstock College games on Friday. Rev. W. H. Cline was present at the games. The Sentinel-Review of Saturday says:

"Last year the honour of winning the silver cup fell to E. Scarlett. This year, E. Howell, the well known Paris athlete, holds the trophy, and right well does he deserve it. In all the contests in which he figured Howell displayed endurance as well as agility."

"Howell took firsts in the half and two mile bicycle race; putting shot (32 ft. 2 in.); throwing baseball, 100 yard dash (12 1-2 sec.); obstacle race, 220 yards dash (27½ sec.); 100 yards span. Seconds in standing broad jump, leap frog with Haggart as partner. Third in one mile bicycle and hop, step and jump: ran a tie in the hurdle and was in the third team in the relay race."

STRIKE OF THE C.P.R. OPERATORS.

THERE WAS TROUBLE AT THE C. P. R. STATION LAST NIGHT.

One "Scab" Operator is Scared out and Takes the First Train he can Get on —The Other Stayed on Until Morning, but Passed an Unpleasant Night.

There was quite a crowd at the C. P. R. station last night, to meet the evening train from the west, as it was rumoured that the company was bringing in some outside telegraph operators to take the place of Messrs Skinner and Baker, who had gone out on strike together with the other operators along the line.

As expected three operators got off the train and were taken into the office by Station Agent Bamford. This established their identity and the news spread over the town like wildfire.

One of the operators came up town to tea at the Grand Central, and shortly afterwards he was followed by the other two. As the latter were coming up they were met by some of the citizens, who were in sympathy with the strikers. One of the new men stated that they had come to stay, and as they had been through the North Bay row they were not afraid of anything which would be done in Peterborough.

He also stated that on coming back from North Bay to Toronto he was misled into coming to Peterborough by the statement that there was no trouble here.

The day man remained up town but by the time the other two came out from tea there was a big crowd awaiting for them and the "scabs" were hustled on every side as they walked down to the station.

The police were called up by telephone, but on arriving at the station they found that the crowd was orderly enough and consequently did not interfere. One of the operators, becoming alarmed at the angry faces which peered in at him through the window, went east on the midnight Express leaving his comrade alone "to face the music."

After the departure of the Uxpress Mr. Bamford left for home. Shortly afterwards the operator was called to the wicket and asked if he intended leaving the town or whether he would take the risk of remaining at his post. The operator, who was wal frightened by this time, stated that he would leave immediately if his fare was paid out of town. The crowd would agree to no such condition, and the operator then said he would get out on the next freight. He bargained without his host, however, as the conductor refused to take him, and, in addition, raked him over the coals in a lively manner for not having the papers made out for a car which was to be attached at Peterborough. The operator stated that his instructions were simply to remain in the office and attend to the instrument. He gave his promise to leave on the first train this morning, he was not molested, and the crowd then left. He has not been seen to-day, but the day operator is on duty.

Baggagemaster Fegg has received his notice of dismissal from the company for refusing to sell tickets after the operators went out on strike.

It is stated that there were a number of private detectives in the crowd last night for the purpose of taking names if any serious trouble arose.

THE PREVENTION OF CRIME.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Sir,—The movement now on foot to pay some serious attention to the causes of the development of crime and criminals is in every way entitled to commendation.

The punishment of fully developed criminals is, as a rule, like cutting the tops off weeds in the garden. Such a process is merely a waste of time. It is manifest therefore that we can begin none too soon at the root of the matter and submit the whole case to a careful investigation in accordance with common sense requirements. The cost of criminals to the country directly is a tremendous burden, to say nothing of their indirect cost.

Yours, etc.,

"Our Flat" is described as a continuity of mirth, breezy, spicy and withal clean and wholesome in its flowing humour. We predict a large attendance.

ELECTRIC LIGHTING CONTRACT AWARDED.

THE OLD COMPANY'S TENDER FINALLY ACCEPTED.

Peterborough Will Secure Her Lights Cheaper Than Any Other Town or City in Canada—Other Matters Which Were up For Discussion at the Council Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the town council was held last night and previous to it the committee of the whole was in session for a couple of hours with the representatives of the Light & Power Company trying to come to terms. No agreement could be reached but during the session of the council a communication was handed to Councillor Mills, in which the company made them an offer which was accepted. The conditions of the agreement are to be found in the body of the report of the meeting as appended :

The members in attendance were Mayor Yelland and Councillors Best, W. H. White, Denne, Mills, Phelan, Weir, Sawers, Moore, Langford and Graham.

COMMUNICATIONS

were received and referred as appended :

From F. Brownscombe asking that his salary be raised, as he found it necessary to work over time in order to fulfil the requirements of his office.—Referred to the Finance Committee.

From John Belcher, Town Engineer, asking for a percentage of the amount due him re sewer work.—Granted.

From Chief Reesé asking for new overcoats and helmets for the police force.—Referred to the Committee on Supervision of Police.

From W. J. McCallum asking that his personal assessment be changed back from $5,000 to $500, as formerly.—Referred to the Court of Revision.

From T. Bradburn, T. G. Hooper and T. Gemmel, asking under sections 612-629 of the Consolidated Municipal Act of 1892 that the sewer be extended along Charlotte street as far as the centre of Louis street.—Referred to the Sewerage Committee with power to act, and instructing them to consult the solicitor.

From the Geo. Matthews Co., Ltd., pointing out that their factory is practically unprotected from fire, and asking that a hydrant be placed south of the C. P. R. track adjacent to their premises.—On motion of Councillors Best and White the Clerk was instructed to authorize the Water Co. to place a hydrant at the corner of George and Towsend streets.

From the Bicycle Club stating that the present bylaw prohibiting the running of bicycles on the streets is invalid, and could be quashed upon application to the courts, and asking that some arrangement be made whereby business men may be permitted to ride their wheels on the sidewalks when the roads are impassable.—Received.

From the Rochester Star Nurseries, asking that any trees required by the town be purchased from them—Received.

Councillor Moore suggested that the present trees be looked after more carefully. At present some of them were so interlocked as to obscure the electric lights, and prevent the snow melting off the streets until late in the spring.

From C. B. Lowe, stating that he had been assessed for a bitch instead of a dog, and asking redress—Granted on condition of his taking the usual declaration.

From S. R. Armstrong acknowledging receipt of writ from John Green for $500 damages at the suit of Wm. and Georgina Jackson—Received.

From the town solicitor, asking instructions regarding the above claim. The Mayor and Councillor Langford were instructed to look into the matter.

From James Navin asking remission of taxes on property on Simcoe street, from which he received no rental, allowing it to be occupied by a poor family which were living on the town's charity—Received.

From E. Cleeves, asking for a remission of $5.00 on his taxes, being unable to pay them. The street and bridge inspector was instructed to give Mr. Cleeves employment to work off the amount of his taxes.

From the Peterborough Light and Power Company, notifying the town that Contractor Bogue and the corporation would be held responsible for all damage done to the system by the undermining of the poles by the sewer.—Received.

From Miss M. Sheridan and Mrs. Drake, asking for remission of taxes.—Miss Sheridan's request was received, and Mrs. Drake's request was granted.

From A. E. Dixon and others, asking for two hydrants and offering to pay for one of them.—Referred to the Fire, Water and Light Committee.

From the town treasurer, showing the receipts of the month to be $2,288.10, and the payments $5,560 48.—Received.

SOME ENQUIRIES.

In reply to an enquiry, Councillor Langford stated that trees had been ordered for the Dixon Park, but that it was not thought advisable to put them in until spring.

Councillor Moore enquired as to whether it would not be better to have the sewer pipe across the creek on George street, under the bridge, removed, as it would, he thought, dam back the water in the spring. He advocated the placing of the pipe beneath the bottom of the creek and the adoption of the syphon system.

Councillor Best explained that beneath the pipe there was a space of about 10 or 12 feet, which he considered was ample. The syphon system, he stated, was very expensive and should not be resorted to unless as a last resource.

In regard to Mr. Navin's letter asking for remission of taxes on some property which he had allowed tenants to occupy without rental, he was heard and granted remission of taxation.

2. The committee also recommend that the expenses of a deputation that went to Ottawa at the request of the town of Trenton, in regard to the extension of the Trent Valley Canal be paid, and that a cheque for $100 be issued to the tax collector in discharge of Mr. James Stevenson's account for granolithic sidewalk on Simcoe street in front of his residence, to be applied on taxes for 1895.

Adopted.

THE STREET AND BRIDGE COMMITTEE,

through its chairman, Councillor Langford, recommended :

2. That Cox & Davis be paid $23.00 in full of their account for injury to a horse on Townsend street bridge.

3. That the gravel from a cellar on Water street be taken from Wm. Montgomery at 20c a yard, he to place it on the streets where required by the Street Inspector.

4. That a stance pier be constructed at Spaulding's bay to guide the water of the creek into the bridge on George street.

LIGHTING THE STREETS.

Councillor Mills read the following letter from the Peterborough Light and Power Company :

The Town Council, Peterborough :

GENTLEMEN,—We will supply you with eighty-five 2,000 candle power arc lamps under the terms of our former contract with the town for the sum of $85.00 per arc lamp per year, and we will further pay the sum of $400.00 per year as rental for the use of the streets. The new contract is to be for the term of seven years from January 1st, 1897.

This is on the basis of the proposed contract and on terms agreeable to same, both as to candle power and otherwise, as near as may be under altered tender. Additional lamps over eighty-five to be charged at the rate of $80 per year.

The formal contract will be signed in fifteen days.

Yours truly,
PETERBOROUGH L. & P. Co.
A. STEVENSON,
Secretary.

The proposition was accepted, on motion of Councillors Langford and Sawers.

SOME RESOLUTIONS.

Moved by Councillors Moore and Phelan, that a grant of $100 (or so much thereof as shall be payable under arrangement entered into) be made to the Peterborough Agricultural Society to assist in defraying the expenses of entertainment of Lord Aberdeen.—Carried.

Moved by Councillors Moore and Sawers, that the Mayor and Messrs. Best and Moore be a committee to confer with the Town Solicitor in reference to the settlement of the matter of arbitration with the township of North Monaghan or relating to the same, with power to act.—Carried.

Councillor Best introduced the by-law providing for sewer connections and making regulations for sewerage and drainage. It was referred back to the Town Solicitor for further information.

Mr. Powell, who was present on behalf of the retail butchers, addressed the council, stating that parties living out of the town were in the habit of coming in and selling meat cut up into portions smaller than the quarter. He asked that the retail butchers be protected in the matter and that a bylaw more strict and clear in its provisions be passed. The town butchers took out licenses and paid taxes, and he petitioned that action be taken to prevent outsiders coming in and underselling.

The matter was referred to the License Committee.

Councillor Langford stated that he had received from a committee of the Bicycle Club a bylaw framed to meet the requirements, provided wheelmen were allowed to use the sidewalks to a certain extent when the roads were impassable for them.

The matter was referred to the Street and Bridge Committee.

The council then adjourned.

SOME RESOLUTIONS.

Councillors Calcutt and Rutherford moved that the use of the town Hall be granted to the Mark street Methodist church on Monday, Oct. 12th.—Carried.

Councillors Craig and Calcutt moved that a sidewalk be laid on Sophia street on the north side of Mr. Wier's property, and that the Light and Power Company be notified to remove their pole from sidewalk allowance ; also that the sidewalk on north side of Carlisle avenue be continued to Mr. Oliver's house, and that the sidewalk on south side of Elizabeth street from Lake street to J. AN HOUR'S FUN WITH FALSTAFF

And His Merry Companions as Grouped in Shakspere's Henry IV. — A Delightful Entertainment by Mr. Geo. B. Williams of New York.

A not large but select and highly appreciative audience assembled last night in Foresters' Hall to listen to and highly enjoy Shakesperean dramatic readings by Mr. Geo. B. Williams, of New York, and every one was very greatly delighted with the splendid interpretation and versatile personation of the marvellous characters in Shakespeare's Henry IV.

The first three scenes were read and the lover of Shakspere received new light on the couplex characters presented by Mr. Williams' versatile and dramatically artistic rendering of the play. While, of course, the greatest amusement centered on the scenes in which the immortal Falstaff, Prince Hal, Poins, etc., were actors, still Mr. Williams showed remarkable dramatic strength in the personation of the more serious characters, especially the fiery Hotspur. So admirably did he render his part, and so versatile was his conception and presentation of the characters, and so well were the unities preserved, that it is literally correct to quote the remark of Charles the Second in reference to the debate on a divorce bill—"It was as good as a play."

Mr. Williams' concluded his evening with a side-shaking recital of W. D. Howell's scene in a sleeping car. While this selection convulsed his auditors with laughter, still the broad and farcial quality of the humour was in striking contrast with the keen and delicate subtlety of Shakesperean wit and humour as developed by his reading of Henry Fourth.

Altogether Mr. Williams gave an admirably enjoyable evening of high-class intellectual entertainment.

THE TOWN LIGHTING.

After considerable negotiation and conference with the Peterborough Light and Power Company the council last night accepted the offer of that company for the contract of lighting the streets of the town for the coming seven years, the contract to begin January 1st, 1897. This arrangement, on the face of it, appears to be advantageous to the town, since we shall receive our street lighting for seven years longer at a much lower rate than heretofore, that is $65 per lamp as against $75 per lamp under the old contract, and in addition to this reduction the company agrees to pay the town $400 per year for the franchise of the streets for their poles ; and there is the additional advantage derived by the clause of the new contract by which the company agrees to add all new lights to the system for the sum of $60 per lamp per year. As before remarked on the face of the new contract the town is to be congratulated on getting the benefits of competition, as represented by securing a contract at so greatly reduced a rate. It is doubtless as good a bargain as the company could be expected to give. The company had the enterprise to put in its plant when the electric lighting was largely in the experimental stage, and consequently their plant and appliances cost more than it would at the present day. It is generally thought that there will not be very much in the new lighting contract for the Peterborough Light and Power Company, which was not making great dividends out of the old contract, and it understood that a dividend was not declared last year, so that it seems that the advantage of the new contract will be chiefly on the side of the town which now it is said pays less for street lighting than any other town or city in Canada.

It is generally understood that the privilege of lighting the town will be left to the old company, and that the new company will have the privilege of supplying power, a circumstance that is indicated by the beginning of operations on the company's new premises at Auburn.

ADVERTISE IN "THE EXAMINER."

WHEN they put a man in jail, he cannot follow his natural inclinations. His enjoyment of life is limited. He cannot eat what he wants to—he is limited to a very frugal diet. He is alive to be sure, but life doesn't possess very many advantages.

Are not all these things equally true of a dyspeptic? For all of the real enjoyment he gets out of life, he might as well be in jail. He cannot eat what he likes, nor as much of it as he would like. If he transgresses any of the rules of his diet, he is punished for it. He suffers much, gets little sympathy.

Dyspepsia starts with indigestion, and may lead to almost anything. Indigestion means a variety of things—it shows itself in many ways. At first, perhaps a little heaviness in the stomach, a little sourness, windy belchings and heartburn. Headaches begin to come pretty soon after that, and biliousness and a foul taste in the mouth in the morning. Chronic constipation is almost inevitable, and it is probably the most serious trouble that ever takes hold of a man. Its seeming simplicity is the thing that makes it most dangerous, because it leads to neglect. Constipation means that the body is holding poisonous, impure matter that should be gotten rid of. The poison is being reabsorbed into the blood and the whole body is being filled with it. Impurity in the blood may lead to almost any disease. There is no telling what may come of it. Constipation is the start of it all. And yet people are careless about it. It is the most serious thing in the world, and the easiest to cure if you go about it right. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Cure it positively, certainly, infallibly. Cure it so it stays cured. Cure it so you can stop taking medicine.

And that is something that no other remedy in the world will do.

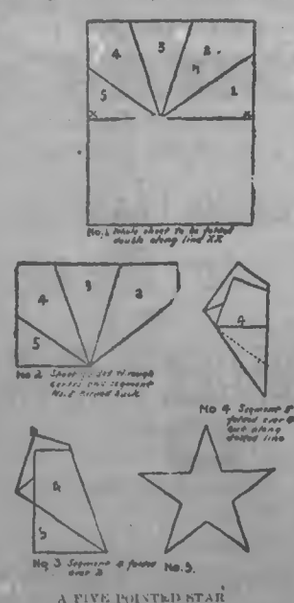
THE YANKEE FLAG.

To Cut Its Five Pointed Star Is an Interesting Puzzle.

It is often very interesting to put a simple question to an assembled company of ordinarily intelligent people, and see how few are able to answer correctly. The following queries, and the attempt to cut out the puzzle which the accompanying cuts illustrate can afford entertainment for a number of people for an hour or so when time hangs heavy on one's hands, as it often does on a rainy day, for instance.

Begin by asking if some one can tell how the stars on the flag differ from those on our coins, says the Indianapolis News. Very probably most people will not have noticed that they are not all alike, all being stars and supposedly the same. There is a difference, however, and it rests in the fact that the coins are decorated with the English star composed of six points, or two triangles overlapping each other, if one is to be measured out geometrically, while the flag bears the five-pointed French star, which is much prettier and also very simple in construction, as the material of which it is made can be so folded as to be cut into a perfect emblem with only one clip of the scissors.

If some one knows that the stars differ in the number of points, how many in the company can tell this bit of information regarding its making, and if they can give it, can they also explain how it is done? A few scraps of paper and a pair of scissors will keep quite a circle busy for some time until some clever member will find that by taking a sheet of paper, folding it across the middle, and dividing it into equal segments of a circle to the number of five (illustration No. 1), folding back segment No. 1, as in illustration



A FIVE POINTED STAR

2, then doubling four over two (illustration 3), and lastly, five back over four, making the clip of the scissors along the dotted line, a perfect star should be the result. (Illustration 5.) If the lines from point to point are not exactly horizontal, cut the line a little lower down toward the apex in illustration 4. The tradition coming down to us in connection with this choice of the star for our flag is that when General Washington, Robert Morris and Colonel Ross went to Mrs. John Ross, or "Betty" Ross, as she was more familiarly known, to ask if she could make the flag for the Union, she objected to the six-pointed star, because it was an English emblem, and thus the French, or five-pointed, was chosen.

"For several months, I was troubled with a persistent humour on my head which gave me considerable annoyance, until it occured to me to try Ayer's Hair Vigor. Before using one bottle, the humour was healed."—T. T. Adams, General Merchant, Tubeville, Va.

IS HE AN EARL?

Richard George Rufus Welling, a Stableman at the Falls, May Possibly be Lord Ludlow.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Oct. 4.—Richard George Rufus Welling, who for four years has been employed as a stableman for a horse dealer across the river, believes he has become heir to the Ludlow earldom and estates in Warwickshire, England. Lord Ludlow, he said, was his great grandfather and had an extensive estate in Warwickshire. His grandmother, of course, was a Ludlow lady who married a man named Spohn, and his mother's maiden name was Spohn. His father and mother were married in England and moved many years ago to Canada and settled in the valley of Ancaster, near Hamilton. She and her husband, Mr. Welling, now live in ordinary circumstances. Some six years ago the idea of tracing the family inheritance was first discussed, as it was generally known all the time that there was one in existence, or at least there should be; but not until last year was anyone interested enough to spend money to go over to England to investigate. Then Farren Welling, a cousin of George, went there, and recently he cabled to Welling at Ancaster that the family will get the estate.

Welling is a modest appearing young man, 30 years of age, and unmarried. He is not sanguine of the outcome by any means and talks only of the possibility of the stories of an estate being true.

FIRE IN QUEBEC.

Foley's Tailoring Establishment and The Mercury Office Gutted.

Quebec, Oct. 4.—Early Saturday night a fire broke out in the tailoring establishment of Martin Foley on Mountain Hill. In spite of strenuous efforts on the part of the fire brigade the whole building was soon in flames. During the fire the gas meter exploded and two men, Sergt. Murray of the city police force and T. Arkinson, were badly burned. Loss almost covered by insurance. The building of The Daily Mercury, which is situated next to Mr. Foley's establishment, was badly gutted. The interior was damaged to the amount of several thousand dollars; also covered by insurance.

THE PHILLIES AHEAD.

In the Third Match the Australian Bowlers are Not So Terrible.

Philadelphia, Oct. 3.—When stumps were drawn for the night this afternoon, the third and last series of the international cricket matches, the outlook for victory for the Phillies over the Australians was bright. When play was resumed this morning, the first two batsmen for Philadelphia were at bat from the afternoon before. The score at starting this morning stood 65 runs for no wickets, and when the last batsman had been disposed of this afternoon the home players had put together 282 runs.

The Philadelphias have lost their terror of the Antipodean bowling, and played it to-day freely and confidently. Their 282 runs were made by good cricket, and that, too, on a crease that was none too good.

When the Australians went in this afternoon for their second innings they were 101 behind. In the 15 minutes' play before stumps were drawn they lost two of their best bats. Iredale and Darling were each caught in the slips for the small scores of 4 and 8, respectively. Play ceased when Darling went out, leaving Giffen at bat with seven runs to his credit and the total at 21 for two wickets.

Of course, with such an array of batsmen as compose the Australian team, victory for the home team is not assured, but the odds are in their favor, as the visitors have not played up to their form in this match, and the Philadelphias have been better than in either of the other games. Play will be resumed Monday. The score:

Her latest signatures to official documents are admirable examples of clear handwriting.

THE EYES OF THE WORLD

Are Fixed Upon South American Nervine.

Beyond Doubt the Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

WHEN EVERY OTHER HELPER HAS FAILED IT CURES

A Discovery, Based on Scientific Principles, that Renders Failure Impossible.

In the matter of good health temporizing measures, while possibly successful for the moment, can never be lasting. Those in poor health soon know whether the remedy they are using is simply a passing incident in their experience, bracing them up for the day, or something that is getting at the seat of the disease and is surely and permanently restoring.

The eyes of the world are literally fixed on South American Nervine. They are not viewing it as a nine-days' wonder, but critical and experienced men have been studying this medicine for years, with the one result—they have found that its claim of perfect curative qualities cannot be gainsaid.

The great discoverer of this medicine was possessed of the knowledge that the seat of all disease is the nerve centres, situated at the base of the brain. In this belief he had the best scientists and medical men of the world occupying exactly the same premises. Indeed, the ordinary layman recognized this principle long ago. Everyone knows that let disease or injury affect this part of the human system and death is almost certain. Injure the spinal cord, which is the medium of these nerve centres, and paralysis is sure to follow.

Here is the first principle. The trouble with medical treatment usually, and with nearly all medicines, is that they aim simply to treat the organ that may be diseased. South American Nervine passes by the organs, and immediately applies its curative powers to the nerve centres, from which the organs of the body receive their supply of nerve fluid. The nerve centres healed, and of necessity the organ which has shown the outward evidence only of derangement is healed. Indigestion, nervousness, impoverished blood, liver complaint, all owe their origin to a derangement of the nerve centres. Thousands bear testimony that they have been cured of these troubles, even when they have become so desperate as to baffle the skill of the most eminent physicians, because South American Nervine has gone to headquarters and cured there.

The eyes of the world have not been disappointed in the inquiry into the success of South American Nervine. People marvel, it is true, at its wonderful medical qualities, but they know beyond all question that it does everything that is claimed for it. It stands alone as the one great certain curing remedy of the nineteenth century. Why should anyone suffer distress and sickness while this remedy is practically at their hands?

She Has Ever Known. Words of Praise from a New York Lady for

AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled.

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent la grippe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known."—Mrs. MAY JOHNSON, 368 Rider Avenue, New York City.

PARISIAN FASHIONS.

Some Advance Notes of Styles for Autumn Days.

Paris (Special).—Paris has no end of attractive out-of-doors cafes where city-bound Parisians flock in the evenings. The Bois is full of these attractive little places, that are decked out in the gayest colored lanterns through the summer evenings, and though it is thoroughly understood that one must pay just twice as much for a dinner at a Bois cafe, they are always well patronized. The most unique cafe in Paris is on the first landing of the Eiffel tower. In fact there are two very swell cafes there and a theatre. They are so popular now that one must engage a table a week beforehand, especially the outside tables that border the promenade.

The promenade is a great broad space left between the tables and the railing of the tower, and after the dinner hour it is literally thronged with a most fashionable crowd that is always gaily attired. One is always sure to find a host of foreigners at the Eiffel tower restaurants, who are interested in the splendid bird's-eye view of Paris to be had from the promenade.

Then the delightful vaudeville performance at the theatre is simply captivating, and though the early autumn breezes blow a bit to cool for one's comfort at times, the popularity of the tower restaurants continues. Here the moon shines upon rich autumn toilets and the women star-gaze in exquisite creations. One of the richest toilets I have seen was worn by a beautiful Spanish heiress, whose home is in South America. The skirt was a full godet of pale gray satin, edged with a plisse of deep cream Valenciennes. Above the plisse there was a trimming of lace applique and jet. The bodice was of black satin, with a broad white satin vest covered with the design in cream lace and jet. Turning back from the vest were narrow straps of the gray satin, edged with narrow cream Velenciennes. Tiny square buckles of strass held these straps in place. The sleeves of black satin were close fitting to the elbow, and above that they were draped in quite generous folds. A high ruff of cream mousseline de soie topped the tall crush collar of cream satin. The hat was a broad flat of cream straw, with a demi-bando of yellow roses at the back that tipped it quite over the face. Around the crown there were a choux of pale yellow mousseline de soie and bows of broad black velvet ribbon at the back.

Another striking costume much in evidence on the promenade had a skirt of hunter's green satin that boasted great width. The blouse was of soft silk in a tiny blue and green plaid, fastened on the bias. At the shoulder seams the silk was gathered in very full, and the fullness at the waist was confined in narrow perpendicular tucks of four inches that allowed the silk to ripple in short basques just below the waist line. At the bust line there was a band of white satin that extended also around the sleeves and was covered with large iridescent sequins, showing colors in green and blue. The collar was a crush stock of hunter's green satin, with a ruff of black mousseline de soie.

A hat of dark blue straw, trimmed with bows of white taffeta and a bird of paradise feather, was worn with this gown.

A beautiful collette of claret colored velvet was worn with a white alpaca costume. The square yoke of the velvet was draped to the left side and fastened there with a strass buckle and a cascade of real lace. Around the collette were two full frills of black mousseline de soie and a high tour de cou of the same gave a finish to the neck.

One of the latest black and white costumes is built of white satin with rather a narrow stripe in black running through it. The skirt is a full plain godet, with the fullness at the back, and over the hips it fits without a wrinkle. The bodice has a short yoke of mousseline de soie over white satin that is edged with black satin and lace. Coming from the shoulder seams are two long tabs of black satin reaching nearly to the girdle that are trimmed with appliques of lace. The crush girdle is of black satin and the mousseline de soie topping it. The richly hued silks are so elaborate in design and color that they can afford to be made up very simply.

A gown I saw in subdued greens and gold had a full dartless bodice and a broad vest of white satin belted down by a crush girdle of hunter's green velvet. The skirt was a trifle fuller than the ordinary godet on account of the extreme softness of the silk and for that reason the sleeves were more generous

The crush collar of hunter's green velvet was mounted by a frill of cream musseline de soie.

A hat of yellow straw that was worn with this costume was trimmed in deep orange taffeta bows and black tips.

A fetching gown, worn by a tall, willowy young girl, had a full godet skirt of embroidered crepe de Chine, with figures in old rose and dull green. A narrow panel of white satin, with a border of deep green velvet was inserted at the right seam of the front gore. At the front there was a vest and a cascade of embroidered mousseline de soie brought down into a narrow green velvet girdle.

The broad lapels of green velvet had over them smaller lapels of white satin with appliques of cream lace. A facing of pale green satin showed in the full lapels of the short basques. One is almost willing to forgive the extravagance of the Eiffel Tower dinner for the sake of the eye-feast that one is sure to have there.

I saw a dressy little jacket of black satin that was slipped over a cream poplin gown. It was a full, dartless affair, with big bishop sleeves and rolling revers of white satin. The close-fitting vest of white satin was covered with puffs of cream mousseline de soie. There was a high ruff of the musseline de soie around the neck. The cuffs of white satin were short, stiffened affairs that rolled back from the wrist.

I can say with the utmost confidence and without fear of being contradicted a month from now, that the winter coats will be loose fronted. The fall ones are even more than this. They are straight all around. The prevailing mode for the little coat which you take with you these first cool evenings to slip on is a little satin coat, lined with taffeta of a brilliant color. You can have a russet coat lined with rose, a green one lined with pink, a black one lined with heliotrope or a black and white. The latter is not quite as pretty as when combined with a color.

One marvellously pretty little coat is a black silk one, with white satin cuffs and collar. A piping of rose satin extends around the coat, and the seams are strapped with it. The buttons are in rose tints, and the mousseline de soie around the neck is rose color. This may be a perishable little affair, but it is the ideal. And from the ideal all others are fashioned.

For a nice little fall coat for home wear I would suggest a covert cloth of tan lined with shell pink taffeta. If a thin little coat is wanted, and an inexpensive one, the lining need not extend further than a strip down the front and at the wrist. The buttons can be white pearl ones of very large size, and for the touch of black let there be a turn-over collar and cuffs of black taffeta. That is a dressy little garment. Lace, I notice, is put upon covert, silk, velvet and muslin, upon diagonal, doeskin, batiste and taffeta; upon everything, and strange to say, it looks well in all.

"THE MOON SHONE UPON A RICH AUTUMN TOILET."

Importance of the Hand-Glass.

"It is curious how many people dress themselves as if they were paper dolls," says a writer in the New York Tribune. "They have everything well arranged and becomingly put on in front, while the back seems quite a secondary consideration. Yet a neat-looking back, with hair, neck-ribbon, waistband, bows, etc., all accurately placed, is most attractive. It seems hard to realize in looking at one's reflection in a mirror, that the reverse of the picture is quite as much, if not more, seen by people in general, and that a well-dressed woman should scan her back carefully by the aid of a hand-glass before leaving her room. Hair particularly should be especially studied at the back, as at the front, with the additional reason for care in that to very few women is it given to possess a pretty nape of the neck, with the hair growing tidily about it. 'It is the only place where Nature shows herself a bit of a sloven—she's apt to leave it unfinished,' said an artist critic, speaking of this particular spot. So it is well to let judicious art supplement nature at this point, and to endeavor to make it attractive."

TO PROTECT THE GAME.

All Sportsman Which Fall in Line and Follow Port Arthur's Example.

The sportsmen of Port Arthur have set an example to other residents of the game districts of Ontario by forming an organization for the enforcement of the game laws, with the sheriff of Algoma as president. Every member is pledged to do everything in his power to see that the law is enforced against those hunters who are guilty of breaches of the act. This is the class of organization the Ontario government is most anxious to promote, as the men who are guilty of breaking the law are not usually outsiders, but residents of the game districts in whose interests the act chiefly exists.

Now let the sports of Peterborough and vicinity get to work, form an active gun club, and put down the law-breakers with a firm hand. Fish are speared, snared and netted, and ducks shot, during the close season, but convictions by game wardens are few and far between. We have it on good authority that Stony Lake and other well known duck haunts were shot out nearly a week before the season opened.

Anold hunter says that the increasing practice of duck hunters in using live decoys means the utter extermination of this game within a short time. The live decoys are better than the artificial ones, and the destruction of game which a couple of hunters with a flock of decoys are capable of is tremendous. To obtain live decoys hunters secure wild duck eggs and have them hatched out by the tame ducks. When hunting, these semi-wild ducks are anchored and generally secure for the hunters as a fat bag.

A VERY LARGE CLASS.

The County Model School, Norwood, is now in full running order, and the students actively engaged in preparing themselves for the responsible positions many of them will hold as teachers at the beginning of the New Year.

The attendance this year is the largest in the history of the school. Already there are forty-nine enrolled. These students are gathered from the three nearest High schools as follows: Peterborough, 22; Norwood, 18; Campbellford, 8, and Lakefield P. S., 1; making it, if not the largest, one of the largest. Model classes in the province.

It is gratifying also to notice that the non-professional standing of the students is high compared with other years, over half of this number holding junior or senior leaving certificates: thus four have Senior leaving, 23 Junior leaving and 22 Primary certificates.

The Model Class as well as students of the High School are always welcomed by the people of Norwood, who try to make their stay a pleasant one.—Register.

Men who suffer from mental worry and overwork will find prompt relief in Miller's Compound Iron Pills. 50, dozen, 25 cents. Sold in Peterborough by WM. MADILL, druggists.

NEWS NUGGETS.

Paragraphs Picked Up and Pencilled for Public Perusal.

—The Court House Park is now surrounded by a fence of barbed wire, consequently the park is closed for the season.

—The Ladies' Aid of the Charlotte street Methodist church intend holding a dinner on Thanksgiving Day. d-tm

—The steamer North Star is busily engaged in hauling wood from points on Rice Lake to town, as is also the steamer Beaver, to supply the wood markets in and about town.

—The Street Railway Company are displaying commendable promptitude in the manner in which they are relaying their tracks along George street. Their men are hard on the heels of the sewer employees.

—The steamer City of Peterborough is at present engaged in dredging at the mouth of the Keene River, after which she will be dredging the mouth of the Otonabee, which is rapidly being filled with sawdust.

—John Irvine, of Belleville, who was charged with escaping from custody whilst under arrest was discharged this morning by Magistrate Dumble, as it seems that his commitment was not correctly made out by the Lakefield magistrate.

—A great deal of stock has been shipped out of the back country of late. A stock man who knows the back country thoroughly says he is surprised that the farmers do not raise a better class of animals—some of them have a few head of good stock, but sell them off instead of retaining them to improve their herds. As a consequence "scrubs" are in the majority in districts where fine pasturage makes it possible to raise the very best stock economically.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Wheel Talk and Items of Local and General Interest to Sportsmen.

LACROSSE.

The lacrosse boys have made arrangements to use the drill shed to practice running in, so that they will be in good shape for the final matches. Every player is expected to be at the shed to-night in his suit, and it is hoped that not one member will be absent. The boys are all right in their stick work, and once they get into thoroughly good shape by practicing running, the Georgetown team will have no such snap with them as it has had with the teams it has run up against lately.

A copy of the protest filed by the Orillias against Peterborough has been received. In it, as the grounds of protest, it is stated that the Peterborough's played without producing their certificates, both in Orillia and in the return game here; that the Orillia's scored a game which was not allowed to count by the Peterborough umpire; that Jimmy McCabe, who played, was not a member of the team, and that the referee was not the one chosen by the Association to act. To the Peterborough's, the protest looks like a case of "small potatoes." If both games are declared cancelled on account of the non-production of certificates Orillia would never be "in it" for a minute with the Peterborough's, as demonstrated in the last match. In Orillia the Peterborough's simply ran in the hardest kind of luck.

THE ONTARIO TANKARD.

The secretary of the Granite Curling Club has received the plan of grouping for the primary competitions for the Ontario Tankard for 1897.

Group No. 3 is composed of the following clubs:

Peterborough Thistle.
Lindsay.
Lakefield.
Bobcaygeon.
Orillia.

Group No. 7 is as follows:

Peterborough Granites.
Toronto Granites.
Toronto Caledonian.
Hamilton Thistles.
Galt.

A meeting of the Peterborough Granites will be held in the Curling Rink at eight o'clock on Thursday evening, 8th inst., to elect officers for the ensuing year. It is necessary that there be a full attendance, as any change that may be desired in the grouping must be sent to the general secretary before the 17th inst., and the list of officers must be in by the 14th.

THE WHEEL.

On Sept. 18th a bicycle meet was held in Lindsay, which, it appears, was unsanctioned by the C. W. A. For competing in this race several riders are to-day suspended by the racing board. A. E. Silverwood, H. Parkinson and P. Spence, three riders living in Lindsay and vicinity, who are pros., rode while under suspension, and now will do no more racing for the balance of the year. For competing with these men at this meet, R. Godfrey, Victoria Road; E. Houghton, Lindsay; Angus McLeod, Woodville—not the Sarnia crack; R. Campbell and W. Lee, are likewise suspended.

Our Prize Clothing.

Our Clothing has had the call at all the Fairs. It was nothing new to find the Directors decorating our display with the Red Prize Tickets. NEWS OF THE STRIKE

Still the Vexatious Affair is Not Settled,

BUT MATTERS ARE IMPROVING.

C.P.R. Officials Confident That the Worst is Over, But From the Other Side Come Insinuations That the Present Quietness is Only a Lull in the Storm.

Toronto, Oct. 7.

Unless the assertion of the strikers that they have a strong card up their sleeve is absolutely true, the much-discussed trouble on the C.P.R. is practically over. Passenger trains are running pretty well on time and even freights are now being moved on most sections of the road. A rather uncertain state of affairs still exists on the North Shore, but even there the company, with the aid of the blue-coats, seems to be getting the upper hand. At some points on that division the non-union men are still being driven out by the inhabitants, and solitary incidents of a similar nature occasionally occur on other parts of the road. At Peterboro, for instance, the new operator was forced by a mob to quit the city, but the stations where such things are happening are the exception, which go to prove the rule.

Of course the present calm may be only a lull in the storm. The striking operators steadfastly maintain that the word has merely to be given to cause the trainmen throughout the system to go out.

At any rate it goes without saying that in any event the road officials will make every effort to keep the chief passenger trains moving, even if they have to man them themselves.

It is not generally known, by the way, that in the last strike on the C.P.R., which occurred about six years ago, arrangements were made, that if the worst came to the worst the company's office men should keep as many trains as possible on the track, and crews were accordingly picked out for the various trains from among the railway's city desk men. The Toronto-Montreal express, for instance, was to have been manned by Supt. Leonard of the O. & Q. division, City Passenger Agent W. R. Callaway, E. R. Drausfield, another local agent, and a fourth Toronto employe. Mr. Leonard, who understands all about a locomotive, was to be engineer; Mr. Drausfield, fireman; Mr. Callaway, conductor, and the remaining member of the quartette, brakesman.

Superintendent Leonard is not yet back from Montreal, whither, it is understood, a deputation of trainmen from the West went last evening, to interview Assistant-General Manager Tait, on behalf of the strikers.

The fact that the authorities are becoming easy in their minds is proven by the circumstance that Assistant Superintendent Williams and Chief Train Despatcher Price, who since the strike began have always remained for half the night at the Union Station, went home early last night. The number of operators sent from Toronto in the last week was al

THE SITUATION AT MONTREAL.

Little Interest in the Strike, Which Still Remains Unchanged.

Montreal, Oct. 6.—(Special.)—Public interest in the strike seems to have died out, and all that can be said to-night is that the situation is unchanged. There arrived in the city this morning Messrs. G. H. Pike, Fort William's representative of the Order of Railroad Conductors; S. Kennedy, Winnipeg, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; A. W. Sawyer, Winnipeg, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, and S. Young of Winnipeg, of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, who represent that they are here in a conciliatory capacity, with a view to see if something cannot be done to put an end to this unfortunate trouble.

Mr. Tait told your correspondent to-night that there was no result so far. He had told the delegates that the situation had been gone over many times and the company's position was clearly defined.

THE FEELING IS BITTER.

How the Telegraphers' Strike on the C. P. R. Looks at Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 6.—(Special.)—Apart from the development of a meeting of intense bitterness, there is absolutely nothing new to report from here in connection with the telegraphers' strike. The men remain firm, while the company proceeds in its efforts to re-organize the telegraphic system. The general feeling here is that the men will be back at their posts inside the next 24 hours or else the tie-up will have assumed a more serious aspect. If the strike should extend to other departments of the great transcontinental railway, it is believed the Federal Government will have to promptly intervene. It is understood the representatives of engineers, conductors and trainmen who have gone to Montreal for a conference with President Sir William VanHorne will suggest that the strikers be allowed to return to work and that then they shall submit their grievances to the division superintendents for consideration, in accordance with the company's rules of discipline. If they then fail to get a satisfactory adjustment they will, according to understanding, renew their petition at the fountain.

NOT MUCH TRUTH IN THIS.

Grand Secretary Austin of the Telegraphers Must be Misled.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 6.—Grand Secretary Austin of the Order of Railway Telegraphers has received despatches from points on the Canadian Pacific Railway, which, he asserts, show that the tie-up is practically complete, and that only a few passenger trains are moving. Mr. Austin claims that the road is unable to move any freight, and that large quantities of Oriental goods, as well as perishable property, are lying on different divisions. He asserts that cattle are starving in cars in the middle sections of the road.

IN THE FAR WEST AND EAST.

Trains Running on the Rocky Mountains Division and at St. John N.B.

These despatches are furnished by the C.P.R. Company for publication in The World:

Revelstoke, B.C., Oct. 6.—All the smaller stations on the Pacific division of the Canadian Pacific Railway have been furnished with operators, who came in here from the Pacific coast, and all vacancies on this division are now filled. Both passenger and freight trains are running on schedule time.

And in the East.

St. John, N.B., Oct. 6.—Both freight and passenger regular services on the Atlantic Division are in operation. Every station is filled with operators with the exception of two or three points in Maine, where some old employes have been given an opportunity to come back.

THE OPERATORS ARE WAITING.

It Would Appear From This That the Road is in Bad Shape.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 6.—On the surface, locally at least, the strike situation seems to be unchanged. Passenger trains are arriving as usual, some considerably late, some only a few hours late, but on the whole making fair time. The Winnipeg train, due here yesterday at 4.50, was several hours late. It was a special from Winnipeg. Other trains arrived close to schedule time. Little if any freight is moving, as the company seems unwilling to run the risk of creating any disorder by running trains that have no schedule time. The strikers seem more sanguine to-day or the ultimate outcome than at any time since the strike was declared.

The railway officials have had a week in which to do their best to remedy matters, and fill positions, and the telegraphers say that the situation is just as unfavorable to the company as it was on last Tuesday morning.

An operator who arrived in the city this morning from Port Arthur, and who, for future interests, does not want his name published, told a reporter that there are only four operators at work on the whole division between Chalk River and Port Arthur and none between Sudbury and the Soo. On the coast divisions, from Calgary to Vancouver, he says, the operators have information that there is only one operator and six despatchers. The situation just at present seems to be one of waiting.

A CALL TO ARMS.

British Soldiers and Militia Were Summoned to Duty, but it Was Only for Playing at War.

Halifax, Oct. 6.—At the "call to arms" for to-day's mobilization of the British soldiers and local militia, the turnout included the Royal Berkshire Regiment, the Royal Horse Artillery, and the 66th and 63rd Militia Regiments, the 63rd with their bicycle corps. After a short review by Gen. Moore, the troops proceeded to the positions assigned to them for the attack and defence of the city, and, though rain set in and fell heavily all day, the program was fully carried out. The 66th was attacked on the St Margaret's Bay road by two skeleton companies of the Berkshire Regiment, and retreated to the head of the Arm, where the main body of the Berkshire Regiment was stationed for defensive purposes, and drove the enemy back. Another attack from the northwest suburbs had a similar ending. The 63rd Regiment met and repulsed a body of bluejackets from H.M.S. Intrepid, who attempted to land at York Redoubt, while the warship steamed into the harbor from the sea, exchanging shots with the forts as she advanced. The harbor forts are manned by artillery of the militia and regulars.

NOW THEY'RE ALL DIGGING.

One Man Found a Pot of Money and His Neighbors are on the Hunt.

Detour, Oct. 6.—In 1825 the paymasters at old Fort Drummond, near the mouth of St. Mary's River, became insane. Shortly before his death he buried a large sum of gold, chiefly English sovereigns, entrusted to him for the soldiers. In spite of careful search the gold was not discovered, and the post was finally abandoned. A few days ago Byron Saltonstall of Chicago, on the island known as "Judge Steere's Island," dug up an iron pot full of gold, all English sovereigns, of the time of George II. He says his find amounted to more than one thousand dollars. Now everybody on the island are digging for buried treasure.

Will Give Him $1500 a Year.

London, Ont., Oct. 6.—A special meeting of the London Presbytery was held to-day to consider a call from Dutton to Rev. James Little of Dornoch, in Owen Sound Presbytery. The Dutton congregation offered $1100 salary and two months' vacation. The call was signed by 116 members and 84 adherents, being practically unanimous. Provisional arrangements were made for the induction at Dutton. The date will be fixed by the clerk. It depends upon the time of the Owen Sound Presbytery meeting.

The Hope in a Hurricane.

St. John's, N.F., Oct. 6.—The Peary steamer Hope put in for a harbor at Ferryland, 40 miles south of St. John's, this afternoon. When four days' run from Sydney she encountered hurricane weather and could make no headway, until the storm abated. No details of the voyage are procurable until she arrives.

WITHIN OLD VARSITY

Did the Convocation Ceremonies Take Place

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN YEARS.

The Rollicking Students Made the Halls of the Gymnasium Resound—The Prizemen and Honor Graduates—The Poor Freshies Had to Run the Gauntlet.

Toronto, Oct. 7.

For the first time for several years 'Varsity convocation was held yesterday within the walls of 'Varsity buildings. The students this year are reported by the registrar to be more numerous than for many years, and the fact that the proceedings took place in the Gymnasium, which the students regard among all the other University buildings as peculiarly their own, caused them to turn out in large numbers in honor of the occasion. The heavy rain probably militated somewhat against the attendance of the ladies, who did not attend in such large numbers as on previous occasions, but enough of them braved the elements to give evidence that "'Varsity" and its graduates and undergraduates still retain their interest and affections. But the elements could not in the slightest dampen the enthusiasm of the student. Long before the hour set for the opening he commenced to be in evidence in and around the "gym." The gallery was his special stamping ground, and he stamped and sang and uttered his college and class "yells" with ever-increasing force and enthusiasm until long after the President, with his distinguished visitors and the faculty, had taken their seats upon the platform. His enthusiasm once cut loose was almost beyond restraint, and the audience were favored with much vocal music, keen wit and sarcastic hits, which appeared to be thoroughly enjoyable, and kept it entertained and amused until the entrance of the faculty and distinguished visitors. As Hon. E. Blake was seen advancing up the aisle an enthusiastic student in the gallery shouted, "What's the matter with Blake?" which elicited the usual response, "He's all right," followed by loud cheers.

Seated upon the platform around President Loudon, were His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, Hon. Edward Blake, Attorney-General Hardy, Dr. Ingpal Caven, Prof. Clark, G. H. Needler, B.A., Ph.D., A. Carruthers, M.A., W. S. Milner, M.A., Rev. Canon Sweeney, G. W. Johnston, B.A., Ph. D., Fred Winnett, M.D., Prof. W. H. Fraser, B.A., James Ballantyne, Prof. C. A. Chant, A. H. Abbott, I. H. THE PRIZE-WINNERS.

It was some time before order could be obtained, and the presentation of the following awards was accompanied by a running fire of remarks by the enthusiastic students, which rendered the remarks of the various professors who presented the candidates entirely inaudible:

Boils

It is often difficult to convince people their blood is impure, until dreadful carbuncles, abscesses, boils, scrofula or salt rheum, are painful proof of the fact. It is wisdom now, or whenever there is any indication of

"I had a dreadful carbuncle abscess, red, fiery, fierce and sore. The doctor attended me over seven weeks. When the abscess broke, the pains were terrible, and I thought I should not live through it. I heard and read so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I decided to take it, and my husband, who was suffering with boils, took it also. It soon purified our

"OFFENSIVE PARTIZANS."

Nearly three hundred years ago the weak and vain James I insisted on the "divine right of kings," and it is left to the Conservatives in Canada, in this enlightened age, to insist on their divine right to office. Our local evening contemporary following the lead of the Montreal Gazette, whines piteously over the loss of office by a few offensive "partizan officials." In this matter the precedent established by Sir Charles Topper, as shown by letters read in Parliament, was followed, and it seems a very good precedent to follow. A government official, no matter what his politics, if he feels it his duty to take an active part in elections on behalf of the government that appoints him, should consider that he stakes his official life on the issue of the contest. If his government is beaten it retires from office; and its "official" champion must expect to share the fate of his superiors. He staked on the chances, and, like the gambler that takes his chances on the cards, he should accept the fate of the game without "squealing." If the dismissed offensive partisans felt it their duty to fight tooth and nail against the Liberal party at the last election, they certainly expected to reap the advantage of the success of the late government. If the Liberal party, by its unfitness for office, justified the partizan official's zeal against them; if they were unfit for the office they sought, they were unfit for him to serve under and if he wished to be consistent he should have retired with the only government which he thought fit for office and have refused to serve under a government he felt it his duty to oppose. If the offensive partizan had a single spark of pride he would refuse office under a party which he denounced from the stump with the greatest venom during the election campaign. He acts the part of a cur, that is willing to eat the bread of a man he has betrayed in advance. If a business man purchased an establishment would he be expected to retain in his service the employees of the staff of the former owner, who had denounced him as a scoundrel and unfit and incapable of honestly and successfully managing the business? Yet the whining and paling press of the Conservative party want to apply this principle to offensive partizans who stumped the country with bitterest denunciations of the Liberal party, and now, that the latter are in power, come crawling and fawning like whipped curs, begging to be allowed to serve under men whom they declared were the incarnation of evil. It was right for Sir Charles Tupper to dismiss offensive partizan officials for similar acts, but it is wrong for the Liberal party to do so now. An official has a right, like any other citizen, to exercise his franchise, but if he wants to make a business of politics he should, as Mr. Laurier suggests, have a chance to do so untrammelled by official duties. Public servants must learn the lesson that they are paid to perform certain duties and that if they attempt to prevent the free choice of rulers, on the part of the people, they must accept the result—if they win all right, if they lose they should take their "licking" like men.

Paragraphs of Local Interest to Endeavourers Supplied by the County Union.

WORLD'S CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOUR PRAYER CHAIN.

(Subject of Prayer for October."

Pray especially for those missionaries labouring in hard, discouraging and perilous fields. Pray for the "volunteers" who are making ready to "go to the front."

A LITTLE LESSON IN THE SCHOOL OF PRAYER.

"The missionaries of the cross are our missionaries. They stand in our stead, sent by our gifts, and break the bread of life to millions of starving souls. Even more than we owe to the missionaries the support of our money we owe to them the stronger support of our prayers. The church's representatives in the regions beyond should be borne up in the power of our faithful supplications, so that none of the discouragements that beset them can for one moment dim their faith or weaken their powers. Our own lives will be enriched and refreshed by sincere, fervent and unfailing prayer for those who serve on the mission field, and the missionaries themselves will be blessed with double strength and courage by the knowledge that the church at home is pleading with the Lord of the harvest on their behalf. Pray, Christians, pray. The crisis of millions is upon us. Perils beset on every hand; possibilities beckon from every corner of the earth. Pray for those who would menace the progress of the kingdom. Pray for the church that keeps from God the gold that He would use as His messengers of mercy. Pray for the volunteers who stand ready to enter the harvest field. Pray for the great masses of the unsaved. Pray for the Master's missionaries that they may know nothing among men save Jesus Christ and Him crucified, and that the strength of the Lord may be mightily theirs."

LAKEFIELD LOCAL UNION.

On Friday evening, Sept. 11th, the Local Union held its quarterly meeting in the Baptist church, at which the report of the county delegate, Mr. Martin, to the Washington convention was given. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Martin for the able report.

BETHEL—KEENE CIRCUIT.

The meeting was opened by the president and the prayer meeting lead by Miss Maud Hutchison. Rev. R. E. Spence conducted a missionary topic. He made plain the importance of missionary work in the Young People's Society, and urged us on as a society to devote our energies to a revival of missionary work. The attendance was good and we hope that all present would be helped by the words spoken, and have a great desire to help on the missionary cause.

ST. PAUL'S JUNIOR SOCIETY

held their annual flower show on Thursday evening, Oct. 1st. The Social Committee of the Young People's Society gave the juniors a social. After refreshments, the programme was proceeded with. The parents were invited and many availed themselves of the opportunity of spending an hour with the juniors. After the programme was rendered the flowers were sold. The money raised in this way goes to missions.

THE WASHINGTON REPORTS.

The county delegate has now gone the rounds and delivered the report throughout the county. The report was given in seven places, viz., Salem, Lakefield, Smith, Springville, Keene, Norwood and Peterborough. The convention hymns were used and helped very much to brighten the meeting. The public districts were well represented at each of the rallies with the exception of Norwood. The report was given there on Tuesday, 29th. The weather was very unfavourable, only a few members of the local societies were present. Havelock and Westwood intended sending representatives but were prevented. For the benefit of the young people of the Park street Baptist society the report will be given in their church on Wednesday evening, 7th inst. Any district that had no chance to hear the report and desiring to hear it should notify the secretary, Mr. E. G. Porter, Keene, P.O., at once.

This week the interprovincial convention is being held at Ottawa. The societies of town are not represented.

St. Paul's society will give a social to the young people of the church on Thursday evening, 8th inst.

TAMING THE FRESHMEN.

The Sophomores Did Heavy Work in Their First Hustle.

After the convocation ceremonies, and in fact before Mr. Blake had finished his address, the sophomores could be seen filing out in twos and threes and forming in crowds in the corridors. Soon the word was passed around, and every door opening from the gallery, where the freshmen had congregated, was guarded by detachments of second, third and fourth-year men. Even the pouring rain did not dampen their ardor. Outside the building about 20 members of the football team, in playing costume, had prepared themselves for the anticipated scrap. There was a large class of first-year men, and every preparation was made to suitably receive them, by conveying to them an idea of their utter helplessness in the hands of their more advanced tormentors. Finally, the first "freshie," pale and trembling, appeared at the side door, through which all had to pass. He was promptly seised and forced to run the gauntlet through about 50 big, burly sophomores, who hustled and jollied him along and finally left him, torn and bleeding, lying in the mud. Then things got decidedly interesting, the "freshies" began to come in pairs, and sometimes by companies. These were quickly tripped by men placed for the purpose, dragged one on top of the other through mud and grass, and those who managed to get on their feet were promptly seized by the shoulders from behind and unceremoniously forced to turn a couple of somersaults.

From one of these melees, one poor freshman was dragged out with a dislocated arm and a pale and badly-disfigured face. This was the only accident to mar the gentle sport.

When the freshmen were all out, and had all run the gauntlet, the sophs. formed a solid phalanx and charged upon the assembled newcomers. A free-for-all tussle ensued. The freshmen were finally obliged to give a little ground, and a few of them were driven over the hill, but the honors were about even. The boys then thought they had carried a first-class initiation ceremony into effect, and retired, followed by yells, "Century! Century! C-e-n-t-u-r-y!" by the class of 1900. When the rumpus was over, scarcely a man walked off the field without bearing some mark in the shape of a black eye, a torn shirt, or other disfigurement by which to remember the day. But the freshmen had been tamed.

TWEED TOPICS.

Mrs. James Davenport Makes a Statement for the Benefit of Others.

Mrs. Davenport is well-known in Tweed, and this is how she spoke to our representative concerning Doan's Kidney Pills. Said Mrs. Davenport:—

"I have suffered for some years from dizziness, puffing under the eyes, pains in the side and back, sleeplessness, poor appetite, and, in fact, was in a bad state generally.

"I took two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at P. K. Newton's drugstore, and experienced immediate relief from their use.

"I am now very much better indeed; appetite improved, pain almost disappeared and I feel stronger and healthier in every particular.

"I can heartily recommend them to all sufferers from kidney trouble."

MATTERS AT OTTAWA

Plenty of Work Ahead For the Premier.

ALSO SIR RICHARD CARTWRIGHT

Hon. Mr Dobell May Have to Go to the London Pacific Cable Conference, as Sir Richard's Services are Necessary in Connection With Tariff Revision.

Ottawa, Oct. 6.—Though the session of Parliament is over the members of the Cabinet are all still here, with the exception of Sir Henri Joly and Hon. Dr. Borden, Minister of Militia. Owing to the important business to come before the Government between now and the next session it may not be possible for the Premier to visit England, as he had intended. Though urged by many of his friends, including Hon. Edward Blake, to take the trip, Mr. Laurier finds the time between now and next session so short and business so important, that he hesitates to give the time which the journey would involve. The same appears to be the case with Sir Richard Cartwright. The brunt of the tariff division will devolve upon him, and although he is possibly the best man in the Government to represent Canada at the Colonial Office Conference on the Pacific cable question, political exigencies will probably keep him at home, and the Cabinet may have to fall back upon Mr. Dobell.

Sir Oliver Mowat moves into his new home this week. He will be here for a couple of weeks yet, and then will pay a visit to Toronto.

A meeting of the Cabinet was held this morning, and the Treasury Board met to-night.

Mr. C. N. Bell, secretary of the Winnipeg Corn Exchange, arrived here to-day to see the Controller of Inland Revenue regarding the proposed alterations in the grain standards. It appears that the new standard for No. 1 hard will not be operative until it has been gazetted four times. Last Saturday's issue was the first.

The western board for the selection of standards meets at Winnipeg on Oct. 15, and it appears that, as that board may decide with regard to No. 1 hard, so the final decision of the Government on this vexed question will be in proposing to make No. 1 to consist of 75 per cent. of hard Fife, with a minimum weight of 61 pounds per bushel, Sir Henri Joly was guided by the views of the farmers, believing that the men who raise the product should have some say as to how it is to be disposed of. Representations have been received by the Government in favor of the change as stated, not only from members of Parliament, but from Patrons of Industry and the Central Farmers' Institute. The standards board is composed of a large farming representation; indeed, they constitute one half of the membership. The board has been instructed to choose two standards for No. 1 hard, one under the old classification of two-thirds red Fife with a minimum weight of 60 pounds, the other under the new classification. Whichever the farming representatives on the board consider should be the standard, the Government will accept their opinion, and if it transpires that the Controller, in suggesting to the council a change to 75 per cent. and 61 pounds weight has been misinformed, he will at once proceed to rectify it.

Mr. C. Sontum, commercial agent for Canada at Christiania, Norway, has just sent to the Department of Trade and Commerce an interesting report on the growth of trade between Canada and Scandinavia. He says that the imports of cereals into Sweden and Norway annually exceed a value of $8,000,000. Some Canadian flour and rolled oats are finding their way to Norway, but not a tithe of what might be disposed of in that country. Canadian flour is preferred by the bakers there to the United States flour. Mr. Sontum emphasizes once more the importance to manufacturers branding their goods with the name "Canadian" or "Manufactured in Canada." He speaks of a successful shipment of steam radiators from Toronto, and points out that winter apples will find a ready market in Norway. This suggestion, coming at a time when the English market seems to be glutted, ought to merit consideration at the hands of our fruit-growers.

Lt.-Col. McMillan, who has been in the city for the past two weeks advocating the cause of the veterans of '66 and '70, left for home this evening. The colonel is an enthusiast on this question and has interviewed a number of the members, many of whom have expressed themselves favorable to some suitable recognition of the services of those who obeyed the call to arms which went out in the years named. The question will be brought up at the next session of Parliament, and meantime meetings will be held in the various parts of the country interested and public opinion formed on the subject.

Rev. Mr. Maxwell, M.P., left for Vancouver last evening. Messrs. Hugh John Macdonald, Earle and Prior leave to-morrow. Mr. Bostock has gone to England and Mr. Morrison to Nova Scotia. Mr. McInnes, whose infant son died on Sunday and was buried yesterday, will not leave for the West with Mrs. McInnes for a few days.

It is currently reported that many of the Liberal members leaving for home have been told that the next session of Parliament will be called for February 11. It may, however, be two weeks later.

Mr. McColl of New Westminster, B.C., stands a good chance of getting the vacant judgeship on the Supreme Court bench of British Columbia.

James Sinclair, tailor, Yonge-street, Toronto, has been appointed to a position in the Toronto Custom House, made vacant by the death of W. H. Lester. Mr. Sinclair was recommended by business men of Toronto.

The appointment of Clifford Sifton, Attorney-General of Manitoba, to the vacant Portfolio of the Interior may be expected any day. It is likely that Mr. Sifton will run in Brandon on the basis of a settlement of the Manitoba school question, whatever that may be.

Their Excellencies Lord and Lady Aberdeen, with their suite, leave for British Columbia to-morrow. It is a subject of comment in the city that yesterday Lady Aberdeen drove to and from the buildings with the Governor-General on the occasion of the closing of the Parliament.

After repeated revisions regulations respecting importation and exportation of horses have been approved, and may be had on application at the Department of Agriculture.

The Western Island light on Georgian Bay will be illuminated on the 12th inst. with a fine new apparatus, recently brought out from England. The light will be fixed white, varied by flashes every 30 seconds.

Sir C. H. Tupper will be in the city for some days looking up the Behring Sea papers preparatory to his taking up the sealers' case as their counsel before the Behring Sea Claims Commission.

Hon. G. W. Ross, Ontario's Minister of Education, is in the city.

Sir Henri Joly has left for Quebec for a brief vacation.

Mr. Woodyat, iron manufacturer of Guelph, was in the city to-day and saw some of the Ministers on the subject of suggested changes in the tariff.

The Supreme Court opened this morning, a full quorum of judges being present. Under the rules relating to the October term, Quebec cases come on first for hearing. In Turcotte v. Vanderseau, a motion to quash an appeal for want of jurisdiction, Lajoie for the motion, Languedoc, Q.C., contra. Judgment was reserved till to-morrow morning. Judgment in the fisheries' reference, involving the question of jurisdiction by the Dominion or Provinces over inland fisheries, will be decided next Tuesday.

Their Excellencies' present to Sir Charles and Lady Tupper is a gold snuff-box of ample proportions, beautifully chased and suitably engraved "To Sir Charles and Lady Tupper on their Golden Wedding day, from the Earl and Countess of Aberdeen."

GRAND TRUNK REPORT.

United States Sections of the Road Show a Deficiency Passenger Traffic Decreased, But Freight Increased.

London, Oct. 6.—The annual report of the Grand Trunk Railway is published here to-day. The report shows the gross receipts for the year to have been £1,707,539 and the working expenses £1,118,244. Added to this showing of receipts the amount received from the International Bridge Company and the expenses and interest on the securities of controlled lines and other interest obligations leaves the net revenue receipts £573,471 and the net revenue charges £574,812.

The Chicago and Grand Trunk line shows a net revenue deficiency of £54,606, and the Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee a deficiency of £32,654, leaving the Grand Trunk a net revenue deficiency of £83,062.

The decrease in the number of passengers carried is 59,497 and the decrease in passenger receipts £1537. The report also shows a decrease of £575 in the mail receipts and an increase of £5,365 in the receipts from the expressage of small parcels. The increase of freight and live stock traffic is £154,075 as compared with the first half year of 1895.

The working expenses amounted to 71 2-5 per cent. of the gross receipts as compared with 70 4-5 in 1895. The cost of repairs increased £7189, which increase was due to the enforced economies of the previous year. The half year's net charge to the capital account was £32,316, the chief item of which was £12,199 for the Union Station in Toronto.

The report proceeds to say that the charges upon the capital account have been kept within the narrowest limits possible, the expenditures having been mainly on account of works in course of completion. The directors, however, have thought it prudent to conclude with and co-operate with the city authorities in an arrangement for the erection of a new grain elevator at Portland, Maine, which is urgently needed in view of the increased capacity of the steamers which are now crossing the Atlantic. The amount required is $200,000, which will be subscribed by the banks and the city of Portland under the guarantee of the company of the payment of interest at four per cent.

Sir Charles Rivers Wilson, the president, revisited Canada and the United States last spring and personally conferred with General Manager Hays and the other executive officers of the company upon important matters. In view of the continued business depression in Canada and the United States, which has been intensified by the election campaigns in both countries, a return to the normal operations of railways could hardly be expected, but the Board was confident that with the removal of these disturbing influences the Grand Trunk is in as good a position to avail itself of any improvement as any of the trunk lines. General Manager Hays, the report adds, has applied himself to his work with zeal and energy and the directors confidently anticipate that a gradual improvement of the affairs of the company will result from the various measures which he has introduced into the system.

Pretty Rough Comments.

London, Oct. 6.—The Financial Times, commenting on the Grand Trunk report, says: "Even the Grand Trunk, big as it is, will soon not be large enough to hold on without bursting under this piling up of an unbearable debit." The paper adds: "Some say that the board must soon face the necessity for reorganisation unless the times mend."

Last Night at the Opera.

The "Tornado," like all of Lincoln J. Carter's plays, was a great success last night. It is preminently a scenic production, but the company is a most excellent one, and the opera house management are to be congratulated upon securing so excellent an attraction.

The Coldwater bicycle club has arranged for a meet at the Coldwater driving park on Friday, Oct. 9th. The events will be—1 mile amateur, 2 mile open, counties Simcoe and Ontario; ½ mile, boys under 16; 3 mile, amateur; 5 mile team race; named race, local. Do you Want One?

Come and take away one of the fine nobby baby carriages we have left, at your own price, at the Peterborough Bookstore. These baby carriages must be run out for the same reason that we are holding our monster sale of wall paper, window blinds and cornice poles, (See advt.) Room is wanted for placing our holiday goods, soon to arrive.

They all Want Good Roads.

Mr. A. W. Campbell, the Ontario instructor in road construction, is highly pleased with the interest taken in road improvement by the various municipalities he has visited. He did not expect his plans to be acted upon by them immediately, but the different corporations are beginning to take an interest equal to that they have always shown in waterworks and sewerage systems. As examples of this, he mentions Ingersoll, where they have purchased road-making machinery, and employed a man to carry out the instructor's views. Orangeville has just completed one street, Arnprior has purchased machinery and laid out streets, and undertaken work along the above line, and the township of Beckwith has employed a stone crusher and is macadamizing the Frankfort road passing through the township. Mr. Campbell will deliver an address at Cavanville on the 23rd of October.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB.

Mr. Lewis Rye's Interesting Paper on "New Zealand"—Ladies to be Admitted to Full Membership.

The Fortnightly Club held the first regular meeting of the season last evening in the Judge's Chambers. Notwithstanding the inclement state of the weather there was a good attendance of members. The paper was entitled "New Zealand" and was read by Mr. Lewis Rye, of North Monaghan. It was an interesting series of personal reminiscence told in a racy manner, which greatly entertained the audience. The voyage to New Zealand in 1859, when young men of England were looking for pastures new, was described in an amusing manner, while the account of the war between the British and the Maori was quite new to the majority of Mr. Rye's audience. Here too he was able to give both humourous and touching reminiscence of a personal character. The evening closed with a general discussion and the examination of a few curios, which Mr. Rye submitted for examination.

During the transaction of business by the Club it was resolved to admit ladies to the full privileges of membership, and it was also decided that the Executive Committee should have power to pass upon all names of ladies submitted to them before the next meeting of the Club.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, October 27th, when a paper on the silver question will be read by Mr. J. W. Garvin, B.A.

ODDFELLOW'S BENEFIT CONCERT

A Small Attendance but a Good Programme.

The Oddfellows are practical philanthropists. Last night, though the weather permitted only a small attendance at Mrs. Wherry's benefit concert, the sale of tickets had been so zealously pushed that a very large audience was represented by the proceeds.

A splendid programme of stereopticon views was presented by Mr. R. M. Roy, chiefly illustrating the World's Fair at Chicago, the views having been taken by Mr. Roy himself. All were excellent and interesting, some especially so. Many of the scenes were heartily applauded. Though Mr. Roy is a host in himself an excellent musical programme was also presented, consisting of a pianoforte solo by Miss Melrose, a quartette by the Misses Belleghem and Messrs. Skitch and Brown, and a duet, "O that We Two Were Maying," by Miss Clara Belleghem and Mr. Brown. The delightful evening's programme closed with the singing of "God Save the Queen," Mr. Roy throwing the words on the screen, accompanied by a superb picture of Her Majesty.

OTONABEE.

Nuptials of Miss Eva Howson and Mr. Malcolm McIntyre.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

An interesting event took place on Wednesday evening, the 23rd September, at the residence of Mr. Thomas Howson, Otonabee, when Miss Eva Howson, second daughter of Mr. Thos. Howson, was married to Mr. Malcolm McIntyre, of Peterborough, brother of Mr. A. A. McIntyre, contractor, of town. At the appointed hour a large party of relatives and friends entered the drawing room, which was beautifully decorated with flowers. The bride's gown was fawn silk, trimmed with chiffon lace. She carried a bouquet of bride roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Ida Howson, sister of the bride, also wore a fawn coloured dress, trimmed with chiffon lace. Mr. Tully, of Peterborough, assisted the groom. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Liddy, of Keene. The young couple received a number of handsome and valuable presents.

Among the guests from a distance was Miss Leonia Johnson, of Lindsay, and Miss Ada Howson, of Campbellford.

After a sumptuous repast was partaken of and the usual good wishes expressed, the newly-wedded couple left for their home in Ashburnham.

We wish them joy and prosperity in their journey through life, and THE EXAMINER joins in the wish.

OPERATORS' STRIKE IS DECLARED OFF.

ALL THE OPERATORS TO BE RE-INSTATED.

That is, All That Have Acted Within the Law—Compromise was the Basis of Settlement—Trainmen and Section Men Act as Peacemakers.

(Special to the Examiner.)

MONTREAL, Que., Oct. 7—The telegraphers strike on the C.P.R. was declared off this morning. It is understood that all those operators who have not performed criminal acts will be reinstated. The other terms are in the nature of a compromise. The trouble was settled by a committee of Brotherhood Engineers, firemen, conductors and switchmen, acting as a conciliatory medium between the C.P.R. and the strikers.

The two local operators who went out are again in harness at the C.P.R. station, a proof that they are re-instated. They and all the other operators are anxiously awaiting details of the settlement, nothing but the bare statement that the strike is declared off having been sent out so far.

THE TRENT CANAL

The Progress of the Rosedale Works.

On the 15th of July last the work of deepening the channel of Balsam river was stopped, as no contract had been let, and, a change of Government having taken place, no one had authority to go on with the job. But, as was anticipated, orders to resume operations were issued, and on Wednesday of last week, exactly a year since the work was commenced, Mr. Wm. Kennedy went up to Rosedale from Fenelon Falls with a few men, and by to-day the full force of about thirty-five will be upon the spot. Between the 1st of October, 1895, and the 15th of July of this year no fewer than 12,000 holes, from two to five feet deep and four feet apart, were drilled in the rocky bottom of the river, and in 3,000 of them charges of dynamite had been exploded up to the time work was stopped. In the other 9,000 wooden plugs long enough to project a few inches above the water were inserted, and although a good many of them are known to have disappeared, the holes out of which they came will not be difficult to find, as the stream is very shallow except in a few places. Nine tons of dynamite cartridges, each weighing something less than half a pound, are stored in a placarded shanty near Rosedale locks, about three-quarters of a mile below the village, and as all the necessary tools and implements are close at hand, there will be no delay in resuming the work, which will be pushed forward with the utmost vigour, in order to get as much as possible done before winter.—Fenelon Falls Gazette.

THE COMMITTEE ON APPOINTMENTS, through its chairman, Trustee Hill, recommended the adoption of the following report:—

1. That Mr. McCalg. of Collingwood, be appointed as a member of the Collegiate Institute staff at a salary of $840 per annum, with annual increase as per schedule.

2. That Mr. Sunsolell, of Cobourg, be appointed as assistant head master of the South Central Public school at a salary of $600 per annum with annual increase as per schedule.

3. That Miss Might be appointed a teacher of the Public School staff at a minimum salary of $375 per annum, with the usual increase.

4. That Miss Bacon be appointed second assistant in the South Central Kindergarten School at the usual salary of $250 per annum.

5. That Mr. Russell be appointed janitor of the Menzies school, his duties to be those laid down for the ordinary janitor in the general rules, and in addition he is expected to keep the grounds well watered during the summer season and the grass thoroughly cut with a lawn mower. His remuneration to be free house—north part of the building—free taxes, free fuel and $35 per annum.

6. That the specialists in the Commercial Department need not necessarily in future be of honour graduate standing.

This change is recommended owing to the difficulty in securing a commercial specialist who has had University training.

Adopted.

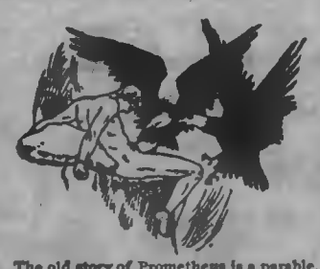
OFFICE—FURNITURE WAREROOMS



The old story of Prometheus is a parable, an allegory. Prometheus was on terms of intimacy with the gods. From them he stole fire, and gave it to men. For this sin he was bound to the rocks of Mount Caucasus, and vultures were set upon him. They only ate his liver. This grew again as fast as it was pecked away. Are his sufferings to be imagined? Yes, and realised.

Take a modern interpretation of the parable. There is no cooking without fire. In cooking and eating the mischief lies. The stomach is overtasked, the bowels become clogged, they cannot dispose of the food that is given them. The impurities back up on the liver. Then come the vultures. The sufferings from an outside, visible hurt, are a mere pin-scratch to the torments of a diseased liver.

But, moderns are ahead of the ancients. There is a sequel to the old story. Dr. Pierce is the author. His "Golden Medical Discovery" is more than equal to the vultures of dyspepsia and its kindred diseases. Every atom of the "Discovery" is an active agent against disease. It flies like a ferret, wherever it is sent. It is as sure as the needle of the compass. There is no more need of suffering from dyspepsia than there is of hanging one's self.

Mr. W. Rogers, of 307 Grayson St., Louisville, Ky. has this to say for himself and the "Golden Medical Discovery": "I was a dyspeptic. I had not had a comfortable night in six years. I have taken three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I am now fifty years old. I feel thirty years younger." Yours truly.

THE CZAR IN FRANCE

ESCORTED BY 32 WAR VESSELS

Amid the Music of Many Bands and the Booming of Cannon the Russian Imperial Yachts Sail - The Russian Emperor Warmly Welcomed to France.

Portsmouth, Oct. 5.—Owing to the early hour, and the absence of a display ashore—this latter at the Czar's request—there was not a large turnout of the people to see the Russian party start to-day for France.

The First Lord of the Admiralty, the Hon. George J. Goschen, on board the Blenheim, started at 6.30 a.m. for the Nab lightship, where a fleet of 32 British warships assembled, to salute Their Majesties, and escort them to mid-channel.

The Polar Star started at 7 a.m., and as she passed the various war vessels their bands played and salutes were fired from warships and shore batteries.

The Polar Star proceeded to Spithead, and was there saluted by the British fleet, accompanied by Vice-Admiral Lord Walter Talbot Kerr, which formed in two lines, and, with the Polar Star in the centre, proceeded seaward to meet the French fleet from Cherbourg, which was to escort the Imperial party to that port.

Arrival at Cherbourg.

Cherbourg, Oct. 5.—The bad luck which seems to cling to the Czar showed itself again to-day. The most elaborate preparations had been made to receive the Russian travelers. The way from the landing stage to the hall of the arsenal had been covered with silk hangings, shields, banners, and flowers; the landing stage itself was beautifully draped; venetian masts were erected; floral, bunting and other decorations were displayed everywhere; but when the work was complete, the weather became threatening, and later a terrific squall swept over the city and fort, felling the venetian masts to the ground, scattering the decorations in all directions, and inflicting great damage everywhere. This morning, however, many hundreds of men were employed in replacing the damage done, and every possible effort was made to have the arsenal, the landing stage and the approaches bright with fresh decorations.

The French northern squadron, consisting of 21 vessels, left the harbor at 8 o'clock, in single file, and with a gale of wind blowing. Before the warships were outside the harbor they were almost completely hidden from view by a heavy rainstorm, which did further damage to the decorations ashore. The gale also increased in force, and a heavy sea began to thunder on the coast.

There seemed little doubt that the Imperial yacht, Polar Star, would receive a severe shaking up on her way here, and, if the storm lasted, she might have difficulty in making port. Storm signals were hoisted here and along the coast.

The French fleet was to meet the Polar Star at about mid-channel, or possibly at the three-mile limit, in view of the heavy weather. But according to program, the French battleship Dupuy de Lome, with President Faure on board, would push on ahead, meet the Czar's yacht, salute her, and then return to Cherbourg, in order to await the arrival of the Russian travelers.

It was not until noon that the news was signalled that the Russian Imperial yacht Polar Star had joined the French squadron and was proceeding to this port with the French warships on each side of her.

The interior of the magazine has been decorated and arranged with all the exquisite taste of the French in such matters, and with the amazing liberality of their present enthusiasm for all things Russian. The interior of the magazine has been divided into a reception hall, a diplomatic hall and a banqueting room, and each is gorgeously furnished and fitted up.

A line of rails has been laid in the arsenal grounds, the terminus being at the door of the diplomatic hall. Here at 9 o'clock to-morrow evening the Czar and Czarina will take the train for Paris, preceded a few minutes by the special train of the President, and quitting the arsenal to the roar of 101 great guns.

The Czar and Czarina have planned to remain five days in France, and will visit Versailles and the Camp de Chasions, where there will be a most imposing review of troops, numbering about 70,000 men.

The Czar and Czarina arrived at 3 o'clock this afternoon, and were given a frantic ovation by the immense crowds that had assembled near the Bassin du Commerce, the Avant Port and the quais in the vicinity. The weather was stormy throughout the night, and early this morning the rain was falling heavily. This had a bad effect on the many beautiful decorations, but did not dampen the enthusiasm of the multitude, which, armed with umbrellas, early sought points of vantage from which they could not be driven by stress of weather.

Along the route from the Quai de L'Ancient Arsenal, which fronts the stern side of the Avant Port, to the railway station, were numberless Venetian masts, which presented a handsome sight last night, but which this morning looked somewhat bedraggled after having been exposed to the storm. Many of them were blown down by a heavy squall which struck here during the night, and a large force of workmen were put at work early this morning to replace them as far as possible.

All night long thousands of persons of all ages and conditions flocked into the town from all parts of the interior, and the trains arriving this morning brought thousands more. The streets were literally packed, but the crowds were very orderly and extremely good natured. The eastern and western jetties and the Glacis at the entrance to the Avant Port were blackened with humanity. None but favored individuals, however, were allowed on these places. Large numbers of gendarmes were everywhere present, but they had no difficulty in keeping order, as the crowds were perfectly tractable.

A stiff gale was blowing outside the harbor all the morning, and a very high sea was running, which made the crossing of the Channel a most unpleasant experience for those not used to sea voyages. It was recalled that the Czar was a very good sailor, he having made a voyage almost around the world while he was Czarewitch, but much sympathy was expressed for the Czarina, who, in addition to being in delicate health, is unused to sea voyages.

At 8 o'clock the French Northern squadron left the roadstead and headed across the Channel for the purpose of meeting the Russian yachts and British warships accompanying them. The squadron were reinforced by warships sent from Rochefort and Brest. They all proceeded to about the middle of the Channel, where they drew up in line and awaited the coming of the Czar.

At about noon signals on the breakwater announced that the Polar Star had been sighted, and the pent-up enthusiasm of the crowd broke forth in a mighty cheer. Prior to this, however, the crowd knew the yacht was approaching, for there had been faintly heard the deep booming of the guns from the French and British warships as they met off shore.

As the vessels approached the breakwater the Polar Star was seen to be making heavy weather of it, sometimes pitching almost bows under. Despite this, the yacht passed into the harbor, past the breakwater. The Czar was seen standing on the bridge, wrapped in a storm-proof cloak.

As the Polar Star passed in the forts on the breakwater thundered forth an imperial salute, and the crowds ashore broke forth in wild cheering. The warships passed ahead of the yacht in the harbor and ranged themselves in two lines, through which the Polar Star steamed slowly to the Quai de L'Ancient Arsenal, followed by the Standart. As the Polar Star passed the bands on the French warships played the Russian national nathem. The Russian standard was flying at the heads of their foremasts, and as it was broken out an Imperial salute was fired.

On the quai, awaiting the coming of Their Majesties, were President Faure, attired in evening dress, with the ribbon of the Legion of Honor. There were also present M. Challemel Lacour, President of the Senate; M. Brisson, President of the Chamber of Deputies; M. Meline, President of the Council of Ministers and Minister of Agriculture; M. Hanotaux, Minister of Foreign Affairs, and a large number of high naval and military officers. M. Meline wore the green decoration of the Merite Agricole. M. Hanotaux was attired in diplomatic uniform, with the red decoration of the Russian Order of St. Andrew.

ALFRED TESSIER Montreal, Que.

Quest Ways of Telling Time.

One of our boys who doesn't own a watch writes about how he tells the time of day. He works in a wheat elevator in Brandon, Man. A big window almost fills one side of his little office. Into a corner of the window creeps the sunlight early in the morning and it shines in all day long and creeps out of the other corner in the evening. On the floor where the edge of the shadow from the window sash falls just at noon our boy has placed a long chalk mark and a little further away there is another mark for 1 o'clock and so on up to 6. The forenoon is similarly divided on the floor. Each day by simply looking at the edge of the sun's light he can tell what time it is. Once in two weeks he changes all these marks because the shadows change as the sun gets higher in the spring or lower in the fall.

This clever device—any of you may use it—suggests the way that the natives of Liberia in Africa, who have no clocks; tell the time. They take the kernels from the nuts of the candle tree and wash and string them on the rib of a palm leaf. The first or top kernal is then lighted. All of the kernels are of the same size and substance, and each will burn a certain number of minutes and then set fire to the one next below. The natives tie pieces of black cloth at regular intervals along the string to mark the divisions of time. Among the natives of Singar, in the Malay archipelago, another peculiar device is used. Two bottles are placed neck and neck, and sand is put in one of them, which pours itself into the other every half hour, when the bottles are reversed.

Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, overcomes that tired feeling, creates an appetite, and gives refreshing sleep.

"Going to Insure."

THE Man who is simply "going to insure" is usually no better than the man who has'nt made the decision. In fact he is usually worse, because he has considered the subject and been convinced of his duty, but has not done it. "Nothing is done so long as anything remains undone." On application to either of the undermentioned gentlemen, full particulars will be furnished in regard to the Unconditional Accumulative Policy issued by the

THE BEST

FAMILY MEDICINE

She Has Ever Known. Words of Praise from a New York Lady for

AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled.

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent la grippe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known."—Mrs. MAY JOHNSON, 368 Rider Avenue, New York City.

THE BICYCLE BOUDOIR.

The Fad Now Runs to Wallpaper, Furniture and Jewelry.

The bicycle has made conquest even of th bicycle girl's boudoir. The private sanctum of a girl who bikes—if you are lucky enough to get a look inside of it—reveals the bicycle fad of its fair owner in all sorts of odd knick-knacks and personal and domestic acessories. From wall paper to furniture these dainty nests of enthusiastic wheelwomen show a surprising number of novelties, all identified with this ruling passion of the world of fashion and athletics.

You would never find these articles at a bicycle show, for they are of the kind dear to the female heart and are not known beyond the confines of the dressing table. For example, the walls are covered with paper on which are stamped scenes portraying incidents of a purely bicycle character. The manufacturers, having found that this style of paper was in great demand, have exercised much cleverness in the way of designs.

One of the oddest of these shows a number of figures of pretty girls and handsome men wheeling along a smooth country road. Grass, trees and sky, as well as the costumes of the riders, are all faithfully reproduced, and the effect is exceedingly pretty. One young woman has selected a number of designs, and, by placing them in order on the walls of her boudoir, has created a sort of panorama of life on the wheel. There is the familiar picture of a scorcher, and another scene pictures the riders coasting down a hill, and a third shows a party of men and women drinking at a roadside well.

To be thoroughly in keeping with the wall paper, the furniture of the bicycle girl's boudoir is also suggestive in every possible way of the silent steed. The castors of the chairs, tables and even of the dainty bed are made of tiny rubber wheels.

A prominent society woman and member of the Michaux Club of New York, has even gone so far as to have a couch made from her own design, which, when folded up and placed against the wall, might readily be mistaken for a miniature quadricycle.

Fresco painters are being freely employed in decorating ceilings with fancy pictures of lovely maidens in gauzy, flowing robes, gracefully bowling over sun-tinted clouds on bicycles mounted with silver and gold.

The list of the smaller accessories necessary to a complete cycling outfit nowadays is practically endless. A Broadway jeweler shows as his newest and most popular design for a bicycle girl's watch a miniature silver wheel with mercury wings caught through the spokes. For richer purses a few of these are made in gold, with the spokes glistening with tiny gems. Every cycler needs a watch and the cases of those intended for the bicycle trade are all handsomely engraved with pretty little figures awheel.

In stick-pins the bicycle is seen in gold, silver and enamel. Sleeve links in gold, with the tiny wheels of platinum are extremely popular. The decoration of handle bars with gold or silver mongrams welded to the coarse metal is also common. In this connection it is interesting to know that jewelers report a lively call for bloomer garters. They are worn just underneath the curve of the bloomer, and differ from the regulation garter only in the fact that they do not show the buckle and may be in any shape the wearer desires. This probably accounts for the orders received by the makers to place on them monograms and initials that are not a bit like those of the fair purchaser.

Tailors who make a specialty of women's bicycle costumes say that skirts are rapidly growing shorter, and that the demand is for cloth and trimmings of the most striking character. This has also given an idea to manufactures of underwear. As a result of it, corsets with wheels embroidered on them are seen in the shops, besides skirts made from goods stamped with the ubiquitous bike.

Golf hose of the same weight and pattern as those worn by men are being generally adopted for use by women since the cooler weather has come. Russet leather shoes, with broad toes, have taken the place of the narrow toes once fancied by women riders.

In selecting her "kit" for use on long runs awheel, the bicycle girl is careful to provide herself with a dainty bag, in which she places all the smaller toilet articles, such as comb and brush, hairpins, manicure set, an extra handkerchief and veil. These bags are embroidered in monograms or initials, or with the name of the club of which the owner is a member. They are swung from the handle-bars, and even these useful portions of the machine are losing their commonplace character, and are often decorated with carvings or plates of the finer metal.

In leather goods the latest novelty is a dainty "grip" of lizard skin, which is swung from the shoulder by a white enamelled leather strap, joined with a silver or gold buckle.

Stationers are getting out bicycle stationery in varied designs, and even the glover is making a special glove, with a padded palm, for the exclusive benefit of feminine votaries of the wheel As the bicycle faddist eagerly clutches at each new article as it appears, the novelties mentioned present a weird, incongruous sight when clustered about one apartment.

Sometimes it seems to weary woman that she must certainly give up. The simplest and easiest work becomes an almost insurmountable task. Nervousness and sleeplessness and pain harrass her and life seems hardly worth the living.

Dr. Pierce's Favourite Prescription was made for her. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was made for her. The former is for ills distinctly feminine, the other for her general system. Together they supply a scientific and successful course of treatment. The "Favourite Prescription" restores healthy regular action to the organs distinctly feminine. It forces out all impurities, strengthens the tissues, allays inflammation. The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes appetite, helps indigestion, promotes assimilation, fills out the hollows in cheeks and neck with good solid flesh and brings back the gladsome glow of girlhood.

Send 31 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, illustrated.

The Clerk's Mistake.

A commercial traveler at Liverpool has "taken a rise" out of the clerk at a certain leading commercial hotel. One day last week he entered the office, and, banging his fist on the desk, demanded, angrily:

"Why didn't you have me called at 6 o'clock?"

"I did," calmly replied the clerk.

"You did not, sir."

"I tell you I did."

"You did not, sir, and I can prove it."

"All right, go ahead, but you can't prove it."

"Yes, I can."

"Prove it, then."

"Well, you did not have me called at 6 o'clock, because I did not leave word to be called at all," and the commercial man grinned and looked for the clerk to blush and apologize.

But he looked in vain. A little thing like that wouldn't bother a hotel clerk.—London Telegraph.

Couldn't Afford It.

Mrs. Cobwigger—"I know it would do me a world of good to go away for the summer, but I couldn't think of letting you stay in the city."

Cobwigger—"Are you afraid of sunstroke?"

Mrs. Cobwigger—"Not at all."

Cobwigger—"It can't be possible that you are jealous?"

Mrs. Cobwigger—"Of you? The idea!"

Cobwigger—"Then what in the world can it be?"

Mrs. Cobwigger—"To tell you frankly, my dear, I don't think we can afford it. Just think what it means for a man to stay in town all summer who plays such a poor game of poker as you."—New York Sunday World.

An Anecdote of Lowell.

The wit and fine spirit of James Russell Lowell are still quite frequently spoken of in the literary circles of London, and anecdotes of him are told with keen enjoyment. On one occasion at a large banquet the peculiarities of American speech were discussed with English bluntness. Lord S- called to Mr. Lowell loudly, so as to silence all other speakers:

"There is one new expression invented by your countrymen so foolish and vulgar as to be unpardonable. They talk of the 'ashes of the dead.' We don't burn corpses. No Englishman would use a phrase so absurd."

"And yet," said Mr. Lowell, gently, "your poet Gray says, speaking of the dead:

"'E'en in our ashes live their wonted fires.'

"And in the burial service of the Church of England it is said: 'Dust to dust, and ashes to ashes.' We sin in good company." A cordial burst of applause greeted this prompt rejoinder.

LINING UP
AFTER THE FAIRS.

Our Prize Clothing.

Our Clothing has had the call at all the Fairs. It was nothing new to find the Directors decorating our display with the Red Prize Tickets. It would have been a surprise if we didn't capture First Prize—not because competition was weak, but because the Clothing could not be bettered in Canada. The reputation of the big store was at stake, and we're more than proud to have deserved the good opinion of the directors as well as the thousands of men folk at the Fairs.

Now we're lining up for a rattling big fall business. We've had a good start already, but the price cards are becoming a more interesting study every day, and the figures startling enough to bring us the trade of the masses.

IS IT GOOD . . . ADVERTISING?

Trying to Build up Your Own Business by Pulling Other People's Down?

We appeal to the Ladies. Isn't it a little bit contemptible, as well as egotistical, to sneak of other stores as "LITTLE ONE-HORSE STORES?" Is it good taste for a firm who hold two or three slaughter sales a year for raising the wind for a trip to Europe, to say "WE DON'T HAVE TO RESORT TO FAKE SALES, NOR DO WE HAVE TO ADVERTISE AT COST?" We await the verdict of the Ladies.

THOSE 5c. FLANNELETTES.

You haven't heard the last of those 5c. Flannelettes of ours. Which caused such a sensation among the ladies. Didn't it prove that it was the "little" stores could turn out the genuine bargains? How the ladies did buy!—very near cleared out before our repeat order came to hand. Get all you want now at 5c. per yard.

BOLD BLANKET TALK.

But the goods are here to back up the argument. Wool Blankets from 75c per up to $3. Blankets won't be as cheap again in a hurry.

HOME-MADE FLANNEL.

There should be no shivering, with such a stock as this to pick from. Seldom has such white and grey home-made Flannel been offered at the prices. Cheap! Yes, but it's price cheapness only.

MANTLES AND MILLINERY.

Everything at the top-notch of style, fit, finish, material, make. Even prettier and newer things to be seen now than at the opening.

FREE—For the next two months, we will cut and fit, free of charge, every Mantle and Dress bought at our store, costing $20 per yard upwards.

STEELS—Ladies' who don't want their Dress Waists perforated in a week with $5 worth of polished stove-pipe wire, can buy our safety rubber-tipped Steels for 15c.

MOVEMENTS OF LORD AND LADY ABERDEEN.

Sir Charles and His Golden Wedding—Fall Militia Camps—General News From the Capital.

C. N. Bell, secretary of the Winnipeg Corn Exchange, before his departure for home to-day had another interview with Mr. Miall, Commissioner of Inland Revenue. Mr. Miall explained that in asking the western board to select two standards of No. 1 hard, one under the old classification and the other under the new, the department will be guided by the views of a majority of the farmers on the board, not of the majority of the board, this being on the lines of policy laid down by Sir Henri Joly, to accept the views of farmers on this important question.

Lord and Lady Aberdeen left for British Columbia on this afternoon's train. They were accompanied by Capts. Sinclair, Erskine and Wilberforce. On the same train were a number of members of Parliament bound homeward, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Hugh John Macdonald, Mr. and Mrs. Davin, Mr. Earle, M.P., Mr. Macdonnell, M.P., Selkirk; Mr. Oliver, M.P., Alberta, and others.

Sir Charles Tupper was in a reminiscent mood to-day. Talking of the event of fifty years ago to-morrow, he said, "My wife and I were born within a mile of each other, near Amherst, in Cumberland County, Nova Scotia, and knew each other from childhood days. Lady Tupper was a daughter of the Hon. H. Morse, prothonotary of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia, and her mother, was Elizabeth Stewart, a sister of the late Hon. Alexander Stewart, C.B., Master of the Rolls and Judge of the Court of Admiralty."

"We were married," continued Sir Charles, "at my wife's residence by the Rev. Canon Townsend. The marriage took place at her residence because the Anglican Church was being re-built at the time."

"There will not be many living at this present day who were present at the wedding ceremony?" the reporter inquired.

"No, not many," said Sir Charles, thoughtfully. "My wife's sister, Mrs. Fullerton of Halifax, Dr. Lewis Johnston, who was one of my groomsmen, and Senator Dickey, are the only persons I can think of that were there. Senator Dickey will likely be here to-morrow, but he will be the only guest who was present at the marriage."

Sir Charles' four sons and daughters will all be present at the celebration of the event.

Representations have been made to the Government by United States Consul Kane of Charlottetown, complaining that Dominion cruisers have warned American fishermen out of Northumberland Straits. A decision given by the Department of Justice some months ago defines Northumberland Straits as territorial waters of Canada. As the fishing season is nearly over, Canada's authority will not likely be vigorously asserted this year, but next season it may be different.

A prominent Chinaman of Victoria, writing to the Controller of Chinese Immigration, thus speaks of advice given to him by Li Hung Chang: "I accompanied him from Vancouver to Victoria on the Empress, where we were detained by fog for nearly 20 hours, during which time he asked many questions. He bade me give my children a good education, both in Chinese and English, which are both useful in China, 'but,' he said, 'do not cut off the queue on any account.'"

Work on the Soulanges Canal has been proceeding very slowly of late. Neither Archie Stewart nor George Goodwin of this city, who hold large contracts, are doing anything. There is said to be some difference of opinion between them and the department which will have to be looked into. It is said by some that the reason more substantial progress was not made was because the money was not forthcoming to pay the contractors for work that each was doing. O'Leary Bros. are the only contractors who have pushed their work to completion. They had a 2-mile section, and expect to have it ready by the close of the session.

Revision of tariff, the chief item of business which the Government is to tackle before the meeting of Parliament again, will not be entered upon for a month yet. Replies to circulars recently sent out by the Department of Trade and Commerce are coming fast, and convey information which the Government were desirous of obtaining before they set about the task of revision.

Hon. F. Peters is here working up the Behring Sea case. One of the few things remaining to be determined is the exact date of meeting of the Claims Commission. It will be some time in November. Hon. L. H. Davies, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, will go west to attend.

The fall militia camps are all over with the exception of one, Col. Domville's corps, which is still in camp at Sussex, New Brunswick. The officials of the Militia Department state that they have every reason to feel satisfied with the success which attended the camps.

ROBBERS SHOT TWO MEN.

Robbed a Bank at Sherburne, Minn. Mounted Wheels and Got Away.

Sherburne, Minn, Oct. 7.—Bicycle bandits this afternoon held up the Bank of Sherburne, killed Assistant Cashier Geo. Thorburn and Olef Oestern, secured $1000 in cash and at a late hour to-night had successfully eluded a posse sent out in pursuit. About noon to-day two men, one of whom looked like a mere boy, rode along the main street on bicycles. They were both well dressed, but were unshaved and travelstained. No particular attention was paid to them. Sherburne is a town of but 300 people, most of them workingmen, and at that hour they were hurrying home to dinner. The strangers hung about the outskirts of the town until shortly after 1 o'clock, apparently "sizing up" the situation. At that time they sauntered lazily down the street, and stopped immediately in front of the Bank of Sherburne. After a moment's talk they went into the bank, and the elder man engaged Assistant Cashier Thorburn in conversation. Precisely what occurred inside the bank is not known, as nobody was on the street in that immediate vicinity at that time. One of the desperados, however, got hold of a roll of bills containing about $1000. Thorburn probably tried to prevent the men from getting away with the money, as they whipped out their revolvers and began firing, and at the same time retreating. One of the bullets struck Thorburn in the neck, and another cut the aoetra, causing almost instant death from internal hemorrhage.

The shooting in the bank aroused the town, and people began running in that direction. The first man to reach the place was Olaf Oestern of Luvern, a traveling salesman for the W. Wood Harvester Co. of St. Paul. The desperadoes evidently feared that they would be captured, as they quickly turned their firearms upon Oestern. He made a dash to grapple with them, but was not quick enough, as he was struck in the head and fell dead at their feet. They ran down the street, firing at random, while people scurried to places of safety.

The fleeing robbers ran about three blocks to a clump of bushes, where they had concealed their wheels, mounted them and rode rapidly away toward the Iowa line six miles to the south.

MISS NELLIE HART MARRIED.

Nichol of Montreal and Miss Nellie G. Hart of this place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. F. Jolliffe, pastor of the First Methodist Church, here. The parties left for New York for the honeymoon trip. Miss Hart spent five years in Japan as teacher and missionary for the Methodist Church of Canada, and was very successful in this field of labor. She only returned to Canada about eighteen months ago.

ROSEBERY RESIGNS

Because He Cannot Agree With Mr. Gladstone

IN REGARD TO TURKISH AFFAIRS

Makes No Complaints, But Declares That When He Speaks This Week He Must Speak His Mind, Not as a Leader, But as a Free Man.

London, Oct. 7.—Lord Rosebery has written a letter to Thomas Edward Ellis, member of Parliament for Merionethshire, and First Whip of the Liberals, resigning the leadership of the party. The reason given for His Lordship's resignation is that he disagrees with Mr. Gladstone and other leading Liberals regarding the proper policy to be adopted on the Eastern question. Lord Rosebery's letter is dated at his seat, Dalmeny Park, Linlithgowshire, Oct. 6. In the communication His Lordship says: "The recent course of events makes it necessary to clear the air. I found myself in apparent difference with a considerable mass of the Liberal party on the Eastern question, and in some conflict with the opinion of Mr. Gladstone, who must necessarily always exercise matchless authority with the party while scarcely from any quarter do I receive explicit support. This situation, except as regards Mr. Gladstone, is not altogether new, but in saying this I complain of no one and regret only that I should appear to divide the energies and try the faith of the Liberals. This question, however, is above and beyond personal considerations, and when I speak, which I do this week, I must speak my mind without reference to oratory. Under these circumstances it is best for the party and for myself that I speak not as a leader, but as a free man. Consequently, I beg to notify you that the leadership of the party, so far as I am concerned, is vacant, and that I resume my liberty of action. I can only feel the deepest gratitude and regret at parting from you and those who, like you, have given me such loyal co-operation under circumstances so difficult."

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY.

London, Oct. 7.—The Daily News to-morrow, commenting on the Earl of Rosebery's withdrawal from the leadership of the Liberal party, will say: "Lord Rosebery has allowed himself to be manoeuvred out of the leadership. Before he can be asked to resume the position he must be accorded a vote of confidence by his colleagues and party. The step taken by His Lordship is a very grave and lamentable one. It is Mr. Gladstone's return to the field that has been the immediate, and perhaps the inevitable cause. Mr. Gladstone's enunciated policy in favor of Great Britain's single-handed action in the East, regardless of consequences, conflicts with the principles to which Lord Rosebery has adhered. In the present crisis Mr. Gladstone certainly has not got the whole nation nor the whole party behind him in that policy."

The News will proceed to argue that, although Mr. Gladstone explained that he spoke as a private citizen he cannot divest himself of the glamor of his old position and the matchless authority which he exercises in the party, and that, therefore when he intervened in practical politics in a sense out of harmony with the declarations of the recognized leader of the party, he obtusely made the latter's position very difficult. The News concludes by saying that apart from the consideration of his age and health, the fit and proper course is for Mr. Gladstone to return to the leadership of the party. If he is ready for this, assuredly everybody will acquiesce. Otherwise, Lord Rosebery holds the field and must be re-elected. His Lordship has altogether exaggerated and misconceived the opposition to him.

The Daily Chronicle, which has always opposed Lord Rosebery's leadership, will contend that the general tone of the Liberal policy as regards the East is not represented by Lord Rosebery. The Chronicle pays a rich tribute to his honesty and states that it recognises his high qualities, etc., but accepts his decision. The Chronicle will add that the immediate duty of the Liberals and Radicals is clear. Sir William Vernon Harcourt should succeed Lord Rosebery by unquestioned and unquestionable right of service. The article concludes with an expression of joy at the prospect of strength and coherence which opens for the first time since Mr. Gladstone's retirement.

CONSERVATIVE PRESS.

The Conservative press will contend that Lord Rosebery's resignation of the Liberal leadership will increase the division in the ranks of the party. All of the papers will pay tribute to the strength of his foreign policy.

The Times will say: "It will not be necessary to appeal to the party to select a new leader. Sir William Vernon Harcourt is already in possession as undisputed chief in the House of Commons."

To Speak in Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, Oct. 7.—Lord Rosebery will deliver an address on the Eastern question in this city on the 9th inst.

Extreme tired feeling afflicts nearly everybody at this season. The hustlers cease to push, the tireless grow weary, the energetic become enervated. You know just what we mean. Some men and women endeavor temporarily to overcome that

Tired

Feeling by great force of will. But this is unsafe, as it pulls powerfully upon the nervous system, which will not long stand such strain. Too many people "work on their nerves," and the result is seen in unfortunate wrecks marked "nervous prostration," in every direction. That tired ing is a positive proof of thin, weak, impure blood; for, if the blood is rich, red, vitalized and vigorous, it imparts life nd energy to every nerve, organ and tissue of the body. The necessity of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for that tired feeling is, therefore, apparent to every one, and the good it will do you is equally beyond question. Remember that

ALL SHOULD VOTE.

If the Conservative Opposition had insisted on prolonging the late session up to the $1,000 per member mark, for the sake of revising the present Franchise law, they would have shown some justification for their obstruction. As a result of the hearing of the numerous election petitions there will probably be numerous bye-elections. If these elections should be held, say towards the end of the present calendar year, they will of necessity be held upon lists fully two years old. This will disfranchise hundreds of young men in each constituency who have come of age since the venerable lists were prepared. Besides the "telegrapher" in elections finds his material for operation abundantly in supply, through the names of hundreds of dead men being on the lists now in force. There should be no possibility, as the present system affords of dead men voting on live issues, and the system should be swept away that periodically excludes thousands of otherwise perfectly qualified young men from exercising their franchise. There can be little doubt that a Dominion Franchise Act based upon the Ontario system of an annual preparation of the lists, would most fully meet the requirements of a full, free and unrestricted exercise of the franchise by every qualified elector.

ONE OF THE WAYS.

The following letter published in the Fredericton, N. B., Herald, pretty well tells the story:

"John R. Dunn, barrister, notary, etc., Stockton building, 94 Prince William street:

St. John, N. B., Aug. 21st, 1896.

"Sheriff White or any other of Liberal Conservative Committee of Burton Polling District No. 80:

"The bearer, John Hilland, who is on the list as John Holland, is all right. Pay him for his vote. I have given him enough for fare.

"(Signed) JOHN R. DUNN."

Mr. Dunn, says the Globe, is a well known New Brunswick Conservative and took a prominent part in the Queen's-Sunbury election, which resulted in the return of Hon. Mr. Blair. There can be no question as to the sort of influence employed to defeat Mr. Blair, when such a disgraceful letter could with impunity be addressed to a Sheriff sworn to uphold the law. The case seems to be one calling for prompt punishment and has an instructive feature inasmuch as it reveals one of the many crooked methods employed by the friends of the late government to secure a popular verdict, which could not be gained on the score of the merit of their administrative record.

D. Howells, which created considerable merriment. The Lakefield orchestra was present and played several selections between the acts. NORTH MARVEY.

From Our Own Correspondent.

There is a series of revival meetings being held here, in the Methodist church, conducted by the new ministers from Bobcaygeon. Their style of conducting the meetings is rather unique in the way of protracted meetings, but we hope that the effects may be more lasting than is customary at such meetings in the past.

Mrs. John Flanagan has just bought a horse from Ed. St. Thomas, jr., and had it taken down and moved her place. There will soon be quite a settlement up on the ledge if they keep on.

Two of our promising youths paid a visit to Bobcaygeo recently on pleasure intent, and, seeing things rather dull there, thought they would paint the village. In the course of their frolic they happened to run foul of something. They hardly knew whether it was one of the lamp posts or the constable, but a visit to the magistrate a few days after explained everything to them when they had to shell out. We hope that it will be a salutary lesson to them.

Mr. Perry Young, who has been very ill for the past two weeks, is now on the mend and it is hoped that in the course of another two weeks he will be around again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Finney, of Lindsay, are down to see Mrs. Finney's father, Mr. P. Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Moore, of Reaboro, also Mr. and Miss Reid, of the same place, are visiting W. D. Ventress.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Harris have returned home from Lakefield, where they have been visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pearson, of Lakefield, who have been visiting with N. Harris, have returned home.

Miss Nellie Brummell is home on a visit to her parents.

WHEAT ADVANCING.

The wheat situation, as indicated by our market reports, is steadily growing stronger. Market authorities estimate that the supplies are at present less than at similar period in five years past. It is estimated that European importing countries purchased about four hundred and seven million bushels of wheat last year while their actual consumptive needs amounted to four hundred and thirty-two million bushels. The United Kingdom imported last year about one hundred and seventy-eight million bushels, against one hundred and ninety-seven millions during the previous season. There is thus a deficiency in stocks to be met by the crops of 1896.

The reports of the Manitoba wheat crop are variable. The quality is said by correspondents not to be equal to that of last year. It is estimated that there remains about one million bushels of old wheat yet to come forward, and that there are two and a half millions of old wheat in store which with an estimated new crop of ten million bushels available for export, makes a total of thirteen and a half bushels to as exported. As is usual in an advancing market, farmers are not delivering wheat freely. At the early commencement of the season deliveries were liberal, but so soon as the market began to advance the receipts commenced to fall off. Wet weather has also prevented the farmers from reaching the market. A quantity of the wheat marketed has been placed in the elevators on producers' account, indicating that the farmers have hopes of higher prices.

THE CZAR IN PARIS.

His Majesty Looked Pale—Made Sick by Eating Food Badly Cooked—Great Enthusiasm of the People.

Paris, Oct. 7.—A cold, drizzling rain fell throughout the forenoon, but despite the discomfort of being out of doors, thousands of people assembled in the vicinity of the Russian Embassy hoping to catch a glimpse of the Imperial visitors.

President Faure with Madame Faure and Mlle. Faure drove to the Russian Embassy at 9 o'clock this morning for the purpose of accompanying the Czar and Czarina in their sight-seeing tour of the city. The Czar expressed the thanks of himself and the Czarina for the courtesy shown to them by the President and his family, and invited M. Faure to occupy a seat in his tandem. The party started on their trip half an hour behind the time fixed by the program. The Czarina wore a gray dress and looked bright and fresh, but the Czar looked pale and wore a serious expression. The party were driven to the Cathedral of Notre Dame, where they were received by Cardinal Richard Archbishop of Paris, who was clad in his archiepiscopal robes. Assisting the Cardinal in the reception of the visitors were the Vicar General of the archdiocese and the members of the Metropolitan Chapter. The streets through which the party passed were lined with people, and the great square fronting the Cathedral was densely packed. The enthusiasm of the people along the route and in the square was manifested by almost incessant cheering.

The Czar and Czarina, after leaving the Cathedral, visited the Palais de Justice, the Pantheon and the Hotel Des Invalides, returning to the Russian Embassy for luncheon. In the afternoon the Czar laid the first stone of the new bridge across the Seine, to be known as the Alexander III. bridge, in honor of the late Czar of Russia, the father of Nicholas II. The weather was showery. The Czar, while in the Pantheon, paid a visit to the tomb of the late President Carnot, upon which His Majesty placed a magnificent wreath of white flowers. Madame Carnot and her sons were present.

London, Oct. 7.—The St. James' Gazette publishes a special despatch from its correspondent in Paris, saying that the gala opera performance given in honor of the Czar and Czarina last evening came to an abrupt termination in the middle of the ballet, owing to the sudden indisposition of the Czar, which is said to have been due to bad cooking. His Majesty complained of feeling ill after the banquet at the Elysee Palace, and was obliged to lie down for an hour before going to the opera. Those who occupied seats near the Czar and Czarina at the opera observed that both looked very much fatigued and worn out.

The Eclair mentions the fact of the Czar's illness at the opera performance last night by saying that His Majesty was slightly indisposed as a result of fatigue, the day having been one of great exertion and excitement to him.

What the Papers Say.

Paris, Oct. 7.—The Paris newspapers devote columns of space to articles on the reception of the Czar, and are unanimous in declaring that the 6th of October will leave indelible memories upon the hearts of Frenchmen and Russians. The homage of the people to the Czar, the papers say, was warm, yet full of dignity and self-confidence. All of the papers express satisfaction with the speeches made by the Czar at Cherbourg and at the Elysee Palace.

The Figaro says: "The Czar's spontaneous visits to the President of the Senate and the Chamber of Deputies, indicate His Majesty's formal acceptance of the forms and consequences of the republican regime." The paper adds: "Conclusive words and definite acts have already been exchanged, and probably they will be completed at Chalons, but they are already enough to convince Europe of our union."

Beyond His Imagination.

Paris, Oct. 7.—Upon reliable authority the story is told of the Czar that, while in conversation at luncheon this afternoon upon the subject of yesterday's and to-day's events, he declared that he had been in Austria, Germany and England in the course of his present tour, but nowhere had he seen such enthusiasm as in France. "I expected a magnificent reception," he is reported to have said, "but this surpasses anything I could possibly imagine."

FOUND A JEWEL.

An Important Find by a Brockville Jeweller.

Mr. Joseph Lane, the well-known jeweller of Brockville, says: "For some years I have suffered with severe pains in my back and sides and flashes of heat between my shoulders. I had a tired, wornout feeling.

"The numerous medicines that I took gave me very little relief. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I thought I would try a box, and got one at Curry's drugstore.

"After the first two or three doses I felt much relieved, and the longer I took them the greater the change for the better in my condition. I am much better in every respect and recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from kidney trouble as the best remedy I know of."

Sold by James Lynch, druggist, 168 Hunter street, Peterborough.

As Well as Ever.

Dear Sirs,—After suffering for two years from acute indigestion I tried B.B.B. I took only three bottles, which made me as well as ever I was. I highly recommend B.B.B. to all dyspeptics.

KNOX COLLEGE OPEN

The Two New Professors Duly Inducted

AT THE CONVOCATION EXERCISES.

Rev. Dr. George L. Robinson for the Chair of Old Testament Literature and Rev. Dr. James Ballantyne for Church History and Apologetics—The Addresses.

Toronto, Oct. 6.

Knox College held its annual convocation yesterday afternoon in Bloor-street Presbyterian Church. The proceedings are made memorable by the induction of two new professors in the college. During the past two years there have been two vacancies in the staff, and this has caused the Venerable Principal Dr. Caven and the Senate considerable trouble in procuring men to fill the positions temporarily. Two years ago the Rev. Dr. Thomson, Professor of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis, died; shortly after Rev. Dr. Gregg, Professor of Church History and Apologetics, resigned on account of age. Since then these chairs have been filled by different men. Last spring the General Assembly called the Rev. Dr. George L. Robinson and Rev. Dr. James Ballantyne to fill these vacancies, respectively. Yesterday the new professors were duly installed.

At 3 o'clock the Presbytery convened in connection with the induction; in the absence of the Moderator, Rev. William Patterson, Rev. Dr. Parsons presided. On the platform were Rev. Drs. Caven, Wallace, John Burwash, Chancellor Burwash, Badgley, of Victoria, Maclaren, Gregg, Newman of McMaster, Professor Logie, M.A., Professors McCurdy and Proudfoot. Some of those in the audience were Rev. Drs. Gray and Grant of Orillia, Rev. Mr. Hutt, Ingersoll; W. D. Clarke, London; W. Burns, Toronto; Drs. Laing, Dundas; John Currie, Belmont; H. D. Fraser, Bowmanville; Hamilton Motherwell, Mr. W. Mortimer Clark, chairman of the board, and many others.

The ceremonies were opened by singing part of the 78th Psalm. Dr. Parsons then read a portion of Scripture from Ephesians, 4th chapter, and after a short prayer proceeded with the induction services. After the usual questions were answered satisfactorily, Dr. Parsons declared the two new professors duly installed in their positions.

The members of the staff and of the Toronto Presbytery then gave them the right-hand of fellowship.

The Rev. Dr. Wardrope gave an address of welcome. He said it was a solemn hour for the new professors, as their work would be far-reaching and eternal. It was an occasion of intense interest to those who had the welfare of Knox College at heart, and these were thousands, for parents from all over Canada sent sons to be educated at this theological seminary. It was a moment of heartfelt thankfulness, for the concerns of the past two years about the chairs were now a thing of the past.

In referring to the men who had preceded Dr. Robinson and Dr. Ballantyne, he said hundreds of the best ministers of the Presbyterian Church of Canada had passed through their hands, and were living monuments to their personal worth and personal ability. Going on, the speaker said it was a time of devout and prayerful anticipation. "You are in the prime of life, but you have been blest in this and other lands; you have done well, and made full proof of your Christian ministry. May the past successes of your lives be an earnest of your future efforts." In referring to the duties of the inducted, the venerable Doctor said: "You are to impart the testimony of God in your work, and may many be raised up by your efforts. For the moulding of the lives of those who pass into the ministry from Knox now will be in your hands, and what you do will have a mighty effect on the thoughts of the future." Concluding, he said: "I charge you in the name of God to hold fast to truth. Let no preoccupation lead you to forget the supreme necessity of leaning on God."

At this juncture Dr. Caven took charge of the ceremonies. On behalf of the college, he extended a very hearty welcome. Dr. Robinson he welcomed as though he was a Canadian. The church knows no boundaries. The thanks of the college were extended to those who had done the work of the college in these subjects during the past two years.

Dr. Caven then referred with great sorrow to the death of two of the students during the past few months. He paid an eloquent and feeling tribute to the attainments of James H. Brown, M.A., LL.B. No student had ever entered the college who had exhibited such wonderful intellect, while his moral qualities were to be emulated. The other student was Mr. Torrance, who was recently drowned in Sparrow Lake. Both would have graduated this year.

Dr. George Livingstone Robinson was then called to deliver the inaugural address. Dr. Robinson is a tall, strongly-built young man of not more than thirty years. He possesses a remarkably clever-looking face and bears the stamp of the true student. As a scholar he has been very eminent. He held at one time a fellowship in Princeton University, and took his Ph.D. in Leipsic, Germany. He thanked the college for conferring such a trust and honor in his hands, and hoped he would dignify it. He accepted the chair because of his great ambition to teach, and his great regard for Knox. He chose the Old Testament literature because of his interest in it. The times demanded expository preaching, and that from the Old Testament; hence the necessity of interesting young students in that field of Scripture. He said he believed in higher criticism and thought if it were properly and scientifically conducted it would lead to grand results. He would remain true to his induction vows, but he loved truth and would pursue it with ardor.

He chose as his subject, "The Place of Deuteronomy in Hebrew Literature." This was a very heavy subject, and one that laymen know but very little about. But it was clear to all that Dr. Robinson was perfectly at home in this field of thought, and his address, which was over an hour in length, was listened to with great interest. His quotations of German authorities showed the extent of his reading, and his sharp, subtle conclusions showed that he was a perfect master of logic.

Dr. Ballantyne then addressed the audience for a few minutes. He is the son of ex-Speaker Ballantyne of the Ontario House; received his early education in Stratford, took his degree of B.A. from Toronto University in 1881, and graduated from Knox in 1884. Since then he has been preaching in Ottawa and gave up his pulpit there to come to Knox. He said it caused him great joy to return to his alma mater as one of her professors. He appreciated the high and solemn trust reposed in him. He had not solicited it, but was invited. He loved his former work, but thought his duty was here, and would endeavor to fulfil his position with honor to the college and to God.

If your child is puny, fretful, troubled with glandular swellings, inflamed eyes, or sores on the head, face or body, a course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is needed to expel the scrofulous humours from the blood. The sooner you begin to give this medicine the better.

NEGROES WITH GUNS.

William Durden Shot S. S. Middleton and Was Then Shot to Death Himself.

Augusta, Ga., Oct. 7.—A special from Millen, Ga., says: At the opening of the polls at Monte, Emanuel County, this morning, William Durden, a negro, walked up to vote, when a Democratic ticket was snatched out of his hand by C. W. Williams, a negro third partyite. Several Democrats rushed for him and Williams pulled his pistol and killed S. S. Middleton. He made an effort to escape, but was overtaken and shot to death.

ANOTHER FRACAS.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 7.—A special from Elberton, Ga., says this forenoon two men, "Bud" Adams and Will Mayfield, had an altercation at the polls, and when parties interfered, Mayfield shot a man named Bud Sanders, who will probably die. Tom Wall, another participant in the row, shot I. G. Swift, cashier of the Elberton Loan and Savings Bank, wounding him in the wrist and shoulder. Mayfield was shot but escaped. Wall is in jail.

Reports to the Constitution from all parts of the state indicate that Atkinson's majority for Governor will exceed 35,000, with the probability that it will go over 40,000. The majority for the remainder of the Democratic state ticket will largely exceed that of Atkinson's, the probability being that it will go beyond 50,000, while Atkinson's majority will be from 12,000 to 15,000 larger than that received by him two years ago, when it was 24,000.

CENTRAL EXHIBITION BOARD MEETING.

Held at the Morgan House Yesterday—Winding up of Business—Committee Appointed in Reference to Procuring Suitable Grounds and Buildings.

At a meeting of the Board of the West Peterborough Agricultural Society held at the Morgan House yesterday, Mr. George E. Elliott occupied the chair.

The Joint Committee's accounts in connection with the reception of Lord and Lady Aberdeen were gone over by Mr. W. H. Moore and Mr. James Middleton, representing the town and county respectively. The total amount is about $300.

Letters were received from Rev. Dr. Torrance of St. Paul's, and Rev. J. G. Potter of St. Andrew's, thanking the Board for complimentary tickets. A letter was also received from Platt Hinman Esq., of Grafton, who has for many years shown a practical interest in the advancement of the Central Exhibition, thanking the Board for its resolution of sympathy on the occasion of the death of Mr. Hinman's son, which said event took place since the last exhibition.

A committee was appointed to look into the question of securing grounds and buildings more suitable for the uses of the Exhibition, in view of the expiry of the lease of the present grounds in two years.

A letter was received from Mr. Stanley, secretary of the local union of Christian Endeavour, urging the board to be more careful in securing amusements, as in default of such care some amusement may be presented that might have an injurious effect upon the young. In acknowledgment of this the following resolution was adopted:

"Moved by Jas. Davidson and seconded by T. M. Hunter, that the board expresses its appreciation of the courteous suggestion of Mr. Stanley, secretary of the local Union of Christian Endeavour, in reference to amusements, and declare its intention of exercising the utmost care to exclude anything of a character to offend the sensibilities of the public, and that, while appreciating the courteous reminder of the Christian Endeavour Union, to express disapproval, if not resentment, of the intemperate and unduly public nature of the censure said to have been administered by the official board of the George street Methodist church, which seemed to be inspired more by a desire of display, than by a simple desire to effect a reform."

THE DEATH OF MR. THOS. KENDRY.

RUMOURS OF FOUL PLAY RESULT IN AN INQUEST.

The County Crown Attorney at Chatham Receives Information that Suggests Foul Play—A Coroner's Inquest Held—The Evidence Points to Accidental Death—Relatives Hold to This Theory.

The following is from the Chatham Banner of October 6th:—

Suspicions of foul play in the death of Thomas Kendry at the Idlewild hotel on Saturday night, were whispered around the streets yesterday, and an inquest was called by Coroner Bray last evening. The Banner yesterday reported the fact that Mr. Kendry had met with a violent death, and also published the story which was given to the public that his death was caused by falling from a chair upon which he was standing, and a rib broken in the fall against the chair or some other object.

Information was placed before Crown Attorney Douglas yesterday afternoon which pointed to Mr. Kendry's death having been caused by a beating he received at the Idlewild hotel on Saturday morning. He made further enquiries and was satisfied that an investigation should be held to establish the true cause of death, and set the public mind at rest. He consulted with Coroner Bray, and at 6 o'clock last evening the warrant was issued.

The stories which came to Crown Attorney Douglas had it that the deceased and John Abram, proprietor of the Idlewild hotel, where deceased was boarding, had an altercation in the dining-room of the hotel on Saturday morning, and that the deceased was either kicked in the side or thrown with such force against one of the tables as to drive in his rib, and ultimately cause death. The evidence brought out at the inquest last night shows that a disturbance (arising out of a previous altercation, when the deceased objected to a party of card players in the sitting room he was occupying,) certainly occurred in the dining room on Saturday morning, in which it appears the landlord of the hotel assailed Mr. Kendry, but no one has sworn to having seen sufficient violence used to cause the fracture of the rib and drive it into one of his lungs. The post mortem examination last evening, made by Dr. Fleming and Dr. R. V. Bray, showed that death was caused by the rib having penetrated the left lung. The fifth rib on the left side was the one broken. The fact that only one rib was broken, and it driven into the lung, would seem to prove that the blow could not have been inflicted by a boot, as a kick would have affected more than one rib. The object with which the rib came in contact was undoubtedly one with quite a sharp point, and whether that object was the corner of the bed or the corner of the dining room table was what the jury was asked to determine.

The statement made by the deceased to Dr. McKeough, that he broke his rib in a fall against the corner of the bed, will go a long way toward clearing Mr. Abram of the imputations which have been cast upon him by the regrettable occurrence. It is said that he stated to several others before he died that this is how the wound was inflicted. Deceased was 78 years of age, and a heavily built man, and it is said that the rear end of the bed is badly loosened up as a result of his violent fall against it.

Thos. E. and William Kendry, of Peterborough, sons of the deceased, arrived in the city yesterday to take charge of the remains, and were at a loss last evening to understand why the warrant had been issued. In the presence of a Banner representative last evening they stated that they were satisfied that their father's death was accidental.

The inquest was opened at 7.30 at the police court with a jury, of which Dr. T. Kilme was foreman, and after some evidence that did not seem to discredit the theory of accident adjourned till Wednesday night. Owing to the stories floating around Mr. Abram thought it wise to have a counsel present on his behalf, and O. L. Lewis appeared to look after his interests. The jury was taken in charge by Constable McKenar to the hotel, where the body of deceased lay in a casket covered with flowers.

The Banner adds: Mr. James Kendry, M. P. for West Peterborough, son of the deceased, arrived in the city this morning. He made a full enquiry into the affair, and is convinced that the death was purely accidental. The remains of the deceased were interred in Maple Leaf cemetery this afternoon.

LATER.

Chatham, Oct. 7.—At the adjourned inquest to-night touching the death of Thos. Kendry the jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

MASON—GARBUTT NUPTIALS.

A Fashionable Wedding in the Township of Smith.

A nuptial event took place in Smith, last evening, which has been awaited with pleasurable anticipation in the social circles of Peterborough. It was the occasion of the wedding of Adjutant Mason, of the 57th Peterborough Rangers, and Miss Minnie Garbutt. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. John Garbutt, of Smith township, and was performed by Rev. Dr. Torrance, of St. Paul's Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. W. R. Young, B.A., of the George street Methodist church.

The bride was most charmingly gowned in white sicilian with garniture of pearls, silk and silk lace. She was assisted by her cousin, Miss Nina Davidson, also of Smith, and her sister, Miss Edith Garbutt. Both looked very attractive in white cashmere, trimmed with silk and carried bouquets of pink roses. The bride carried a most handsome shower bouquet of white Bride roses.

The groom was supported by Mr. John A. Garbutt, brother of the bride.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding party, numbering about forty guests, were invited to partake of a most recherche dejuner, after which an informal reception was held by Adjutant and Mrs. Mason, when they received the congratulations of their friends.

The numerous presents which were received all bore testimony to the high esteem in which the bride and groom are held amongst the large circle of their friends.

The midnight C.P.R. express bore the newly-married couple away for a honeymoon trip to Montreal, Boston and New York. They were accompanied to the station by a large number of young people. On their return they will take up residence at No. 740 Water street. The EXAMINER desires to extend the heartiest congratulations.

THE VILLAGE SCHOOL BOARD.

Rev. H. Symonds Makes a Suitable Gift to the School.

At a meeting of the Ashburnham School Board, held on Tuesday evening, there were present Messrs. Craig, Sheridan, Manieee, Pollock and Adams. Mr. Matchett, headmaster, was also in attendance.

The report for the month of September was read. The number of pupils on roll was 215, with an average attendance of 182.

THE FOLLOWING COMMUNICATION

from Rev. H. Symonds was presented and read:

DEAR SIR.—Owing to the meeting of the Fortnightly Club to-night I shall be unable to be present at the meeting of the School Board. Please permit my apologies to the members present. Were I not President of the Club I should be with you.

It has long seemed to me a pity that the walls of our school houses should present such a bare and unattractive appearance, and I would suggest that they be adorned with pictures.

These pictures should combine utility with beauty by suggesting lessons or illustrating great events and lives in history. Thus pictures of our leading statesmen, great generals, soldiers, sailors, inventors, historical buildings, etc.

The pictures could be graded. The historical and political pictures in the fourth room. Simple subjects in the third room and so on. If a goodly number were collected first Mr. Matchett might have a kind of decoration afternoon just as in the spring we have Arbor Day. I send herewith a picture as a first contribution which will explain my meaning better than many words. I am

Yours very truly,
HERBERT SYMONDS.

Accompanying the above letter was the handsome picture known as "Bound for Trafalgar Bay."

It was moved by Messrs. Sheridan and Pollock,—That the thanks of the Board be tendered Mr. Symonds for the picture presented and also for the suggestion made and we express the hope that many may do likewise, so that the interior of the school may be brightened and improved, and that Mr. H. Calcutt's offer of two prizes for the best specimens of vertical writing be accepted and the thanks of the Board be conveyed to Mr. Calcutt, 1st prize to be $1, 2nd 50c.—Carried.

OTONABEE.

Harvest Festival at St. Mark's.

The rain somewhat marred what was otherwise a most enjoyable event at St. Mark's, Otonabee, on Tuesday, Sept. 29th. It was the annual harvest thanksgiving celebration, and those who braved the elements were abundantly repaid for their energy. The proceedings commenced with a harvest tea in the Foresters' Hall, where a great abundance of good things was displayed and the wants of the inner man attended to, after which adjournment was made to the church, which was profusely decorated with grain, fruit, flowers, etc. The surpliced choir of St. John's church, Peterborough, rendered the musical part of the service in a manner which showed their careful training. The incumbent, Rev. W. L. Baynes Reed, was assisted in the service by the Rev. R. V. Stevenson, of Peterborough, and Rev. R. H. McGinnis, of Hastings. The Rev. C. H. Marsh, of Lindsay, a former incumbent, preached an able and powerful sermon on Thanksgiving, taking as his text the 103rd Psalm, verse 2, and urging on the congregation a return to the primitive method of tithing their income.

LADIES IN SESSION.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY, BAY OF QUINTE CONFERENCE.

In Convention at the Cambridge Street Methodist Church, Lindsay.

The third annual meeting of W. M. S. of the Bay of Quinte conference opened in Lindsay on Oct. 6th, at 10 o'clock. No less than 93 delegates from all parts of the district responded to the roll call.

The President, Mrs. (Dr.) Carman, of Belleville, occupied the chair and opened the convention with devotional exercises, assisted by Mrs. Weldon, of Lindsay, and Mrs. Massey, of Sydney.

The very impressive memorial service conducted by Mrs. Gibson, Napanee, was the leading feature of the morning session. Over twenty departed sisters were lovingly remembered.

Mrs. Gibson, in a few well chosen words, led the thoughts of all from the blessed rest and peace of those who have gone before to the actual living present, and the great responsibility of living. The secretary was instructed to send letters of greeting to other branches now in session.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Very impressive was the opening of the afternoon session, it being the testimony meeting and consecration service, which was conducted by Mrs. Grange, of Napanee, assisted by Mrs. T. M. Campbell, of Campbellford. Hymns expressive of the deep feeling of the meeting were interspersed during the work.

The minutes of the morning session were read by the secretary, Mrs. Kendry, of Peterborough, and were on motion adopted.

Mrs. (Dr.) Carman, of Belleville, the president of the society, then followed with her address. She gave no formal written address, but in a concise form, with a few well-chosen words, pointed out the work and progress during the past year of the W.M.S. Mrs. Carman said she had never seen the need of this work so much before as now, nor such glorious results of the work. She spoke of women who at one time made home and all things pertaining thereto, their idol, had no money to give or expend on anything else, but now these same women were fully consecrated to God's service and His work, and this change has grown out of association with the W.M.S., and added that if the society did nothing else, that of itself was a wonderful work. District conventions were strongly advocated, as they strengthened and helped them in their works. It was not possible to have a convention in the name of Christ and not have good results.

Mrs. Carman said the work of the year, both at home and abroad, had been marked with success. The safe return of the missionaries to China, and the renewal of the work there, was cause for rejoicing and thankfulness. The work in Japan, especially the schools, was prospering, for which they gave thanks. She urged the workers at home to be true to the cause and to the workers abroad, saying the position of workers is as responsible as theirs, but not as high.

The president next spoke of the French work as doing well, adding that some of the members perhaps did not now fully understand the work, nor see its effects, but some day they would. The school established in the Northwest was not as full nor as well attended as they would wish it, nevertheless the work there is very encouraging also. The school at Chilliwhack, B.C., is a wonderful success.

The president then urged the necessity of a yearly thank-offering, and also the necessity of thank-offering services in their meetings. A word of welcome was then given to new delegates, followed by an earnest appeal for a more liberal support of their own missionary publications.

REPORTS AND COMMUNICATIONS

At the close of the president's address, the treasurer, Mrs. (Rev.) Copeland, of Deseronto, read the report, showing the total amount raised by the branch during the year to be $5,023.25. The report was adopted.

The report of the Mission Bands was read by Miss Holley, Bath. The number of bands in the Bay of Quinte district was stated to be 33, with a membership of 700, and 19 life members. In this report it was stated that four members of Albert College Belleville, had offered themselves for foreign mission work.

A communication was read from Mr. S. E. Smith, editor of the Palm Branch, asking for a more generous support of the mission band paper.

Mrs. Platt, corresponding secretary, before reading her report, prefaced it by stating that the methods of the society are not yet perfect, and the report was subject to correction. It was new not to count progress; they had not made progress as men would count it, yet they had made progress. They proposed going on labouring and praying, toiling and trusting, trying to enlist the co-operation of every woman in the church, and great results would surely be accomplished. Last year 107 Auxiliaries paid into the treasury; this year 113, and in addition 13 new branches have been organized for work. The total membership is 2,705. Twenty-eight Auxiliaries have contributed clothing, which has been distributed through the supply committee. The report also referred to a number of cases where the Easter collections had been sent to the Armenians.

Mrs. G. H. Copeland, treasurer, read the following statement:

Annual members' fees	$2,705 15
Life members' fees	204 25
Mission bands	496 09
Thank offerings	647 75
Mite boxes	183 69
Scattered helpers' fund	11 89
Extra cent-a-day fund	268 54

Miss Smith, of Odessa, read a paper, the title of which was "Do Our Offerings Represent Self-denial?" The paper was ably written, and was listened to with great interest.

Moved by Mrs. Platt, seconded by Mrs. Wilson, that any league sending $25 be entitled to send a delegate to the branch meeting of the society, in place of requiring a membership of 40 and a contribution of $25, as demanded heretofore. The motion was carried.

The Revs. Shorey and Totten took charge of the solemn sacramental service, after which the afternoon session was brought to a close.

THE EVENING SESSION.

From 6 until 8 o'clock the visiting delegates and their entertainers were tendered a tea and reception by the ladies of the church, and a most enjoyable two hours of social intercourse passed but too quickly.

The evening session was held in the body of the church, which was filled with the delegates and their friends, and visitors from the other churches of the town. After the opening hymn the Rev. Mr. Copeland offered up prayer.

Rev. Mr. Shorey gave an address of welcome to the delegates, which was full of cordiality. He referred to the high aims of the society, its wonderful success, and the general sympathy it receives from all classes of Christian workers. He assured the delegates their coming together would be productive of much good.

BRITTISH COLUMBIA INDIANS.

The Rev. Geo. H. Raley, of the Kitamaat, B.C., mission, gave a very interesting address on his work among the Indians of British Columbia. His address was a powerful appeal for the mission work, and his eloquent and most pleasing manner of delivery held his audience in wrapt attention until the hour for closing, when regret was generally expressed that more time could not be given Mr. Raley to tell of the many interesting incidents occurring in his work.

A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Raley for his very interesting address was carried by a standing vote, after which the pleasant evening's entertainment was brought to a close by the choir singing the anthem "Unto Thee, O Lord, do we give thanks."

BUTTED THE BIKER.

Experience of a Young Man who was too Familiar with an Old Ram.

Slowly and painfully over an old-fashioned worm rail fence, such as one often sees in the country there climbed a panting, limping and battered wheelman.

On the other side of the fence a companion cyclist stood, bent almost double and holding his sides while he fairly shrieked with laughter.

"Think it was funny, don't you?" panted the man on the fence.

"Oh dear, oh dear, I can't help it," gasped the other as he went off into another paroxysm.

This disjointed conversation took place by the side of the Lakefield road. The talkers were a couple of town men who had taken advantage of a bright afternoon for one last spin over one of the pretty routes leading out from the town. The wheelmen had pedaled lazily along, submitting to the languid influences of the afternoon and enjoying to the full the beauty of the landscape, which lay spread out before them. Nowhere are there fairer autumn views than those along the river roads about this town.

Loitering along in this way, the cyclists came finally to a secluded spot where they dismounted to rest and smoke. In an adjoining field was a flock of sheep, and the riders leaned upon the old rail fence and listlessly watched the animals, simply because there was nothing else animate in sight to engage their attention. Over near the centre of the big field an old patriarch guarded the flock. They began to speculate on what would happen to either of them if they should go into the pasture.

"I don't believe that the old fellow would even look up."

"Well, suppose you try it and see what will happen."

"Too much bother. What's the use?"

"I'll bet a cigar that you don't dare go over there and put your hand on his head."

"Done. I'll just go you." And over the fence climbed the confident fellow.

With an appearance of unconcern he sauntered carelessly toward the centre of the field, taking care to keep behind the object of his attention.

He had almost reached the middle of the field when the woolly champion discovered his approach. The ram looked at him curiously as the man advanced slowly, and allowed him to get so near that he began to think that he had won the cigar, when down went the woolly head and the patriarch came at him.

The luckless wheelman started for the fence as fast as he could run, but he was no match, in the way of speed, for his pursuer, as he soon found out. He was struck fair and square, and with a grunt he landed on his back, his enemy running on some distance before he could come to a stop. The man started to run again and the performance was repeated. Before the man could get to his feet again the enemy was back, and from then on his progress to the fence was made mostly on his hands and knees with sundry bits of assistance in his retreat from the the animal in the rear. He reached the fence at last and painfully climbed over, just missing one last playful rap as he did so.

After he had recovered his breath and some of his good nature he said: "I don't mind buying the cigars on that, but I would like to know how you expect that I am going to ride a wheel back to town in a physical condition which will necessitate my taking my meals from a mantel for a few days to come?"

BUY ON WEDNESDAY.

It Offers Excellent Market Facilities.

People who run away with the idea that Saturday is Peterborough's best market day are mistaken. It is certainly Peterborough's biggest market day but not its best. Wednesday is the best day for both buyers and sellers.

Farmers who have produce to dispose of will find, as between the two days, that Wednesday will suit them better. On Saturday there is a big crowd and plenty of bustle but competition lowers prices, and all the people who flock to the market are not buyers. Again on Saturday the stores are crowded, the merchants are busy, and visitors to the town have not the opportunity for selection and purchase afforded by the comparative quiet of a Wednesday afternoon.

If this idea that Wednesday is a good day to sell their produce could be impressed on farmers, and that Wednesday is an equally good day to purchase their supplies could be driven home to the housewives of Peterborough it would be better all around. It would help to relieve the crush of Saturday and would stimulate the trade of Wednesday.

Peterborough already possesses a good Wednesday market. There is a good deal of stuff offered as it is. The citizens should make a point of buying more freely on that day and thus encourage larger offerings.

LACROSSE.

Lovers of lacrosse, as well as lovers of everything else, are reminded of the fact that next Saturday afternoon the EXAMINER champions will again show the Times twelve a thing or two about lacrosse. In order to lower the excitement, which is sure to rise to fever heat, an intermission will be allowed in order for the players to obtain their wind—and other things too numerous to mention. Every player, let it be understood, must be a "stick" handler. Be on hand and see the chameleons "distribute" the "forms" of the down town contemporary team to the winds. This, the most exciting match of the season, will be on the P.A.A.A. grounds, and the fun will begin at 4.30 sharp. Admission free; grand stand extra.

Stouffville, Oct. 7.—A supporter of the Stouffville Lacrosse Club has issued a challenge to the Markham Lacrosse Club for the team to play for a $50 cup, and is prepared to put up from $200 to $500 as a side bet. This proposition has arisen from Markham's assertion that Stouffville was not entitled to the district championship.

CRICKET.

The news of the death of the famous Australian batsman, Percy McDonnell, will be received with sincere regret by all lovers of cricket in this country. McDonnell went to England as a member of Mr. Murdock's team of '80, '82 and '84, and he was captain of the team in '88. A formidable player under all circumstances, he was in proportion far more brilliant on bad wickets than on good ones. Heart disease is stated to have been the cause of his death, which occurred at Brisbane, Queensland, on September 24.

Who does not know women and young girls who are continually in tears? Who always see the dark side? Who have frequent fits of melancholy without any apparent cause? But there is a cause. It is to be found by the intelligent physician in some derangement of the complicated and delicate feminine organs of generation. The woman who half understands herself, feels that she cannot always be complaining; she cannot always have the doctor in the house. The young girl suffers, bodily and mentally, in silence. The trouble usually comes so gradually it is attributed to some outside cause. There is undue weariness, unexpected pain, unreasonable tears and fits of temper. All these symptoms are simply protests of the silent, long-suffering nerves. The trouble shows in dark circles below the eyes, a downward curve of the mouth, a sallow, brownish-yellow neck.

Unregarded, the trouble grows. A few years of tortured invalidism, probably insanity, before merciful death comes. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the fruit of years of study. It is the product of an investigating mind united with a generous nature. When an intelligent person gives years of study to a subject there must be some good result. The "Favorite Prescription" is a compound of extracts of herbs that makes a strengthening, soothing medicine. It acts directly upon the distinctly feminine organs. It stops drains from lining membranes by healing diseased parts, thereby curing also the inflammation that is always present.

"I was in a critical condition. Often I was in despair. I experienced a great improvement by taking one bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I have taken six bottles, and I am sure that it will not only cure ulceration but all diseases of females." Yours truly,

(Mrs.) R. T. Rudd

THE CZAR IN PARIS.

President Faure Receives the Russian Emperor and Empress—Wild Enthusiasm.

Paris, Oct. 6.—The weather was clear and sunny this morning, and the streets were literally jammed with people, many of whom had remained in their places all night in order that they might have an opportunity of getting a glimpse of the Czar and Czarina as the Imperial visitors passed through the streets on their way to the Russian Embassy.. The entire route from the special station at Passy-Ranelagh to the Russian Embassy was packed with people long before 8 o'clock. The route across the Bois de Boulogne, through the avenue De Bois de Boulogne, Place D' L'Etoile, Avenue Des Champs Elysees, Place de La Concorde, across the bridge down the Boulevard St. Germain and Rue St. Simon to the Russian Embassy in Rue de Grenelle, was all decorated with magnificent and tasteful arches and pillars, French and Russian colors and brilliant paper flowers, the latter tied to the trees, were everywhere to be seen. The entire route was lined with troops, and by 8 o'clock the brilliancy of the scene and the size of the crowds had never been equalled in Paris.

At 8 o'clock President Faure, in a special train, arrived at Versailles, where he met the Czar and Czarina. The special train conveying the Russian visitors arrived at 8.43 o'clock. The Czar and Czarina, after being greeted by President Faure, entered the latter's train, which at 9.30 o'clock proceeded for Paris.

The special train with the Czar and Czarina and President Faure arrived here at 10 o'clock, and the party were enthusiastically cheered by the crowd of people packing every available space, 20,000 people being in the Bois de Boulogne all night in order that they might get places in the front of the crowds. Imperial visitors entered the reception tent, outside of which a gala carriage with four horses, attended by postilions, awaited them. The reception over, the Czar and Czarina and President Faure entered the carriage, the President occupying the front seat, with his back to the horses. The various officials, members of the Czar's suite and others formed in procession behind the cortege, proceeded at a walking pace to traverse the streets to the Russian Embassy.

The Czarina wore a white satin dress with a cape and a small bonnet. The Czar was attired in a military uniform. Their Majesties followed President Faure to the state carriage. M. Faure wore the sash of the Legion of Honor. The bands played the Russian national hymn as the procession started. The procession was headed by a body of Arab chiefs and a double line of soldiers, Zouaves and Tonquinez troops. Members of every French regiment were included in the troops that lined the route and hedged the crowds in. When the Czar stepped into the carriage there were many cries of "Vie L' Empereur," but the cries were not unanimous and their repetition was not invited. As a whole the assemblage at the start was stiff in its manner and did not indulge in any great degree of exuberance of enthusiasm, but as the procession advanced the ebullitions of enthusiasm became more pronounced. This feeling rapidly increased as the cortege passed through the Bois De Boulogne, and at the Avenue Dubois De Boulogne the vast crowds became ecstatic. From this stage of the Czar's advance until the Russian Embassy was reached there was one continuous roar of cheers.

The Czar and Czarina took luncheon privately at the Russian Embassy and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon took a carriage and drove to the Russian church in the Rue Daru, where a te deum was sung. Later their Majesties were driven to the palace of the Elysee, where they visited President Faure. The routes to the church and to the palace were lined with people, who gave a respectful but intensely enthusiastic ovation to the nation's guests. President Faure gave a reception in their honor at the palace and the Czar later gave a reception at the Russian Embassy, where President Faure returned the visit of the Czar and Czarina. The Czarina, in response to the cheers of the multitude along the route from the Embassy to the palace, bowed gracefully at intervals, and the Czar was kept constantly busy returning salutations. The Czar and Czarina were entertained by President Faure at a banquet at the palace of the Elysee this evening. Their Imperial Majesties afterwards attended a gala theatrical performance. The entire program of the day was carried out successfully.

A CALL FOR HELP.

The Death and Devastation Caused by the Hurricane Were So Great That They Need Outside Assistance.

Jacksonville, Oct. 6.—The Times Union has received the following, with the request that it be given prominence by papers of the United Associated Presses: From Cedar Keys, Fla., Oct. 5.—The ruin and devastation brought by the late hurricane has assumed such proportions that the citizens of Cedar Keys found themselves unable to cope with the conditions confronting them, and they are forced to ask aid from the more fortunate sections, to relieve some of the suffering and distress now existing, and that will certainly become greater as the scanty stores now on hand become exhausted. At a meeting held Sunday night a committee of leading citizens were appointed to take such action as was necessary to place their condition before the world. This committee, G. W. Moyers chairman, has issued an address to the public giving a history of the storm and the destruction done by it. They now ask for assistance, saying that every dollar sent to them will be judiciously expended, and all expenditures accounted for to the public. Contributions can be sent to W. H. Anderson, secretary, or J. W. Moyers, chairman.

Nervous Prostration

Complete Recovery by the Use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. HIXSON, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.

THE PILLOW FIGHT.

Before we went to bed at night
We had a jolly pillow fight;
With laughter for a battle shout
We chased each other all about.

Behind the chairs and on the bed
Each side for refuge often fled;
And once so fast the pillows flew
I thought I met my Waterloo.

Amidst the play that gave such joys
There was, alas! no end of noise;
And one had cried, "Lay on, Macduff!"
When mother said, "Boys, that's enough!"

An old Man's Odd Thermometer.

There is a quiet, methodical old man living in a little town not far from Toronto who has studied the weather for so many years that he can give the regular weather observers, with their thermometers and barometers and all of their other ometers, a whole day's start and then beat them in explaining the mysteries of rain and sunshine.

An Odd Thermometer.

Outside of the shady house where this wise old man lives there hangs a thermometer close against the door casing. At first you wouldn't see anything strange about it. It has a mercury bulb and tube and a firm outer case of wood. But look more closely. It isn't any more like a regular thermometer than the comfortable old man of the house is like his busy neighbor, Jones. For there isn't a figure on it. Instead of meaningless numbers it has the words "Shirt sleeves," at the top and "Fur hat and earmuffs," at the bottom, with "Linen overcoat" and "Heavy overcoat" ranged along between.

Every morning, bright and early, the old man comes out in his dressing gown and spectacles, stands on his tiptoes and reads the thermometer. If it says "Linen coat and straw hat" in he goes and dresses for a warm summer day. Then he sits on his porch and fans himself gently. Toward noon, if the mercury crawls up to "Shirt sleeves," off comes his old drab coat, and perhaps he finds a big grape leaf or two to slip into his hat.

Thus the contented old man always knows how to be comfortable, for there is the thermometer which tells him exactly what to wear on all occasions.

If there was a small boy around there might possibly be trouble. For instance, if on some cold morning when the mercury said "Fur hat and earmuffs" a mischievous Jimmy should breathe on the bulb until the silvery finger went up to "No vest," the gentle old man might possibly be seen sauntering off toward town that forenoon calmly fanning himself and treading with his low shoes through the snow.

But mischievous Jimmy isn't around.

Dyspepsia and Indigestion, common diseases, but hard to cure with ordinary remedies, yield readily to Manley's Celery-Nerve Compound.

W. H. Buckingham, 396 King St. East, Hamilton, Ont., says:—"I was troubled with Dyspepsia and Indigestion for a long time, and could get no relief until I tried Manley's Celery-Nerve Compound, which cured me, and I cannot speak too highly in its praise."

Joe's Angleworm Farm.

Joe Crewdye is a Muskoka boy who has an angleworm farm. He started it two years ago, and has made nearly $100 by selling worms to city men who go fishing in the lakes and streams of the country in which Joe lives.

The worm colony is kept in a large box, which covers the floor of an old shed. Joe filled the box with soil to within eighteen inches of the top. He and his brothers began gathering the worms during the fall planting, and he thinks he put more than three barrels of the fish bait in the angleworm incubator.

The worms thrived and increased in number even during the cold days of winter, when the thermometer went down to 25 below zero. Fishermen leave orders for the worms with the postmaster groceryman at Redwood, near Joe's farm home, and the worms are delivered to the anglers. Joe sells his worms for $1 a quart, and he guarantees his bait to be good, big worms which will tempt the most cunning fish to take the hook.

The boys in the neighborhood say that when one of the Crewdye boys plays on the mouthorgan the worms work themselves out of the dirt and wriggle and squirm as though they enjoyed the music.

A Postal Card Magnet

No doubt you've all made a rubber comb pick up bits of paper by first rubbing it briskly on a rough coat sleeve, but did you ever hear of a postal card that could be turned into a magnet?

Balance a walking-stick on the back of a chair and tell the spectators that you are going to make it fall without touching it or the chair.

Having thoroughly dried a postal card, preferably before an open fire, rub it briskly on your sleeve and then hold it near one end of the stick. The stick will at once be attracted to the card, and will follow it as if it were a magnet.

Sometimes it seems to weary woman that she must certainly give up. The simplest and easiest work becomes an almost insurmountable task. Nervousness and sleeplessness and pain harrass her and life seems hardly worth the living.

Dr. Pierce's Favourite Prescription was made for her. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was made for her. The former is for ills distinctly feminine, the other for her general system. Together they supply a scientific and successful course of treatment. The "Favourite Prescription" restores healthy regular action to the organs distinctly feminine. It forces out all impurities, strengthens the tissues, allays inflammation. The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes appetite, helps indigestion, promotes assimilation, fills out the hollows in cheeks and neck with good solid flesh and brings back the gladsome glow of girlhood.

Millions in Silver Coin.

The imperial Russian mint at St. Petersburg and the ateliers of the Hotel des Monnaies, as the Paris mint is called, are both busy just now with a huge task of turning gold and silver bullion into coins stamped with the effigy of the new Czar Nicholas II. The total value represented by this issue of coin will be over $750,000,000. The gold coins of this vast sum are being struck at St. Petersburg, but the contract for minting the great quantity of silver pieces of small denominations has fallen to France. This is the first commission of the sort that France has received from the Russian Government since 1862. The metal which serves for the fabrication of these new silver pieces comes from the United States, says the New York Journal.

The greatest number of coins struck will be of the denomination of 1 ruble, of about 80 cents value. Upon its face is the profile of the Czar, surronded by the words in Russian characters which mean "By the grace of God, Nicholas II., Emperor and Autocrat of all the Russias." Upon the reverse are stamped the imperial arms, the value of coinage.

The workshops of the Hotel des Monnaies, where these coins are being struck, are so finely equipped for their purpose that aside from the money of France, they are kept busy continually executing orders from other countries. Each of the six furnaces in which the silver is melted is capable of containing from 1500 to 2250 pounds of metal. The machines for stamping the coins are remarkably ingenious pieces of mechanism, sixty pieces of money being struck by each of them a minute. people shall be respected by the invaders, and that all pillage by regular troops or their followers shall be strictly forbidden.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

"Sinpul, Your Highness."

A clever New York girl made an equally apt rejoinder last winter in London. She was invited to meet the Prince of Wales at breakfast with some other Americans. During breakfast the Prince rallied her countrymen good-humoredly on the liberty taken by Americans in "clipping the king's English," robbing words of letters in pronunciation. After they had risen from the table he found the shy little girl in a corner, and asked her kindly: "What in London has most impressed you?"

"Sinpul, your highness," was the timid reply.

"Sinpul?" said the puzzled Prince.

"Oh, yes! There is nothing in the town as wonderful to me."

"I am afraid," he said, with a slight expression of annoyance, "that you know my London better than I. Sinpul? Is it a theatre—a cafe—what is it?"

"O church, your highness. We Americans would call it St. Paul; but as you call St. John, Sinjun, this, it seems, must be Sinpul."

The Prince laughed heartily, and declared himself fairly worsted.

THEY COUNT BY THE SCORE

Yea, By the Hundreds, Those Who Have Been Cured of Dire Disease By South American Nervine.

A Remedy Widespread and Universal in Its Application.

Where Other Medicines Have Failed and Doctors Have Pronounced the Cases Beyond Cure, This Great Discovery Has Proven a Genuine Elixir of Life.

The Same Verdict Comes From Old and Young, Male and Female, Rich and Poor, and From All Corners of the Dominion.

If it is the case that he who makes two blades of grass grow where only one had grown before is a benefactor of the race, what is the position to be accorded that man who by his knowledge of the laws of life and health gives energy and strength where languor, weakness and anticipation of an early death had before prevailed? Is not he also a public benefactor? Let those who have been down and are now up through the use of South American Nervine give their opinions on this subject. John Boyer, banker, of Kincardine, Ont., had made himself a hopeless invalid through years of overwork. At least he felt his case was hopeless, for the best physicians had failed to do him good. He tried Nervine, and these are his words: "I gladly say it: Nervine cured me and I am to-day as strong and well as ever." Samuel Elys, of Meaford, was cured of neuralgia of the stomach and bowels by three bottles of this medicine. Jas. Sherwood, of Windsor, at 70 years of age, suffered from an attack of paralysis. His life, at that age, was despaired of. But four bottles of Nervine gave him back his natural strength. A victim of indigestion, W. F. Bolger, of Renfrew, says: "Nervine cured me of my suffering, which seemed incurable, and had baffled all former methods and efforts." Peter Esson, of Paisley, lost flesh and rarely had a good night's sleep, because of stomach trouble. He says: "Nervine stopped the agonizing pains in my stomach the first day I used it. I have now taken two bottles and I feel entirely relieved and can sleep like a top." A representative farmer, of Western Ontario, is Mr. C. J. Curtis, residing near Windsor. His health was seemingly completely destroyed through la grippe. No medicine did him any good. "To three bottles of Nervine," he says, 'I attribute my restoration to health and strength." Neither man or woman can enjoy life when troubled with liver complaint. This was the sentiment and feeling of W. J. Hill, the well-known bailiff of Bracebridge. "I was so bad," says he, "that one of my medical attendants said that I was dying, but, thank God, I am not dead yet. From the first few doses I took of Nervine I commenced to feel better, and am to-day restored completely to my usual health." A resident of the Maritime Provinces, in the person of S. Jones, of Sussex, N.B., says: "For twelve years I was a martyr to indigestion, constipation and headache. The treatment of several physicians did not help me. I have taken a few bottles of Nervine, and can truthfully say that I am a new man."

A shrewd observer of human nature has said: "The hand that rocks the cradle moves the world." How important it is, then, that health and strength should be made the lot of the mothers of this country. The women of Canada are ready by scores to tell of the benefits that have come to them through the use of South American Nervine. Mrs. R. Armstrong, of Orillia, wife of the colporteur of the Bible Society of that town, suffered for six years from nervous prostration. Medical assistance did not help. "In all," she says, "I have taken six bottles of Nervine, and can truthfully say this is the one medicine that has effected a cure in my case." Mrs. John Dinwoody has been for 40 years a resident of Flesherton, and has reached the allotted three-score years and ten. Three years ago her system sustained a severe shock through the death of a daughter. Nervine was recommended. She perseveringly took 12 bottles of medicine, with the result that she is to-day again strong and hearty. Hundreds of women suffer from impoverished blood and weakened nerves. "All vitality," says Mrs. J. Fallis, of Brampton, "seemed to have forsaken my system. I was unable to get relief from any source until I commenced taking South American Nervine. The results are most satisfactory—greater far than I could have hoped for." It came within the way of Mrs. H. Stapleton, of Wingham, to treat under the best physicians, both in Canada and England, for heart disease and nervous debility, but she failed to get any relief. "I was advised," she says, "to take South American Nervine, and must say I do believe that if I had not done so I would not be alive to-day."

Newspaper space is too valuable to permit of further additions to these earnest words of testimony from those who know just what they are talking about. In the common language of the day, they have been there, and are speaking from the heart. The dozen or more witnesses that here speak have their counterparts by the hundreds, not only in the province of Ontario, but in every other section of the Dominion. South American Nervine is based on a scientific principle that makes a cure a certainty, no matter how desperate the case may be. It strikes at the nerve centers from which flows the life blood of the whole system. It is not a medicine of patchwork, but is complete and comprehensive in its application.

SHOOTING DEER.

It appears that a determined effort is to be made to enforce the Game Act this season, and the entire staff of Government detectives will be sent to the hunting grounds for the next month or two.

The season is the same as last year, Nov. 1st to 15th, both days inclusive.

The number each person can kill is limited to two.

The important change made by last years amendments is as follows:—

"No person shall at any time hunt, pursue, kill, wound or capture any deer in the waters of any river or lake, or immediately after leaving such waters, and any person carrying a rifle, carbine or shot gun and stationed in a canoe, skiff, punt or boat of any kind, at or near any place where hunted deer are likely to enter the water, during the open season, shall prima facie be deemed to be engaged in hunting or pursuing deer within the meaning of this section."

No person is allowed to hunt deer without a license, the fee for which is $2 for residents of Ontario, and $25 for foreigners. Applications for licenses have to be made to the Chief Warden, E. Tinsley, Parliament Buildings, Toronto. No deer, or part of a deer, can be shipped without a coupon attached, and the coupons must be signed by the licensee in the presence of the shipping agent. There will be two coupons attached to each license.

The fine for any violation of the Act is not more than $50 or less than $20, with costs of prosecution.

The Lieut.-Governor is empowered to set off any counties or parts of counties, in which it will be unlawful to kill deer at any time, subject to such provisions in favour of residents or settlers as may be deemed reasonable.

HARVEY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

A Successful Show—Unusually Excellent Exhibits.

The annual fall show of the Township of Harvey was held at Lakehurst on Thursday, Oct. 1st. There was quite a large attendance, a number being present from Otonabee, Smith, Lakefield, Verulam and Bobcaygeon.

The number of entries in each class was ahead of last year. The exhibits of grain and roots were remarkably good considering the dry season. The different classes of ladies' work were well represented but could not be shown to good advantage for lack of space, but the society intend to have a larger building erected by next year.

There was keen competition in the exhibition of horses, and the judging was fairly done by Messrs. Geo. E. Elliott, president Agricultural Society, Peterborough; J. G. Armstrong, Deputy Reeve, Smith, and W. B. Kelly, Bridgenorth.

The exhibits of cattle, sheep and poultry were very good.

In the drawing contest two teams competed. A. Wilson 1st, 8 ft. 8 in., R. Tedford 2nd, 6 ft. 10 in.

The show closed with foot races. 1st, over 18 years of age for a pair of pants given by Grafton & Co., won by James Wilson; 2nd, under 18 years for a pair of pants given by Gough Bros., won by Geo. Warner.

A football match between the Chemong Indians and the Lakehurst team, was won by the latter by two to one.

First class meals were provided by the ladies of the Presbyterian church.

Some of the articles which secured prizes at Peterborough and Bobcaygeon exhibitions, were not in it here.

CHEESE TRADE AGAIN IMPROVING.

Montreal Trade Bulletin: The steadier feeling at the late decline noted by us last week, has become decidedly more pronounced, business having been done in this market during the past few days at ¼c to ½c advance upon last week's prices, round lots of 1000 boxes and over of Western last week of August cheese having been placed at 9⅞c, whereas last week 9¼c was top for the same description. At the Western country boards buyers this week have offered 9¼c to 9½c for last week of August, and 9⅞c for Septembers, with factorymen asking 10c for the latter. Sales have also been made of Septembers at 9⅞c, and in fact the sales above mentioned of the last week of August goods were said to be equal to Septembers. Unfortunately for shippers the market is dangerously firm at present high prices which certainly look too high to stock up on and then take the chances of getting out a profit. It will soon be seen, however, how the balance of the season's goods will go; but we fear that it will be difficult to get prices down to what may be considered a safe basis to carry them on through the coming winter. There can be no doubt that the English make is short, but as a rule a shortage on either side of the Atlantic is a risky feature to speculate on, for the reason that it usually causes too high prices to be paid for the fall production, resulting in losses to investors. The exports from this port last week were 48,026 boxes against 55,897 boxes for the same week in 1895, making the total exports for the season up to the close of last week 1,106,268 boxes, against 1,107,999 boxes for the corresponding period last year, showing a decrease of 1,723 boxes, with a decrease in stocks held here as compared with this time last year of 120,000 to 150,000 boxes. In our last issue the shipments from New York the season were given as 490,176 boxes against 283,495 boxes for the same period in 1895. This was an error as it should have been reversed, reading 283,495 boxes this season against 390,579 boxes last year.

THE STRIKE IS OVER.

Official Order Sent by Mr. Tait to the Heads of the Different Divisions—Hitch at Winnipeg.

Montreal, Oct. 7.—(Special.)—The C.P.R. telegraph operators' strike is at an end. At 4.30 this morning the following message was sent by Mr. Tait to General Superintendents Whyte at Winnipeg, Abbott at Vancouver, Spencer at North Bay, Leonard at Toronto and Timmerman at St. John:

"The following proposition has been made to the company by employes representing the operators, and has been accepted by the company:

"'All employes now engaged in a strike on the C.P.R. may report at once to their respective superintendents, who will reinstate them, without prejudice, to the positions they occupied before the strike took place, except such as have been guilty of such grave misconduct as to cause general superintendents to refuse to accept them.

"'Men employed during the past week will be utilized as far as possible in filling extra positions created by the fall business. All other employes who refused to take the place of strikers, but were guilty of no other offences, who were dismissed, will be reinstated without prejudice.'"

"That is all there is in it. I have nothing to add to that statement," was Mr. Tait's answer to a further question.

WHAT CHIEF POWELL SAYS.

Grand Chief Powell was asked if he considered it as a victory for the men. "It is not a question of victory on either side," he replied. "It is simply a question of conciliation to be followed by arbitration. You will remember that three or four days ago I stated on behalf of our men that we were prepared to take advantage of any reasonable means of settlement, if possible, by arbitration. A means has been offered, and we are quite willing to see what is the outcome of it. We know that many things are said and done during the heat of battle which would not be thought of in moments of tranquility, and we think, now that the officials of the company have pledged their word to see that our grievances are considered, they will be as good as their word, and this quite apart from the fact that the other organizations will be beside us to see that the agreement is carried out."

IS IT ARBITRATION?

Later—Nothing definite regarding terms of settlement between the company and operators can be obtained, as both sides refuse to give details. Your correspondent has reason to believe, however, that Mr. Tait has consented to submit employes' grievances to a committee chosen from the locomotive engineers, the strikers' committee and the company's officers, and that they also agree to recognize the order to which the strikers belonged.

A HITCH AT WINNIPEG.

For a Time it Looked as if There Would Be a General Strike.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 7.—(Special.)—Early this morning there was a feeling of great relief, particularly among the wheat trade, when the report spread that the telegraphers' strike had been settled and the men were to return to work. This feeling, however, gave way to further anxiety when it became known another hitch had occurred to prevent a settlement. The superintendent of the western division refused to reinstate a number of the strikers who were charged with acts of lawlessness and the result was that none of the men would report for duty. This hitch seemed confined to the western division of the road. Urgent messages began passing between the strike leaders at Winnipeg and the officials at Montreal, and the startling report spread there would be a general strike in all departments if the men were not at once reinstated. However, late this afternoon the company announced that pending an investigation all the men would be reinstated to-morrow morning, every office and station on the trans-continental line will be manned and the strike will pass into history happily without any serious loss or injury.

Satisfaction at Ottawa.

Ottawa, Oct. 7.—(Special.)—General satisfaction is expressed here at the termination of the strike of C.P.R. telegraphers. Some Senators and members of Parliament have been staying here until such time as news came that everything was all right along the line.

LINING UP

AFTER THE FAIRS.

Our Prize Clothing.

Our Clothing has had the call at all the Fairs. It was nothing new to find the Directors decorating our display with the Red Prize Tickets. It would have been a surprise if we didn't capture First Prize—not because competition was weak, but because the Clothing could not be bettered in Canada. The reputation of the big store was at stake, and we're more than proud to have deserved the good opinion of the directors as well as the thousands of men folk at the Fairs.

Now we're lining up for a rattling big fall business. We've had a good start already, but the price cards are becoming a more interesting study every day, and the figures startling enough to bring us the trade of the masses.

MUSICAL INFORMATION!

A GOOD PIANO IS A LIBERAL EDUCATION.

What is there that so opens the mind to good and gentle inspiration as music?

What is there so inspiring or ennobling in its influence? The music however must be good music. And good music cannot be produced from a bad Piano. The influence of the most charming voice or the most perfect violin, however well handled, is destroyed if accompanied by a bad piano.

MASON & RISCH PIANOS ARE THE INSTRUMENTS OF THE CULTURED.

They are found in the homes of our most refined and wealthiest citizens, where the Piano is viewed not as a mere article of furniture, but as the interpreter of our deepest feelings.

The prices of Mason & Risch Pianos are not unreasonable, quality considered, in fact they are much lower than most people suppose, but they give satisfaction from the first, and they last.

Our terms of payment are most liberal and we give straight cash quotations, without any nonsense about catalogue prices. We invite correspondence, and will mail catalogues and lists of purchasers free on application.

IS IT GOOD . . . ADVERTISING?

Trying to Build up Your Own Business by Pulling Other People's Down?

We appeal to the Ladies. Isn't it a little bit contemptible, as well as egotistical, to speak of other stores as "LITTLE ONE-HORSE STORES?" Is it good taste for a firm who hold two or three slaughter sales a year for raising the wind for a trip to Europe, to say "WE DON'T HAVE TO RESORT TO FAKE SALES, NOR DO WE HAVE TO ADVERTISE AT COST?" We await the verdict of the Ladies.

THOSE 5c. FLANNELETTES.

You haven't heard the last of those 5c. Flannelettes of ours. Which caused such a sensation among the ladies. Didn't it prove that it was the "little" stores could turn out the genuine bargains? How the ladies did buy!—very near cleared out before our repeat order came to hand. Get all you want now at 5c. per yard.

BOLD BLANKET TALK.

But the goods are here to back up the argument. Wool Blankets from 75c per up to $3. Blankets won't be as cheap again in a hurry.

HOME-MADE FLANNEL.

There should be no shivering, with such a stock as this to pick from. Seldom has such white and grey home-made Flannel been offered at the prices. Cheap! Yes, but it's price cheapness only.

MANTLES AND MILLINERY.

A PRISONER KILLED

Tragedy in the Penitentiary at Kingston.

CONVICT GEORGE HOWELL SHOT.

He Was a Troublesome Customer and on This Occasion Defied the Guards—Armed With a Pair of Shears He Threatened to Disembowel Guard Donnelly.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 8.—About 3.30 o'clock this afternoon, while endeavoring to overcome George Howell, a negro confined in the prison of isolation at the Penitentiary and remove him to the dungeon, a dire tragedy occurred and Howell is a dead man. He was about 30 years of age. In 1886 he was sent from Windsor for life for rape. His conduct has been very bad, his attacks on guards and convicts being brutal.

His last act, which put him into the prison of isolation, was to assault Guard Kerrigan. Guard Donnelly reported Howell for insubordination to-day and Warden Metcalfe ordered his deprivation of light.

The order was read to him, when he went into a rage, and, seizing a pair of shears, threatened Donnelly with disembowelment if he removed the lamp.

The dispute continued until Warden Metcalf called on officers to remove the convict to the dungeon. The negro gripped the shears and defied the posse.

There was an exciting five minutes while the guards parleyed with him. When he made a spring at one, after repeated orders to throw down his weapon, there was a report and Howell fell back on his bed. His head was pierced by a bullet entering his left eye. He continued to pour forth oaths and imprecations until death relieved him at 7 o'clock.

An inquest will be held.

AUSTRALIANS AT CHICAGO.

Fifteen Men Against Them Only Scored 105 the First Innings.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—The Australian cricketers arrived here yesterday for their two days' game with the Wanderers' selected Chicago team.

Speaking of their bad defeat in Philadelphia, Giffen said that the best team undoubtedly won, and that they had no excuse to offer. He spoke in the highest terms of young Lester, who made such a wonderful record for Haverford College in its tour last summer in England, and is of the opinion that he will be the best batsman in America in a few years. They are all highly enthusiastic over their tour in England, and all agree in saying that Ranjisinghi is the champion of England.

The Australians expressed their curiosity to see Anson and Pfeffer of the Chicago Baseball Club at the bat. Captain Fraser intends placing Anson at mid off and Pfeffer at extra cover point, two of the most important positions in the field.

At the close of play to-day at the Wentworth-avenue grounds the visitors held an advantage, needing but 33 runs to equal the total of the locals' first venture and having seven wickets to fall. The locals, who played fifteen men, batted first, their efforts resulting in a total of 105, a creditable performance, considering the quality of the visitors' bowling.

Davis and Gilchrist were the chief performers for Chicago, the former batting for ninety minutes for his runs. Many of the other players seemed possessed of stage fright, and were dismissed in easy fashion. Captain Anson and Pfeffer scored five and six respectively, both making good hits. Both received an ovation on going to the wicket.

In the field the visitors were occasionally brilliant, but the cold weather had a deterrent effect on their activity. Gregory was the pick of the lot, his returns to the wicket being smart and accurate. The Australians had sixty minutes' batting, and, though starting badly, were put on a better footing by the brilliant hitting of Darling, who gave the best exhibition seen in Chicago this year. Five times he sent the ball clean over the fence, and when time was called was not out for 47. He gave one chance at the wicket. Trumble was well caught by Baister at cover point after making 11. Iredale scored 1 and Donnan 1. Gregory was not out, and the remaining batsmen are Kelly, Giffen, Trott, Eady, Graham and McKibbin. Play will be resumed to-morrow.

BURNED TO DEATH.

The Clothes of Charles Wilson's Little Daughter Caught Fire in School.

Kemptville, Ont., Oct. 8.—An 8-year-old daughter of Charles Wilson, a farmer, residing at Pelton's Corners, a few miles east of this place, died last night in intense pain from severe burning which she had received the previous Friday at school. It appears that while the teacher, Miss MacKay, was absent at noon some of the children began tampering with the fire, with the result that the deceased child's apron ignited. Becoming terrified, she darted out of the school, and continued at a swift run, thus giving the blaze a greater advantage to spread over her body.

MORE GALES IN BRITAIN.

Wires Prostrated in the West of England and in Ireland—Lives Lost and Much Property Damage Done.

London, Oct. 8.—The Postoffice authorities have issued a notice to the public that the land wires to the West of England and Ireland are prostrated by the heavy gales which have prevailed during the last 24 hours. Two of the crew of a Lowestoft trawler were carried overboard by the gale and drowned. A Norfolk schooner was dismasted off Cromer, but her crew were saved by two Lowestoft fishing smacks, which went to their assistance.

Further reports of the gales show that their severity was greatly increased during last night and that an immense amount of damage has been done to property along the coasts, while the damage to shipping must be very heavy.

The Daunt's rock lightship, at the entrance to Queenstown Harbor, was missing this morning, having been carried away from its moorings by the terrific gale which swept the Channel and the Atlantic during the night. The lightship had on board a crew of eight men. Vessels were sent out this morning to search for her, but up to this time no trace of her has been discovered.

The gale along the Welsh coast was of unprecedented severity and the damage done is very great. Hundreds of yards of the Porth Cawle esplanade have been swept away completely and the country is flooded for a mile inland.

The lower part of the town of Port Madoc is also flooded.

A despatch to Lloyds from Hull says that the Swedish steamer Alexander and the British steamer Emden of the Gool Steamship Company came into collision in the Humber this morning, the former sinking. The captain, two seamen and the pilot of the Alexander were saved, but the remainder of the crew, some ten in number, were drowned.

The gale still continues with unabated fury in the Irish Channel and at many other points along the Irish and Welsh coasts, its force being felt with serious results at Dublin and Wicklow. The Kingston lifeboat has gone to the assistance of the five men who had purchased and were dismantling the Russian barque Palmo, which was stranded and lost in Dublin Bay in December, 1895, while en route from Liverpool for Mobile, upon which occasion the crew of the Kingstown lifeboat, 17 in number, were drowned by the capsizing of their boat in their endeavor to save the 16 persons who were on board the barque. The gale has been felt very severely at Belfast, and many vessels have taken refuge in Belfast Lough. Several persons have been admitted to the Belfast hospitals suffering from the effects of injuries received in the streets from flying fragments of buildings, etc., which the gale carried through the streets with great violence. Many houses in the lower portion of Bristol have been inundated by the water from the harbor, which has overflowed the docks. While a steamer was towing a schooner at Holyhead the hawser parted and the schooner was carried away and lost. She had five men on board, all of whom were drowned.

At Tenby, Wales, two hundred feet of the pier and a large portion of the landing stage were carried away by the force of the wind and water. A lifeboat was launched at 2 o'clock this morning for the purpose of putting out to the rescue of a vessel in the Carmarthen Bay. The boat, with its crew, disappeared in the darkness and up to noon to-day it had not returned nor had any tidings of it been received.

The town of Llandudno, Wales, is flooded for a quarter of a mile above high water mark.

The crew of the British coasting schooner Lady Agnes were rescued by means of a line from the lifesavers on shore, as it was impossible for the men to launch a lifeboat.

The gale prevented the steamer Germanic, from New York for Liverpool, from communicating with Queenstown last evening, and she proceeded for Liverpool. The storm in the Irish Channel last night and this morning was terrific. A large ship and a steamer were compelled to take refuge from the gale at Holyhead. Heavy goods are reported in the southern part of Wales. The railway at Llanelly is submerged, and property has been greatly damaged.

The storm has been the heaviest known in Great Britain and Ireland in years. On the west coast the gales were accompanied by excessive tides. Three persons were drowned at Llanelly by the rising waters.

The gale has also been felt severely in the Clyde. The river boats on the Firth of Clyde were often unable to-day to get to their piers, owing to the high wind and heavy sea. Two sailboats were sunk at Dunoon to-day. At Kingston the British ship Mary L. Burrill, bound from that port for New York, broke from her moorings and was stranded on the rocks. She was towed off looking badly. Her bow and headgear were also damaged by collision with a pier. She will probably have to be docked.

THE CZAR AND CZARINA

Examined Pictures in the Louvre Yesterday—Both are Improved in Health—Diminished Crowds.

Paris, Oct. 8.—The weather to-day was bright, mild and springlike. The Czar and Czarina drove to the Louvre at 11 o'clock this morning, and remained an hour examining the pictures and sculpture. Their Majesties were accompanied by President Faure.

The route of the Imperial visitors through the streets was not so thronged as yesterday, public curiosity being pretty well satisfied, but still large numbers gathered along the line, and they were quite as enthusiastic as the crowds of the previous days.

The Czar looked much better, having recovered from his fatigue and regained his normal health.

CONGRATULATIONS

Showered Upon Sir Charles and Lady Tupper

ON THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING DAY.

Political Animosities Forgotten in a General Expression of Good Will Towards the Aged and Happy Couple—Magnificent Gifts and Warmly-Worded Addresses.

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—Few events of a social nature that have taken place here in the past have been attended with more general interest or looked upon with more kindliness than the celebration to-day by Sir Charles Tupper, Bart., and Lady Tupper, of their golden wedding. Sir Charles may have some political enemies, but he has none socially, and to-day political matters are buried from sight, and the veteran leader of the Conservative party and his worthy wife are receiving congratulations from all quarters. None indeed were heartier in their congratulations to the Opposition leader and his good lady than Mr. and Mrs. Laurier, and the same remark applies with equal force to our own Sir Oliver. Between the hours of 4 and 7 p.m. there was a continuous stream of callers at 123 Cooper-street, when Sir Charles and Lady Tupper were "at home" to their friends. It had been arranged that guests were to be received in the handsome drawing-room on the east side of the house, where, owing to the large number expected, it had been found necessary to remove some of the furniture.

Lady Tupper, surrounded by her children and grandchildren, made a charming picture. She was assisted by Lady Hibbert Tupper, Mrs. Stewart Tupper, Mrs. Wm. Tupper and Mrs. Cameron. Some very smart costumes were worn. Lady Tupper was attired in a black satin gown, trimmed with costly white lace, and wore some very handsome diamonds.

Shortly after 4 o'clock a delegation of Conservative Senators, headed by Sir Mackenzie Bowell, arrived at the house to tender their felicitations. Among those present were Senator Miller, Dickey, Bernier, Clemow, Ogilvie, Sanford and Dobson. The following is the address which they presented to the ex-Premier:

"To the Hon. Sir Charles Tupper, Bart., G.C.M.G., K.C., M.P.:

"Sir,—The occurrence of so happy an event as that of your golden wedding affords to the undersigned members of the Senate of Canada the opportunity of offering to you and Lady Tupper a testimonial in commemoration of the occasion.

"A long life, passed with distinction in the public service of Canada, both at home and abroad, entitles you to the esteem and respect of all who, like ourselves, recognize your devotion to the duties of State in which you have been so long among the foremost of your countrymen.

"We congratulate you on the years and the well-merited honors to which you have attained; on the vigor you still exhibit in the advocacy of your opinions, and particularly on the good fortune which has favored you with the happy companionship of Lady Tupper during half a century of domestic life.

"That Providence, which has given you lengthy days and preserved your domestic circle unbroken, may continue towards you the same gracious dispensation, is the sincere hope of those whose good wishes and congratulations accompany the memorial we have now the pleasure to present."

The Commons delegation consisted of Messrs. Costigan, Foster, Taylor, Boyd, Clarke, Rosamond, Beattie, Dimock, Wood, Bergeron, Quinn and Poupore. They presented the following address:

"To the Hon. Sir Charles Tupper, Bart., G.C.M.G., C.B., D.C.L., etc.:

"Sir,—The members of the Conservative party in the House of Commons desire to take advantage of your golden wedding to present to you and Lady Tupper the accompanying token of their high personal regard, and to express their loyalty to you as its leader, and their appreciation of your great services to your party and to Canada.

"Your career in Provincial politics was singularly successful and distinguished, and has linked your name indissolubly with the development of Nova Scotia and the attainment of the importance which that Province enjoys, but it is in the wider arena of Dominion statesmanship you have won our admiration and gratitude.

"Co-jointly with Sir John Macdonald and Sir George Cartier and other distinguished men, you helped to build up that party which created, fostered and has given stability to Confederation, and by wise and broad statesmanship moulded out of scattered Provinces of diverse races and religions, separated by dividing lines and by dividing laws, a united and harmonious Dominion, loyally sensitive to its Imperial relations, while instinct with a true national spirit.

"Your life has spanned the critical period of Canadian history, during which the Dominion was founded and its permanence guaranteed, and you can have the proud consciousness that this federation, in whose formation you played so prominent a part, has in all the features which ensure national greatness progressed in a manner which is without precedent or parallel in the history of other lands. The expansion of our trade, the growth of our industries, the rapid rise in our public credit, the creation of our immense facilities for commerce, are the fruits of the wisdom which inspired and the energy which carried into effect that broad national policy with which your name is inseparably connected.

"(1) As High Commissioner of Canada in London, not only were you to Canadians who visited England courteous and hospitable, but you became so conspicuous as the defender of every Canadian interest that to-day it is universally admitted you raised that office to one of ambassadorial importance.

"You inaugurated the era of Canadian diplomatic relations with foreign countries, and by the success which attended your missions to Madrid, Paris and Washington you won the marked approval of your sovereign and the respect and regard, not only of Canada, but of all the countries with whose governments you negotiated.

"We congratulate you and Lady Tupper on an event always rare in human life, and under conditions so happy that they enable us to wish you both, with confident hope, many years to enjoy the wealth of domestic affection which surrounds you, and the esteem in which you are universally held by the party and by the country.

"We are, sir, your friends and supporters."

Signed by the Conservative M.P.'s.

Infests the blood of humanity. It appears in varied forms, but is forced to yield to Hood's Sarsaparilla, which purifies and vitalizes the blood and cures all such diseases. Read this:

two inches across formed and in walking to favor it I sprained my ankle. The sore became worse; I could not put my boot on and I thought I should have to give up at every step. REDUCED LETTER POSTAGE.

The Montreal Board of Trade has passed an unanimous resolution asking the Government to establish a two-cent-per-ounce letter postal rate, the same as Great Britain and the United States. At present it is difficult to see at first glance how this can be carried out, as the balance between revenue and expense in the Post Office Department is already on the wrong side. But the increased correspondence resulting from a reduced rate will go far to make up the difference in rate. Then there will be a sensible decrease in the cost of maintenance, as represented by the abolition, under the present Government, of the jobbery in mail contrats, which, under the late Government, in some cases, was about 300 per cent. in excess of legitimate remuneration for the service. The Canadian postal service is susceptible of great reforms, and, from the way he has begun, Mr. Mulock is the man to do very much to increase its efficiency in the public interests, and at the same time to successfully reduce the cost of what was a most inefficient service under the neglect and mismanagement of the late Government. He will not be found, like Sir Adophe Caron, giving $9,000, and without competition, for a contract for carrying mails whose legitimate cost is only a little over $3,000.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE EXAMINER, for the moment leaves its politics on the shelf, and extends the most cordial congratulations to Sir Charles Tupper on the occasion of his golden wedding anniversary, which was celebrated at Ottawa yesterday.

THE Toronto News (Conservative) says: Hon. Mr. Fisher is giving fresh evidence nearly every day of his fitness for the post he holds as Minister of Agriculture. One of the secrets of his success is that he gives his attention to the duties of his office.

SPEAKING from a party organ standpoint, it is probable that the Mail and Empire will be included in the contemplated reorganization of the Conservative party. Goodness knows, there is abundant room for improvement, in a political sense.

A Presbyterian and a Methodist journal have had a little exchange of civilities over the claim of each that Bryan is a member of the body it represents. If Bryan's theology is no sounder than his political economy, he is hardly worth fighting for the possession of—he would be a dangerous heretic in both cases.

THE transference of Bishop Sullivan, of Algoma, to the rectorate of St. James, Toronto, seems very like a case of apostolic succession. St. James gives a bishop and gains a bishop—a worthy successor to the rector who has made St. James Cathedral a conspicuous element in the promotion of Christian progress and moral advance in Toronto.

"BUSINESS," in discussing municipal accounts, having special reference to the case of Treasurer Harvey of Guelph, says: "The need for reform in the law relating to the appointment of auditors for municipalities is painfully apparent. A radical step in this direction would certainly be popular with the masses of taxpayers. No matter how honestly disposed a municipal treasurer may be, his accounts, more certainly than those of any other class of official, should be periodically subjected to scientific scrutiny."

THIS year is the eight hundredth anniversary of the Crusades. There is infinitely more need to-day of a Peter the Hermit to fire the heather of Europe as well as "fire" the heathen of the Dardanelles, the unspeakable Turk. The Crusades were undertaken largely and comparatively out of mere religious sentiment. The suffering of the few stray pilgrims at the hands of the Turk in the 11th century are as nothing compared to the atrocious massacres of the Armenians by the "crowned assassin," the present ruler of Turkey. The unspeakable Turk has not improved, but, rather, degenerated during the last 800 years and the reigning Sultan, Abdul Hamid II, who for the past twenty years has disgraced the civilization of Europe, is as far beneath the chivalrous Sultan of the time of Richard, the Lion-hearted, as Prince Lobanoff was below Gladstone, the Peter the Hermit of the nineteenth century.

HAVE YOU MOLES?

Then Here Follow the Tales Told by These Skin Blemishes.

Have you moles? Yes? Well, know then that moles tell character as infallible as the palms, the eyes, the hair or the teeth. Most interesting are the stories told by moles. A mole, as almost everybody knows, is a small and usually dark brown protuberant excrescence on the skin.

The lady who has a mole on her right eyebrow may be sure that if she is of the proper age, it will not be many months ere she will wed. She is very likely to marry a man who is her opposite in complexion.

If, however, the mole should happen to be on the left eyebrow, let her beware, for her matrimonial chances are slim. Unless she takes advantage of the fact that this is leap year it is more than probable that it will be a long time before her hand is asked in marriage.

Moles on the head indicate that if you are in political life you will be fairly successful.

A mole on the right temple or forehead may at all times be regarded as an exceedingly good augury. It really means that the possessor will, in the course of time, become exceedingly rich. His or her affairs will assuredly prosper if rightly managed.

It is practically the same when the mole happens to be on the nose. A mole there is not charming, but the fates have decreed that what it lacks in beauty it amply makes up in the way of bringing good fortune. For that reason let all those who have moles on the ends of their noses be cheerful and sanguine.

A mole on either lip is a positive indication that the person is one of fine mind, rather given to viewing life rosily, and considerably addicted to the pleasures of love. Such a person is also generally likely to have a transparent skin and bright, moist eyes. In all love affairs he or she will be amazingly successful.

A mole on the foot is not altogether an auspicious sign. It indicates that the person is slothful, careless and will never make much of a mark in the world.

To have a mole on your right arm near the shoulder means a great deal. It means that if you steadfastly apply yourself to your chosen calling you will be thoroughly successful. Bodily strength is also indicated by this position of a mole.

Moles on the neck tell the future with much more accuracy than one would imagine. A mole on the side of the neck means that the person will some time or other narrowly escape death by asphyxiation. Subsequently the person will rise to great favor through an unexpected inheritance. The writer knows of at least two instances where this has proven true.

A mole on the left breast means that most of your children will be boys. It also portends good luck in business undertakings.

If a woman have a mole on her left breast it is more certain that she will have many children. Her life, in the main, will be a happy one, and she will have little of which to complain.

Moles on either cheek are not the happiest auguries. They show that the person is of mediocre intellect, and not likely to make much of a stir in the world. Of course, there are exceptions, but in this instance the rule holds amazingly good.

Don't be alarmed if you have a mole on your chin. It does not mean that you will beset by multitudinous evils. On the contray, it signifies that you will not be much overshadowed by illluck. Success will cast its golden rays across your pathway, and in the game of life you will "win out" in a manner eminently satisfactory to yourself.

Moles on the stomach indicate a person of gluttonous tendencies. He or she is quite apt to think more of the good things of life than of hard work or what the morrow may have in store.

Moles on the hip are indicative of many children. This is a sign that rarely or never fails.

Fortunate marriages are indicated by moles on the right leg. A mole on the left leg is not so auspicious. Still, it is not an altogether bad sign.

A mole on the back of the hand indicates that the person is charitable and willing at all times to assist the needy. It makes no difference as to the hand, the augury is the same.

A mole on the finger is not a good sign. It shows the person to be one who cannot be implicitly trusted, and who will, to subserve his own purposes, stoop to almost any meanness.

Moles on the throat mean riches and fortunate marriages. All matrimonially inclined young women should be glad to have moles on their neck, provided, of course, the moles are not sufficient in number to cause embarrassment.

SCIENCE-MAD.

A Chicago Physician Killed His Wife by Degrees and Watched Her Die, Then Shot Himself.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Dr. Carl F. Nitz, a German physician, vivisected his wife and then killed himself yesterday afternoon.

The murder of the woman was done in the most cold-blooded manner. As shown by notes that were found after his death, Nitz sat by the woman's side, watching her die slowly, and now and then to note the effect of another wound he would stab his knife into her again.

He carefully noted all the symptoms of the woman's approaching decease, wrote them down and then shot himself.

"For several months, I was troubled with a persistent humour on my head which gave me considerable annoyance, until it occured to me to try Ayer's Hair Vigor. Before using one bottle, the humour was healed."—T. T. Adams, General Merchant, Tabeville, Va.

Mr. Joseph Lane, the well-known jeweller of Brockville, says: "For some years I have suffered with severe pains in my back and sides and flashes of heat between my shoulders. I had a tired, wornout feeling.

"The numerous medicines that I took gave me very little relief. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I thought I would try a box, and got one at Curry's drugstore.

"After the first two or three doses I felt much relieved, and the longer I took them the greater the change for the better in my condition. I am much better in every respect and recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from kidney trouble as the best remedy I know of."

Sold by James Lynch, druggist, 168 Hunter street, Peterborough.

CONGRATULATIONS.

very handsome design. It will stand fully sixteen inches in height, and is two feet in length. National emblems are carved out in the ornamental details. A pedestal of open work in the centre supports four arms of burnished gold, each ornamented at the top with a spray of maple leaves, in which will rest a small bonbon dish in cut-glass. In the centre of the open space between the upright supports rests a beaver, finished in dull gold. Upon the body of the stand are four shields, upon which are engraved respectively the family arms, the Dominion arms, enamelled in colors, and the dates 1846 and 1896. The whole forms a very massive piece of gold plate, and cost considerably over $1000.

The gift from the Conservative members of the House of Commons is a magnificent gold salver of beautiful design. The outer edge is surmounted by a wreath of dull gold of oak leaves and maple leaves, the representative trees of England and Canada. The upper side bears a shield, with Sir Charles' monogram and the date 1846, while on the lower side is the crest of the Tupper family in blue enamel on gold—a hound with a mayflower in its mouth, and the family motto, "L'espoir est ma force" (Hope is my strength), with the present date, 1896. On one end a gold shield bears the British coat of arms in enameled colors, while the opposite end is occupied by the Canadian coat of arms. A large and very handsome shield on the centre of the salver bears this inscription: "Presented to Sir Charles Tupper, Bart., and Lady Tupper on the occasion of the celebration of their golden wedding, Oct. 4, 1896, by the Liberal-Conservative members of the House of Commons."

The salver is in brightly burnished gold, while the trimmings are of dull gold. It contains thirty-six ounces of 14-carat gold and cost upwards of $1000. The plate is enclosed in a massive case of polished Canadian oak, lined with dark blue velvet.

Another beautiful piece of gold plate is a gift received by Sir Charles and Lady Tupper from the Conservative Association of Halifax. It is in the form of a combined candelabra and epergne. The base and centre column is two feet wide, with three arms, and these are surrounded with four cut glass dishes, when used as an epergne. On a card attached is inscribed the following: "To Sir Charles and Lady Tupper on the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day, with the congratulations of the President and members of the Liberal-Conservative Association of Halifax."

Congratulatory messages have been pouring in on Sir Charles and Lady Tupper by post and telegraph since Monday. These come from all parts of Canada and many from England, sent by dignitaries of church and state, by political organizations, as well as by private friends. Many of the congratulatory messages contain references to Sir Charles Tupper's eminent services to the Dominion, as well as to the empire at large.

The Archbishop of Halifax, Mgr. O'Brien, telegraphed as follows: "Sincere congratulations to Lady Tupper and yourself. May the years wax bright as you journey onward, until the hue of the golden be transmuted into the crystal sheen of your diamond wedding."

Bishop Courtney of Nova Scotia also wired his hearty congratulations and warm wishes.

From Archbishop Langevin of Manitoba came the following: "The Archbishop of St. Boniface congratulates the worthy couple and wishes them many golden days."

Congratulatory cablegrams from England included the following from Baron de Reuter: "Please accept both our best congratulations. Letter follows."

Sir Donald Smith, Canadian High Commissioner, cabled a congratulatory message from Ballachulish, and from the staff of the High Commissioner's office messages were also received.

Lieutenant-Governors Dewdney of British Columbia, Kirkpatrick of Ontario, Patterson of Manitoba, Fraser of New Brunswick, Daly of Nova Scotia and Howlan of Prince Edward Island forwarded their congratulations also by telegram, and from the leading members of the Canadian judiciary in all parts of the Dominion similar messages were received by Sir Charles and Lady Tupper.

Among the telegrams which reached Sir Charles from political organizations were the following, sent by the Club Conservateur of Montreal:

"The rejoicings of your golden wedding cannot be limited to the blessed home of a family, which illustrates so vividly the word of God but must include all the members of the Conservative party, cherishing the idea of being followers of a great chief, who will bring them again to victory, and to the fraternal idea of Confederation, of which you are the father. Please accept the respectful and warm, hearty greetings of the juniors to the old chief, who adds to the wisdom of experience all the vigor, enthusiasm and combativeness of youth."

Chairman J. E. Masters wired from Moncton, N.B.:

"On behalf of the Liberal-Conservatives of Moncton, I congratulate you and Lady Tupper upon attaining the fiftieth anniversary of your wedded life, and the many favorable and pleasant conditions under which you enjoy the same. We trust that you may long be spared to the country and the Conservative party, and that you and Lady Tupper may enjoy many more years of health and happiness together."

President George M. Campbell telegraphed from Halifax:

"The Junior Liberal-Conservative Association of Halifax ...ty and County extend warmest congratulations to Lady Tupper and yourself on the fiftieth anniversary of your married life, and trust that you both may be spared for many years, and that Canada may continue to enjoy the advantages of your wide experience, distinguished abilities and statesmanship."

Congratulatory messages were also sent by the Albany Club of Toronto, the Liberal-Conservative Association of Halifax and many other similar organizations.

One of the heartiest expressions of congratulation was that of an old political opponent, the Hon. A. G. Jones of Halifax. A message was also received from the Medical Society of Nova Scotia, of which Sir Charles was for many years the president.

Dr. Louis Johnson of Nova Scotia, who was one of Sir Charles Tupper's groomsmen, wired the following:

"Heartiest congratulations and best wishes to Lady Tupper and yourself on this happy jubilee anniversary of Oct. 8th, 1846."

To-night there was a family reunion, at which Sir Charles and Lady Tupper, with their three sons and their wives, and General and Mrs. Cameron and fourteen grandchildren were present.

A list of the gifts received by the happy couple would occupy two columns of newspaper space.

BRITAIN, FRANCE AND RUSSIA.

Said to Have Reached an Entente in Regard to Turkey and Will Demand Instant Reforms.

Paris, Oct. 8.—It is announced here that France, Russia and Great Britain have arrived at an entente in regard to Turkey, and it is expected that these powers will immediately despatch to the Porte a vigorous note demanding the adoption of reforms that will insure the safety of the Armenians in the Turkish Empire.

ROSEBERY'S RESIGNATION

The Greatest Political Sensation Great Britain Has Had for Some Time—What the Newspapers Say.

London, Oct. 8.—The Star, in commenting on the resignation of Lord Rosebery from the leadership of the Liberal party, says: Lord Rosebery has resigned, and Sir William Harcourt reigns in his stead. The Liberal party will never again be led by a Peer. Mr. Gladstone chose Lord Rosebery as his successor to the leadership, and it is Mr. Gladstone who has unwittingly deposed him."

Mr. T. P. O'Connor, M.P., says in his paper, The Sun: "Lord Rosebery never had a fair chance. Whenever he indicated a policy it was immediately thrown over by his supposed colleagues. Nevertheless, everybody knows that Mr. Gladstone stood outside of the painful intrigues, odious bickerings and miserable personalities which defaced and wrecked the Liberal party since his retirement."

The Evening News says: "Lord Rosebery has played the man. He declines to lead a party, the ragtag and bobtail of which was always barking at his heels. Sheer ignorance has betrayed the Radical rump into the bog in which it is at present wallowing."

The Echo says: "Lord Rosebery throughout has taken a common-sense view of the eastern and western situation, while the other Liberal leaders have taken narrower and more emotional views. Lord Rosebery's resignation will strengthen Lord Salisbury."

The Dublin Freeman's Journal says: "Lord Rosebery daily gave striking proof that his views of the foreign policy differed from those of his party. His retirement is not a surprise. It is his arrival on the road toward which he has long been traveling."

The St. James Gazette says the leadership of Lord Rosebery was a more signal failure than was ever made by any man of equal opportunities and equal promise.

The Pall Mall Gazette says the anti-Rosebery agitators have severed the last link that connected them with sobriety and sanity.

The Dublin Independent says: "If Sir William Harcourt shall be Lord Rosebery's successor the last condition of affairs will be worse than the first."

In the political clubs it was not expected that Lord Rosebery would resign the leadership of his party at present, despite the agitation against him. The advanced Liberals desire a more progressive and aggressive policy, though a large section of the party approve Lord Rosebery's coolness in a time of feverish excitement. Many Liberal members of the House of Commons wired to the office of the Liberal party in Westminster to-day asking for information in regard to Lord Rosebery's withdrawal, and received the reply that the ex-Premier's letter of resignation was wholly unexpected, not even Mr. Ellis, the Liberal whip, to whom his letter of resignation was addressed, having had a hint that it was impending.

The resignation of Lord Rosebery is the sole topic of discussion in the Reform and National Liberal Clubs, where it is assumed that Sir William Harcourt will succeed to the party leadership, though many of the rank and file say that that will not solve the situation. These persons predict that within a few years the progressive opinion of the country will compel the present Liberal leaders to go with their hats in their hands to Mr. Chamberlain and accept his leadership upon his own terms.

Sir William Harcourt, who will probably succeed Lord Rosebery as the leader of the Liberal party, is suffering from an attack of catarrhal cold.

What the Dillonites Say.

Dublin, Oct. 8.—Among the Dillonites there is general resentment at the fact that Lord Rosebery has resigned the leadership of the Liberal party without consulting them. The Independent says that he did so "without a thought of Home Rule," and adds, "If Sir William Harcourt succeeds him, the condition of Irish affairs will be worse than ever. Harcourt can never be trusted by any Irishman."

THE POPULAR FEELING.

A Correspondent of a New York Paper Favors Sir W. Vernon Harcourt.

New York, Oct. 8.—Mr. Julian Ralph cables from London as follows: "Nothing better indicates the intensity of popular feeling here over the Armenian outrages than the resignation of Lord Rosebery from the leadership of the Liberal party, which is officially reported to-night. In the movement for English activity in the East Lord Rosebery, instead of Lord Salisbury, has stood all the blows. It fell out early in the anti-Turkish campaign that Lord Rosebery was inclined to bestride the fence rather than to advocate the interference, which his party, including the whole of the Nonconformists, insisted upon When, on two public occasions, Lord Rosebery dodged the responsibility thrust upon him, The Daily Chronicle, a most able and ardent anti-Government organ, criticized him in severe language. Lord Rosebery appears to have run out his most brilliant, most fitful, most pathetic career. The mighty chair now falls to the man who ought, by right and title, to have had it when Mr. Gladstone left it—Sir William Vernon Harcourt. It is true that he is 70 years old, but his speech to his Welsh constituents day before yesterday shows him to be full of the vigor which Rosebery lacks. He is in perfect accord with the masses, which Rosebery was not.

"This political tragedy shows that Rosebery stood almost alone against the overwhelming force of opinion of the mass of the nation. No event of past months shows so hopeful an augury for the delivery of the Armenians, and as the Tories, and even Salisbury, it is believed, share the sentiments all humane Christian persons must feel at the atrocities, a settlement of the Eastern question is arriving—nay, even perhaps at this very moment, through negotiations in Paris, has already been made."

COUNTY REGISTRAR.

All Else Failing Mr. Geo. C. Ward is Cured by Eight Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

PORT HOPE (special) Sept. 28—No case of recovery from serious illness that has ever occured in this community has caused as much talk as that of our esteemed townsman Mr. George C. Telfordian Temperature Top'cs.

Friday, Oct. 9.—We have now got a cold snap. Yesterday, Thursday, the glass came down to 32 degrees, being the freezing point and at this morning's observation the self-registering thermometer indicated only 23 degrees above zero with a sharp hard frost, doing considerable damage.—Thos. Telford.

By the Way.

This morning one citizen asked another, standing at the corner of George and Hunter streets, northwest corner:

"What is this deep stone structure for?"

"It's another vault for our town taxes," was the reply.

"O, I see!"

"You see now, but you'll feel—in the neighborhood of your pocket—later on."

THE GRANITES FORGATHER.

Annual Meeting for Organization and Election of Officers.

The echoes of the stentorian injunction to actively "sweep! sweep!" have hardly died away among the rafters of the curling rink, when the slogan sounds again, the Granite Curling Club first giving tongue. Last night a large and enthusiastic meeting of the club was held in the rink parlours. The cold snap of the past day or two rather paradoxically warming up the curlers to a formidable degree of curling fervor. If this enthusiasm is backed by diligent practice, competing rinks will run up against a "dull thud." After a conversational canvass of the situation, and organization, the following officers and skips were elected:

President—H. M. Allen.
Vice-President—R. E. Wood.
Sec.-Treas.—W. L. Allen.
Representatives to Toronto—Dr. Boucher and E. B. Edwards.
Executive Committee—R. M. Dennistoun, D. W. Dumble and George Edmison.
Skips—Dr. Boucher, H. M. Allen, R. M. Dennistoun, Jas. Connal, Judge Weller, G. W. Hatton, R. S. Davidson, D. W. Dumble, J. H. Burnham, T. P. Attrill, Geo. Edmison, E. B. Edwards, Geo. J. Horkins.

The following new members were admitted to the club. Messrs. J. F. Roger, T. E. Bradburn, G.E. Whiston, Ed. Brown, Robt. Fair, R. S. Davidson, James Connal and J. Mackay. Mr. Whiston, being an old Orillia curler of well known skill, will be welcomed amongst the "knights of the besom and stane."

Skip Horkins was given permission to pick the members of his rink from amongst the colts of the club in order that they might have constant practice together—something which they have been unable to do in the past. The Peterborough Colts have now won the Midland Colts Association trophy twice, and a big effort is to be made this year to again be victorious, as it is necessary to win the cup three times before it becomes the property of any one club.

RETURNED FROM ABROAD.

Mr. J. J. Lundy's Pleasant Trip With Mr. James Dolan.

Mr. J. J. Lundy is very enthusiastic over the very pleasant time which he enjoyed on his recent trip abroad.

Mr. Lundy did not attend the Irish National Convention, but joined Mr. James Dolan afterwards in Ireland and journeyed with him to County Mayo, where he spent one of the most pleasant three weeks of his life. Whilst in Mayo the two Canadians were the guests of a relative of Mr. Dolan's, who is a doctor and, according to Mr. Lundy, a

PRINCE OF GOOD FELLOWS.

By going on his rounds with the Doctor Mr. Lundy gained a deeper insight into the life of the Irish peasantry than it would have otherwise been possible to do, and he has a great stock of anecdotes to tell of his experiences.

The wonderful work of Father McGuire, in Mayo, forms the topic of the most interesting part of Mr. Lundy's story about his trip. It seems that the priest located in a little hamlet and has lived to see the place built up into a flourishing town as the result of his untiring efforts. The place is now the scene of the thirs largest cattle fair in Ireland, and as these fairs are held every week it means a great deal to a town. Thousands of cattle are disposed of at each sale, and during the intervening days droves are constantly arriving from all parts of the district. Father McGuire has been able to build a seven thousand pound church and is now busy erecting a convent, which in connection with it will have a technical school—the favourite hobby of Father McGuire, who is of the opinion that if Irish girls are trained in the before emigrating to America their difficulties will be greatly lightened. The practibility of the scheme is seen at a glance as the green Irish domestic has hitherto been greatly handicapped on arriving in America.

Driving over to see this priest, whose name is now famous in Ireland, the two gentlemen from Peterborough were "just in time to have their names put in the pot" and enjoyed a very pleasant dinner with Father McGuire and four other of the priests of the district.

The famous Lakes of Killarney were visited, but Mr. Lundy states that in themselves the lakes cannot be compared, for beauty, with Stony and Clear Lakes in our own county. The surroundings, however, give the effect which has made them famed the world over. The mountains on either side are grand in their sublimity, and the ruins in the neighbourhood also lend their rugged beauty to enhance the scene. The drives along the shores of the lakes are unequalled for scenic effect by anything which Mr. Lundy has seen in his travels.

WHILST ON ERIN'S ISLE

not a day passed over the heads of the two travellers without a shower of rain descending, and whilst this was disagreeable at times, when not expected, yet it resulted in keeping the meadows always green, justifying Ireland's claim in the name of the Green Isle.

The island is a perfect net work of railways, and the coaches are superior to those in England, being fitted up with many conveniences which are not to be found in the English carriages. When the two Canadians left the grain crops were just being garnered, and the farmers were also busy curing their second crop of hay.

American tourists were found everywhere on their bicycles and two came home on the Parisian with Mr. Lundy, who had been touring in England since May. The voyage home was a very tempestuous one, even more so than in midwinter and for two days the passengers were not allowed on deck.

Much expense can be saved in touring through Ireland by going in a small party of about four. A case in point attracted Mr. Lundy's attention where such a party was "doing" Ireland at about half the cost, individually, as that to which he was put. Mr. Dolan is already making up a party to visit the "Ould Sod" in 1900—the year of the great Paris Exposition. In his trip Mr. Lundy saw more of Ireland than he saw in all his previous trips together. The entire three weeks was spent in the South of Ireland.

LACROSSE.

The Peterboroughs have been officially notified by the Executive of the C. L. A of the protest lodged against the result of the semi-finals by Orillia, and an answer to the charge has been sent in accompanied by the fee of $25 to defray the expenses. Mr. Geo. J. Horkins will represent the local club at the meeting of the Executive, and Mr. W. A. Stratton will also attend.

The Orillia Times speaks as follows concerning the matter: "There is no change as yet in the lacrosse situation. The Orillia club have filed their protest with the secretary of the C.L.A., and consider that they have evidence enough to put the Peterborough club out of the game altogether. In the meantime Georgetown has beaten Stouffville for a place in the finals, and Mount forest and Wiarton are struggling for who is best. Should Wiarton defeat Mount Forest and Orillia win the protest, the same three clubs will contest the finals as last year."

The Peterboroughs are certain that the bottom will fall out of the protest upon investigation if they receive fair play, but it would be nothing unusual if they "got it in the neck," as it is slangily, but forcibly, expressed by the boys. Even if the game should be ordered to be played over the Peterboroughs have no fear of the result, as they are now in far better shape than they were for either of the other two games.

The gigantic struggle on the P.A.A.A. grounds to-morrow afternoon promises to be an event, which will find a place in Canada's history. The ball will be faced at 4.30 sharp and the Examiner team will score until the stars twinkle overhead and give the wink to the Times team to fly homeward—that is what is left of them. The Examiner team desires that no demonstration be made by thousands present in their favour, because they are used to these things, and the ladies who are sure to be present are requested not to throw bouquets on the field during the match. They will come in handy for the funeral. Admission, gentlemen free; ladies, more free.

RUGBY FOOTBALL.

The local rugby football club is endeavouring to rouse up enthusiasm amongst its members by announcing the first match of the season. It will take place on Saturday, October 17th, and the visiting team will be the crack organization from Upper Canada College, Toronto. This announcement should be sufficient to bring every player out to practice in the afternoon on the P.A.A.A. Grounds. There is splendid material available for the picking of a good team for the Saturday game and as the boys have got a whole week in which to get into shape for the match, they will doubtless render a good account of themselves.

HASTINGS ROAD RACE.

The Hastings Bicycle Club is holding a big road race on Friday, Oct. 16th, and is hanging out $100.00 in prizes. The route is from the exhibition track at Hastings to Norwood and return, finishing on the track, the distance being twelve miles. The handicapping committee is composed of Messrs. G. J. Horkins, Peterborough; D. Fraser, Norwood, and T. Howard, Hastings. Entries are to be made not later than Wednesday, October 14th, with Walter Fowlds, treasurer.

NORTHERN ONTARIO GAME.

The Chief Game Warden Alive to the Interests Committed to His Charge—Co-operation of Settlers in the Enforcement of the Laws Invited—Why it is Their Interest—How Game Preserves are Established.

Chief Game Warden Tinsley is sending out the following letter to the settlers in Northern Ontario, regarding game preservation:

"As the season for deer shooting is approaching, with your permission I will endeavour to prove to settlers in the northern portions of the province that the game laws of Ontario are very much to their interest. It should be readily understood by the settlers that if the useless slaughter of the deer that prevailed a few years ago had continued the result would have been that in the near future moose, deer, and game of every description would have disappeared, to satisfy the unreasonable greed of professional trappers and pot-hunters. With the disappearance of the fish and game, the large number of tourists, fishermen, and hunting parties would also disappear, and the consequent benefits derived by the settlers, guides, etc., from the large amounts spent annually would be lost to the settlers in the northern portion of the province. The settlers, if they act wisely, will have a lasting source of income from the fish and game and they

for all time, when nearly all other sources of revenue have ceased. The wild and rugged character of a large portion of our northern country so long as it contains a reasonable quantity of fish and game, and on account of its easy access, will be visited by thousands of wealthy tourists and hunters, spending annually large amounts of money that would otherwise be lost were the present inducements for visiting northern districts removed. I also desire to draw the attention of the settlers to the fact that the game laws enable them at small expense to forbid trespassing on their lands, and if they are alive to their own interests they will assist the Government, which is assisting them, in enforcing the game laws, not only against transient visitors, but also against resident violators. The time is not far distant when the farmers and settlers generally, if they wisely protect the game, will be able to lease the right of shooting over their properties for no inconsiderable sum. Having said sufficient to show that the game laws are in the interests of the settlers, I now propose to show that many of the settlers, as well as a large number of visiting hunting parties, are responsible for the amendments to the game laws passed at the last session of the Legislature, to the effect that those desiring to hunt deer are COMPELLED TO TAKE OUT LICENSES.

If the parties referred to had obeyed the game laws, and been content with killing two deer each season, in accordance with the statutes, the amendments of 1896 would have been unnecessary. To further show the necessity for the action of the Government in passing the license legislation, I had reliable information from a settler that twelve carcases of deer were left to rot on his farm by two pot-hunters during the open season of 1894. Many similar cases might be mentioned if space would permit. Game in Europe is protected for and in the exclusive interests of a privileged class—the general public, to a large extent, being debarred from field sports. This system of exclusion is making rapid strides in the United States, immense tracts of the public domain being bought by wealthy men for game preserves. These gentlemen are doing this in consequence of the unwise and useless killing of game at all seasons by the unthinking public. The same practice is producing similar results in this grand and free country of ours.

"It is the intention of the Government to introduce into the Algonquin Park from Northern Europe a number of capercalisie and black game for the purpose of stocking the northern part of the province with these valuable birds. It is not too much for the Government to expect the honest co-operation and assistance of settlers and sportsmen, whose interests it is doing so much to further and protect. Great efforts are being made to increase this most valuable factor as a food supply, and these efforts should be endorsed and appreciated by the general public."

VICTORIA COUNTY CHEESE BOARD.

A Short Meeting—1 075 Boxes Boarded and all Sold at 10 3-8 and 10 5-16c.

A meeting of the Victoria cheese board was held Thursday in Lindsay, business being taken up a few minutes after eleven o'clock. The buyers present were Messrs. Whitton, Flavelle, Fitzgerald, Bird and W. S. Cook.

President Thos. Robertson, of Dunsford, occupied the chair, and Vice-President Crusse, of Linden Valley, and Secretary J. L. Read, of Bobcaygeon, was also present.

The following factories boarded the number of boxes set opposite:—

Star	100
Lorneville	100
Cameron	70
Dunsford	65
Mariposa	60
Derryville	40
Cambray	67
Janetville	4[illegible]
Fenelon Falls	55
North Verulam	57
Minden
Lessdale
Valentia	122
North Ops	42
Kinmount
Peaboro	98
Bobcaygeon	112
Maple Leaf	50
Ingoldsby

Very little time was lost in clearing the board. Mr. Whitton, buyer for Watkins, of Belleville, jumped to 10⅜, the best figure obtained at the Peterborough board the day previous, and named Star, Cameron, Derryville, Reaboro, Fenelon Falls and North Verulam, 414 boxes, all the factories accepting. Mr. Bird, buyer for Ware & Co., of Montreal, then offered 10 5-16c for the balance of the board, naming Lorneville, Dunsford, Mariposa, Cambray, Janetville, Valentia, North Ops, Maple Leaf and Bobcaygeon, 663 boxes, all accepting. These transactions cleared the board, and President Robertson announced that the final meeting for the season would be held two weeks from date.

RAILWAY NOTES.

Sparks From the Wheels—Cinders for the Eye.

We understand that the shipment of I. B. & O. Ry. rails does not mean the stoppage of work on the Bancroft extension. We are informed that the bridge across Baptiste lake was tested yesterday by running first an engine, and then an engine and train of loaded cars across it, and that the result was satisfactory. The bridge is over half a mile long, part trestle and part earth work, and its construction presented serious engineering difficulties. Men are now at work within three miles of Bancroft, and Mr. Pusey expects to reach that village before the snow flies.—Lindsay Post.

ACCIDENTS AT WARKWORTH.

On the last day of the fair at Warkworth a couple of accidents happened, one of which affected a Campbellford citizen, who is well known here. While Mr. D. Owen was driving his black colt it ran away and made the circuit of the track several times. It was finally frightened off the track but ran into another horse, and its shaft entered into the horse under the fore leg about 8 inches. Mr. Owen's horse was not badly hurt. He was thrown from the rig but not seriously injured.

The second accident was caused by the managers starting races around the track in different directions. Time was precious and the runners and trotters were started in different directions. Four of the started horses collided when they attempted to pass each other. Two of the horses got such a shock that they were stunned completely, and the horses and riders lay in a promiscuous mass. The riders were not injured but one of the horses we understand had to be shot.

Then followed the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Mrs. Kendry, followed by the REPORTS OF DISTRICT ORGANIZERS.

The report of the Belleville District was read by Mrs. Massey; Brighton, by Mrs. Walt; Bowmanville, by Miss Tourjee; Cannington, by Mrs. Prowse; Cobourg, by Mrs. Wilson; Campbellford, by Mrs. Campbell; Lindsay, by Mrs. Weldon; Napanee, by Mrs. Gibson; Madoc, by Mrs. Wilson; Tamworth, by Mrs. Grange; Whitby, by Miss Lambly; Picton, by Mrs. Platt; Peterborough, by Mrs. Sherin.

The reading of these reports testified to the marked success and good results from the work done by the various auxiliaries throughout the Bay of Quinte conference, and should be very encouraging to the workers to persevere in their good work.

Following the reading of the reports was the election of the various district organizers, which resulted in electing to office the same ladies who had held office during the previous year.

THE AFTERNOON SESSION

opened with the usual devotional exercises, conducted by Mrs. (Rev.) T. M. Campbell and Mrs. Sing. The minutes were then read by the secretary, Mrs. Kendry.

Then followed an interesting and pleasing feature—the reception to new Auxiliaries, conducted by Mrs. J. C. Wilson and Mrs. Massey. Mrs. Wilson extended to the new Auxiliaries a right royal welcome on behalf of the older societies, and Mrs. Massey spoke a few words of encouragement to persevere and endeavour to overcome difficulties that may await them in their work.

Mrs. A. R. Campbell then gave an interesting paper on "Relation of Leagues to Missions." She said their work would never cease until all the world had heard the glad tidings of the Gospel. It was necessary for the accomplishment of their work that they should be untrammelled. Prayer and works go hand in hand. All churches have Leagues, and in trying to establish missions the reply is often given: "We have a League," and this failure to establish the Mission Band is hurtful to their work. Mission Bands are more easily established where there is no League. The League should work more in harmony with the W.M.S. Mrs. Campbell urged earnestly the necessity of Leagues feeling the responsibility of working for the extension of the work in connection with our own church; they should feel they ought to aid the missionaries abroad and be interested in the up-building of missions, and thus help themselves as well as others.

Mrs. Kendry, when called upon to give her address on "Relation of Sunday Schools to Missions," moved that the Free Parliament and Question Drawer be re-opened, as there might be questions relating to the subject in hand. Mrs. Kendry's motion was carried, and again the delegates indulged in a lively discussion of questions asked.

"Should the officers in each Auxiliary be changed each year?" was a question that received much attention. It was decided that the corresponding secretary and treasurer especially, should hold office year after year.

"What are the duties of the vice-president besides acting in the absence of the president?" One lady, said the vice-president, should come prepared to lead the meeting, if necessary. It was thought necessary to endeavour to impress upon the vice-president her duties, and some one advised allotting a specified work for that officer.

Other questions of interest followed, all of which were ably discussed. Proportionate and systematic giving on behalf of the members was strongly urged by Mrs. Platt, of Picton. The delegates then appointed Mrs. Sing as superintendent of the work of Systematic Giving throughout the Branch.

Again the question drawer was opened for discussion of important questions. Attention was particularly drawn to the question which asked if it was wrong to dress children in costume for fancy drill. This was strongly vetoed, as it was apt to foster a love for the dramatic, which is thought to be detrimental to spiritual growth. The meeting decided it was not wise or proper for mission bands to have meetings to transact business on Sundays.

THE EVENING SESSION.

At eight o'clock the evening session opened, the spacious edifice being well filled with an intelligent and appreciative audience. Rev. Mr. Totten occupied the chair.

The report of the supply committee was read by Mrs. Wilson and was a pleasing feature of the evening session. Demands for goods usually bring offers of help, and all gifts are very gratefully received. Instances were given where parents were so softened by these timely gifts that they were eventually led to Jesus. It was impossible to estimate the results of these gifts both to givers and receivers. All kinds of gifts are sent to various missionary stations. "Every articles sent gives joy and pleasure to the recipient," is the message sent back to us from some of the mission stations. "Gifts sent, such as quilts, blankets and warm clothing, have been the means of alleviating much suffering," is another message sent from a mission station. Still another said: "I am sure the ladies that filled that box would feel amply repaid could they have heard the young missionary minister express his thanks for the clothing he received." Other messages received read as follows: "Over thirty families on the reserve in need; "Twelve widows, many of them having a number of young children; some of these stay all day at school without tasting food and are almost naked." It was urged to give of our best, not despising small things—"Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." Sixty-five places have been supplied with goods and 130 auxiliaries and mission band circles and leagues have contributed to these places. Nearly $4,000 worth of goods have been sent out and the government has refunded $100 which had been paid on freight to Indians in the Northwest.

A PAPER ON AUXILIARY WORK.

Miss Lambly, of Brooklin, then read a paper written by Mrs. Valleau, of Shelby, "Is our auxiliary work done at the expense of other church work? After dwelling upon the too general misapprehension concerning the work of the W.M.S., the paper spoke of the thoughts that gave it birth, the wretched condition of the women of this and other lands, and the great need that our own Christian life broaden and deepen through service for others. Further, the existence of the W.M.S., is justified—First, because of the Master's command "Go ye into the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." This command had sent into the Sabbath school, the prayer meeting and the league more workers than it sends to the mission fields. This desire for work, and the desire that it should be effectually done, accompanied by that side of charity which "vaunteth not itself," gives a constant silent addition to the working forces of the church. Second, because of the educational influence of the society through its auxiliary, district and branch meetings, its literature, and through its lessons on self sacrifice and on systematic giving. Third, because the whole teaching of the W. M. S. is that the funds raised shall not be at the expense of contributions to other causes, but shall be at the expense of personal luxuries, comfort and necessities, if need be. Fourth, because the Christian women of our missionary society, strenuously endeavour not merely to train the children of our mission bands to be collectors of funds, but to develop in them a true missionary spirit, and to teach them right principles in reference to giving. They become contributors, hence must earn their contributions and make their offerings representations of love and self-denial. Miss Lambley also referred to the patience and energy required in the mission fields of Japan, by quoting a few words received from her sister.

Rev. T. M. Campbell, a former pastor, and president of the conference, was asked to come forward and say a few words. After a few well-chosen remarks by the rev. gentleman, and the announcements by the president, the meeting was brought to a close by singing the doxology and prayer.

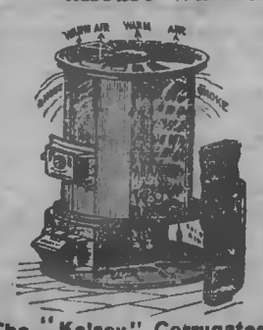
The Most Economical House Warmer



The "Kelsey" Corrugated Warm Air Generator.

Any ordinary Hot Air Furnace will produce heat if you will only supply enough fuel. The "Kelsey" has several special and valuable features but most important is that it will give more heat with less fuel and is the most durable heater made.

The "Kelsey" fire pot being constructed of several upright, tubular, corrugated, cast iron sections (see cut) around which the fire passes and up through which the cold air passes while being heated, and this entire section being wrapped with a heavy steel casing which becomes heated by the fire striking it when passing down outside of upright sections towards smoke pipe, it in turn warms the air that passes up between this steel casing and the galvanized iron casing, thus explains why the "Kelsey" has three times more radiating surface and warm air capacity than an ordinary Furnace. The "Kelsey" heats every room evenly, wherever located, with a nice, mild, healthful warm air that will not injure your furniture.

The "Kelsey" will heat rooms 60 feet distant.

The "Kelsey" does not heat your cellar.

The "Kelsey" is absolutely gas and dust proof.

The man who stands idly by and sees the life fading out of his wife's face, sees her health going, sees her becoming old and faded and wrinkled when she should still be in the perfect enjoyment of vigorous, useful health, is either less than a man or else does not know of the one remedy which will bring her back to health and strength. Most women do not understand their own bodies, or the things that make them well or sick. The most frequent cause of sickness in women is the cause last looked for. A women will go to a doctor when she has a severe cold, or some acute digestive disturbance, but she hesitates and procrastinates when the trouble is with the distinctly feminine organism. And yet the latter is infinitely more serious. It is the most serious sickness that any woman can have. It is the most dreadful—the most dangerous. Its consequences are always serious, and serious right at the beginning because it is debilitating. It saps the life and strength and works on the nerves to such an extent that the whole body is disturbed. Appetite leaves, the color goes from the face and hollows sink into the cheeks. Irritability succeeds good temper and fretfulness takes the place of contentment. Little by little life becomes more and more miserable. The woman is killing herself with neglect just as surely as if she were taking deadly poison. Perhaps her husband cannot persuade her to go to her doctor, because she naturally dreads the inevitable examinations and "local treatments." He can persuade her, if she needs persuasion, to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This truly wonderful medicine has cured hundreds of women after the best physicians have failed. It has been in constant use and tested every day for 30 years. It isn't an experiment, there are no chances about it. It is a certain and infallible cure for all derangements peculiar to women. Those who care to know all about it, and to receive the best medical work ever prepared for the general public are invited to send 31 one-cent stamps to cover customs and mailing only and receive a copy of Dr. Pierce's 1008 page book, "Common Sense Medical Adviser." ANOTHER STEAMSHIP

To be Put on the Canadian-Australian Route—She Will be Named Aorangi and Will be Largest in the Fleet.

Ottawa, Oct. 7.—(Special.)—The Government has been notified that it is the intention of Mr. James Huddart to place a third steamship upon the direct route between Canada and Australia. The vessel chartered for this purpose is the R.M.S. Aorangi, built by the Fairfield Ship Building Co., constructors of nearly the whole of the Cunard Company's Atlantic fleet. The Aorangi is registered in the highest class at Lloyds', is 389 feet long, 46 feet beam and 39.9 depth, with a registered tonnage of 4196 tons. She is to be fitted with new machinery and boilers to give her a capacity of 5000 horse power, with a guaranteed speed of 16 knots, but it is expected that this speed will be considerably exceeded. There will be first-class saloon accommodation for 100 passengers, second-class accommodation for 60 passengers, and third-class for 100. There will be complete electric light installation throughout, and the steamship will be specially ventilated for tropical voyages. The Aorangi is considerably larger than the Warimoo or the Miowera, which have proved so well adapted for the present traffic on the Pacific. It is expected she will leave England about February next, and on her arrival in Australia a new timetable will be inaugurated, which will include calling at a port in New Zealand, but it is not yet settled whether this port will be Auckland or Wellington. Mr. Huddart has just closed a contract with the New Zealand Government for the carriage of the mails by the Canadian line, and this contract is now before the New Zealand Parliament for ratification. Many arguments have been advanced in favor of making Wellington the port of call in New Zealand instead of Auckland. The distance between Wellington and Suva, Fiji, is about 330 miles more than that between Auckland and Suva, so that on the voyage from Sydney to Vancouver the total extra mileage by reason of calling at Wellington would be about 290 miles, necessitating the allowance of one extra day for the voyage if Wellington is made the port of call. As a matter of fact, however, for the collection and distribution of New Zealand mails for America and Europe a day would be saved, as under the present system all the mails of the South Island and the centre of New Zealand have to be carried by local steamers to Auckland.

THREE LAKE MONSTERS.

They Carry Cargoes of Grain Which Aggregate Over Half a Million Bushels.

Buffalo, Oct. 7.—There are three of the largest lake monsters in port to-day. The Victory, arriving at 8.30 o'clock, passed the Queen City at the Richmond and the Maricopa at the City Elevator on her way to the Niagara. She has 174,300 bushels of corn from Chicago. The Queen City has 153,500 bushels of wheat from Duluth, and the Maricopa has 187,000 bushels of corn from Chicago. These three cargoes, the largest three that ever came together, foot up 514,800 bushels, or 15,062 tons. The Victory also passed on her way up the creek the Mariposa, at the Sturges, once a great boat in this age of great boats, but now only a small one, and already forgotten in the list. She has 106,500 bushels of wheat, a mere jag for any one of the other three.

A HEN'S OMEN OF VICTORY.

Kentucky Hen Lays an Egg Marked "B" and "16 to 1."

Richmond, Ky., Oct. 7.—Dock Cobb, a prominent farmer of Red House, and brother of County Attorney J. Tevis Cobb, brought here yesterday what is undoubtedly the most remarkable campaign curiosity ever seen here.

It is a hen's egg, on one side of which, in bas-relief, is the letter "B." On the other side is an exact figure, also in bas-relief, of an American dollar, on which are plainly visible an eagle and the figures 16 to 1, the "1" being preceded by a "3."

Mrs. James Davenport Makes a Statement for the Benefit of Others.

Mrs. Davenport is well-known in Tweed, and this is how she spoke to our representative concerning Doan's Kidney Pills. Said Mrs. Davenport:—

"I have suffered for some years from dizziness, puffing under the eyes, pains in the side and back, sleeplessness, poor appetite, and, in fact, was in a bad state generally.

"I took two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at P. K. Newton's drugstore, and experienced immediate relief from their use.

"I am now very much better indeed; appetite improved, pain almost disappeared and I feel stronger and healthier in every particular.

"I can heartily recommend them to all sufferers from kidney trouble."

FAILURE.

A lonely man, all bent and ag'd,
With wrinkled brow and sunken eye,
As if some wrecking storm had rag'd
And dashed his soul on breakers high.

Sat brooding o'er the fruitless years
Of life—all selfish, empty, vain—
Which, like a tale that's told, appears
To yield nought else but grief and pain.

The story, which his life unfolds,
Is told by many a one besides;
And in his failure one beholds
The goal to which the devil guides

One false, mistaken, foolish deed—
A sin you call it, not a crime—
But still, a sin, which like a seed
Has grown and spread with growing time.

'Twas this, this only, nothing more
Which marked the lonely man's career;
It's darkening shade, at every door
Grim mocked him with its cynic sneer.

This road to wealth or road to fame
Is blocked behind and blighted before
By Nemesis, that heartless dame
Who loves to tear the gaping sore.

Thus thought the lonely man one night
As home he went from fruitless toil
And dreamt of happy homes and bright,
Which made him from his own recoil.

What boots it that the fault's his own?
That he but suffers for his sin—
While turn and harden into stone
The hearts, once soft, of kith and kin?

He only knows that now they're hard,
When, most of all, he longs and yearns
For help to live the life that's marred
While vain regret within him burns.

Back through the weary years he looks,
Scans he all that might have been,
Reads chances lost, as he would books
Once strong to stir, now powerless seen.

And, as he looks and reads and scans,
An impulse fresh stirs once again.
The nerveless arm and, with it, fans
The dying embers in his brain.

I will not yield, he seems to say,
To unkind fortune, hostile fate,
Spread they their clouds although they may
Or, heartless, say, "'Tis now too late."

Once more I'll strive to make a name,
To bring me homage, bring me friends;
For, be it wealth or be it fame,
To these alone the world e'er bends.

And in the world's high dancing smile
I'll lose myself, forget my own,
And, on my dead affections pile
Great mounds of worldly praise alone.

Thus spoke and dashed the lonely man
Forth, fiercely and with fixed intent
To seize the world's good things began
While relish keen ambition lent.

And first within the world's great mart
He strove for fortune's fav'ring smile;
But though he played right well his part
Fair fortune passed him by the while.

Then tried he physic, then the law,
But each looked on with cool contempt,
And while they scorned the world foresaw
But failures of the dreams he dreamt.

Next from the press and pulpit came
Strange, thund'ring, eager, loud appeals
Which, neither weak, nor poor nor lame,
Yet o'er them quick oblivion steals.

And, then the poet's art he tried,
Poured wildly forth his passion's words
Loud through the world and long he cried
Like echoing wood and song of birds.

For this it was they came and went
And no man stopped to ask them why,
Till age the creaking tree had bent
And shrill had grown the bird's glad cry.

He paused and rested as he said,
"For me I see no chance of fame
The poet's fire no glow can shed
To lead me on with 'luring flame."

So, bitter, hopeless, sat he down
And blamed the God of heaven and earth
As if, because of Heaven's frown
His soul had no poetic birth.

Then flashed on him the truth revealed,
That, as of old, Prometheus found
No stolen fire would ever yield
A spark of fire to mortal bound.

So, now, the soul must be inspired
By breath of Heaven freely sent
For, ne'er will eagle's claw grow tired,
While sordid motive fetters lent.

At length he slept, and in his sleep
An angel came, and with her hand
Up poluted to a hillside steep
Whereon he saw three crosses stand.

Then asked he what those crosses meant,
And to him thus the angel said—
"A word from them to you is sent
"Which, as you gaze, is quickly read—

"The cross upon the right is yours
It tells of one who, hopeless, died
Although for him, a Saviour pours
His cleansing blood from cross beside.

"The cross you see to left arise
Bore one to whom a dazzling light
Had pointed clear to Paradise
And changed his faith to happy sight."

Still further, then, the angel spake
And bade him rise, once more begin
With help of Him who for his sake
On yonder cross wiped out his sin.

No longer then, by force he saw
Is wealth or friends or glory won;
But by the never changing law
Revealed to man by God's own Son.

For self alone man must not live
Since one small life is too confined
To hold the soul which God did give,
A common gift to all mankind.

A man must help his brother man
To live with him a nobler life
Whose alms are broader than the span
Of mortal power or selfish strife.

In earnest this he strove to do;
Regardless of what might have been;
His powers though feeble, on he drove,
While work itself gave relish keen.

And only now he sorrow had
When back though wasted years he goes
And sees his life, once bright and glad
All darkened o'er when sin arose.

And kept him in the devil's power,
But now in Christ his waning life
Finds comfort strength in every hour
Of busy struggling worldly strife.

Nervous Prostration

Complete Recovery by the Use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. HINSON, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.

These Picture Hats Are the Novelty in Winter Millinery.

As to winter hats, you may wear, says the New York Journal, if you desire to be in style, anything you please. Picture hats will be as fashionable as toques; small bonnets will be as much in demand as either. You may trim them any way your taste suggests, high or low, broad or narrow. A visit to the millinery shops impresses one first and foremost with a sense of latitude rare in the domain of fashion. A field so wide is presented that many a woman might fancy she could pass off last year's hat, just touched up with the least bit in the world, for this year's latest importation.

In spite of man's vituperations, possibly the picture hat, as huge as ever in its dimensions, as heavily beribboned and buckled and feathered, will make the highest bid for favor. It acts as a background for the thin face, it is a balance for the fat one. There are certain ruffled, fluffy costumes just as suggestive of the picturesque that are not complete without it.

The winter leghorn, so called from its unstiffened, unwired soft brim that is allowed to flop at will, is perhaps the chief novelty of this year's picture hat. One of the most tasteful of these has a brim of black moire silk, with a crown of black velvet and half a dozen black feathers grouped with artistic carelessness at one side. "The chic of it," said the young woman who was balancing it on her head at a private view, "is in the wearing of it."

Picture hats this season will be more rakish than ever, for they must be balanced just over the right ear. No fashionable woman will allow a big hat to be set straight on her head. This effect is rendered all the more pronounced by the style of trimming which tends to turn all these hats up on one side.

A Rejane hat, of eminence felt, a color peculiarly suited to the red hair and clear skin of the fascinating French actress, has a double row of soft crush velvet flowers around the high crown the large unstiffened brim is turned up on one side with an eminence velvet bow and a bunch of eminence feathers curl gracefully above it.

A peculiar style of trimming for the sugar loaf crown is seen in the straight velvet band which is surmounted by a stiff, erect ruffle of narrow plaited chiffon. A black rosette appears to be just thrown on the brim and one large silver ornament shines conspicuously on the left side.

Paradise wings and drooping plumes hold their own. They have as distinct a place as ostrich tips. In white and green and black they will fill out the trimming of most toques. A striking combination of feathers and fur is seen in a mink boa formed into a hat worn a la Russe well down over the head and surmounted by large white curling paradise plumes.

Cerise in all shades, running from brick color to deep, old-fashioned maroon, and admitting of five or six tints in a single hat, will be in great vogue. A queer combination of orange velvet, subdued by gray wings, will be attempted by daring women whose purses will permit them to coquette with fashion. Grass green of the early spring shade, before dust and dirt have dulled it, will be seen everywhere, on every sort of hat, in flowers, feathers, felts, velvets and ribbons.

The Napoleon shape is still in the market with a stiff, straight bow forming the wide front and ornamented with birds. If you have a mink bow still in camphor, shake it out and carry it to your milliner. With the head placed directly over your part, and the rest of the bow laid so as to form a flat brim on your hair, combined with a crown of white embroidered moire bows, you will have the most stylish sort of a toque.

Flashing rhinestone buckles and other designs simulating jewels of various kinds will be used extensively. Not a vestige of the taffeta ribbon that trimmed nine summer hats out of ten will be carried over into the winter season. Satin-faced velvet ribbons, narrow, wide, medium, have taken its place. Laces will be used for evening hats, and pretty effects are secured by combining them with deeply tinted braided felts just revealing their color through a fine softly gathered yellow mesh.

SIMPLE REMEDIES.

Some Home Cures That Are Not in the Least Mythical.

The hints and suggestions given herewith are expressed with rather more confidence than we should generally use in regard to the efficacy of such remedies. They are, however, very simple, and for emergencies can do no harm.

Salt and water, used as a gargle for sore throat, is equal to chlorate of potash, and is entirely safe. It may be used as often as desired, and if a little is swallowed each time it will have a beneficial effect on the throat by cleansing it and allaying the irritation. In doses of one to four teaspoonfuls in half a pint of tepid water, it acts promptly as an emetic, and in cases of poisoning is always on hand. It is an excellent remedy for bites and stings of insects. It is a good astringent in hemorrhages, particularly for bleeding after extracting of teeth.

Mustard is another valuable remedy. No family should be without it. Two or three teaspoonfuls of ground mustard stirred into half a pint of water acts very promptly as an emetic, and is milder and easier to take than salt and water. Equal parts of ground mustard and flour or meal made into a paste with warm water, and spread on a thin piece of muslin, with another piece of muslin laid over it, plaster." It is almost a specific for forms the indispensable "mustard colic when applied for a few minutes over the "pit of the stomach." For all internal pains and congestions there is no remedy of such general utility. It acts as a counter-irritant by drawing the blood to the surface. Hence, in severe cases of croup a small mustard plaster should be applied to the back of the child's neck. The same treatment will relieve almost any case of headache. A mustard plaster should be moved about over the spot to be acted upon, for if left in one place it is liable to blister. A mustard plaster acts as well when at a distance from the affected part. An excellent substitute for mustard plasters is what is known as "mustard leaves." They are sold a dozen in a box, and are about four by five inches. They are perfectly dry, and will keep for a long time. For use it is only necessary to dip one in a dish of water for a minute and then apply it. Common baking soda is the best of all remedies in cases of scalds and burns. It may be used on the surface of the burned place, either dry or wet. When applied promptly, the sence of relief is magical. It seems to withdraw the heat and with it the pain, and the healing process soon commences.—New York Ledger.

The impurities in the blood which cause scrofulous eruptions are thoroughly eradicated by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Try it.

One Every Night.

One Laxa-Liver Pill taken each night during 30 days will cure Constipation, ob-returning Headaches and irregular action of the bowels. Laxa-Liver Pills leave no unpleasant after-effect.

A Household Novelty.

Two single beds for each bedroom are more used than ever; they are fitted up in what is called the Italian style. The brass back, which is draped, is in one piece, and has the regulation movable arms, on which the curtains are hung. The high foot-piece of each bedstead is separate, save for a still higher arch made of ornamental brass, which connects the two draperies, are rather more elaborate. The full back is still used, but over it are arranged deep festoons and long drooping ends, bordered with narorw fringe. Festoons are of various lengths. The material is cut in one long piece and is thrown over one of the brass rods of the bedstead.

Substitute for Cream.

The following is an excellent substitute for cream to eat on fresh fruits: Beat together the whites of two eggs, a level tablespoonful of sugar, a piece of butter the size of a hickory nut and one tablespoonful of corn starch. Stir in half a cup of cold milk and beat very hard. Put one cup of milk and pour in the egg mixture. Let it simmer until the milk thickens a little. When cold, strain through a sieve.

A Comfort Sometimes.

When health is far gone in consumption, then sometimes only ease and comfort can be secured from use of Scott's Emulsion. What is much better is to take this medicine in time to save your health.

BUILT UP THE SYSTEM IN A WONDERFUL MANNER.

James A. Bell, of Beaverton, Ont., brother of the Rev. John Wesley Bell, B.D., prostrated by nervous headaches A victim of the trouble for several years.

South American Nervine effected a complete cure.

In their own particular field few men are beter known than the Rev. John Wesley Bell, B.D., and his brother Mr. James A. Bell. The former will be recognized by his thousands of friends all over the country as the popular and able missionary superintendent of the Royal Templars of Temperance. Among the 20,000 members of this order in Ontario his counsel is sought on all sorts of occasions. On the public platform he is one of the strong men of the day, battling against the evils of intemperance. Equally well known is Mr. Bell in other provinces of the Dominion, having been for years a member of the Manitoba Methodist Conference and part of this time was stationed in Winnipeg. His brother, Mr. James A. Bell, is a highly respected resident of Beaverton, where his influence, though perhaps more circumscribed than that of his eminent brother, is none the less effective and productive of good. Of recent years, however, the working ability of Mr. James A. Bell has been sadly marred by severe attacks of nervous headache, accompanied by indigestion. Who can do fit work when this trouble takes hold of them and especially when it becomes chronic, as was, seemingly, the case with Mr. Bell? The trouble reached such intensity that last June he was completely prostrated. In this condition a friend recommended South American Nervine. Ready to try anything and everything, though he thought he had covered the list of proprietary medicines, he secured a bottle of this great discovery. A second bottle of the medicine was taken and the work was done. Employing his own language: "Two bottles of South American Nervine immediately relieved my headaches and have built up my system in a wonderful manner." Let us not deprecate the good our clergymen and social reformers are doing in the world, but how ill-fitted they would be for their work were it not the relief that South American Nervine brings to them when physical ills overtake them, and when the system, as a result of hard, earnest and continuous work, breaks down. Nervine treats the system as the wise reformer treats the evils he is battling against. It strikes at the root of the trouble. All disease comes from disorganization of the nerve centers. This is a scientific fact. Nervine at once works on these nerve centers; gives to them health and vigor; and then there courses through the system strong, healthy, life-maintaining blood, and nervous troubles of every variety are things of the past.

REPORT OF MR. LARKE

Concerning Canada's Trade With Australia.

THE QUESTION OF FREIGHT RATES

Occupies a Good Deal of the Commissioner's Attention—Rumor That Black Rod is to be Superannuated and the Office Abolished—General Ottawa News.

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—The Government has received by mail a report from Mr. J. S. Larke, Canada's representative in Australia. Mr. Larke deals principally with the question of freight rates, and draws attention particularly to the necessity of cheaper rates and greater facilities for carriage of bulky commodities that are furnished by the steamship lines. Considerable Canadian freight now reaches Australia by New York, but the railroad rates are in most cases almost prohibitory against the Canadian manufacturers. Cargoes from New York by sailing vessels consist chiefly of lumber, staves, marble, agricultural implements and the like. It is estimated that from sixty to eighty vessels clear from New York for Australia with such cargoes every year. In view of the fact that these commodities are all produced in Canada and that railway rates from many points in the United States are quite as cheap to Montreal as to New York, Mr. Larke thinks that a line of sailing vessels should be chartered to freight between Montreal and points in Australia. He thinks that there is sufficient trade to warrant a sailing vessel from Montreal during the season of navigation.

Commissioner Larke notes that three representatives of Canadian firms recently sent out to develop trade in bicycles, axes, carriage woodenware, farm implements and patent medicines, have met with considerable success.

It is reported to-day that Mr. Kimber, gentleman usher of the Black Rod, is to be superannuated and the office abolished. The only duty which Mr. Kimber has is to summon the faithful Commoners to the Senate Chamber at the meeting of Parliament and prorogation, and to prepare a list of those who are to appear on the floor of the House and in the Press Gallery. This means about three days' work in the year, for which he receives $1350, with fine quarters in the Senate as a residence, valued at $450, or $2000 in all. The duties performed by Mr. Kimber may be allotted to the Senate Sergeant-at-Arms or some other official.

The total number of vessels which passed through the Sault Canal from the opening of navigation in May to Sept. 30 was 4264, with a tonnage of 3,749,472 tons, and freight to the amount of 3,340,006 tons. It is not possible to give comparative figures, as the canal was only opened for about ten weeks last year, the total number of vessels passing through in that period being 1173.

One of the reason for delay in the construction of the Soulanges Canal is owing to a dispute between one of the contractors, Mr. Stewart, and the engineer in chief, Mr. Munroe, as to the quality of the stone which Mr. Stewart desires to place in the work. On the contractor's behalf, it may be explained that the stone has been accepted by the department, and some of the departmental engineers state that it is quite up to the specifications. Mr. Joseph Hobson, the famous G. T. R. engineer, has been commissioned by the Government to report on the matter, and his decision may be expected any day.

F. L. Jones, Ottawa correspondent for The St. John Telegraph, Halifax Record and other eastern papers, will likely be appointed Commissioner of Patents in succession to R. J. Pope, who will be superannuated. Mr. Jones has done yeoman service for the Liberals and is well deserving of a good office. It is said to be a part of Mr. Laurier's policy to remember his newspaper friends, and other correspondents of Liberal papers here are to get good positions.

Commenting upon the appeal for aid to Toronto University The Free Press to-night says, apropos of the treatment of freshmen by sophomores: "The public will hardly be disposed to grant money for the education of rowdies. The affairs and conduct of the University have not been of an encouraging character of late, and it would seem that a thorough overhauling and investigation should go before any further provincial grants of money." This advice, coming from a good Liberal paper, is commended to Hon. A. S. Hardy.

Col. Henry Smith, sergeant-at-arms of the House of Commons, left this morning for his home in Kingston.

An important meeting of the executive of the Royal Society is to take place in Montreal next Wednesday. Archbishop O'Brien, president, and Dr. Bourinot, secretary, will be present.

Mr. John Waterston, representing one of the leading provision houses in Glasgow, was here to-day and saw a number of officers of the Government regarding the extension of the Canadian egg trade with Great Britain.

The town of Fort William has been erected into a customs port by being detached from Port Arthur, of which it was an outport.

Mr. Speaker Edgar and Mrs. Edgar left for home to-night. Mrs. Edgar, as hostess of the Speaker's chambers during the brief session which has just closed, has been a decided success, and Ottawa people will gladly welcome the return of Mrs. Edgar and her charming daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurier go to St. Lin to-morrow for a day or so.

THE TUSCARORA TRAGEDY.

Body of Mrs. Carpenter Exhumed Under Detective Murray's Supervision

Hagersville, Ont., Oct. 8.—Government Detective John Murray, on instructions from Crown Attorney Wilkes of Brantford, proceeded to Springvale Cemetery, near Hagersville, this afternoon and had the body of Mrs. Robert Carpenter exhumed. The object was to corroborate and verify the details of the report of the post mortem which was made by Dr. Jones at the time of the inquest. The stomach and other organs of the body necessary are being sent to the Government analyst, Toronto, for examination.

Freight is Moving Freely at Winnipeg—Sifton's Resignation is in—The Petition of Hugh John Dismissed.

Winnipeg, Oct. 8.—(Special.)—Everything is moving very smoothly on the Canadian Pacific Road now and all the station agents and train despatchers are back at their posts. An hour after the strike was declared off many freight trains began moving, and all through the night freights were being sent out. The pressure thus being relieved, wheat elevators that were closed are now being re-opened and all deliveries of the farmers accepted.

The resignation of Attorney-General Sifton has been placed in Premier Greenway's hands. It is understood Mr. Sifton will be sworn in as Minister of the Interior next Tuesday.

The preliminary objections filed by Hugh John Macdonald's solicitors to the petition to unseat the member for Winnipeg were to-day dismissed with costs. Hugh John will arrive home to-morrow.

The objection to the petition to unseat Nat Boyd, having been disallowed by the court here, Mr. Lloyd applies to stay all proceedings in the matter until he appeals to the Supreme Court at Ottawa.

LINING UP AFTER THE FAIRS.

Our Prize Clothing.

Our Clothing has had the call at all the Fairs. It was nothing new to find the Directors decorating our display with the Red Prize Tickets. It would have been a surprise if we didn't capture First Prize—not because competition was weak, but because the Clothing could not be bettered in Canada. The reputation of the big store was at stake, and we're more than proud to have deserved the good opinion of the directors as well as the thousands of men folk at the Fairs.

Now we're lining up for a rattling big fall business. We've had a good start already, but the price cards are becoming a more interesting study every day, and the figures startling enough to bring us the trade of the masses.

MUSICAL INFORMATION!

A GOOD PIANO IS A LIBERAL EDUCATION.

What is there that so opens the mind to good and gentle inspiration as music?

What is there so inspiring or enobling in its influence? The music however must be good music. And good music cannot be produced from a bad Piano. The influence of the most charming voice or the most perfect violin, however well handled, is destroyed if accompanied by a bad piano.

MASON & RISCH PIANOS ARE THE INSTRUMENTS OF THE CULTURED.

They are found in the homes of our most refined and wealthiest citizens, where the Piano is viewed not as a mere article of furniture, but as the interpreter of our deepest feelings.

The prices of Mason & Risch Pianos are not unreasonable, quality considered, in fact they are much lower than most people suppose, but they give satisfaction from the first, and they last.

Our terms of payment are most liberal and we give straight cash quotations, without any nonsense about catalogue prices. We invite correspondence, and will mail catalogues and lists of purchasers free on application.

IS IT GOOD . . . ADVERTISING?

Trying to Build up Your Own Business by Pulling Other People's Down?

We appeal to the Ladies. Isn't it a little bit contemptible, as well as egotistical, to speak of other stores as "LITTLE ONE-HORSE STORES?" Is it good taste for a firm who hold two or three slaughter sales a year for raising the wind for a trip to Europe, to say "WE DON'T HAVE TO RESORT TO FAKE SALES, NOR DO WE HAVE TO ADVERTISE AT COST?" We await the verdict of the Ladies.

THOSE 5c. FLANNELETTES.

You haven't heard the last of those 5c. Flannelettes of ours. Which caused such a sensation among the ladies. Didn't it prove that it was the "little" stores could turn out the genuine bargains? How the ladies did buy!—very near cleared out before our repeat order came to hand. Get all you want now at 5c. per yard.

BOLD BLANKET TALK.

But the goods are here to back up the argument. Wool Blankets from 75c per up to $6. Blankets won't be as cheap again in a hurry.

HOME-MADE FLANNEL.

There should be no shivering, with such a stock as this to pick from. Seldom has such white and grey home-made Flannel been offered at the prices. Cheap! Yes, but it's price cheapness only.

FOGS AND ICEBERGS

Will Operate Against the Fast Atlantic Steamship Line.

SO SAYS DR. SANDFORD FLEMING

Vessels of Moderate Speed Will, He Thinks, be More Profitable for the Conveyance of Merchandise—The Crops in the Northwest and British Columbia.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 9.—The decision of the Ministry regarding the fast service will be made known in a day or two. Mr. Laurier, Sir Richard Cartwright, Messrs. Mulock and Davies had a conference this afternoon on the matter. Meanwhile a pamphlet by Dr. Sandford Fleming on the fast steamship service, just published, is likely to excite a keen controversy. He discusses the St. Lawrence route and reluctantly inclines to the belief that, on account of fogs, icebergs, etc., a fast line to and from Quebec or Montreal, is out of the question. His conclusions are as follows: (1) That any attempt to establish on the St. Lawrence route a line of fast trans-Atlantic steamships to rival those running to and from New York would result in disappointment.

(2) That our great waterway will always be employed to the greatest advantage in the conveyance of staple products and all ordinary cargo merchandise, at the lowest possible rates, and that to secure low rates it must be carried in steamships of moderate speed.

(3) That steamships suitable for the trade of the St. Lawrence in summer would, at the close of navigation, find an open harbor at St. John, N.B., the nearest eligible Canadian seaport for cities on the St. Lawrence.

(4) That if we desire to establish a Canadian line of passenger steamships equal in power and speed to any on the ocean it will be necessary to make it an "all-the-year-round" line from one of our best Atlantic seaports.

(5) That there is no more eligible harbor on the western side of the Atlantic than Halifax or on the eastern side than Loch Ryan, Wigtonshire, in Scotland, and that between these two points will be found the shortest available route across the ocean which can be used by the fast steamships at all seasons of the year.

In official circles there has been considerable talk to-day of the record trip of the Dominion Liner Canada, which arrived in Quebec early this morning. Colonel White, Deputy Postmaster-General, says that a line of fast steamers, leaving Montreal on Thursday, would get the cream of Canadian mails, and prove a great boon to the business community. Usually the mails for the fast mail steamer, leaving New York on Wednesday, close in Eastern Canada on Monday, and there is not another mail out via New York until the Saturday following. Hence a fast Canadian liner leaving on Thursday would get three days'—Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday—mails to carry, Friday's mails being reserved for New York.

Prof. Saunders, Director of Dominion Experimental Farms, who has been absent for more than six weeks inspecting the western experimental farms and enquiring into the condition of agriculture in the west, returned to Ottawa to-day. He reported grain crops in British Columbia as rather below the average, and the fruit crop also lighter than usual. Both grain and fruit were injured by a long period of cold, wet weather, which began about the middle of May and continued for about a month. Under these circumstances fruit trees, which were full of blossoms, set their fruit sparingly, and the growth of grain was retarded. Following this the weather became unusually hot and dry, and the drought, which continued almost without a break until the middle of September, ripened the grain prematurely and prevented the fruit from attaining its usual size and quality. Notwithstanding these disadvantages, a large quantity of fruit has been produced in British Columbia; and shipments to Manitoba and the Northwest Territories have been large. The area under orchard has been much increased during the past few years and the fruit crop is becoming increasingly important every year. The charges for carriage in carload lots to the east have been much reduced. Methods of packing have been improved, so that most of the fruit has reached its destination in good condition, and the returns good condition, and the returns received by the growers are said to have been satisfactory.

Prof. Saunders made a lengthened journey through the Territories, visiting the Edmonton district, and the branch farms at Indian Head and Brandon. He reports having found many of the varieties of grain at the Brandon farm to be considerably rusted from the effects of a severe storm that occurred a few days before his visit. The result of the threshing, however, which is now in progress, indicates that the crops will be well up to the average. One lot of Banner oats threshed on Saturday yielded over 80 bushels per acre, and several lots of wheat have averaged about 25 bushels per acre. The barley has yielded well, some of the varieties turning out as high as 64 bushels per acre, and peas have yielded in some instances upwards of 65 bushels. Indian corn has given excellent returns; some of the varieties grew to a height of nine and ten feet. Potatoes are also a fine crop on this farm, and turnips, mangolds and carrots have done well. From what Prof. Saunders saw of the crops in the western part of the province he has formed the opinion that the average yield of wheat will exceed 20 bushels per acre. Grain, however, in the eastern part of Manitoba he found to be much less promising, and it no doubt will reduce the total average considerably.

It is characteristic of American Government officials that they are always ready to defend the view taken by the Government on any international question. Note the stand taken by Prof. D'Arcy Thompson, the British commissioner appointed to investigate seal life in Behring Sea, and contrast it with that of Prof. Jordan, head of the American commission. Mr. Thompson will say nothing, but Mr. Jordan says enquiry this year proves the United States contention that pelagic sealing must be prohibited if the seal herds are to be preserved from destruction. This, of course, is aimed against the Canadian industry. The Department of Marine, however, is in receipt of quite a different story. It is said that the observations of Prof. Thompson, Mr. Hackett and Mr. Macoun, the Canadian commissioners, as well as the opinion of United States Commissioner Jordan, indicate that no such destruction as represented has resulted from pelagic sealing, but that a large percentage of the loss is occasioned by the methods of slaughter on the rookeries pursued by the United States lessees of the Pribyloff Islands.

Further information on the subject of the seal catch in Behring Sea this season confirms the story that the season has been about the poorest on record. Some of the vessels have returned to port, and reports are in at the coast of nearly every vessel in the sealing fleet. Three or four have taken over 600, and the remainder all range below this, some of them away down among the two figures. It will be some time yet, however, before the figures are sent in to the department here.

A delegation from Alexandria waited upon Mr. Laurier to-day and represented to him the inadvisability of allowing work on the Dominion Reformatory to fall through. It had been admitted, they said, that there was a necessity for an institution of the sort, and that the site selected in Alexandria was chosen because of its central locality. They pointed out that no political advantage would accrue from the abandonment of such an important work. The Premier promised consideration.

The Minister of Marine and Fisheries has just purchased the steel screw steamer Petrel of Kingston, belonging to the Collins' Bay Rafting Company, for the iceboat service between Capes Tormentine, N. B., and Traverse, P. E. I.

A letter has been received from Mr. A. P. Lowe, who undertook exploration work through Labrador, following out what was laid down for him a couple of years ago. It was dated June 3, and has taken all the intervening time in traveling to Ottawa. The party were all reported well, and work progressing favorably. Mr. Lowe, starting in at the east coast, will come out on Hudson Bay, and come around by boat to St. John's, Newfoundland, thence back to Canada.

Mr. J. Macoun of the Geological Survey, who has been at the Pribyloff Islands in Behring Sea since July, writes to the Survey that he has secured some very fine specimens of what are generally known as sea lions, and will bring them down to the Museum with other valuables, which it has also been within his power to collect.

Hon. Joseph Martin was here to-day, but went West to Detroit to-night.

Dr. Ellis and Mr. Barlow of the Geological Survey have returned from their season's work. The former was engaged on the upper Ottawa in the neighborhood of the Madawaska and Calabogie Rivers.

The population of Ottawa this year, according to the assessors, is 51,540, an increase of 1866 over last year. The total assessment for 1897 is $23,079,735, an increase of $968,015. The Public school assessment amounts to $16,467,-110, and the Separate school assessment to $5,577,910.

The Minister of Agriculture has returned from the Eastern Townships and is busily engaged looking into the matter of cold storage arrangements. The intention is to close contracts with the steamship companies this fall, so that the new service will be ready in the spring.

In answer to a question to-day as to when his golden wedding would come round, Senator Clemow replied that is was past. He was married on the 30th of August 50 years ago.

A REIGN OF TERROR

Prevails in the Neighborhood of Hagersville.

LAWLESS MEN INFEST THE SECTION

Carpenter, the Alleged Wife Murderer, is Now Charged With Bigamy The Woman Who Claims to be His First Wife Says She Was Badly Used.

Toronto, Oct. 10.

His three months' European holiday seems to have taken nothing from Chief Provincial Detective Murray's capacity for bringing criminals to time.

Lately, the people of Hagersville, Ont., have lived under a veritable reign of terror. Numerous incendiary fires have occurred; a number of prominent farmers have been robbed of cattle and sheep, and the inhabitants of the neighborhood generally have spent their days and nights in fear of a lawless circle of men who infest the district.

The death under suspicious circumstances of Mrs. Carpenter a few days ago brought this terrible state of affairs to a climax, and the Ontario Government was appealed to. The Attorney-General took immediate action, and Mr. Murray was despatched to the scene of the gross iniquities. After a week's hard work the detective comes back with information which is likely to lodge a lot of criminals behind prison doors.

He devoted a great deal of attention to the Carpenter murder case, in which Carpenter has been committed for trial on the charge of killing his wife. The body of deceased was exhumed in the presence of Drs. Jones and McDonald of Hagersville and Howell of Jarvis for the purpose of confirming the results obtained from the post-mortem held before the interment. The corpse was found to bear marks of severe rough usage. A gash in the abdomen, likely administered by a kick from a heavy-soled boot, terrible bruises upon the breasts, and black and blue marks upon the temples were found. Mr. Murray brought the viscera of the dead woman to Toronto for inspection by Government Analyst Ellis, with a view to confuting any theory of poisoning that may be raised by the defence.

The detective also unearthed while away a letter written by a lady in Petrolea to Dr. Jones of Hagersville, stating that she is the lawful wife of the accused murderer. She alleges that she has one child from the union still living; that Carpenter nearly starved her to death, and that she still bears upon her body the marks of the man's brutality to her some years ago. She says that the wedding was celebrated at Waterford about eight years ago, and that she left him because of his ill-treatment of her.

She will give evidence at the trial to be held at Brantford on Dec. 12, and her testimony will doubtless go far to convict the man under accusation of having murdered the woman who is said to have been his second wife. This is entirely new evidence, and is very sensational in its nature. Carpenter's conviction is now considered as assured.

Mr. Murray's investigation into the incendiarism and cattle and sheep stealing so prevalent in the vicinity is also likely to result in a series of arrests shortly. The Carpenter family are blamed as a bad lot for the lawless state of the community, and several of them are likely to go to jail. One farmer, who recently lost a lot of sheep by theft, is John Bousfield of Walpole township.

While absent Mr. Murray also looked into the Sternaman murder case at Ashburnham Centre, and he found that the evidence points to arsenical poisoning. Provincial Analyst Ellis will shortly report the result of his examination of the viscera of the deceased.

AUSTRALIAN CRICKETERS

Have a Good Lead Over Chicago's Best Fifteen—Many Spectators.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Play in the Australian—All-Chicago cricket game was resumed this morning in beautiful weather. The attendance was the largest ever seen at a cricket game in Chicago.

Gregory and Darling, the not-outs, resumed their innings at 11.30 o'clock. Henderson and Wilmot having charge of the attack. Darling made a three and completed his half-century, but was bowled by Wilmot in his second over. Gregory returned an easy catch to Henderson, and half the wickets were down for 74. Kelly after being missed from a hot drive to Wilmot, was well caught at long by Capt. Anson.

Trott and Giffen remained together until the luncheon interval, and on resuming the former sent a hit to Pfeffer, who effected a splendid catch. Graham and Giffen stole a number of short runs. The former jumped out to drive Howell and was bowled. McKibbin stayed for a time, and finally the side was out with a total of 235.

Giffen carried out his bat for a fine innings of 69. The other scores were: Kelly 9, Gregory 4, Trott 38, Eady 0, Graham 27, McKibbin 9, with seven extras. Thus the visitors have a lead of 130 runs.

Chicago went in again, and lost eight wickets for 53 runs, so that they need 77 runs to save a single innings defeat. Eady and McKibbin were destructive, the former getting four wickets for 24 and the latter four for 21. The game will be finished to-morrow, the Australians leaving in the evening for San Francisco.

MORE DELEGATES FOR OTTAWA

Three Members of the Greenway Cabinet Will Discuss the Manitoba School Question With Mr. Laurier.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 9.—(Special.)—The Greenway Cabinet held an important council meeting to-day and decided to send Hon. Messrs. Cameron, McMillan and Watson to Ottawa to discuss the settlement of the school question with Premier Laurier. Mr. Cameron left this afternoon and the other two will go to-morrow. They are confident of being able to reach a basis of settlement before they return. Mr. Sifton, for some reason, preferred to remain at home, and Mr. Greenway's health would not permit of his travelling.

Attorney-General Sifton to-day denies that he has resigned his Manitoba portfolio. He says it will be time to resign when Premier Laurier summons him to Ottawa.

There is every likelihood that Hon. T. M. Daly will contest Mr. Sifton's seat in the Manitoba Legislature and lead the Conservative Opposition to Mr. Greenway.

W. J. Gage of Toronto, who has been to the Pacific coast, with the idea of locating a western hospital for consumptives, is here. He thinks the proposition will be carried out at an early date.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry cures Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Cramps, Cholera, Cholera Infantum, Cholera Morbus and all summer complaints and fluxes of the bowels in children or adults.

Sour

Stomach, sometimes called waterbrash, and burning pain, distress, nausea, dyspepsia, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This it accomplishes because with its wonderful power as a blood purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla gently tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs, invigorates the liver, creates an appetite, gives refreshing sleep, and raises the health tone. In cases of dyspepsia and indigestion it seems to have "a magic touch."

"For over 12 years I suffered from sour with severe pains across my shoulders, and great distress. I had violent nausea which would leave me very weak and faint, difficult to get my breath. These spells came oftener and more severe. I did not receive any lasting benefit from physicians, but found such happy effects from a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I took several bottles and mean to always keep it in the house. I am now able to do all my own work, which for six years I have been unable to do. My husband and son have also been greatly benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla—for pains in the back, and after the grip. I gladly recommend this grand blood medicine." MRS. EDITORIAL NOTES.

AT one place in Manitoba the other day the farmers received as high as 67c for No. 1 hard wheat. This is a splendid figure, and it is to be hoped that they have plenty of wheat to sell.

THE Hamilton Times says: "The Toronto World's Montreal correspondent nominates Sir Oliver Mowat for a place on the Judicial Committee of the Imperial Privy Council. He is doing excellent work in his present position and is quite too young at 75 to think of being banished from his native land or shelved upon the bench."

THE Ottawa Citizen, Conservative, admits that there was "a certain amount of corruption practised to defeat Mr. Blair" in the late elections. When the resident, so to say, Conservative organ admits "a certain corruption" in one constituency what may we expect of the uncertain amounts used in the two hundred odd constituencies of the Dominion?

MR. TARTE writes to La Patrie explaining his course in connection with the prosecution of one Grenier, who has libelled him in the columns of an obscure publication printed in Montreal. He says: —"I am a journalist and thus far my pen has been a sufficient weapon for me. If I had not been minister I would have left Grenier to rave at will. But I believe that it is good policy to make immediate proof, at the outset of the regime, that we are resolved to rule in accordance with the principles of justice and honour. Dishonest men, knaves, boodlers, will find in us unshakeable resistance." This places the position in a nut shell.

TAKEN WITH SPASMS.

A Collingwood Resident Tells How South American Nervine Cured His Daughter of a Distressing Nervous Disease.

The father of Jessie Merchant, of Collingwood, tells this story of his eleven-year-old daughter:—"I doctored with the most skilled physicians in Collingwood without any relief coming to my daughter, spending nearly five hundred dollars in this way. A friend influenced me to try South American Nervine, though I took it with little hope of it being any good. When she began its use she was hardly able to move about, and suffered terribly from nervous spasms, but after taking a few bottles, she can now run around as other children." For stomach troubles and nervousness there is nothing so good as South American Nervine. Sold by H. S. Macdonald.

Constipation Cured.

Gents,—I was in very poor health for over four years; the doctor said it was constipation. Not wanting to spend too much cash I got three bottles of B.B.B. and took it regularly, I can certify that I am now in the very best of health and feel very grateful to B.B.B.

MR. J. H. HUTTY, Chemist,

"As a general cough and lung syrup Pyny-Pectoral is a most invaluable preparation. It has given the utmost satisfaction to all who have tried it, many having spoken to me of the benefit derived from its use in their families. It is suitable for old or young, being pleasant to the taste. Its sale with me has been wonderful, and I can always recommend it as a safe and reliable cough medicine."

JIMMY JOBSON'S AWFUL DEATH.

The Little Fellow Was Knocked Over by a Hog—Fell Under a Car and Was Cut in Two.

Toronto, Oct. 10.

Yesterday afternoon about 3.30 o'clock Jimmy, the 7-year-old son of Henry Jobson, 433 Front-street east, was run over by a railroad car and instantly killed.

This lad and another little fellow named Hardy were driving pigs from the unloading platforms into Davies' slaughter-house One of the hogs ran against young Jobson and knocked him down in front of another car which was being shoved down to the platform to be unloaded. The wheels passed over the little fellow's body, almost cutting him in two. Death was instantaneous. Dr. Fraser, 655 Queen-street east, was called, but life was extinct. The body was taken home in an express wagon by P.C. McKee.

Dr. Johnson has issued a warrant for an inquest to be held at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon at the residence of the boy's father.

CUT OFF HER OWN TOE.

How Josephine Thomas Saved Her Life After Being Bitten by a Poisonous Spider.

New York, Oct. 9.—When Josephine Thomas of Mount Airy, N. J., chopped off her great toe with a butcher's knife yesterday morning she not only saved her own life—at least, so the doctor says—but she added a climax to the efforts of her sex to vindicate their physical average.

The heroine of this story is the hired girl on a farm, and has very little time for championing the rights of women, even if her simple mind ran in that direction. She got up at what the advanced sisterhood would deem an unearthly hour yesterday morning to get breakfast in time for the family and the rest of the help. Josephine was used to dressing by candlelight, and uttered no complaint until, having sat down on the floor, after the manner of her sex, she pulled on her right shoe.

Instantly off came the shoe, accompanied by a loud "Ouch!" Out marched a spider, large and black, with an orange stripe along its back. Josephine hastened to crush it into a flat, unpleasing object by means of one brisk swat with the heel of its late refuge.

That done, she turned her attention to her toe, which was tingling as if it had been bitten by a million of Mount Airy's mosquitoes. It had already begun to swell, and when she pulled off her stocking she perceived two tiny punctures through which two points of blood appeared.

Breakfast seemed more important than anything else just then, however, and the girl completed her toilet and descended to the kitchen. As she moved about at her work the pain grew more acute, and when the farm hands dropped in, one by one, she was limping around with an expression of agony, in violent contrast to her usual sturdy cheerfulness.

"Better look at it again, Joe," suggested the farmer when he heard of the spider. Josephine looked, and this time she became frightened. The swelling had extended up her foot, and the toe had turned purple. The farmer, in the light of his experience of snake bites, feared for the worst, and lost no time in sending one of the boys off on horseback for the nearest doctor.

"It'll be hours before he gets here," said Josephine calmly, "I'd better attend to myself."

She took a piece of stout cord and bound it round her ankle as tightly as she could. Then she took a butcher knife from a shelf, sharpened it on the window sill, and, placing her foot on the edge of a chair, proceeded to hack off her toe.

From a surgical point of view it was not a very neat job, but the amputation was effected with not a single groan. When the doctor came there was nothing left for him to do except to trim the edges, bind up the foot and tell Josephine Thomas that she was a brave girl and had probably saved her own life.

COMPARISONS DREADED.

The People's Verdict a Just One.

Paine's Celery Compound the Only Health Giver.

Comparisons and tests establish certain truths, and bring to light facts that benefit a vast number of people.

Comparisons are odious and hateful to a certain class of people. The manufacturers and concoctors of the many common advertised patent medicines and pills of the present day dread and fear a fair comparison of their vaunted remedies with the world's popular Paine's Celery Compound.

Comparisons and severe tests are made every day by thousands of people in every part of Canada, whom all will acknowledge to be fit and proper judges, as their opinions are quite unbiased and impartial.

The open, honest, voluntary and unsolicited testimony of a vast number of sufferers and sick people, when put in plain words and terms, is as follows: "After many successful trials with the majority of patent medicines and pills, we have used Paine's Celery Compound with wonderful and marvellous results, and find it to be just what we require as a life-renewer and health-giver."

Such letters, couched in the strongest language that truth and honesty can command, have a widespread effect, and must naturally draw the attention of those most deeply interested in the cure of disease.

No wonder that the proprietors of common nervines, bitters, sarsaparilla and pills dislike the strong comparisons made by the public between medicines that are unreliable and that wonder-curing Paine's Celery Compound.

Have you, sick reader, spent money in vain for weeks and months in trying to find a cure? Has your physician failed to do for you what you expected? If so, we say try Paine's Celery Compound, the medicine that never disappoints the poor, weary sufferer. It has cured others even after the doctors failed; it will surely cure you.

As unscrupulous dealers are selling imitations in some quarters, see that the name "Paine's" is on every wrapper and bottle; remember, if you are deceived it means failure; get the kind that cures.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tenn says: "Shiloh's Vitalizer 'Saved my Life. I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used." For dyspepsia, liver or kidney trouble it excels. Price 75c. Sold by John Nugent, 389 George Street.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry cures Diarrhœa, Dysentry, Cramps, Colic, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, and all looseness of the bowels. Never travel without it. Price 35c.

Mr. Joseph Lane, the well-known jeweller of Brockville, says: "For some years I have suffered with severe pains in my back and sides and flashes of heat between my shoulders. I had a tired, wornout felling.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

THE FREQUENT CAUSE OF MUCH MISERY AND SUFFERING.

The Victim Helpless and Unreliable—It Saps the Constitution and Makes One Involuntarily Ask, Is Life Worth Living?

From the Lindsay Post.

It is at least commendable to bow before the inevitable. But what appears to be inevitable may be delayed or altogether averted. What were considered necessarily fatal diseases twenty-five or even ten years ago in many instances are not now placed in that category—thanks to medical and scientific skill. Life is sweet. We must either control the nerves or they will master us. Hysteria may prove fatal. It renders the person afflicted helpless and unreliable, and casts a continual shadow upon a hitherto bright and cheerful life. It saps the constitution and makes one involuntarily ask, "Is life worth living?" Miss Fanny Watson, daughter of Mr. Henry Watson, living on lot 22, in the township of Somerville, Victoria County, is one of those whose life for years was made miserable from nervous disease. At the age of twelve Miss Watson met with an accident which so seriously affected her nervous system that during the subsequent five years she was subject to very severe nervous prostration, resulting in convulsions with unconsciousness for three or four hours at a time. This condition continued until March last, when she had an increased and prolonged attack, by which she was completely prostrated for the space of a fortnight. The disease so affected the optic nerve that Miss Watson was forced to wear glasses. Many remedies were tried but with no avail, and both Miss Watson and her friends feared that a cure could not be obtained. Ultimately Dr. Williams Pills were strongly recommended by various friends, and the young lady decided to give them a trial. A half dozen boxes were bought, and by the time one box was used, there was an improvement in her condition, and before the half dozen boxes were used, Miss Watson was—to use her own words—a different person altogether. Her entire nervous system was reinforced to such an extent that she is now able to dispense with the use of the glasses which previous failing eyesight had made necessary. Miss Watson is now a staunch friend of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and says: "I have pleasure in recommending them to all similarly afflicted." Rev. D. Millar, a friend of the family, vouches for the facts above set forth.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills create new blood, build up the nerves, and thus drive disease from the system. In hundred of cases they have cured after all other medicines have failed, thus establishing the claim that they are a marvel among the triumphs of modern medical science. The genuine Pink Pills are sold only in boxes, bearing the full trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." THE SHOOTING WAS JUSTIFIABLE

So the Jurors Say in Regard to the Killing of the Convict Howell at the Kingston Penitentiary.

Kingston, Oct. 9.—At the inquest into the Penitentiary tragedy to-night the coroner's jury returned the following verdict: "That the said George Howell came to his death by a shot from a revolver, fired by the chief keeper, W. S. Hughes, in the discharge of his duty, and we are of opinion that according to the evidence, such shooting by the chief keeper was justifiable. The jury recommend that in future, when desperate criminals have to be dealt with, precaution be adopted, in the management of the same, so that there may be no repetition of such a lamentable affair."

"For several months, I was troubled with a persistent humour on my head which gave me considerable annoyance, until it occured to me to try Ayer's Hair Vigor. Before using one bottle, the humour was healed."—T. T. Adams, General Merchant, Tubeville, Va.

EARL OF ROSEBERY

Explains His Position on the Eastern Question.

GREAT RESPECT FOR GLADSTONE

But Cannot Go With the Grand Old Man in His Ideas as Expressed in His Liverpool Speech—Strongly Opposed to England Taking Isolated Action.

Edinburgh, Oct. 9.—Speaking in this city to-night, Lord Rosebery discussed the remedies that had been suggested for the settlement of the Turkish question. He adduced reasons against nearly every one of the remedies. Regarding the proposal that Russia should take possession of Constantinople, Lord Rosebery said that the late Government (his own) had been extremely anxious to arrive at an entente with Russia, and he was still in every way hopeful that a satisfactory understanding between Great Britain and Russia on the Turkish question would be reached. He urged the advocates of the proposal, however, to remember the treatment that had been accorded the Poles by the Russians. Moreover, he asked, how is Great Britain to give to Russia what is not hers?

Avowing veneration and unaltered friendship for Mr. Gladstone, Lord Rosebery said that he could not agree with the proposal made by the latter in his Liverpool speech to withdraw the British Ambassador from Constantinople or to threaten action which could not be effected if the powers did not approve. Such a course would lead to humiliation. He differed with Mr. Gladstone in the opinion that Great Britain was bound by the Cyprus convention to intervene in Turkey. This convention had been a dead letter ever since it had been signed. He did not desire specially the retention of Cyprus and would willingly give it to any power except Turkey as the price of a European concert.

Lord Rosebery further declared that he was emphatically opposed to isolated action by Great Britain on the Turkish question and would fight the proposal that she act alone tooth and nail. Such action would mean a European war, with the slaughter of hundreds of thousands, threaten the existence of Great Britain and perhaps precede the extermination of the Armenians. He could conceive of nothing more futile, dangerous and disastrous than such a policy. Any British Minister incurring a European war except through the direct necessity of interests distinctly British would be a criminal to his country and to his position. He believed that any just war would have the assistance of the British colonies. He doubted that a war in behalf of Armenians would elicit such assistance. The panacea was concerted action by the powers nearest interested. This could not be long postponed.

Lord Rosebery then referred to his retirement from the leadership of the Liberal party, saying that the difference of opinion on the Eastern question was only one of a series of incidents that had induced him to resign the leadership. He added that he had not received the loyal support that a Peer needed if he was to lead his party successfully. His Government in its early days had been defeated by its own followers. The policy he had suggested for the election had not been adopted. Finally, Mr. Gladstone had innocently ministered the coup de grace. The internal differences in the party had been equal to the external differences. His action had been so hampered as to render his position untenable. He had tendered his resignation to his colleagues after the election.

Lord Rosebery, in conclusion, thanked Messrs. Fowler, Asquith, Bryce and Arnold Morley for their cordial support.

The meeting unanimously adopted a resolution expressing gratitude for the manner in which Lord Rosebery had led the Liberal party, deeply regretting his retirement, and earnestly hoping that he would reconsider his action and resume the leadership.

Lord Rosebery replied that his decision was the result of mature reflection, and had been taken with the conviction of its absolute necessity.

The clubs here to-night were filled with members, who eagerly awaited a report of Lord Rosebery's speech at Edinburgh. The Central News caused a column of the speech to be put on the "tickers" concurrent with its delivery. This report was devoured with avidity, and the references to the reasons that caused Lord Rosebery to throw up the leadership of his party were excitedly discussed.

A great throng filled the National Liberal Club, which presented the appearance it does at the time of a general election. Lord Rosebery's reference to Messrs. Fowler, Asquith, Bryce and Arnold Morley, which defined the cleavage in the Rosebery Cabinet, especially interested the readers of the speech. His response to the resolution adopted at the meeting was regarded as leaving open the question of his possible resumption of the leadership. Alexander Asher, who was Solicitor-General for Scotland in Mr. Gladstone's last Cabinet, stated afterwards that he believed that Lord Rosebery would soon be re-elected as leader of the Liberal party.

The Daily News (Liberal) contends that there is evidence of a rally to Lord Rosebery, or, rather, a renewal of confidence in him, which his speech will strengthen.

The Chronicle, a Liberal paper, but opposed to Lord Rosebery as the leader of the party, makes a bitter onslaught on the ex-Prime Minister, accusing him of total indifference to the sufferings of the Armenians. His speech, the paper declares, was evidently an attempt to discredit the agitation in their support. It says it regrets that Lord Rosebery thought it necessary to express respect for Mr. Gladstone upon whom the speech was an unqualified attack.

IT IS ALL TALK.

Yes, but it is Norwood Talk—The Kind That Tells in Norwood.

Talk that tells.
Talk that is endorsed.
Every day talk by people that know.
City talk.
Kidney talk.
Do the kidneys talk?
Well, yes, both loud and long.
You are learning the kidney language.
Backache in kidney language means kidney ache.
Lame back means weak kidneys.
Weak back means weak kidneys.
The kidneys are talking trouble.
Here is some Norwood talk:

Mr. George Taylor, well known in Norwood, has this to say about Doan's Kidney Pills:—

"For a great many years I have been a sufferer from kidney disease. Terrible pain in my side and back made my life a burden. The urine was a dark wine colour, and I was greatly troubled with frequent urination. My sleep was destroyed because of this annoying trouble.

"I have taken scores of medicines, but could get no relief, and thought that I would never be cured. Happily I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, and got a box at J. C. Moffatt's drug store, and have continued their use for one month.

"I am thankful to say as a result that they have fixed me up. I feel like another person. I do not now have to get up at night, and in fact am entirely cured.

"I think they are the grandest medicine ever placed before the public, and I heartily recommend them to all sufferers from kidney disorder of any kind."

RIFF PIRATES AGAIN.

The French Ship Corinto Boarded and Plundered and Her Captain Carried Away—Fight With a Spaniard.

Madrid, Oct. 9.—News has been received by the Government that the Riff pirates are again committing depredations upon passing vessels, having become bolder than ever. A strong band of Riffians boarded the French ship Corinto off Athucoma, and, after pinioning the crew, plundered the ship's cargo. The Spanish steamer Sevilla, conveying Cuban exiles to Ceuta, appeared upon the scene and fired upon the pirates. The fire was returned, and a fight ensued which lasted some time. Four men on board the Sevilla were killed, including a Cuban prisoner named Oscar. The pirates finally retired, but carried with them the captain of the Corinto. A Spanish warship has gone in search of the pirates. Premier Canovas del Castillo, through Senor de Ascarraga, Minister of War, has ordered the Spanish diplomatic agent at Tangier to make an energetic protest to the Government of Morocco against the depredations of the Riffians, and the Government has hopes that France will join Spain in administering to the Riff outlaws such punishment as will put a stop to their acts of piracy in future.

COUNTY REGISTRAR.

All Else Failing Mr. Geo. O. Ward is Cured by Eight Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Port Hope (special) Sept. 28—No case of recovery from serious illness that has ever occured in this community has caused as much talk as that of our esteemed townsman Mr. George C. Ward, Registrar of this County, residing here. For a long time it has been well known to his intimate friends that he was a sufferer from kidney disorder. But for the past year he grew worse and all efforts to regain his strength were without avail. He is now cured as he says, by using eight boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and is as well as ever he was in his life.

MUSICAL INFORMATION!

A GOOD PIANO IS A LIBERAL EDUCATION.

What is there that so opens the mind to good and gentle inspiration as music?

What is there so inspiring or enobling in its influence? The music however must be good music. And good music cannot be produced from a bad Piano. The influence of the most charming voice or the most perfect violin, however well handled, is destroyed if accompanied by a bad piano.

They are found in the homes of our most refined and wealthiest citizens, where the Piano is viewed not as a mere article of furniture, but as the interpreter of our deepest feelings.

Dedication of a Fine New Methodist Church.

Yesterday afternoon, at one o'clock, a fine new Methodist church was dedicated at Bethel, in the Fife neighbourhood, Otonabee. There was an overflowing attendance from the vicinity. The dedicatory ceremony was performed by Rev. T. M. Campbell, president of the Bay of Quinte conference, assisted by Rev. E. Roberts, chairman of the Belleville district, Rev. J.J. Rae and Rev. W. R. Young, town. Rev. J. J. Liddy, Ph. B., of Keene, the pastor, was also present. It is during this pastorate that the church has been built and his energy and zeal are worthy of high commendation in this connection.

At the conclusion of the dedication ceremony a sumptuous dinner was served in the basement to a large number of persons. The room was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves, ferns and flowers.

In the evening a public meeting was held in the church, at which addresses were delivered by the ministers mentioned above and by Rev. T. Andrews, Presbyterian, and Rev. W. L. Baynes Reid, Anglican, of Keene. The addresses were accompanied by music by the choir and solos by Miss Lily Jackson, Peterborough; Miss Pengelly, Norwood, and Miss Roxburg, of Norwood.

The church is a plain, neat brick structure, with a seating capacity of 300, besides a commodious basement. It is also provided with an organ with a double bank of keys, furnished by Messrs. R. H. Jackson & Co., Peterborough. The most gratifying and unique feature is that the cost of both building and organ is not only fully met, but there is a handsome surplus of $52. This is a decidedly novel feature in connection with modern church building.

Dredging in Rice Lake.

The Lakefield News says:—Efforts for for some years have been made to secure a small approbation for dredging the river at the mouth of the Keene river and the mouth of the Otonabee river, at Rice Lake. The efforts have not been unsuccessful. Mr. John Lang, the energetic member for East Peterborough, has, we understand, secured the assurance from the Minister of Public Works that the department were about to authorise the dredging referred to, and the work will be done this fall. This will be good news for the people residing in the vicinity of Keene and Rice Lake, as well as steamboat owners. Mr. Lang evidently intends to serve his constituents truly and well.

Fads in Medicine.

There are fads in medicine as in everything else and a "new thing" frequently sells for a short time simply because it is new. But in medicine, as in nothing else, the people demand and will be satisfied only with positive, absolute merit. The fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla has stood its ground against all competition, and the sales have never wavered but have remained steadily at the top, demonstrates, beyond any doubt, the intrinsic value of this medicine. The new things have come and gone but Hood's Sarsaparilla rests upon the solid foundation of absolute merit and its power to cure, and its sales continue to be the largest in the world.

A Big House.

The Guy Bros. drew their usual big house in Peterborough last night and gave an excellent an entertainment as to ensure them a royal welcome next time they come around. The jokes of the end men were all new and from beginning to end the fun was fast and furious. The soloists were all in fine voice and the chorus work of the quartette has to be heard to be appreciated. The specialists were all above the average, and the equal of the work of Vaneron on the horizontal bars has never been seen in Peterborough. Lyons and Herbert, the well known female impersonators, were in their old places, and it was hard to convince many of those present that the impersonations were not the "real article."

Fairweather & Co's Fine Fur Catalogue.

Messrs. Fairweather & Co. have given another example of their enterprise by issuing six thousand copies of a splendid 36 page catalogue of their splendid furs. The catalogue is intended to serve their Peterborough and Lindsay business as well as the great J. J. Lumdin fur store business, Toronto, which has been added since last year, an important addition, whose extent and central location bear relations of practical importance to the customers of the town and Lindsay establishments. The new catalogue is gotten up at the offices of The EXAMINER Printing Company. In tasteful typography, in clean, clear and skilful press work and general make-up, it is truly a fine specimen of the printer's art, equal to the work of the great city establishments. It is printed on heavy plate paper, highly finished. It most prominent features are the magnificent illustrations of the most fashionable forms of fur garments, which are such admirable portraits, so to speak, that a lady can have no difficulty whatever in selecting what she desires from the illustrations and information contained in the catalogue. The illustrations are photo-gravures from sketches of the latest novelties in fur garments (made in the shops of Fairweather & Co) by a special artist, and were produced by a New York firm, who claimed that they could not be produced in Canada, but Messrs. Fairweather & Co. patriotically entrusted the making of a portion of the cuts to a Toronto firm, and it would take a very keen-eyed expert to distinguish the one from the other. The catalogue, in its beauty and completeness is a decided credit to the enterprise of Messrs. Fairweather & Co.

A CASE OF NON-SUPPORT.

Robert A. Meharry is under Arrest on This Charge.

Robert A. Meharry was before the magistrate this morning charged with non-support of his wife and family.

Meharry, it is rumoured, figured in a shooting affair in the north end about a year ago, when his wife followed him to another woman's house and fired at him with a revolver. Since that time Meharry has not supported his family and the police have not set eyes on him. He came back to town a day or so ago and his wife laid the information which resulted in his arrest.

The magistrate explained this morning to the prisoner the seriousness of the charge upon which he had been arrested, stating that a penalty of three years in the penetentiary could be imposed—and cautioning him to proceed cautiously.

Meharry elected to be tried by a jury and has been remanded for a hearing until Monday next. County Crown Attorney Wood is conducting the prosecution.

THEY BROKE WINDOWS.

The Magistrate Will Put a Stop to this Kind of Thing.

Nine little boys with very solemn faces lined up before Police Magistrate Dumble this morning to answer to the charge of wilfully destroying property, having broken the windows in two houses on Bethune and Simcoe streets respectively, which are the property of the Bank of Montreal.

Five of the boys pleaded guilty, but the other four maintained their innocence, denying having broken any of the glass. Three of these were quickly proven guilty through their companions, but the ninth lad cleared himself.

The police evidently made a clean sweep when they arrested the youngsters, as some of them had broken window panes fully five weeks ago, while others again had not gotten into mischief until last Sunday.

The Magistrate expressed his determination to put a stop to the promiscuous stone throwing at untenated houses, which is one of the favourite pastimes of the youth of Peterborough, and each of the boys will have to pay 50c. for compensation, and $2 costs into the court by next Saturday or have an even heavier sentence imposed.

Mr. J. J. Lundy, whilst in conversation with Mr. John E. Belcher, town engineer, ascertained from that gentleman that he assisted over forty years ago in building some of the very roads over which Mr. Lundy drove in the neighbourhood of Killarney. Mr. Lundy states that it is in the town of Balla where the great cattle fair is held, that he was visiting the doctor of whom mention was made in yesterday's EXAMINER. Father McGuire's town is just six miles distant and is called Kiltinagh. Mr. Lundy has so many interesting reminiscences to relate that a lecture on the subject from him would prove a strong drawing card at St. Andrew's church some evening this fall.

ASHBURNHAM BRIEFS.

Weddings have been all the rage lately, and now even old widowers and maids are occasionally seen driving out and singing from their hearts:—

"This is the way I long have sought
And mourned because I found it not."

Girls, you had better keep your eyes open.

We are highly favoured with groceries, a new one has been opened opposite Mr. Tivey's, Stewart street north. Mr. G. McWilliams has opened out and moved his family over from Peterborough, and now occupies the whole block. George Emmerson has gone in Charlie Moore's old stand, and the report is that the owner of the place he vacated is opening out a general store there.

David Oliver has his new home about finished and intends moving in himself.

Mr. Mein has his oven finished and now "Billy" is seen every day out with a nice new rig delivering to the citizens the staff of life, fresh and sweet.—COM.

CURLIANA.

The annual meeting of the Millbrook curling club was held in the law office of Mr. A. A. Smith for the purpose of organizing for the coming season. The following officers were elected:

Pres.—H. B. Allan.
Vice-Pres.—A. A. Smith.
Sec.-treas.—W. M. Wood.
Representative members—W. T. Wood and L. Clary.
Committee—S. Bateson, C. H. Winslow and D. Hampton.

A resolution was passed requesting the O. C. A. to leave the club in Group I which includes Belleville, Cobourg, Oshawa and Bowmanville.

The annual meeting of the Thistle Curling Club has been postponed until Tuesday evening next, when a full attendance is expected.

The annual meeting of the Bobcaygeon Curling Club resulted in the election of the following officers:

Pres.—A. E. Bottum.
Vice-Pres.—W. T. C. Boyd.
Sec.-treas.—R. Ventress.
Patrons—Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Boyd.
Executive committee—W. A. Davis, J. T. Robinson, W. Gidley and F. Minns.
The fee will be the same as last year.

LACROSSE.

The meeting of the C. L. A. Executive has been postponed until Monday, when the Orillia protest against the Peterboroughs will be investigated.

It will be of interest to the Peterborough lacrosse players to learn that the Tweed team won from Madoc the other day by the score of two goals to one. Tweed ought to have a rattling good team in the C. L. A, next year.

THE WHEEL.

The big bicycle firms appear to have very generously donated some valuable prizes to a number of the race meets which have been held throughout the province. It is to be hoped that they will not forget the big Peterborough road race.

The town merchants are contributing most generously towards the prize list for the road race and the entries are already beginning to come in. No time should be lost in sending in the names of competitors to the secretary, as the work of handicapping will be very tedious to the committee if left till the last minute.

Our Boys.

"Boys will be boys" is a saying as old as it is true—and who would have it otherwise?

As we watch them at their pranks, their games and their sport we smile, and remember that but a few days ago, for so it seems, we were doing just what our boys are doing to-day. And the more heartily we enter into their life, in their playful as well as their more serious efforts the greater influence we have with them the more they will love and respect us, and the more they will grow up in our likeness.

No greater mistake can be made by the parent than to put his boy at arm's length. The youth, yearning for companionship and open to influence is left to drift into that light which is moulded and directed by whatever environments may surround him; they may be good or they may be bad, but they certainly cannot be wholesome as the sympathetic guidance and direction of a wise and loving father.

If home was sweet, bright and companionable and there was between parents and children sympathy and open sociability and confidence anxious mothers would not so often ask "Where is my boy to-night?"

It may be that the youth of the present are as good as in the days that are past, but with compulsory education, Kindergartens and Sunday Schools we would naturally look for better things—a higher and better life and less crime.

"Ignorance is the mother of vice" is a maxim and statistics seem to confirm its truth, but of late attention has been drawn to the fact that juvenile crime seems more than ordinarily prevalent.

In our own town attention has been drawn to the fact that last summer a large number of mere children were in our police court proved guilty of serious crimes which a few years ago would have called for capital punishment in the case of adults.

We had children stealing from shops, others watching for a favourable opportunity to dart in and rob the till. Children—little boys, committing burglary in broad daylight—put out their sentinels, then breaking windows and crawling into a shop and there stealing a quantity of watches. Many of these children were self-possessed, cunning and full of deception. Committing deliberate perjury in the witness box.

Such things are painful in the extreme. The great difficulty is to deal adequately with such cases so as to save the children from utter ruin—to let them go unpunished is not satisfactory—to send them to gaol is to sink them beyond recovery, this difficulty remains to be met by future legislation.

ONE NATURALLY ASKS,

how are these children brought to this condition of vice, and what can be done to stay the development of this criminal life?

If we examine into the conditions which have produced these terrible instances of moral degradation we almost invariably find that the criminal children come from homes where there is lax government, "The stream cannot rise higher than its source." If there is a drunken parent, if there is at home unclean life, vile language, filthy habits, want of purity and and truth, we shall naturally expect precocious development in vice. If there is carelessness which permits children to have their own way, to be out at night, to associate with vicious companions, what can be expected? The boys learn to smoke, to swear, to revel in filthy stories. Then come the influence of dime novels whose heroes are criminals and which excite to foolish emulation in evil ways. To expect all parents to be wise and judicious in the government of their children is too much, but parents cannot get rid of their terrible responsibility by letting their children drift. The drift of human nature is downwards, and only thoughtful watchfulness and earnest effort will save the children.

Make home the pleasantest place. Make your own companionship the most desired. Be to your children the most confidential friend. Be pure, truthful, loving and your child will walk in your way, and be your joy and comfort.

D. W. D.

"ORDER IS HEAVEN'S FIRST LAW."

DEAR SIR,—In reply to your request for correspondence re the training of children, I venture to offer a few thoughts which have occupied my own mind on that subject.

Born in England and living there long enough to remember its ways and usages fifty years ago, I am often grieved to see what a contrast is presented here. Is the word "department" ever used or thought of in connection with education in this country, and of what value is education without it; truly, as the Bible says, "A jewel in a swine's snout."

But to pass on to the real question at issue, the "Home Training," I think that a great deal of misconception exists as to whose duty it is to train the children—the father's or mother's. I have heard fathers say, "I do my duty when I keep the house supplied; the mother can manage the young ones." Now, fathers of Peterborough, I, a mother, and generally considered by those who know me a strong-minded one and a woman with a will, I can do my own duty, but I cannot do my husband's while he is alive. I can teach my children to love and respect their father, but towards myself, unless he enforce obedience and respect, I am powerless. And for this reason an easy-going, careless man himself does his children infinite harm by not enjoining obedience to authority. Do not tell me that you have no time to see that your children tell the truth, are honest, respectful to elders and industrious. My father was as busy a man as you could find in the country, and yet, he made us all mind him and obey our mother also, and now in his old age is loved and respected as few parents are at this day.

I once met a Jew and asked him on whom rested the responsibility of training child en. "The father," said he, "but the mother must teach her babe as soon as it can talk and begin to understand the rudiments of religion." When all is said, without that to aid us we are powerless. "Abide in me and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me."

[As parents are undoubtedly responsible for the conduct of their children up to a certain age, say twelve or fourteen years, I would think fining them heavily for the criminal offences of the children would help them to be a little more careful. Also put the Curfew law in force. This country is burdened with laws, many of which are simply dead letters; for instance the one I spoke of, also the law of weeds. See how the Scotch thistle has increased in the last few years. "Verily the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain, waiting for the manifestation of the sons of God." Surely they should be in evidence now after eighteen hundred years of instruction, men endowed with the Spirit of Christ, wise in understanding, and appreciating what the Great Father would have us do. O that all parents would set before them as an ideal the beautiful aspiration of the Psalmist—"That our sons may be as the goodly cedar trees, and our daughters as the corners of the Temple."

A MOTHER.

NOTE - The continuation of this subject will be found in this column next Saturday, when in addition to other articles one on "Our Girls" will appear.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Gospel meeting for men at 8 o'clock tonight and 4.15 to-morrow. These meetings are perfectly free and all men are made heartily welcome.

Health and strength carry us through dangers and make us safe in the presence of peril. A perfectly strong man with rich, pure blood, has nothing to fear from germs. He may breathe in the bacilli of consumption with impunity. If there is a weak spot where the germs may find an entrance to the tissues, then the trouble begins. Disease germs propagate with lightning-like rapidity. Once in the blood, the only way to get rid of them is to kill them. This is what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is for. It purifies the blood. That means that it kills the germs, but that is only part of what it does. It assists digestion by stimulating the secretion of digestive fluids, so promoting assimilation and nutrition; purifies and enriches the blood and so supplies the tissues with the the food they need. It builds up strong, healthy flesh and puts the whole body into a disease-resisting state.

RAILWAY NOTES.

Sparks From the Wheels—Cinders for the Eye.

Supt. James Webster and Mechanical Superintendent Chapman, of Allandale, were in town Thursday, but did not remain long.

Wood forms a large part of the freight being moved at present on the Coboconk and Haliburton divisions. The Standard Fuel Co., of Toronto, gets the the bulk of the shipments.

A close traffic arrangement between the Grand Trunk and Lehigh Valley railway companies will go into effect Oct. 15, by which all G. T. trains to and from the east will go through Buffalo.

The Toronto Globe says it is to be regretted that in some quarters a prejudice should apparently exist against the new managers of the Grand Trunk Railway because they happen to be Americans. We should remember that many Canadians occupy high positions on railroads in the United States. The new men have had to make changes, but changes were called for in the interest of the road, at all events the English proprietary thought so. The Grand Trunk, most of us will allow, is a more "live" institution to-day than it has been for years. The main line is in excellent condition, and the branches are efficiently worked. Mr. Hays, Mr. McGuigan, Mr. Fitzhugh and Mr. Cotter are modern railroaders in the best sense, and are doing the best they can for the customers of the road and the public generally. The report that they are going to "squeeze out" a lot of the old hands and bring men from the United States to take their places, we are assured, a mischievious invention. All the changes deemed necessary have been made, and after all, the number of removals have been very small considering the size of the staff. Some of the new men brought over were employed on the Chicago and Grand Trunk Division; others, like Mr. McGuigan, had lived in Canada before going to the States, and cannot justly be branded as aliens.

The Sufferings of a Toronto Junction Resident of Heart Disease.

Not an exceptional case of heart disease but very distressing was that of Mr. L. W. Law, of Toronto Junction, Ont., who was obliged to be propped up in bed with pillows for eighteen months, because of smothering spells that would come over him whenever he attempted to lie down. No treatment had done any good until he tried Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart, and here one dose gave complete relief, and one bottle cured him, and to-day he enjoys the pleasures of good health as other people do. Heart disease will kill if not cured. Sold by H. S. Macdonald.

Men who suffer from mental worry and overwork will find prompt relief in Miller's Compound Iron Pills. 50, doses, 25 cents. Sold in Peterborough by WM. MADILL, druggists.

LADIES IN SESSION.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY, BAY OF QUINTE CONFERENCE.

In Convention at the Cambridge Street Methodist Church, Lindsay — Continuation of the Report From Yesterday.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION.

The Thursday morning session of the Branch of the Bay of Quinte conference opened at 9.30 a. m., in Cambridge street Methodist church, Lindsay. The opening devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Macdonald and Mrs. Morgan.

Mrs. Kendry, the secretary, then read the minutes, after which it was moved by Mrs. Platt, seconded by Mrs. Wilson, that the question of systematic giving, which had been debated yesterday, be reconsidered.—Carried. A discussion upon this question followed, which resulted in making the branch superintendent, Mrs. (Rev.) Sing, a member of the branch, her expenses to be provided for. It was also decided to appoint a member of each Auxiliary as local superintendent to work up and look after systematic giving in each society, the branch to provide them with literature on the subject. To this was added that the district organizer become district superintendents of the work of systematic giving.

Mrs. Kendry, the secretary, then read a telegram received. It read as follows:—"The London Conference branch now in session, send greetings to Bay of Quinte Conference branch. Ps. xx, 5."

A motion was passed to the effect that any delegate to the branch must remain until the close of sessions.

The reading of memorials followed.

A motion was passed to the effect that an assistant corresponding secretary be appointed.

A notice of motion from the executive committee of the London Conference branch was read. The motion called the attention of the branch to the movement of the league to raise missionary funds. It was resolved to forward this to the board.

The next notice of motion was from the British Columbia branch asking the advisability of having equal representation at the general conference. The Bay of Quinte branch felt that the time had not come to vote for this motion. Another resolution was passed to the effect that the branch send one delegate to every six hundred, in place of one to every four hundred, as heretofore.

The next notice of motion was from the Carlton-st. Auxiliary, as follows: That the Toronto conference branch be requested to memorialize the board of managers to alter article VI. of the "Constitution for an Auxiliary" so as to prohibit for election of officers at the June meeting—when, in the judgment of our Auxiliary, it is thought best to hold the election at that time.

This closed the reading of memorials.

Roll call by the secretary then followed, and 89 delegates answered to their names.

A telegram from Hamilton conference branch was read; "H. C. B., now in session, sends greetings to Bay of Quinte branch, now in session. See 1 Thessalonians 3-12: 13."

The president, Mrs. (Dr.) Carman, gave a few earnest words of advice to the delegates ere they began the business of electing officers, saying it was the most important part of their meetings. Mrs. Carman very feeling referred to her separation from the Bay of Quinte branch, now about to take place and said this branch would ever have a warm place in her heart. Deep feeling was manifested by the delegates while Mrs. Carman was speaking her words of counsel and farewell. At the close a few moments were spent in silent prayer for divine guidance in the election of officers and delegates to the board meeting, after which Mrs. Carman led in earnest prayer.

During the counting of ballots the president read from the Montreal conference branch, now in session, a letter acknowledging the greetings sent by the Bay of Quinte conference branch.

After benediction by Rev. T. M. Campbell, the delegates adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Not being able to complete the business during the morning session, it was necessary to continue during the afternoon.

At two o'clock the president was in the chair, and opened the service with singing. Miss Hawley read the Scripture lessons, after which Mr. Carman led in prayer, which was followed by the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Mrs. Kendry.

The first business was reading the result of the election for president. Mrs. (Dr.) Platt, of Picton, was elected to the position, and after her installation in the new office, in a few earnest words, thanked the society for the honour paid her. Mrs. Platt said she was willing to follow any line of service God marked out for her, and that she would endeavour to fill, through God's assistance, the place appointed for her in their great work.

The election of other officers was then continued, and resulted as follows:—

1st Vice-President—Mrs. J. C. Wilson, Tweed.

2nd Vice-President—Mrs. Massey, Wallbridge.

3rd Vice-President—Mrs. T.M. Campbell, Campbellford.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Kendry, Peterborough.

Recording Secretary — Mrs. Grange, Napanee.

Treasurer—Mrs. A. R. Campbell, Hastings.

Mission Band Corresponding Secretary—Miss Hawley, Bath.

RESOLUTIONS.

During the counting of ballots resolutions to the following effect were moved, seconded and carried:—

Moved by Mrs. Sherin, seconded by Mrs. Wilson, that Mrs. Gibson, of Napanee, represent the branch at the next annual conference.

The president then brought forward three resolutions, which were unanimously carried: —That a vote of thanks be sent Rev. Dr. Briggs for the free printing of the W.M.S. report for year '95 and '96. That a vote of thanks be sent Mr. Ed. Morden, Picton, for printing the programmes free of charge for three years. That in order to further express their appreciation of Miss Macdonald's presence in their midst, and address, Mrs. Platt be asked to write a letter to Miss Macdonald embodying the delegates' expressions of thankfulness.

Moved by Mrs. A. R. Campbell, seconded by Mrs. Sherin, that the distribution of the missionary money raised by the E. L. of C. E. be brought before the Board. —Carried. Mrs. Copeland suggested that the Easter offering and thank-offering come under the one heading, as it would very much simplify the work.

Moved by Mrs. Sherin, and carried, that we appreciate the work of Rev. C. H. Raley, and recommend that the work receive from the society $300 and an assistant, or whatever amount the board can afford.

Mrs. Grange, of Napanee, then read the following resolution: That whereas, in the providence of God, circumstances compel our beloved president to sever her connection with our branch, therefore be it resolved that we, as a convention, give some expression of our personal regret at losing the companionship of one who has endeared herself to every member of our branch because of her essentially loveble qualities; we feel we are about to be deprived of the guidance and leadership of one whose great ability has pre eminently qualified her for the position she has so ably filled since the organization of the branch. We realize that in losing her we lose one whose place will not easily be filled, and yet we rejoice to know that the talents and powers that have been so faithfully used in connection with the branch are not lost to the Master's cause. We know that her talents and willing personality will always be devoted to advancing our Redeemer's kingdom in every sphere of usefulness to which she may be called. Our prayer is that God will abundantly bless her works of faith and love wherever she may be placed, and that she may be long spared to serve the cause.

An invitation was read from the Methodist church of Peterborough to the branch requesting them to hold their next meeting in Peterborough. The invitation was accepted.

The next business was the election of delegates to the board meeting, which resulted in the sending of Mrs. Copeland, Mrs. J. C. Wilson, Mrs. Massey, Mrs. Grange, Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. T.M. Campbell, Miss Hawley; alternates, Mrs. Kines, Mrs. A. R. Campbell.

The arrangements for next meeting were then made, after which the convention was brought to a close.

How much business can a man do whose system is in a state of disorder? Headache is only a symptom. It is not a disease. The pain in the head is the sign of rebellion. There have been mistakes in diet. There has been overwork and sleepless nights. The machinery of the whole system is demoralized. A business man feels that he cannot afford to be ill enough to quit work. He drags along day after day, makes bad deals, says the wrong thing, and health and business collapse together. There's no need of either disaster. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a gentle, effective renovator of both stomach and bowels. They assist nature without threatening to tear the body piece-meal. There are no griping pains, no nausea. One is a barely perceptible laxative. Two give more noticable results, and they may be continued until the system is throughly renovated, strengthened, and put into harmony with nature. One need not fear a "habit" of taking the "Pleasant Pellets." As soon as health is restored they may be discarded without a return of illness because of their absence. Therefore, you don't become a slave to their use.

A GREAT BOOK FREE.

When Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., published the first edition of his work, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, he announced that after 680,000 copies had been sold at the regular price, $1.50 per copy, the profit on which would repay him for the great amount of labor and money expended in producing it, he would distribute the next half million free. As this number of copies has already been sold, he is now distributing, absolutely free, 500,000 copies of this most complete, interesting and valuable common sense medical work ever published—the recipient only being required to mail to him, at the above address, thirty-one (31) cents in one-cent stamps to cover customs and mailing only and the book will be sent post-paid. It is a veritable medical library, complete in one volume. It contains over 1000 pages and more than 300 illustrations. The Free Edition is precisely the same as those sold at $1.50 except only that the book is are bound in strong manilla paper covers instead of cloth. Send now before all are given away.

CANADA'S ELDORADO.

A Mine Owner From London, England, Who is Delighted With the Prospects in British Columbia.

British Columbia's gold mines have at last found favor in the sight of the conservative and slow-moving British capitalists. Last night there passed through Toronto a man whose visit to the West will turn millions of English money into Canada.

Mr. A. McLean of the great Leadenhall street, London, Eng., mining firm of McLean & Co., a month ago went to Rossland.

In an interview he expressed himself as delighted beyond bounds with the gold regions of British Columbia; asserted that that province would become a glorious land, and maintained that Canada would yet be a greater country than the great republic to the south of her.

Mr. McLean is hurrying on to London to make arrangements for investments. In a month he will return hither, bringing with him Mr. McArthur, the inventor of the now celebrated McArthur-Forest cynodine process of extracting the gold from the ore. This process is said to have made successes of mines that have for 20 years proven unfruitful because of the refractory nature of the ore. It extracts the precious metal completely, leaving nothing to go to waste. The introduction of this new method alone should bring great benefit to British Columbia.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEIT COIN.

And have a Care that you are Not Deceived by Crude Imitations of Diamond Dyes.

Imitations of gold and silver coins and paper currency are circulated from time to time by forgers, and the careless and unwary are deceived and suffer loss.

For some time past, imitations (poor ones, too) of the popular Diamond Dyes have been sold in stores in certain districts of the country. These imitation dyes are sold by merchants because the profits are very large; but the woman who buys them suffers great loss in time and money, and is subjected to many trials and hardships in the use of these common colours.

These imitation dyes are composed of crude and almost worthless ingredients, and can never accomplish what they promise. Many dealers after finding out how their customers were deceived and worried with the dire results from the miserable imitation dyes have given up selling them, and now they recommend only the reliable "Diamond."

It should be remembered that there is but one honest brand of package dyes for home use; they are known as Diamond Dyes. Be sure the merchant gives them to you when you ask for them.

Sandwich Without Meat.

If an unexpected lunch box has to be prepared and there is no meat available for sandwiches, take the yolk of a hard-boiled egg and mash it smoothly with a tablespoon of melted butter; add half a tablespoon each of salt, white pepper, mustard and one-quarter of a pound of common cheese grated. Then stir in a scant tablespoonful of vinegar and spread between thin slices of bread. Such sandwiches will be hailed with delight.

WHY THEY DO NOT PASS.

Kidney Disease Prevents Hundreds of Apparently Healthy Men from Passing a Medical Examination for Life Insurance.

If you have inquired into the matter you will be surprised at the number of your friends who find themselves rejected as applicants for life insurance because of kidney trouble. They think themselves healthy until they undergo the medical test and they fail in this one point. South American Kidney Cure will remove not alone the early symptoms, but all forms of kidney disease, by dissolving the uric acid and hardening substances that find place in the system. J. D. Locke, of Sherbrooke, Que., suffered for three years from a complicated case of kidney disease and spent over $100 for treatment. He got no relief until he used South American Kidney Cure, and he says over his own signature that four bottles cured him. Sold by H. S. Macdonald.

PEOPLE OF MYSTERY.

GARLAND'S PEN PICTURE OF THE VILLAGE OF WALPI

The Cliff Dwellers a Busy People—Pretty and Picturesque as Girls and Stately as Young Mothers Are the Pueblo Women.

Hamlin Garland contributes an interesting article to The October Ladies' Home Journal on the homes and home life of the Pueblo-Dwelling Indians (Cliff-Dwellers of the Southwest) whom he designates as "The Most Mysterious People in America." "It took fear of man to set these villages on these heights," he writes. "As I approached Walpi I could hardly believe anything living was upon it. The houses, massive, dirt-colored, flat and square as rocks, secreted themselves upon the cliff like turtles. The first evidence of life was a small field of corn set deep in 'the wash' or dry river bed. Then an old man watching it—seated beneath a shade of pinon boughs. Then some peach trees knee deep in sand. Then some red-roof houses built by the Government. By this time I could see tiny figures moving about on the high ledges and on the roofs of the houses. Up the trail a man on a burro was driving a flock of sheep and goats. He wore light cotton trousers and a calico shirt. His legs were bare, and on his head was a straw hat. Farther up the trail some old women were toiling with huge bottles of water slung on their backs. From the moment I entered that trail I was deep in the elemental past. Here was life reduced to its simplest form. Houses of heavy walls, with interiors like cellars or caves, set for defence upon a cliff. Here were flat roofs, thick, to keep out the sun and to make a dooryard for the next tier of houses above. Here were nude children with tangled hair, wild as colts and fleet as antelopes, dancing on crags as high as church spires. Here were dogs just one remove from wolves—solemn dogs, able to climb a ladder. Here were men and women seated upon the floor and eating from plaques of willow and bowls of clay of their own shaping and burning.

"The Pueblo Indian women are often very pretty as girls, and some of them make stately young mothers. They work generally in groups of three or four, cooking, whitewashing, weaving or painting pottery. They seem to have a good deal to chatter about, and their smiling faces are very agreeable. They have most excellent white teeth. Their ceremonial dress is very picturesque, especially the costume of the Acoma and Isleta girls. All burdens are carried by the women of Acoma, Isleta and Laguna upon the head, and they have, in consequence, a magnificent carriage, even late in life. The old women of Walpi, on the contrary, are bent and down-looking. They carry their burdens on their backs slung in a blanket. The girls of Isleta wear a light cloth over their heads, Spanish fashion, and manage it with fine grace and coquetry. The everyday dress of the Hopi women consists of a sort of kilt, which is wrapped around the hips and fastened with a belt (a modification of the blanket or wolf skin); above this a sort of sleeveless chemise partly covers the bosom. Their hair is carefully tended, but is worn in an ungraceful mode by some of the women. The women of Hano cut the hair in front square across about to the line of the lips, while the back hair is gathered into a sort of billet. The front hair hangs down over the faces, often concealing one eye. The unmarried women in Walpi wear their hair in a strange way. They coil it into two big disks just above their ears—the intent being to symbolize their youth and promise by imitating the squash flower. The matrons correspondingly dress their hair to symbolize the ripened squash. Some of the maidens were wonderfully Japanese in appearance.

"The cliff people are a busy folk. The women grind meal and weave blankets and baskets and make very interesting and often beautiful pottery. The old men make moccasins very deftly, while the younger men go down from the cliff to the fields to tend the growing crop, to watch the struggling corn as it battles against drifting hot sand and against sudden floods—such are the extremities of their climate. Each morning while I was in Hano I heard the man at early dawn go singing down the steep trail—down into the purple plain. Their quavering songs floated up to me with a strange beauty. Each morning, while it was still dark, the women woke me by entering the room where I lay to grind corn, and each night I went to sleep to the regular rhythm of the mealing-stone timed to the mystical religious chant of the toiling women.

"Let it be said that there is no woman slavery amongst these people any more than among the Navajos. The women are chief property holders. The house is generally the woman's, and descent is through her and not through the father. The men are seldom severe in manner, and in Acoma and Walpi, as well as in Laguna and Zuni, I saw the men taking care of the babies, and doing it with great tenderness and smiling patience. I saw no evidence of any severity except in case of the old women. They seemed to be the drudges of the household in Walpi and in Acoma, carrying wood and bottles of water up the steep trail, bent, withered, morose and complaining. They alone of all these people, seemed saturnine."

FRANCO-RUSSIAN ALLIANCE.

A Treaty Said to Have Been Entered Into Which is Only Defensive in Its Provisions.

London, Oct. 9.—The Berlin correspondent of The Times says: "The Kolnische Zeitung asserts that a written treaty of alliance is in existence between Russia and France, but that it is only defensive in its provisions." The Vossische Zeitung doubts the accuracy of this report, and asserts that up to Tuesday night the draft of the treaty had not been signed either by the Czar or President Faure.

Rt. Hon. C. T. Ritchie, Conservative member of Parliament for Croydon, and President of the Board of Trade in the Cabinet, speaking at Croydon last evening, said he was able to declare that the Government policy was not to suppress the Turkish empire, but to co-operate with the powers to secure a better system of government with Europe and a guarantee for both Christians and Mohammedans. "We are not going to launch a war," said Mr. Ritchie.

ONLY TWO WERE SAVED.

Norwegian Vessel Driven Ashore on Cape Breton's Rocky Coast and Ten of the Crew Were Drowned.

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 9.—A heavy easterly gale swept the rocky Cape Breton coast of this province all day yesterday, doing considerable damage, but the only news of great disaster comes from Green Cove, a small fishing settlement seven miles away from Ingolish.

At 3 o'clock in the morning the Norwegian barque Ariadne, commanded by Captain Paulsen, drove ashore there. The vessel struck close in-shore and under the beetling brow of an abrupt cliff. The sea was running very high, and the moment the Ariadne struck her fate was sealed.

The barque's crew of 12 men were washed into the sea in attempting to man the boats, and only two succeeded in saving their lives. These were Christian Johnsen, second mate, and Johannes Raunbaug, seaman. No one on shore knew anything of the wreck till the morning, when the two survivors made their way to the houses in the settlement, but nothing could have been done to save the men, even had the shore people seen the wreck when it occurred. In the morning the body of the first mate washed ashore, and two other bodies were seen surging about in the waters, but the sea was so high and the approach so steep and dangerous that it was impossible to recover them.

The Ariadne was on a voyage in ballast from Greenock, Scotland, to Bay Verte, N.B., and was 888 tons register.

Nervous Prostration

Complete Recovery by the Use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. Hinson, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.

NO HIRING ABOUT THE MATTER.

By a Clever Scheme He Had a Very Pleasant Drive Without Cost.

Probably one of the neatest bits of sharp bargaining ever enacted took place not long ago between an apparently ignorant German with an abundance of wealth and a sharp dealer in horses, says Harper's Round Table. The German wanted a day's outing and decided that a long drive would suffice for his wants, and applied to the horse dealer for the hire of his best horse and trap. The dealer, not knowing the applicant, demurred at supplying his wants. The German, determined to have his ride, finally pulled out a huge roll of bills, and offered to buy the horse and rig, provided the dealer would buy them back at the same price. This surprised the dealer, but not wishing to offend the owner of so much ready money and possibly a good future customer, he agreed to the deal.

The German departed with the horse and rig, and at the end of the day returned them in good condition, expressing his satisfaction at the pleasure the drive had afforded him. The dealer, according to the agreement, paid him back the money, and the German started to leave the place.

"I beg pardon, sir," exclaimed the dealer, "but you have forgotten to pay for the hire, you know."

"Pay for the hire? Why, my dear sir," coolly replied the German, "I fail to see that. If you will exercise your memory a trifle you will agree that I have been driving my own horse and trap all day, and, now you have bought them back, they are yours. There was no hiring about the matter. Good day, sir." And he left the astonished dealer to reflect.

A CRIPPLE FROM RHEUMATISM.

Cured by a Few Doses of South American Rheumatic Cure—Miraculous but Fact.

Mrs. N. Ferris, wife of a well-known manufacturer of Highgate, Ont., says: "For many years I was sorely afflicted with rheumatic pains in my ankles and at times was almost disabled. I tried everything, as I thought, and doctored for years without much benefit. Though I had lost confidence in medicines I was induced to use South American Rheumatic Cure. To my delight, the first dose gave me more relief than I had in years, and two bottles have completely cured me." Sold by H. S. Macdonald.

For Milk Lovers.

To make milk digestible all that is necessary is to shake it well, and to sip it slowly. Shake the milk violently for a few minutes, in a covered goblet, and then drink imediately, but not hastily, before it has time to separate again. After standing for some hours, as, for instance, all city milk has done on its way to town, the perfectly homogenous article that came from the cow is separated, first by the rising of the cream from the gaseous or cheesy milk, and later by the tendency to divide into whey or curd. Although this latter process is perceptible only in souring milk, the fluid undergoes such constant changes that it should always be shaken before drinking it, unless it is taken quite warm from the cow.

Suddenly Attacked.

Children are often attacked suddenly by painful and dangerous colic, cramps, diarrhœa, dysentery, cholera morbus, cholera infantum, etc. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is a prompt and sure cure which should always be kept in the house.

As a blood maker, blood purifier, health giver and system renovator Manley's Celery-Nerve Compound is unrivalled.

"The eruptions on the face particularly have been removed, and the trouble in my back as well, and I feel like a new man. I consider Manley's Celery Compound better than doctor's medicine for blood and liver troubles, as it has proved so in my case." Isaiah Lefler. Waterford, Ont.

SPANISH LITERATURE AS INDICATIVE OF IT AS A FIGHT ITSELF.

Eleven Spanish Publications Devoted Exclusively to Bull Fighting—Flaring Pictures of the Hideous National Sport.

A correspondent who has recently been traveling in Spain, Portugal, Maderia and the Spanish inslands has just sent to a New York Press writer several numbers of a paper called La Lidia, which is published in Madrid, and is one of about eleven publications in Spain which are devoted to the subject of bull fighting. It is illustrated with flaring pictures of the hideous national sport. Gaudily dressed picadores, banderilleros, chulos and matadors; horses with blood pouring from gashes in their obdomens and with bowels protruding; maddened bulls with decorated darts sticking in their bleeding hides; an audience delighted at the sight of the blood and, last scene of all, gayly caparisoned horses dragging away by means of a sort of tackle the mortally wounded bull.

Perhaps the most significant of all the florid illustrations in La Lidia is one covering a double sheet and showing as the central medallion of an allegorical representation an arena containing a gored horse, some men and a bull being infuriated with the red flag. This medallion is decorated with red and gold, and the green palm leaf as a border, and is surmounted by a shield on which the cross is blasoned and on which rests the royal crown of Spain. At the base of the picture is an immense bull's head decorated with all the adjuncts of the ring, and with a large arena in the distance.

Above it are seated the typical peasants, flower decorated and with musical instruments. Above this, on the left are the emblems of art, sculpture and music; on the right the emblems of science and mechanic arts; and as the climax of absurdity, near the top of the picture, a winged figure of fame blowing a blast of victory from a trumpet from which waves the national flag, and holding in her right hand the laurel wreath.

The correspondent referred to draws a comparison between Maderia and the neighboring Canary islands, under Spanish rule, which is unfavorable to the latter. Teneriffe is a veritable hell for animals. In Lisbon so much general cruelty was not observable as in Madrid (where a society which once existed to protect animals has now been extinct eight years), but he quotes from the Diario de Noticias de Lisbon an extract from the latter of one who signs himself (most appropriately) "John the Devil," which argues the necessity for the killing of bulls and horses in reality instead of having sham fights and only accidentally killing the bull, as has been somewhat the custom there. Bull fighting is on the increase in Lisbon. The new bull ring in that city cost $150,000, and seats 11,000 people.

The horses used in the Madrid bull fights come mostly from the army and constabulary forces, and were once first-class animals. The Government requires tall horses, and they are also greater favorites in the bull ring, as the populace is not so well satisfied if the bulls cannot get their horns under them to rip them open properly. This is one of the main attractions. A strong bull can impale a horse on his horns, lift him and throw him. Such is the disposition engendered by these rights that a Spanish lady who had attended one was heard by another informant of the present writer complaining because she had seen a bull which was too cowardly to rip the horse open as he should!

Nansen's Exploit.

Frithiof Nansen has failed to reach the North Pole, but he has performed the most remarkable exploit in the history of modern arctic exploration, says the New York Journal. He has made a longer advance at a single stride than all his predecessors put together for nearly three hundred years. In 1607 Hendrik Hudson reached the neighborhood of 82 degrees north latitude. For two hundred and seventy-five years the world's explorers struggled to better that record, and mile by mile they pushed their way northward with suffering and death dogging their footsteps until, on May 13, 1882, Lockwood and Brainerd, of the Greely expedition, planted their flag 83 degrees 24 minutes. A degree and a half in two hundrd and seventy-five years of effort. Lockwood and Brainerd beat the best previous record by only three miles, and yet their achievement has been the admiration of the world ever since. It has stood untouched for fourteen years, and now all at once Nansen has advanced the standard of exploration nearly two hundred miles at a leap. He has gone to latitude 86 degrees 14 minutes—nearly twice as far beyond Lockwood and Brainerd as they went beyond Hudson. He has covered nearly half the distance that remained to be traveled to the pole. Between Nansen's furthest point and that ultimate goal of endeavor there is a gap of only 226 geographical or 263 statute miles.

Although Nansen's theory about the drift of a current across the Pole may not have been correct, he has proved that the plan of his voyage was not as foolhardy as it seemed. He cut loose from bases of supply and allowed his ship to be locked in the ice, to be carried wherever the drift might take it. That this scheme has accomplished twice as much in the way of progress as all the arduous explorations of nearly 300 years, and has done it apparently without the loss of a single life is a fact that the critics will find it hard to dispose of.

Most Wheels Are Over Oiled.

So many bicyclists have been observed recently suffering from clogged chains, that a word of advice, which has been given before in this place, may, with propriety, be repeated: Oil the chain—nothing is more necessary; but be sure not to have it wet. Each link should be thoroughly lubricated and then the chain should be rubbed dry. No amount of rubbing, it should be remembered, can remove the oil from the parts between the links where it is needed, and not a particle of oil is required on the exterior surface. The drier that is the better. The oil, if exposed, picks up and holds dust and adds greatly to the friction. The same advice applies to all oiling. If so much is put in the bearings that some overflows and it is not wiped off, dust will gather at the spot, and, even in the best made bearings, some of it will almost certainly work into the balls and make trouble. And even if it does not get so far, the bunches of dust so accumulated detract from the appearance of an otherwise well groomed machine, and render the cleaning after a run twice as difficult as it need be. The fact is that more wheels are overoiled than underoiled. "Carrying a canary," as the "wheelmen" call riding with a dry bearing that screeches, is not half so common as a dust buried bearing. Of course, of the two the latter is preferable, but no rider need have either. —New York Post.

THE SOUTH MONAGHAN SHOW

THIRTY-SECOND ANNUAL EXHIBITION AT CENTREVILLE.

Fine Weather—Good Attendance—An Excellent Inside Exhibition.

The thirty-second annual exhibition of the South Monaghan Agricultural Society was held at the village of Centreville on Friday. The fine weather was responsible to a large extent for a good attendance of visitors and some of the departments of the exhibition were increasingly worthy of seeing, especially the inside exhibit.

In this respect and also in the matter of the number of entries the exhibition was ahead of other years. Last year the total number of entries amounted to 620. This year, however, the grand total was 780, an increase of 160. This increase consisted principally in the larger showing in the department of fruits.

The inside exhibit, as before mentioned, was unusually fine. There was a grand collection of grains and the quality was simply superb, and if the judge who awarded the prizes did not "flip a copper" to decide which was best he must have had means of deciding points unpossessed by the average spectator.

The show of roots, always good in South Monaghan, showed the results of dry weather. They were not as good as usual, still some very fair potatoes were shown, and the vegetables were in some respects very respectable.

In dairy products, such as butter, a good deal of superior quality was on exhibition and there was plenty of delicious home-made bread to bear it company. Among the other articles of food displayed there was a fine collection of eggs, not to speak of a splendid specimen of the egg plant, with well laden boughs.

The ladies' work was shown in profusion, a long table piled, apparently two deep, was resplendent with the various samples of the handiwork of the gentler sex. This was what is popularly designated as fancy work. But there was also a good display of useful work including gorgeous quilts in various styles of workmanship, warm, soft flannels, and stockings showing elaborate specimens of fancy knittings in ornamental patterns.

A very creditable display in the fine arts department consisted principally of pencil drawing, evidencing the possession of considerable executive skill and spirited design.

Mr. M. E. Hutchinson had an exhibition of shoes of various kinds, and there was altogether a creditable display inside the agricultural hall.

UPON THE GROUNDS.

Just outside the entrance door of the hall was shown a pretty good collection of poultry.

Sheep were not very largely represented, but some fine animals were shown. In long wools the principal exhibitors were Messrs. James Wood, James Byers and J. J. Heron. In short wools Mr. Nicholls Dawson was the sole exhibitor.

There was a good collection of swine, for a township exhibition, including some extra fine animals. The breeds represented were Berkshires, Duroc Jerseys and Yorkshires. The principal large breed exhibitors were Messrs. G. L. Fair, Wm. Lang, Peter Dawson and James Greer. The chief exhibitors of small breeds were Messrs. W. H. Hutchison, J. J. Heron and Alex. Anderson.

In the exhibits of cattle there were included some good specimens.

The exhibitors of thoroughbred Durhams were Messrs. Alex. Anderson, Wm. Rutherford and Peter Dawson.

A fine thoroughbred Ayrshire bull was shown by Mr. Peter Dawson.

A fine showing of grade Durhams contained many animals pretty well up to the thoroughbred mark. The chief exhibitors in this class were Messrs. J. J. Heron, Mrs. R. Nimmo, J. Lightfoot, Alex. Anderson, sr., Alex. Anderson, jr., G. L. Fair, Fred Goodfellow, Edward Slaven and Malcolm Moorison.

Horses were well represented. In the general-purpose class the principal entries were made by Messrs. Jas. Wood, Alex. Anderson, sr., Alex. Anderson, jr., John Bradshaw, Peter Dawson, Jas. Lang, W. Bradshaw, James Greer and W. Whittington.

The chief heavy draught exhibitors were Messrs. J. W. Hall, Alex Anderson, sr., John Bradshaw, Peter Dawson, R. Fisher, W. Bradshaw, Alex. Anderson, jr., and W. Whittington.

Carriage horses were well well represented in the exhibits of Messrs. James Lang, Thos. Wood, Alex. Anderson, jr., Fred Byers, Wm. Lang, W. H. Hutchinson, Alex. Anderson, sr., J. J. Heron, Fred Goodfellow, Edward Slaven, John Bothwell, T. M. Willan, T. H. Perrin, Malcom Morrison and W. Bradshaw.

Messrs. Gough Bros. added a blush of picturequeness to the grounds by the presence of their gorgeous advertising van.

Mr. W. E. Conway and brother were present during the day with their placards advertising the great clothing of Grafton & Co.

There were also several commercial exhibits of articles, and the vendors of refreshments, etc., were in evidence.

The show was in some respects a fair success in others it was hardly up to the mark. It is not without probability that the South Monaghan and Cavan Agricultural Societies will effect an amalgamation before another season comes around.

SPECIAL PRIZES.

The following winners of special prizes are given

By Gough Bros., the Wonderful Cheap Mean, $5, for fastest walking team, rules agreeable to committee to govern in contest—James Wood.

GET YOUR GUN LICENSE.

If You go Shooting Across the River You May Have Trouble.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Will you kindly allow me through the columns of your valuable paper, to call the special attention to the citizens of Ontario, that there exists a very strict, and new law prohibiting them as well as United States citizens from hunting in the province of Quebec without obtaining the necessary license. Said permits can be obtained from the general superintendent, Mr. N. E. Cormier, Aylmer street, Que.

It is unpleasant for the game-keepers to have to enforce the law upon those innocently violating it, and more so for parties infringing the laws, therefore charitable advice in this way may save disagreeableness.

Our settlers will aid the game-keepers in enforcing this law—as the revenue, etc., will go towards opening new roods, etc.,—therefore it will be hard to escape.

The same rule exists in Ontario for province of Quebec citizens. Probably if our sister province would cancel their law, our hon. commissioner of Crown Lands might consider the matter, and do likewise.

I must also inform the public that the season allowed to run dogs for deer will be only ten days, viz: from the 20th October to the 1st November.

HOW THE STRIKE WAS SETTLED

The Conciliation Committee Set Right the Misunderstanding as to How the Trouble Was Arranged.

Montreal, Oct. 8.—(Special.)—The Conciliation Committee which brought about the end of the C. P. R. strike has issued a statement, signed by Ash Kennedy, G. P. Pike, Ed Sawyer and D. C. Young, and reading as follows:

"We, the committee, think it due to the public and all parties concerned that the Committee of Conciliation should set right the existing misunderstanding. The strike was called because the executive of the company at Montreal refused to take up or discuss alleged grievances until they had first been presented to the divisional officers on the division where the grievances were supposed to exist and they had failed to adjust them. In this the company was right. The rules of the company and the rules of all organizations of employes provide for this method of presenting such matters to the company. The Committee of Conciliation did not discuss the alleged grievances of the operators. The only question discussed was the best means of having the strike declared off. The proposition, which has already been published, was presented to the company by the Conciliation Committee, representing the operators, and was accepted by the company."

LINING UP AFTER THE FAIRS.

Our Prize Clothing.

Our Clothing has had the call at all the Fairs. It was nothing new to find the Directors decorating our display with the Red Prize Tickets. It would have been a surprise if we didn't capture First Prize—not because competition was weak, but because the Clothing could not be bettered in Canada. The reputation of the big store was at stake, and we're more than proud to have deserved the good opinion of the directors as well as the thousands of men folk at the Fairs.

Now we're lining up for a rattling big fall business. We've had a good start already, but the price cards are becoming a more interesting study every day, and the figures startling enough to bring us the trade of the masses.

IS IT GOOD . . . ADVERTISING?

Trying to Build up Your Own Business by Pulling Other People's Down?

We appeal to the Ladies. Isn't it a little bit contemptible, as well as egotistical, to sneak of other stores as "LITTLE ONE-HORSE STORES?" Is it good taste for a firm who hold two or three slaughter sales a year for raising the wind for a trip to Europe, to say "WE DON'T HAVE TO RESORT TO FAKE SALES, NOR DO WE HAVE TO ADVERTISE AT COST?" We await the verdict of the Ladies.

THOSE 5c. FLANNELETTES.
You haven't heard the last of those 5c. Flannelettes of ours. Which caused such a sensation among the ladies. Didn't it prove that it was the "little" stores could turn out the genuine bargains? How the ladies did buy!—very near cleared out, before our repeat order came to hand. Get all you want now at 5c. per yard.

BOLD BLANKET TALK.
But the goods are here to back up the argument. Wool Blankets from 75c per up to $5. Blanket's won't be as cheap again is a hurry.

HOME-MADE FLANNEL.
There should be no shivering, with such a stock as this to pick from. Seldom has such white and grey home-made Flannel been offered at the prices. Cheap! Yes, but it's price cheapness only.

MANTLES AND MILLINERY.
Everything at the top-notch of style, fit, finish, material, make. Even prettier and newer things to be seen now than at the opening.

A SUDDEN SUMMONS

The Primate of All England Stricken Down.

WAS THE GUEST OF MR. GLADSTONE

Attacked by Apoplexy While Worshipping in Hawarden Yesterday Morning—The Service Was Abruptly Closed and the Dead March Was Played by the Organist.

London, Oct. 11.—Right Hon. and Most Rev. Edward White Benson, D.D., Archbishop of Canterbury, Primate of all England, and Metropolitan and Privy Councillor, died suddenly to-day, while attending divine service in the church at Hawarden. The Archbishop was the guest of Mr. Gladstone, through whom he was appointed to the Archbishopric of Canterbury, and in company with the Gladstone family went to the Hawarden Church this morning. After the service had commenced a commotion was noticed in the Gladstone pew, and immediately thereafter church attendants were seen removing the Archbishop, who, it was supposed, was suffering from a fit. He was taken to the rectory and medical assistance was hastily summoned. The doctors worked over him in vain, and at 11.45 he died. The physicians state that death was caused by apoplexy.

Archbishop Benson was 67 years of age. He was born near Birmingham in 1829 and was educated at King Edward's School, Birmingham, and at Trinity College, Cambridge. He was for some years one of the masters in Rugby school, and held the headmastership of Wellington College from its opening in 1858 down to 1872. In December, 1876, he was nominated by the Crown, on the recommendation of the Earl of Beaconsfield, to the Bishopric of Truro, and was consecrated in St. Paul's Cathedral, April 25, 1877. In December, 1882, Dr. Benson was appointed by the Crown, on Mr. Gladstone's recommendation, to the Archbishopric of Canterbury in succession to Dr. Tate.

The Archbishop and his wife arrived at Hawarden Castle, Mr. Gladstone's residence, Saturday evening. They had just come from the north of Ireland, where they had been visiting, and intended to make a short stay at Hawarden. The Archbishop appeared to be enjoying the best of health. He attended communion at the Hawarden Church at 8 o'clock this morning and then returned to the Castle, where he partook of breakfast with Mr. Gladstone and his family. Later he walked through the park to attend the morning service. The "confession" was proceeding when he fell forward. It was at first thought that he had a fit and that he would soon recover. The church attendants removed the Archbishop as quickly as possible, one of their number in the meantime summoning physicians. Rev. Stephen Gladstone, the rector of the church, continued the service until he received a message from the rectory that the Archbishop was dead. He then closed the service with the prayer for the dead from the burial service.

As the congregation were leaving the church the organist played a dead march, and a muffled peal was rung on the bells. Mr. Gladstone was not present at the church, the weather being severe and causing him to remain at home. He was greatly distressed when informed of the death of the Archbishop. They had been close friends for a long time.

The death was announced in many of the Episcopal and other churches in London and the provinces at the evening services, and much regret was expressed everywhere.

Archbishop Benson was esteemed by all sects for his moderation and broad mindedness.

The death of the Archbishop was announced at St. Paul's, London, at the afternoon service. The sad news quickly spread, and this evening there was a great assemblage at the cathedral. The preachers highly eulogized the dead Archbishop for his services of the Episcopal Church, for his personal uprightness of character and lovable disposition. After the service the organist played the "Dead March," the congregation standing as the solemn strains filled the edifice. The great bell of the cathedral was tolled in memory of the dead.

Dean Farrar paid an impressive tribute to the deceased Archbishop in Canterbury Cathedral. He said among other things that of Archbishop Benson's more than 90 predecessors none was endowed with more graceful learning, more charming geniality or holier or truer wisdom.

THE GRAIN STANDARDS.

Western Men Said to be Up in Arms Against the Proposed Changes—Other Winnipeg Items.

Winnipeg, Oct. 11.—(Special.)—Secretary Bell of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange has returned from Ottawa, where he went on behalf of western grain men and farmers to urge the Government not to carry out its proposed changes in the fixing of the grain standards. Mr. Bell did not make any impression on the Government, and trouble is surely brewing, for western grain dealers and producers think the proposed changes are arbitrary and unjust. On Saturday the chairman of the board selected to fix standards notified Toronto and Montreal members that the first meeting would be held at Winnipeg on the 21st.

The conference between the Federal and Manitoba Ministers on the settlement of the school question will take place in Ottawa on Tuesday next. Hon. Robert Watson left yesterday to join the other Manitoba Ministers at the Capital. Mr. Watson before leaving intimated that a basis of settlement had practically been agreed on, and he expected would speedily be ratified. When the school question is settled Manitoba Ministers will urge the Dominion Government to grant increased financial assistance to this country, and will also discuss immigration matters.

Hugh John Macdonald, in an interview on his return home, declared that Sir Charles Tupper was the only leader who could unite the Conservative factions in Ontario. He is confident that Sir Charles will re-organize the party and heal all differences.

Lord and Lady Aberdeen passed through Winnipeg on Saturday afternoon, en route to the coast. They spent Sunday at Regina.

There were two elevator fires Saturday, Lines' elevator at Edmonton and the Northern Elevator Co.'s building at Douglass being destroyed with the wheat they contained.

President Van Horne of the C. P. R. and party reached Winnipeg this afternoon en route to the Pacific Coast.

NEWCASTLE'S SCHOOL BURNED.

Only a Few Benches Were Saved Before the Building Was a Mass of Ruins.

Newcastle, Ont., Oct. 10.—At 4 a.m. to-day the now familiar cry of "Fire" was again heard in our streets, when it was learned that the High and Public school, erected thirty-five years ago at the south of the village, was ablaze. Trainmen saw the blaze in a porch on the south side of the east wing at about 3 o'clock, and, with the strong east wind, the main building and High school were soon a mass of flames. Half a dozen benches and a few books were saved, but the rest, including chemicals and a good set of experimenting appliances with a splendid library, were destroyed. Without a doubt it was the work of an incendiary. Insurance on school, $5400 in Lancashire and Royal companies. It will immediately be rebuilt.

LIVED 111 YEARS.

The Oldest Resident of Ottawa and Probably of the Dominion Has Just Passed Away.

Ottawa, Oct. 11.—(Special.)—Mrs. Philip O'Meara, the oldest resident of the city, and probably of the Dominion, died on Friday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. Ryan, Wellington-street. Mrs. O'Meara was born in Tipperary, Ireland, in 1785, and was, therefore, 111 years old. She was married when 20 years of age. Her husband died 47 years ago last March. They had a family of seven sons and one daughter. The sons that are alive are: Thomas O'Meara, Chicago; William O'Meara, Meeches' Lake; Philip and David O'Meara of Hintonburgh, near here. Mrs. O'Meara has 54 grand-children. One of her grandchildren is Constable O'Meara of the city police force. The exact number of her great grand-children is not known, but they are said to be nearly three hundred. She had at least four great great grand-children.

GOOD-BYE, AUSTRALIANS!

Chicago, Oct. 11.—The match between the Australian team and the Wanderers' team was ended yesterday, the visitors winning by an innings and 87 runs. The totals for the match were as follows:

Wanderers, first innings, 105; second innings, 93.

Australians, first innings, 285.

To-night the Australians left the city for San Francisco, where they will take the steamer to New Zealand.

Prominent Cornwall Man Dead.

Cornwall, Oct. 11.—Robert Craig, sr., passed away to-night at 5 o'clock. Mr. Craig was a Scotchman, having been born in Ayrshire, Scotland. He emigrated to Canada and lived first at Glenwalter, east of here, and afterwards at Cornwall, where he accumulated a fortune in the tannery business. Mr. Craig was one of the most prominent and respected citizens of the town, and his death is generally regretted. He was 84 years of age.

A REMARKABLE CASE

Wealthy San Franciscans in Jail in London.

THEY ARE CHARGED WITH LARCENY

London Shopkeepers Allege That They Stole Goods by Wholesale—The Woman in the Case Said to be a Victim of Kleptomania—Bail Refused.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Castle, well known and wealthy residents of San Francisco, were arrested in London charged with the wholesale larceny of many articles from various shopkeepers. Their trunks were searched at their hotel and goods, alleged to have been stolen, to the money value of $2500 were there found. Mr. Castle vehemently asserts his own innocence, as well as that of his wife. They are still in jail, bail having been refused.

A Most Remarkable Case

New York, Oct. 11.—Julian Ralph cables from London as follows to The Journal:

At the United States Embassy, at Scotland Yard, and in the offices of the London newspapers, which do not dare to print a word of it, the Castle case is said to be the strangest and most interesting of its peculiar kind in the recollection of living men.

There lie in jail a respectable and wealthy merchant of San Francisco and an attractive and intelligent wife, against whom not a word of reproach has been uttered or written in forty years, and yet they are charged with the persistent and indiscriminate larceny of goods, both valuable and trifling, carried on for months, not only in England, but all over the Continent.

There is no gainsaying the fact that many men who know the facts in the case believe the charge to be true against either the man or the woman, or both. Some hold the woman guilty and the man innocent; some declare that the woman is an exemplification of the most extraordinary case of acute kleptomania ever met with.

But the shopkeepers who suffered by the alleged thefts insist that in every case charged, Castle was with his wife and remained behind her, being always last to leave the shop.

Never did respectable man and woman find themselves in a deeper, darker pit than these two are in, and yet their friends are of such character, so powerful, so respectable, and so numerous, that intelligent spectators await with acute anxiety the solution of the strange puzzle. How such damning evidence could accrue against persons hitherto so worthy is yet to be explained.

Said one of the United States Embassy officials to-day:

"This case has at least half a dozen features which place it far above any other case with which the Embassy has had to deal. For three days the Embassy has been bombarded by sheaves of cablegrams and inundated by hosts of callers, all offering testimony as to the high standing and reputation of the Castles, and offering any and every assistance possible to help clear him from the trouble in which he finds himself."

Two million pounds sterling have been placed at the disposal of the Embassy with which to furnish bail for Castle, and, to all appearances, as much more could easily be obtained here in London from people who know him, so great is the interest taken in the case, and so strong is the faith of individuals in Castle's probity.

Secretary of State Olney has sent two urgent telegrams to the Embassy, urging that every proper assistance be rendered to Castle, and there is no doubt that every possible means is being used by the Embassy to be of assistance.

Charles Mathews, one of the cleverest criminal lawyers in England, has been retained to assist in the defence. The matter has now been taken out of the hands of the police and placed in charge of the Public Prosecutor, which means that the case will be pushed through to whatever end the facts may lead.

The evidence is very strong and there is not likely to be any attempt made to deny the larcenies. A most amazing mass of miscellaneous stuff was found in the Castle's trunks, a fact which seems to indicate that Mrs. Castle had a mania for picking up odd trifles of every description belonging to other people.

There were even found in her trunks a pair of sheets from the bed she slept in at a big London hotel and a plated toast rack that came from the hotel breakfast table. There were also articles of private or semi-private ownership, got in various parts of the Continent. Many watches, all alike, and thirteen umbrella heads were in the collection.

I have heard it hinted among people who have known the Castles well that Mr. Castle has been aware for some time of his wife's peculiarity, and had done everything in man's power to guard against it and to straighten out complications where he could do so.

Late last night I heard from his lawyers respecting their line of defence. They are confident that, so far as Mr. Castle, at least, is concerned, the magistrate will be obliged to say that there is no case. The police theory that such a large collection of property could not have been amassed by Mrs. Castle without the knowledge of her husband is, they contend, in no way warranted by facts.

Although a large number of additional charges will be made at the next hearing, the police admit that there is little or no fresh evidence to connect Mr. Castle with the alleged larcenies.

It is possible that, on medical evidence, the charges may be dismissed, but, as to this, the prisoner's legal advisers are not very sanguine.

Decreased Sugar Crop

Washington, Oct. 11.—A report received at the State Department from Consul Germain, stationed at Zurich, gives the estimate of the world's sugar crop for the season 1895-96 as calculated by a paper devoted to sugar interests. The estimate places the crop at 7,069,756 tons against 8,2 8,371 tons for the previous season. In the estimate the best sugar-producing countries, excluding the United States, participated to the amount of 4,236 100 tons, as against 4,668,500 in 1894-95. The visible world's supply, excluding new crop, but including cargoes afloat is estimated to be 1,371,356 tons, as against 1,560,412 tons last year this time.

Mothers

Anxiously watch declining health of their daughters. So many are cut off by consumption in early years that there is real cause for anxiety. In the early stages, when not beyond the reach of medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore the quality and quantity of the blood and thus give good health. Read the following letter:

"It is but just to write about my daughter Cora, aged 19. She was completely run down, declining, had that tired feeling, and friends said she would not live over three months. She had a bad and nothing seemed to do her any good. I happened to read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and had her give it a trial. From the very first dose she began to get better. After taking a few bottles she was completely cured and her health has been the best ever since." MRS. ADDIE PECK, 12 Railroad Place, Amsterdam, N. Y.

"I will say that my mother has not stated my case in as strong words as I would have done. Hood's Sarsaparilla has truly cured me and I am now well." CORA PECK, Amsterdam, N. Y.

OFFENSIVE PARTIZANSHIP.

Our evening contemporary, the Review, claims in an article in a late issue that it "had not heard," though at least it must have read—when the leaders of its party had brought before the House of Commons the question of the removal of what may be and have been termed "active partisan officials;" and, after referring to an article that appeared in the EXAMINER a few days ago, says that the Conservative press is not "whining piteously" over the loss of office by a few partisan officials. If it is not complaining why take up a column with complaints on the subject? No one has ever heard of a Liberal complaining of the removal from office of Liberal officials who had participated actively and offensively in an election contest; but they do complain that it did not require active partizanship to remove Liberal officials from office under Tory administration—the mere fact that a Tory wanted the office was sufficient. Offending Liberal officials took the medicine prescribed for the symptoms they themselves furnished and one of the prescriptions was signed by Dr. Tupper as follows:

April 7th, 1883.

Mr. James Ryan, Moncton:

"My dear Sir,—In reply to your letters of the 17th November and the 9th February, on the subject of the dismissal of your son from the service of the Intercolonial Railway, I have to state that the reason for his dismissal was that he openly took a very active part in opposition to the Government at the last general election. This, as you will readily understand, no Government officers could be permitted to do, and your son's action was so conspicuous that it could not be passed over.

Yours faithfully,
CHARLES TUPPER." (M. D.)

The Dr. Tupper, who signed the above letter was the gentleman now known as Sir Charles Tupper, then Minister of Railways and Canals. In the letter he lays down the principle that a public official, who has offensively interested himself in an election contest deserves no consideration. Thus he established a precedent for the guidance of the Conservative party, and a precedent with which the Review and other Conservative journals found no fault. But the minute the principle is applied and the precedent followed by a Liberal government we find these same journals, shocked, to the centre of their sensitive souls, over the depravity of a Liberal Government. We cannot think of entering into a discussion with our journalistic confrere over the definition of a partizan official, from the simple fact that we could not expect to convince him of the possibility of a Conservative official being guilty of offensive partisanship, or that one had been so. There is no record of where the Review has condemned a single Conservative for such an offence. But the instances are as thick as blackberries where the Review has denounced in a Liberal official, what it has, by its silence, approved of in a member of its own party. But we have no doubt whatever that Liberals, who may actively take part in election contests, would, without whining, be prepared to accept the consequences that might follow a change of government, and officials in supporting the late Dominion Government can not complain from a party point of view, if they were visited with the penalties for offensive partisanship that follow the defeat of the party they worked so hard to make successful. However, speaking for the EXAMINER itself, we not not believe in that sort of practical politics. In this regard there is no room for the pot indulging in recriminations against the kettle, for it is well known that officials of both the Local and Dominion Governments have actively participated in political struggles. Having done so, these officials have of course come within the operation of the penality of the precedent established in 1883 by Sir Charles Tupper. Our contemporary which is perhaps the most inconsistent newspaper printed in Ontario, desires Mr. Laurier to "lay down the principle that on and after this date no official will be allowed to remain in the public service if he becomes an active campaigner." The Review desires this in order to protect and keep in office all those officials who have been active campaigners in behalf of the Conservative party for the past eighteen years; and it also desires to set up a standard of virtue for Mr. Laurier, which will save "Tory" government officials, from the dismissal which would have been richly deserved and administered too, by Sir Charles, mutatis mutandis, in the case of "Grits." The Review has defended so far as known, everything that has been bad in politics for the past eighteen years. Seldom, if ever, has it been known to treat a political opponent with fairness, not to say generosity. Of the only three Liberal officials in this district that were in the employ of the Dominion government in 1878, two had to walk the plank, and the third, by his illness and death, escaped a like fate, but did not escape, the annoyance of harrassing tactics employed to force a resignation where there was positively and absolutely no excuse for dismissal, either in respect of inefficient or dishonest discharge of duty, or interference in political contests. Mr. Fred. Hall, inspector of weights and measures, was a local example of the fate that befel inspectors of weights and measures throughout the Dominion, a change of law being the medium employed, but the immediate enactment of another law, gave the opportunity of refilling the offices with gentlemen who were in sympathy with the Conservative party. A local Conservative of course replaced a Liberal in the office in question. The Review made no complaint whatever but gloried in the astuteness of the legislative lexerdemain that had bowled over all the Liberal officials like a row of ninepins. When Mr. Geo. Cochrane was removed from the position of fishery overseer, and Mr. G. W. Fitzgerald, an active Conservative partisan, appointed in his place, and the subordinates replaced by Conservatives, the Review had not a word of condemnation of the decapitation of Geo. Cochrane to give an office to a political partisan in the person of Geo. W. Fitzgerald. And no ground of complaint could be found by Mr. Fitzgerald if he were asked to restore to the political party the office that had been bestowed upon him (Mr. Fitzgerald) for purely party purposes, and the inspectorate of weights and measures might reasonably be included in the operation of the same principle if the conditions of the offices were restored. At the same time we do not believe in the principle that "to the victors belong the spoils." It is a universally recognized practice that vacancies are properly, as they are naturally, filled by the friends of the party in power. We believe that the people would be better satisfied if the law were so made that officials should be debarred from active participation in political campaigns. But, so long as interference in election contests is permitted by both parties, those who by active partizanship place themselves within the scope of the system laid down in 1883 by Sir Charles Tupper, must expect to accept the fate of the party with which they have identified themselves. If both Liberal and Conservative officials are prepared to take the risk involved in active participation in party politics, neither should complain if they have to pay the penalty. And if the operation of this principle—applied to offensive partizans only—serves to keep officials clear from participation in the turmoil of party politics, the public who, after all, pay the the salaries, will be better satisfied. What the public want is that their servants should perform their duties efficiently and that they should receive fair treatment at the hands of both political parties.

TO KILL OFF THE WHITES

Discovery of a Bastardly Negro Plot in Carroll County, Miss.—Several Leaders Arrested.

Grenade, Miss., Oct. 10.—The white people of Carroll County are excited over the discovery of a negro plot to inaugurate a war of extermination. Word from Carroll to-night is that a letter was found in the road addressed to a negro, which proposed the plot. A secret society of negroes had negotiated for the purchase of arms, and was then to proceed to the slaughter of the whites. Several leaders have been arrested and the excitement is intense. Further particulars are anxiously awaited. Carroll County is the home of Senator Money. A number of negroes were killed in a riot there a few years ago, and bad blood still exists.

Criminal Statistics.

The criminal statistics for the year ending Sept. 30, 1895, have been issued from Ottawa. The convictions in Canada for all offences, minor and serious, number 27,585, or one convict'on to each 134 inhabitants, a slight increase as compared with 1894. The convictions for indictable or serious offences were 5474, and the summary convictions were 22,111, 11,553 of the latter being for drunkenness. For indictable offences 4412 were first convictions and the proportion of convictions for serious offences for each 10,000 inhabitants ranged from 3.57 in Prince Edward Island to 24.54 in British Columbia. The proportion in Ontario was 12.90. The trials for murder were 20, resulting in 5 convictions and 10 acquittals, the remainder being disagreements, etc. There were 194 commutations and pardons.

These provincial appointments were gazetted on Saturday:

The loss, while not fully known, is covered by insurance.

SHERIFF M'INTYRE DEAD.

Regret at Cornwall is Universal—Was in the Hands of the Rebels in 1837—His Career.

Cornwall, Ont., Oct. 10.—Sheriff McIntyre died to-night at 7 o'clock. The Sheriff's death, although not unexpected, is universally regretted. His family were by his bedside at the last.

Daniel Eugene McIntyre, M.D., Sheriff of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry was a Scotchman by birth, having been born in February, 1812, at Oban, Argyleshire, Scotland. His father was James McIntyre, a captain in the British merchant marine. The Sheriff was educated in his parish school and afterwards took a medical course in Glasgow University. In 1835 he emigrated to Canada and settled at Williamstown, Glengarry, where he practised his profession for fifteen years. In 1837 he married Ann, daughter of Col. Alexander Fraser of Fraserfield, Glengarry County. The same year the rebellion broke out and Dr. McIntyre was attached to the 1st Glengarry Regiment as regimental surgeon. He was captured by the rebels while going down the St. Lawrence and imprisoned at Beauharnois for two weeks. In 1850 he was appointed sheriff of these counties, the position being rendered vacant by the elevation of his predecessor to the wardenship of the Kingston Penitentiary. Sheriff McIntyre has had numerous municipal offices in Charlottenburgh and Cornwall, and was the first warden of the united counties. His wife and two children, Mr. A. F. McIntyre, Q.C., of Ottawa, and Mrs. George S. Jarvis of Cornwall, survive him. The funeral will take place on Tuesday to Williamstown.

BIKE THIEF CAUGHT.

He Gave the Name of George Smith and Said He Was an Orphan Belonging to Port Jervis, N.Y.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Oct. 11.—(Special.)—Officer Mains bagged a slick young bicycle thief at the G. T. R. depot here yesterday afternoon. The prisoner, who gives his name as George Smith, claims to be an orphan living at Port Jervis, N. Y., and that he left home for Niagara Falls last week. On Monday afternoon he rented a bicycle from Ward's livery at this place for a few hours and rode off with it through Tilsonburg and western towns. Ae Jarvis he tried to sell it to the proprietor of the Exchange Hotel for $25, but before the deal was completed he left the town, leaving the wheel to the police, who had been notified of the steal while he was tramping it home. The prisoner is about 19 years of age, and appears to be well acquainted with petty crimes. Later reports are to the effect that Smith is a professional at the business, and that he has sold several stolen bikes at Port Jervis. The local police inspected several shell and wheel crooks from across the river who were passing through here on their way to the fall fairs yesterday, but nothing warranted their holding them.

THE WORLD'S WHEAT SUPPLY.

A Decrease as Compared With Last Year of 185,485,542 Bushels—Rye Also Shows a Heavy Decrease.

Washington, D.C., Oct. 11.—United States Consul-General Karel at St. Petersburg has supplied the State Department with exhaustive statistics of the world's wheat harvest of 1896. His figures show that in general the harvest of this year decreased 185,485,542 bushels as compared with the harvest of 1895. The harvest in the United States, Canada, Argentine, Uruguay, Chile, Australia and the East Indies shows a decrease of 165,392,959 bushels. Of the European producing countries, Russia only shows a large decrease, viz., 56,575,467 bushels. The countries of Consumption harvested 37,205,123 bushels more than last year. The rye harvest shows a still greater decrease proportionately, it being estimated at 154,765,714 bushels. A decrease in oats and barley is also noticeable, but not to so great an extent. The exports of cereals from Russia during the first eight months of 1896 show a big decrease compared with the preceding year, being 192,440,651 bushels, as against 241,254,078 bushels.

THE COLDWATER MEET.

Coldwater, Oct. 10.—The first annual meet of the Coldwater Bicycle Club, held here, was a decided success, the weather being fine, though cold, a somewhat brisk east wind blowing across the track all afternoon. The attendance was very satisfactory. Some good racing was done, but owing to recent rains, and the track being low, caused it to be very heavy, which accounts for the slow time made in most of the events, which resulted as follows:

One mile, amateur—T Moore, Toronto, 1; R F White, Waubaushene, 2; John Davidson, Toronto, 3. Also started: D W McLaren, J. Churchill, H Hulse, A McEachren. McEachren claimed a foul on H F White, but it was not allowed. Time 2.53.

Two-thirds mile, boys' race—G Perry, Orillia, 1; Jas Boyle, 2; H Caswell, S Caswell and Boyle fell on second lap, Perry finishing alone, which accounts for the slow time of 2.45.

Five mile team race—S Moore, A McEachren, H Hulse, Toronto, 1; J Gilpin, R White, W Tool, Orillia, 2; J W Craig, D W McLaren, D H Ward, Barrie 3. Score: Toronto 21 points, Orillia 15 points, Barrie 6 points. Time 16.35.

Three mile, amateur—H Hulse 1, T Moore 2, A McEachren 3. Also started: John Davidson. Time 10.34½.

Two-thirds mile, named race—Geo Abbott 1, John Mauer 2, S D Effett 3. Time 2.53.

Two miles, country race—W Prest, Orillia, 1; J Gilpen, Orillia 2. Also started: H Yates, Orillia; B J White, J Craig, D Ward, J Churchill, D W McLaren, and S Robins. Time 6.23 1-5.

BALD BEAT SANGER.

Milwaukee, Oct. 10.—Four thousand people attended the bicycle meet held at National Park this afternoon.

The feature of the day was a match race, mile heats, for a purse of $100, between R. C. Bald and W. C. Sanger of this city. Bald won the race in straight heats. The track was in fine condition, but a stiff wind up the stretch bothered the riders considerably. In the first heat Bald had the position behind the tandem, trailed closely by Sanger. As they swung into the stretch Bald jumped the tandem and Sanger, following, attempted to pass Bald, but was unable to do so. Bald winning by a wheel's length. Time 2.10. In the second heat the order behind the tandem was reversed, but Sanger could not keep in front down the stretch, and Bald won handily by two lengths. Time 2.05 1-5, which breaks the track record previously held by Sanger.

Sanger also rode an unpaced exhibition half mile in one minute flat. Con Reluke of Milwaukee lowered the one-mile paced amateur State record, riding the distance in 2.05 3-5. Summaries:

Half-mile open, professional—W. F. Sanger, Milwaukee, 1; C. C. Ingraham, Aurora, Ill., 2; J. P. Bliss, Chicago, 3. Time 1.16 2-5.

One-mile handicap, professional—Henry Kanaska (175 yards), 1; John Muss, Milwaukee (100 yards), 2; A. F. Klingelhelmer, Milwaukee (60 yards), 3. Time 2.00 1-5.

GRIST FROM OTTAWA

Northwest Butter Sold Well in England.

TWENTY-TWO AND A HALF CENTS

Was Realized in Liverpool on a Shipment From Prince Albert Creamery—Surveyor Low Returns From His Exploring Trip to Hudson Bay—Notes.

Ottawa, Oct. 11.—As an instance of what Canadian dairymen may be able to achieve it may be mentioned that butter from the creamery of Prince Albert has found ready sale in London and Liverpool, netting a hundred and four shillings per hundredweight, or over 22 1-2 cents per pound. When the fifteen creameries which are to be run under Government supervision in Manitoba and the Territories next year are in complete working order it is expected there will be a considerable quantity of butter available for export from that section of Canada.

On Thursday last a letter was received at the Geological Survey Department from Mr. A. P. Low of the survey staff, who left Ottawa in May for an exploration trip through Northeastern Labrador. This letter was dated June 2, at Great Whale River, on the shores of Hudson Bay. Almost simultaneously with the arrival of the letter Mr. Low himself has reached Ottawa. With him are two Indians whom he engaged at Mattawa, and who had shared with him the perils of a journey of three thousand miles. Leaving Mattawa, Mr. Low struck north from the head of Lake Temiscamingue over the height of land to Hudson Bay; thence striking the coast of the Bay east and north for four hundred miles, the party struck eastward through Clear Water Lake to the height of land, where they found the north branch of the Ungava River. Thence they journeyed down the river to Ungava, on Hudson Straits, which they reached on the 1st of September. Here on the 15th they were enabled to take the Hudson Bay Co.'s steamer, which conveyed them to Rigolet, on Newfoundland Labrador. There they found a sailing schooner, which was coming to Bic, Lower St. Lawrence, and with favorable winds they made the journey of a thousand miles in five days. From Bic the home run was made with far less hardship and discomfort than the earlier part of the journey.

Mr. Low states that the country throughout which he passed contains very little timber. Indeed, the country throughout is barren. Iron was found in abundance along the route, but no coal was seen. Only once before, as far as Mr. Low can ascertain, has this route been traversed by a white man, a missionary named Peck, making the journey ten or fifteen years ago.

Black Rod does not like the report that he is to be wiped out officially. His friends say there is no foundation whatever for the reports that are current. An inspired communication in a local paper says there would probably be some trouble in abolishing the office, which has always been recognized as an essential one in the constitution. It dates in England from the time of Henry VII. In Canada the usher of the Black Rod is recognised as an officer of the Governor-General's household, as well as of Parliament. This story is a little too thin. If the Government makes up its mind to wipe out the office, wiped out it will be.

Chief Inspector Sweetnam of the Postoffice Department has closed an investigation into the alleged irregularities at the Quebec Postoffice. One of the charges was that copies of a certain Conservative campaign sheet during the late elections had been allowed to pass through the postoffice for political purposes without the prepayment of the postal fees. Mr. Sweetnam has reported to the Department that there was general carelessness at the postoffice in regard to this and other matters of a similar kind. The result of it has been that the officials have got off with a reprimand.

According to advices received at the Department of Indian Affairs there is likely to be destitution among the Indians on the north shore of the St. Lawrence and the Labrador coast, although this does not tally with Commander Wakeham's report. The Government has taken precautions to have the Indians looked after, and cases of need will be properly attended to. On the whole, however, applications for relief, which are usually sent into the Indian Department approaching the winter season, are this year fewer in number than is usually the case.

Mr. Laurier, Sir Richard Cartwright and other members of the Government have been invited down to Montreal to inspect the new steamship Canada, and to take part in a luncheon to be given this week on board the greyhound of the St. Lawrence.

Professor Prince, Commissioner of Fisheries, received by Saturday's mail a box containing four of the tiniest lobsters that mortal eye ever gazed upon. They are not more than half an inch long, and were caught near Richibucto. The Commissioner states it is a very rare thing to get such small crustaceans.

Sir Charles and Lady Tupper were among the congregation of St. George's Church this morning. At the close of the service the organist played Mendelssohn's Wedding March in honor of the golden wedding of the Baronet and his good lady. It is said the value of the presents received by Sir Charles and Lady Tupper during the past few days approximates $10,000.

LEND YOUR EARS

To Your Back and Listen to its Talk—A Peterborough Man Tries It.

Did you know the back could talk;
Tell you why it aches and pains;
Tell you why it's lame and weak;
Warn you of the kidney's ills;
Tell you of Doan's Kidney Pills?
Listen to them when they speak.
Relieve the kidneys, cure the ache.
Bad back, acute pains and kidney ills,
Are quickly cured by Doan's Kidney Pills.

Here is proof of it at home. The testimony of Mr. George N. Graham, the genial host of the Oriental Hotel, Peterborough, is as follows:—

He says:—"I have been a great sufferer for some time with pain across the back, extending up between the shoulders, swelling of the limbs, dizziness, loss of appetite, and in fact felt completely broken up.

"I had lost 17 pounds in three months, and thought that I would never get better. I have taken many kinds of patent medicines, and have also been treated by medical men, but did not seem to get any better at all, in fact was constantly growing worse.

"I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertisement and got a box of them at Lynch's drugstore, and by the time I had taken one box noticed a marked change for the better.

"I have taken seven boxes altogether, and am now free from pain; the swelling in the limbs has disappeared, and my appetite is good. In fact, I feel that I am completely cured.

"I can heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to those suffering from any form of kidney trouble. They are the best kidney medicine I have ever used.

Signed, GEO. N. GRAHAM.

MUSICAL INFORMATION!

A GOOD PIANO IS A LIBERAL EDUCATION.

What is there that so opens the mind to good and gentle inspiration as music?

What is there so inspiring or enobling in its influence? The music however must be good music. And good music cannot be produced from a bad Piano. The influence of the most charming voice or the most perfect violin, however well handled, is destroyed if accompanied by a bad piano.

MASON & RISCH PIANOS ARE THE INSTRUMENTS OF THE CULTURED.

They are found in the homes of our most refined and wealthiest citizens, where the Piano is viewed not as a mere article of furniture, but as the interpreter of our deepest feelings.

The prices of Mason & Risch Pianos are not unreasonable, quality considered, in fact they are much lower than most people suppose, but they give satisfaction from the first, and they last.

Our terms of payment are most liberal and we give straight cash quotations, without any nonsense about catalogue prices. We invite correspondence, and will mail catalogues and lists of purchasers free on application.

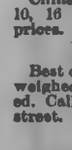
Tenders for Pine.

By reference to an advertisement in another column it will be seen that the Government of the Dominion are asking for tenders for the pine timber on Island No. 107, Stony Lake, in the County of Peterborough, part of which has been burned and part remains green. The estimated report is that there are about 5,000 feet board measure, which must be cut and removed during the ensuing winter. Of course it is subject to crown dues of $1 per thousand feet.

Friday Night's Entertainment.



It is a positive fact that more ladies and children have been entertained and delighted with "The Burglar," than with any other play of recent years. The character of little Editha is so beautifully and charmingly conceived that even men feel as if they would like to stand upon the stage for a moment just to hug her. "The Burglar" will be in the opera house on Friday night next. Prices, 25, 35 and 50c.

HON. A. G. BLAIR COMING.

The Minister of Railways and Canals to Inspect the Route of the T.V.C.

As the result of the recent visit of the deputation to Ottawa, when Hon. A. G. Blair, Minister of Railways and Canals promised to go over the route of the Trent Valley Canal, that Minister has announced his intention of taking the trip this week, and preparations are being made to enable him to make a complete inspection in the quickest possible manner.

The inspection of the route will begin at Trenton, where the minister will be entertained at a banquet the first evening.

At Hastings he will be met by a deputation on a steamer from Peterborough, and will be brought up the Trent River to Rice Lake and on up the Otonabee to Peterborough. From here he will drive along the line of canal to Lakefield and be taken by steamer to Young's Point. Here he will be met by one of the big Lindsay steamers and taken on through to Fenelon Falls and thence over the Kirkfield section.

On the occasion of the last trip over the canal by a minister, the Peterborough council voted $1,000.00 to assist in defraying the expenses of the trip, and the members will be asked, it is understood, to assist in defraying the expenses this time. The exact day upon which Hon. Mr. Blair will begin his trip has not as yet been ascertained.

GRADUATING EXERCISES

The medals will be presented to the successful candidates by Dr. Fife, whilst Dr. Pierson will award the bandaging competition prize. There will also be a musical programme.

MARK STREET CHURCH ANNIVERSARY EXERCISES.

Both Sermons Yesterday Were Taken by Rev. T. J. Edmison, B.A., B.D., of Lakefield.

Anniversary services were held in the Mark street Methodist church, Ashburnham, yesterday, and at both morning and evening service the edifice was crowded to the doors, the choir having to be utilized for seating accommodation.

Rev. T. J. Edmison, B.A., B.D., of Lakefield, delivered both sermons. In the morning he spoke from the text "Only Believe," and made a strong appeal to his hearers to take up the cross of Christ. In the evening Mr. Edmison took as his text:

They that be wise shall shine bright as the firmament.—Daniel xii, 3.

The speaker spoke of Daniel's consistency as an example all should endeavour to follow. He condemned the wishy-washy religion of the man who called himself a Christian and yet could not stand adversity—the man who gained his standing as a Christian because nothing could be said of him. The honourable and upright men, he claimed, were those who hewed to the line and consequently made some enemies. Daniel made enemies, but his Christian fortitude was enough to withstand them, even though as a test of his faith he had to brave the lions. He earnestly exhorted his hearers to stand up boldly for Christ and not to be diverted from the straight but narrow path. Daniel, he thought, would have required to have been even a more steadfast Christian to be able to withstand the temptations of the present century.

This evening a tea meeting and concert will be held in the Ashburnham Town Hall. Tea will be served from 5.30 until 8 o'clock, at which hour the concert will begin.

GAOL STATISTICS.

THE PETERBOROUGH COUNTY PRISON REPORT.

Some Interesting Data Concerning the Inmates of Castle Nesbitt During the Past Year.

Sheriff Hall has just completed the compilation of the statistics of the Peterborough county goal for the year ending September 30th, 1896, and the chief items items of interest will be found appended.

During the entire year it will be noted that only thirteen females were committed. Unfortunately seven person of unsound mind had to be confined in the gaol with the criminals. None of the offences committed were apparently of an extreme nature, as only one prisoner was sentenced to a term of over three years, and only five for over three months.

That marriage is not altogether a failure is proven by the fact that two thirds of the prisoners were unmarried.

Fifty-one of the prisoners were tramps, showing that a more drastic system should be adopted in dealing with these gentry. Harder work than that at present given them should be devised.

From the report the following facts are gathered: The number of persons remaining in the gaol on Oct. 1st was 14—13 males and 2 females; number committed during year, 160; number committed under 16 years of age, 11; number committed 16 years of age and over, 149; number committed for first offence, 100; number committed over three times, 16; number of unsound mind, 7; sent to Central Prison, 13; to Mercer Reformatory for Women, 2; to Penetang, 1; died in gaol, 2; sentenced to less than 30 days, 21; to six months, 20; one year, 3; three years, 1; maintained by Government, 19; by municipality, 141; Government prisoners were in custody 920 days; municipal prisoners, 4,563 days.

The nationalities of the persons were as follows: Canadian, 97; English, 22; Irish, 27; Scotch, 8; "Yankees," 6.

Their religion was as follows: Roman Catholic, 51; Church of England, 53; Presbyterian, 13; Methodist, 30; other denominations, 13.

Number of persons married, 52; unmarried, 108.

Prisoners unable to read or write, 28.

Prisoners temperate, 86; intemperate, 74.

Expenditure for food, clothing, fuel, etc $1,091.03; for officers' salaries, $1,350.00.

The daily cost per prisoner for rations was 12 cents.

The greatest number of prisoners confined in the gaol at any one time was 22 and the lowest 9.

At present there are two prisoners awaiting trial, five under sentence for two months or under, and nine for periods of over two months.

Of the persons committed during the year, five were sentenced for assault, one for attempted suicide, six for abduction, one for burglary, three for carrying unlawful weapons, one for contempt of court, two for cutting and wounding, ten for being drunk and disorderly, three for obstructing constables, one for fraud, five for housebreaking and robbery, fifty-four for larceny, seven lunatics, two for rape, one for receiving stolen goods, four for trespass, fifty-one for vagrancy.

The occupations followed by those committed was as appended:—Commercial travellers 4, bakers 2, blacksmiths 1, bricklayers 2, butchers 1, engineers 6, farmers 7, grocers 1, labourers 83, lumberers 1, masons 1, plumbers and painters 10, prostitutes 2, sailors 6, school teachers 3, servants 6, tanners 2, weavers 1, other occupations 28.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Wheel Talk and Items of Local and General Interest to Sportsmen.

LACROSSE.

THE EXAMINER boys had no difficulty in defeating the players from the down town contemporary on Saturday by two goals to one. The EXAMINER had all the best of the game as usual and kept the ball on their opponents' goal almost continuously. They had more contend against than the Saturday previous as their opponents had enlisted the services of Rubidge, LeBar, and Burley, who did their best to "do" the EXAMINER out of the game. A spectator of the match is so enthused over the way in which EXAMINER team played that he has left a marked cheque of $25.00 to back his opinion that the EXAMINER can again win at the third match to be played on Saturday.

THE ROAD RACE.

Entries for the big Peterborough road race still continue to come in. A large number of married men are going to try and land the special prize, which is offered for the first one of the class who crosses the line. Another special prize is offered for the first rider over the mark whose weight is over 190 pounds.

CURLIANA.

At a meeting of the Lindsay curlers on Friday night the following officers were elected:—

President—Geo. A. Little.
Vice-President—F. Knowlson.
Secretary—J. C. Harstone.
Chaplain—Rev. L. S. Hughson.
Treasurer—J. D. Flavelle.

The members then selected the following club skips by ballot:—

1, S Armour,	13, G A Little,
2, T Brodie,	14, R Miller,
3, J Cruso,	15, Dr McAlpine,
4, W Dundas,	16, D McGibbon,
5, J G Edwards,	17, L McIntosh,

10, M W Kennedy,	22, T Pratt,
11, F Knowlson,	23, Dr Simpson,
12, J M Knowlson,	24, W H Simpson.

It was decided that the players taking part in the provincial points competition should be limited to the 20 making the best average in two preliminary competitions, and that the competition should take place under the best conditions of ice and weather possible to obtain.

THE RINK IMPROVEMENTS.

Mr. G. H. Hopkins stated that a contract had been let for the improvements contemplated last season. The front portion of the rink will be made two storeys high, so as to give two additional rooms on the ground floor and a large one upstairs for the use of the members, at a cost of $300. Two platforms the full length of the rink had also been constructed for the use of spectators, at a cost of $40.

THEY WILL HOLD A BONSPIEL.

The advisability of holding a big bonspiel about the second week of January was discussed with great enthusiasm, and the members were heartily in favour of the idea. A committee, comprising Messrs. MacGachan, Needler, J. M. Knowlson, Harstone, M. W. Kennedy, Dr. Simpson and Rev. J. W. McMillan, will look after the details, and report later on to the club.

LEWIS CARTWRIGHT IS DEAD.

The Youngest Son of Sir Richard Succumbs to the Illness Which Was Reported on Saturday.

Lindsay, Ont., Oct. 11.—Lewis Cartwright, the youngest son of Sir Richard Cartwright, died here this morning at 7 o'clock. He was only taken ill on Wednesday, and not until yesterday did his symptoms cause any alarm, when he sank rapidly. In addition to the local physicians in constant attendance, Drs. Cameron and Primrose of Toronto were summoned immediately the case became alarming. Sir Richard and Lady Cartwright, with two other members of the family, were met by Mr. Hugh O'Leary, Q. C., at Port Hope with a special train and they reached the bedside shortly before his death. He had only been in Lindsay one week, having been assigned to a position in the Bank of Montreal here. During this short period he had made himself a great favorite, so that universal sorrow is felt over the event. The whole town is moved to sympathy as it seldom was before, as the circumstances are intensely sad. The funeral will be from the family residence, "The Maples," on Tuesday, whence the body is to be removed tomorrow.

Sir Richard arrived in Peterborough from Ottawa early Sunday morning on the C. P. R. and was met here by Lady Cartwright, who came from Kingston via the G.T.R. Both proceeded to Lindsay on a Grand Trunk special, taking with them Miss Clark, of the Nicholls Hospital nursing staff. Unfortunately the parents only arrived at the bedside of their son in time to witness his demise, as he died just two hours after their arrival.

THE GAME LAWS.

An Act to Make Further Provisions for the Protection of Game.

As the public is continually seeking information regarding the provisions of the game laws, the Act of 1896 is herewith published in full :

I. No person shall at any time hunt, pursue, kill, wound or capture any deer in the waters of any river or lake within the limits of the Province of Ontario, or immediately after leaving such waters, and any person carrying a rifle, carbine or shot gun, and stationed in a canoe, skiff, punt or boat of any kind, at or near any place where hunted deer are likely to enter the water during the open season, shall prima facie be deemed to be engaged in hunting or pursuing deer within the meaning of this section.

II.—(1) No person who is a resident of and domiciled in the Province of Ontario shall hunt, take, kill, wound or destroy any deer without first having obtained a license in that behalf under the provisions hereinafter set forth.

(2) Every such license shall be signed by the Chief Fish and Game Warden and countersigned by the Provincial Secretary or his deputy, and shall be in force for one season only, and the fee for such license shall be two dollars.

(3) There shall be attached to each license two shipping coupons, one of which shall be signed and detached by the person to whom the license is issued in the presence of the shipping agent at the point of shipment, and attached to each deer or part of a deer about to be shipped, and such coupon shall be cancelled by the carrier on arrival at the point of destination by writing across the face thereof "cancelled."

(4) Sub-section 5 of section 2 of the Ontario Game Protection Act, 1893, is hereby repealed, and the following substituted therefor :

("5") No common carrier or other person shall transport or have in possession for that purpose in this Province after the same has been killed any wild deer or the raw skin thereof, or any venison, save only from the 1st of November to the 22nd day of November in each year, unless accompanied by an affidavit that the same was hunted and taken during the open season, and unless there be attached thereto one of the shipping coupons belonging to the license authorising the shipper to hunt or kill deer as provided by this act.

(5.) The said license to hunt deer and the shipping coupons thereto attached may be in the form set forth in the schedule to this Act, and shall be printed upon strong manilla paper, and shall be issued by the Chief Game Warden and the Wardens upon application therefor :

(6.) Every person engaged in the hunting or killing of deer shall on request by any person whomsoever, at all reasonable times and as often as reasonably requested, produce and show such license to the person making the request ; and if he shall fail or refuse to do so he shall forfeit any such license he may possess, and shall if found hunting, taking, pursuing, killing, wounding or destroying any deer animal, and on proof of such request and failure or refusal be deemed to have violated the provisions of this section.

(7.) Any person offending against any of the provisions of this Act shall be liable for each offence to a fine not exceeding $50 and not less than $20, together with the costs of prosecution, and in default of immediate payment of such fine and costs, shall be imprisoned in the common gaol of the county where such conviction shall take place, for a period not exceeding three months.

(8) The provisions of this section shall, as to Indians and settlers in any unorganized township or territory not divided into townships, or territory where deer are found, be subject to the provisions of section 27 of The Ontario Game Protection Act, 1893.

III. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in The Ontario Game Protection Act, 1893, or any Acts amending same, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, by Order-in-Council in that behalf, designate certain counties or portions of counties in the Province in which it shall be unlawful to hunt, take, pursue, kill, wound or destroy any deer animal at any time of the year, subject to such reservations in favour of the residents or settlers in such counties as may be deemed reasonable.

IV. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, by Order-in-Council in that behalf, make special provisions for regulating the shooting, hunting, taking or killing of any bird or fowl protected by the provisions of the said Act within two miles of Rondeau Park or within Rondeau Harbour, and such regulations shall be read with and be as binding as if they formed part of section 8 of chapter 56, passed in the fifty-eighth year of Her Majesty's reign ; and any person violating any of the provisions of the said regulations shall be liable for each offence to the fine and costs of prosecution in the said section 8 provided.

V. Section 22 of the said Act is amended by inserting after the words "confiscated and" in the second line thereof the words "forwarded to the Chief Game Warden to be"

VI. Sub-section 1 of section 14 of the said Act is amended by striking out the words "or Quebec" in the second line thereof.

VII. Sub-section 1 of section 27 of the said Act is amended by adding thereto the following words :—Provided that no settler shall hunt, take, kill or have in his possession any moose, elk, reindeer or cariboo before the first day of November, 1900.

VIII. This Act shall be read with and as forming a part of The Ontario Game Protection Act, 1893.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Scott Lang was up from Keene on his wheel on Saturday.

Miss Van Homerich, of New York, is visiting her cousin, Miss Calcutt, Ashburnham.

Dr. Brown leaves to day for Syracuse, N. Y., to attend the New York State Medical Convention. He will return on Friday.

The Belleville Sun says :—"Very Rev. Father Brown, V.G., Peterborough, was the guest of Rev. Mgr. Farrelly yesterday."

Mrs. Graham, of Peterborough, says the Brockville Times of Saturday, who has been on a visit to her son, Mr. Frank Graham, of the Centennial Hotel, returned home yesterday. She was accompanied by her neice, Miss Carrie Graham.

Mr. Thomas Miller, son of Mr. Finch W. Miller, who left here a few weeks ago to join the Imperial service, has been attached to the band of the Scots Guards, one of the crack home regiments, which only has the pleasant duties of palace guards, etc., assigned to it.

Messrs. George and Robert Stenton have returned from Michigan, where they were suddenly called to the deathbed of their father, last week. The death took place on Thursday. He came to Canada from England in 1846 and lived in Northumberland and afterwards in Peterborough county until ten or twelve years ago, when he moved to Michigan. Deceased was 84 years of age.

REGARDING A REPORT.

To the Editor of the Examiner :

SIR,—A day or two ago a friend was so good as to inform me that a report had spread throughout the town to the effect that the late Inspector Wherry's policy in the North American Life Assurance Company had lapsed but two or three weeks before his death and because of my refusal to renew his note. The following are the facts : Policy No. 14,808 was issued by our Company on the life of Mr. Wherry on the 31st August, 1894. His first premium, $28.75, was paid. The second fell due on the 5th September, 1895, for which a note was given by the insured drawn at three months. The note matured on the 8th December of the same year, but was never paid, nor was the company subsequently able to collect it. The policy had lapsed some eight months before Mr. Wherry's sudden demise.

About a year ago the late Inspector told me that he had a policy in the North American Life Assurance Company and that it was his intention to have it transferred to my books. He did not do so. About three weeks before his death I met him on Water street and greeted him as follows : —"By the way, Inspector, what about that policy you intended transferring to my books." "Oh," said he, "I gave a note for the second premium last September and never paid the note." Thereupon I urged him to be reinstated as it was a serious matter for a husband and father to be without protection for those depending upon him.

It has been told me that the deceased came to my offices the evening of his death between the hours of six and seven p.m. to ask for reinstatement. At that hour I was at home and no one was in the offices. The statement, however, has not been verified and I know not whether it be true. Had Mr. Wherry carried out his intention of a year ago to have his policy transferred to the Peterborough offices, it is altogether probable that his family would have to-day in their possession the $1,000, as I would certainly have done everything in my power to prevent the policy from lapsing. Many of our policyholders in Peterborough will cheerfully testify that they have no difficulty in getting their notes renewed nor in receiving every consideration at the hands of the Company and of myself.

Thanking you for you space Mr. Editor, I remain

Truly yours,
J. W. GARVIN.

Peterborough, Oct. 10th, 1896.

TWEED TOPICS.

Mrs. James Davenport Makes a Statement for the Benefit of Others.

Mrs. Davenport is well-known in Tweed, and this is how she spoke to our representative concerning Doan's Kidney Pills. Said Mrs. Davenport :—

"I have suffered for some years from dizziness, puffing under the eyes, pains in the side and back, sleeplessness, poor appetite, and, in fact, was in a bad state generally.

"I took two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at P. K. Newton's drugstore, and experienced immediate relief from their use.

"I am now very much better indeed ; appetite improved, pain almost disappeared and I feel stronger and healthier in every particular.

"I can heartily recommend them to all sufferers from kidney trouble."

VISIT OF THE MINISTER OF RAILWAYS AND CANALS.

As will be seen by a news paragraph in this issue Hon. A. G. Blair, Minister of Railways and Canals, is expected to make an official visit to the route of the Trent Valley Canal this week or early the coming week. He will begin his tour at Trenton, where he will be entertained at a banquet on his arrival to the town, and the merits of the scheme will be laid before him. He will be escorted the following day to Hastings, where it is expected that he will be met by a Peterborough deputation, which will conduct the Minister to Peterborough, when, it is suggested, that some organized means should be employed to have the matter of the Canal formally and fully presented. From Peterborough Mr. Blair will be driven over the canal route to Lakefield, where he will take steamer and proceed to the present northern limit of canal navigation. It is suggested that the committee appointed some time ago to look after the furtherance of the canal project on behalf of the town and county, be revived for the occasion. In view of the natural, if somewhat selfish, opposition of Toronto and the west to the canal scheme, it is important that every argument possible should be impressed upon the minister, (who has done the district the courtesy of personally visiting the canal route,) in order that he may be brought to see the wisdom of completing a great public work upon which so much money has been expended. The subject is earnestly commended to the attention of the Board of Trade at its meeting this evening.

THE BOYS.

One Method by Which They May Be Made Gentlemen.

"My wife has peculiar views about bringing up boys," said the man in the barber shop, while he waited his turn.

"So has mine," said the man with a scowl who wanted a haircut. "She thinks they're privileged to turn the house upside down and keep up no end of a row. And when I interfere she says: 'Oh, never mind, we were young once.' And a good thing it's true," he ended, crossly.

"Well, man, let your wife have her own way with your boys," said the first speaker. "As a rule it isn't the father that a man yearns for when he goes out into the cold world. It's his mother every time. Now I just escaped making a scene at the breakfast table this morning and writing myself down an ass, but that I had sense enough to trust my wife. You see, it was this way. We have two rollicksome boys, not bad as boys go, but full of vim, and my wife knows how to manage them; I confess I don't. Well, the girl was waiting on the table and our youngest, a rat of nine, with eyes like an angel and the temper of —well, like mine—asked her to make him a piece of toast. I did not notice how he worded it, but it appears his mother did. He waited, but the toast did not come.

"'How di you ask for it?' says his mother, and he answered right quick:

"'I said, 'Huldah, bring me a piece of toast!'"

"His mother touched a bell and the girl came in. 'Ask her again,' she said. That boy squirmed and I was mad, but I saw a warning in my wife's eye and kept still.

"'Please, Huldah, make me a piece of toast," said the little fellow bravely, and Huldah smiled and went out for the toast.

"Now, my sympathies were all with the boy that wanted his toast, so I ventured to say that I thought Huldah was putting on style, but my wife squelched me.

"'It isn't Huldah,' she said, 'it is for my boy. I want him to be a gentleman for his own sake.'"

"Well, my boys," said the other man, but the barber called "next," and the conversation ended.

Rings and Ring Lore.

Cromwell's ring bore his crest, a lion rampant.

Every Roman freeman was entitled to wear an iron ring.

Betrothal rings were used in Europe in the ninth century.

The finger ring was the earliest ornament worn by man.

Wedding rings were used in Egypt 3000 years before Christ.

Augustus wore a ring charm to protect him from thunder storms.

Chaucer alludes more than once to the thumb ring as common in his time.

Roman Ambassadors sent abroad wore gold rings as a part of their state dress.

Early Celtic rings were made in interlaced work, often of very intricate patterns.

The state ring of the Pope is set with a large cameo bearing the portrait of Christ.

The ring of the Jewish high priest was invested by tradition with many mystic powers.

When peers are created in Great Britain a ring is used during the ceremony of investiture.

Down to the sixteenth century every physician in Europe wore a ring as a badge of his profession.

Greek legends declare that the mystic ring of Gyges, the King of Lydia, made the wearer invisible.

In the later Roman Empire rings cut from solid stones, generally agate or onyx, became fashionable.

Lorenzo de Medici wore a ring that, according to tradition, had once belonged to the Emperor Nero.

Anglo-Saxon rings were fashioned after knotted cables, the knot being worn on the outside of the hand.

WOULD KILL THEM ALL.

A Maniac in the Cobourg Gaol Attempts to Kill the Inmates.

Cobourg Sentinel-Star.

A desperate affray took place at the gaol on Tuesday morning, when a lunatic named Charles Peterson undertook the contract of killing all the male prisoners in the institution. Peterson was sent down from Port Hope on a charge of insanity, and was placed in the corridor with the rest of the prisoners. The gaol routine provides that the prisoners must rise at 5 o'clock, make their beds and be ready for breakfast at 6 30. Turnkey Higgins went down the corridor at 5 o'clock and unlocked all the cells and roused the prisoners. As soon as he left the corridor, Peterson rushed from his cell, and succeeded in locking in all the other prisoners before they had their beds made. He then wrenched the handle off the pump, and quietly proceeded to open a cell at a time with the determined object of killing the inmate thereof. The defenceless prisoners became alarmed and raised a great noise which attracted the turnkey. Mr. Higgins arrived before the crazy man had secured the gore of any of his intended victims, and then commenced a gladitorial contest worthy of a larger arena than the counties' gaol. Peterson scored first blood for he smashed Higgins over the head with a brass kettle from off the stove, but the turnkey got his work in later on, for he brought his club down on Peterson's cranium, felling him quickly to the floor. The crazy man was then put where he would do no harm, and order was once more restored, and the prisoners ceased their spasmodic prayers for deliverance. It was quite an exciting time for the turnkey.

Don't You Remember Long Ago?

As the years roll on we more and more recall the events of the past. School days with their tasks and chores come back again to us in memory, but with the glamour and enchantment of distant views. The old school and church, the boys and girls we romped with, father's voice, mother's smile, the joy of the holiday—no pleasures of the present can compare with those enjoyed in the days now locked up in the eternity of the past. In a similar way we recall the old time tested friend of the past—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor—that never failed us then and is just as sure to serve us now Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is sure safe, and painless. Use no other.

A card on the outside of office door says: "Gone to lunch. Be back in ten minutes." And, the man will be there on time. That is, for some days, weeks or even months, he will. Then he will be at home occasionally for a day. He'll tell you he had a headache—a turn of cholera morbus, or maybe he'll say he had a lump in his stomach and felt too miserable to move. The lump was probably two or three ten-minute lunches condensed. They were hurried in, but they were taking their own time about getting out, or even "moving on." This is a great mistake, but as long as there's life there's a chance to rectify mistakes.

The man who "bolts" his lunches will find Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best friend he ever met. The "Pellets" may not hurry as much as the man does, but they will do the work for which they are intended—surely—promptly—effectually.

There is no case of biliousness, constipation, indigestion, "heart-burn," or any of the rest of the night-mare breeding brood, that these little "Pellets" will not cure.

They are not disagreeable to take, neither are the effects disagreeable. They are gentle laxatives. They cure permanently. There's no danger of forming a "Pellet habit." Therefore, you don't become a slave to their use.

Send 31 one-cent stamps to cover cost of customs and mailing only, and receive absolutely gratis, Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, and find out how to keep yourself and family healthy. The book contains 1008 pages, over 300 illustrations and over 680,000 copies have been sold at $1.50 each. The new edition of 500,000 copies is to be given away absolutely free. It is a veritable medical library, complete in one volume. Address, with stamps, World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

IS NOT FICKLE.

Where the Hats of Fashionable Women Are Always High.

It is commonly believed that the high hat is a very modern thing. In fact, the centenary is said to be due in 1897.

But there is a country in Germany where it has been worn for hundreds of years, and, curiously enough, the wearers are of the female sex. The women of Elzthal, Schonach and other neighboring valleys in the grand duchy of Baden wear high hats as part of their best clothes.

An Elzthaelerin in her holiday or Sunday clothes is one of the most picturesque sights that the entire picturesque feminine sex can offer. She is in a majority of cases a buxom, pleasing person, and her strange headgear adds to the commanding character of her aspect.

The hat is slightly higher than the kind usually worn by men of this and other highly civilised parts of the world. The sides are perfectly straight, a fashion which has prevailed among English-speaking men, but has not been seen for several years. It is, in fact, of the variety which has been called the "stovepipe." In the happy and antiquated community of Elzthal the fashions do not change perceptibly in the course of a hundred years. A girl is happy in the possession of one, or at most two high hats, and her father or husband should be happy in the knowledge that she does not want more. Probably he has seen too little of the outside world to know how well off he is.

When it comes to the brim there is some difference between the Elzthal woman's hat and that of conventional man. The brim turns down slightly at the sides, and two ribbons are attached here, which pass under the chin and hold the hat on the head. Even in primitive Elzthal woman does not go the length of wearing a hat large enough to fit her. It must perch lightly on top of her hair, and be secured by something more than its own weight.

These high hats are often handed down from mother to daughter, and are a source of much pride. Although they are in many cases very old, they are kept in excellent condition, and show less damage than a three-months-old spring hat as worn by a Canadian woman. They are made of felt just stiff enough to hold its shape. The hats are reputed by ancient tradition to be very healthy to wear, because they interpose an air-chamber between the heat or the cold and the top of the head. The women of Elzthal and Schonach do not suffer from baldness, a misfortune which is supposed to be produced among men by the use of the high hat.

The rest of these Baden women's dress is in keeping with their hats in the matter of solidity and fashion. The latter has not changed perceptibly within the memory of man, and the material is thick and woollen, and calculated to last for a lifetime.

PROVINCIAL MATTERS.

Many Interesting Topics Considered at the Ontario Government Buildings—Potatoes for Sportsmen.

Toronto, Oct. 10.

Hon. J. M. Gibson, who has been speaking in Kingston in the interests of the Children's Aid Society, and also inspecting the Kingston Mining School, returned yesterday morning.

The Ontario Cabinet has completed most of the business on the slate so that Hon. Messrs. Hardy, Dryden and Davis may take part in the South Essex campaign, without neglecting any urgent business.

Mr. C. C. James, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, lately received letters from Germany asking for samples of wheat grown in the Ontario Agricultural College, and will comply with the request.

An order-in-Council of Oct. 6 respecting duck shooting in the Rondeau Provincial Park and harbor, has received His Honor's sanction. By its regulations, only rowboats or canoes may be used in the sport, and they must be anchored at least a hundred yards from land, when shooting or taking the wild fowl. No one is permitted to kill or take more than 150 birds per year. For the violation of any of the above regulations the penalty of a fine of between $20 and $50 will be imposed, with costs.

Government Engineer R. Y. McCallum will go on Monday to inspect the work on the extension of the Ottawa, Arnprior & Parry Sound Railway. The road will probably be completed in December.

The good people of Fort Frances, Ont., are petitioning the Postmaster-General to give them direct mail service this winter by way of Wabigoon Mission, on the C.P.R., instead of from Rat Portage. At present they are receiving only one mail every two or three weeks. They think, however, that the importance of the mining interest in the district would warrant the provision of more accommodation.

JOY KILLS A MOTHER.

She Died on the Steamship Pier on Her Homecoming From Excitement at Meeting Her Children.

New York, Oct. 9.—Joy gave way to death, and a welcoming party which went to the Bremen Line pier in Hoboken yesterday to meet Mrs. Maria Naumann and her daughter of 104 East 165th-street, who had just arrived on the steamship H. H. Meier, became mourners.

The elation experienced by Mrs. Naumann at meeting her family caused her to collapse, and she died before help arrived. Heart failure was the cause. She had been in ill health for some months, and went abroad in last July with her daughter Matilda. They visited Kosser, Germany, where the physicians said that the homeward voyage would do a great deal toward restoring the health of the patient. Soon afterwards Mrs. and Miss Naumann sailed on the Meier. During the voyage Mrs. Naumann was ill.

As the steamship was being warped into the pier yesterday Mrs. Naumann was much excited. On the pier she saw her son and two daughters, who had come to welcome her. It was almost impossible to keep her quiet until the gangway could be run up and when it was raised she was one of the first to descend. She cried with joy at the reunion with her family, and she became so nervous that her son tried to induce her to go to the waiting room and be seated until the baggage had been passed. She refused to do so for a time, but finally consented. She was sitting there quietly when she fell forward into the arms of one of her daughters. The girls called for help. A messenger was sent for the surgeon of the Meier.

When he arrived Mrs. Naumann was dead.

To remove the constipated habit, the only safe treatment is a course of Ayer's Pills, followed by a laxative diet. Most other cathartics do more harm than good, therefore leading physicians recommend Ayer's Pills, especially as a family physic.

HIS ARM TORN OFF.

The Terrible Accident Which Befell Farmer John M. Horn of Wolfe Island While Threshing.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 9.—A terrible accident occurred at the farm of John M. Horn, Wolfe Island, yesterday forenoon. A threshing machine was at work in the barn, and Mr. Horn was attending to the machinery when the belt that runs the fanning mill of the separator came off. The wheel by which the belt is worked is situated between two others and Mr. Horn, in attempting to replace the belt, had his hand caught in it, and drawn up to where it is twisted to facilitate the running. The arm was wrenched off a few inches above the elbow, and so great was the laceration that doctors decided that amputation a short distance from the shoulder was necessary. The operation was successfully performed.

A BLOODY RAZOR

Gave Evidence of the Terrible Crime of Farmer Albert Bray, Who Killed His Family and Himself.

Noblesville, Ind., Oct. 9.—Evidences of a horrible tragedy were discovered this morning at the home of Albert Bray, a farmer living three miles from this city. A neighbor, on going to the house and failing to get a response to his rap, forced his way in, and found the bodies of Bray and his wife and their two little children, aged 3 and 6 years, upon the floor of the bedroom in which they slept. Bray was still alive, but the others were dead. The father expired shortly after the discovery, without gaining consciousness. A bloody razor was lying at his side, and it is supposed he committed the butchery with it.

Bray was 38 years of age, a member of the Friends Church, and had always borne a good reputation.

London, Ont., Oct. 9.—Charles McQueen, a telegraph operator who came here to take the place of C.P.R. strikers, was brought before the Police Magistrate today on a charge of stealing clothing and other articles from boarders at the house where he was stopping. Sentence was deferred for a week. He claims Brockville, Ont., as his home.

The Ancient New Women.

Although women are now branching out into nearly every avenue of masculine activity, yet the part played by women in politics of the world forms a very interesting chapter in the history of the human race. The Sabine women were stolen from their parents and interceded for them with Romulus and his gallant knight-errants. We have Veturia saving Rome, from the revenge of her son, Coriolanus, when the Senate had despaired of it.

There is the record of Roman matrons saving the city when Brennus besieged it. The treaty of Cambray was the work of the mother of Charles V., and of the mother of Francis I.

These may be cited as the work of self-constituted women ambassadors. The first woman who was completely and formally invested with the dignity of an ambassador is Catherine de Siena. She was deputed by the Italian Government to conciliate Pope Urban VI., after his flight, and induce him to return home to Rome, which she successfully discharged.

A MESSAGE TO MEN.

Proving that True Honesty and True Philantrophy Still Exist.

If any man, who is weak, nervous and debilitated, or who is suffering from any of the various forms resulting from youthful folly, excesses or over work, will take heart and write to me, I will send him confidentially and free of charge, the plan pursued by which I was completely restored to perfect health and manhood, after years of suffering from Nervous Debility, Loss of Vigor and Organic Weakness.

I have nothing to sell and therefore want no money, but as I know through my own experience how to sympathize with such sufferers, I am glad to be able to assist any fellow-being to a cure. I am well aware of the prevalence of quackery, for I myself was deceived and imposed upon until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but I rejoice to say that I am now perfectly well and happy once more and am desirous therefore to make this certain means of cure known to all. If you will write to me you can rely upon being cured and the proud satisfaction of having been of great service to one in need will be sufficient reward for my trouble, Absolute secrecy assured. Complete Recovery by the Use of

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. VIGOROUS AND HALE.

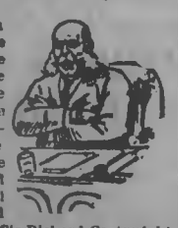
SIR RICHARD CARTWRIGHT AND HIS PARLIAMENTARY CAREER.

Although Old to Public Life When His Leader Had Not Been Heard of in Federal Politics, He Has Changed Little.

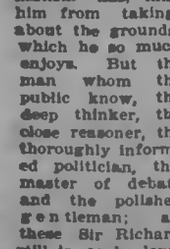
Sir Richard Cartwright has been so many years in Parliament, and has taken so prominent a part in the political life of the country that it may be safely said that but few living public men in this country occupy a larger place in the public eye. His Parliamentary career takes one back to the days when the late Sir John Macdonald was plain Mister, when Sir Charles Tupper was a doctor of medicine, and when the name of Laurier had not yet been heard of in Federal politics. Cartwright sat in Parliament a colleague of Alexander Mackenzie in power, a supporter of Mr. Blake and Mr. Laurier in Opposition, and now that place and power have once more come to his party, Sir Richard again occupies a seat on the Treasury benches, a prominent member of the new Liberal Ministry, and at the same time a loyal supporter of his leader. And through all these years of political warfare marked by many defeats and disappointments, Sir Richard as a Parliamentarian has changed very little. To be sure, time has thinned his locks and turned his flowing side whiskers and heavy moustache from black to gray, and now to almost white, but the man has altered very little. Physically, he is vigorous and hale, although his figure has become a little more ponderous, and a touch of rheumatism has, this session, prevented him from taking those long walks about the grounds which he so much enjoys. But the man whom the public know, the deep thinker, the close reasoner, the thoroughly informed politician, the master of debate and the polished gentleman; all these Sir Richard still is, as he long has been, and as friends and opponents hope he will long remain.

Sir Richard Cartwright Waiting for His Turn.



Sir Richard Cartwright Manifests Symptoms of Weariness.

The manner of the man as a member of Parliament, whether in opposition or in power, is simple and unaffected. There is no posing for effect with him; he never speaks to the galleries, although he often speaks to the country through the channel of Parliament. When the bell sounds at 3 o'clock in the afternoon calling in the members, Sir Richard is usually in his place to hear the Speaker's prayers. His dress is invariably a black frock coat, usually buttoned across his broad chest, and his black soft hat which he wears as a rule when in his seat. In the winter it is exchanged for a turban of Persian lamb. If Sir Richard is usually an early arrival at the House, he stays until the adjournment, although it may not come until the small hours of the morning. During the long hours of the Parliamentary day Sir Richard is not idle. If the debate be one in which he has not taken part he follows closely the opposition speakers, and jots down his notes upon a sheet on his desk, usually a small bit of note paper. If the debate has got beyond the stage of interest to a Minister, Sir Richard turns his attention to other matters. Out from his desk come the material for hours of work, documents to be examined, letters to be read and answered, newspapers to be looked over, blue books to be studied and authorities to be examined. The hours of the sittings, be they long or short, are all improved.



Sir Richard Cartwright Quotes Statistics.

It is as the debater that Sir Richard shines and is best known. In that field he is without an equal in our Parliament. He is, as Mr. Foster remarked last week, a great master of expression. His style is strong, clear and terse; and no one listening to Sir Richard can fail to catch the point of his argument or the drift of his speech, although he may dissent from his conclusions. Listening to the average public speaker one cannot fail observing that a radical and exceedingly common fault is obscurity. The speaker may have in his own mind the point he wishes to drive home, but he loses himself in a maze of words, and the thought becomes diluted with a collection of sonorous clauses, thrown together in a jumble. But there is none of this about the speaking of Sir Richard Cartwright. His sentences are all complete with their members as well arranged as if the words had first been committed to writing. The English is strong, and when need be, aggressive, enriched when appropriate with apt quotations from almost every field of literature. The delivery is well in keeping with the matter. Nature gave Sir Richard a good voice, and he knows how to use it. Clear and strong, it fills the chamber. No one has to call out "louder" when he is speaking.

Sir Richard Cartwright Conceals a Smile.

One false impression has gone abroad to the effect that Sir Richard is an abusive man. If that be true, then so is Mr. Chamberlain and Sir William Harcourt, for the Canadian leader has more of their style than perhaps any other Canadian public man. To be sure, he hits his opponents hard, but it is doubtful if he ever hits below the belt. His words will be found strong, for sound English furnishes an abundant fund of such expressions; but they are never unparliamentary. When has Sir Richard been called to order for a breach of the rules of the House in this respect?

However, one thing is noticeable this session; Sir Richard in power is a milder and more cautious speaker than when in Opposition. He who defends an Administration must be more guarded in his expressions and statements than when attacking a Government. Perhaps he will come to miss the free hand he so long enjoyed during his 18 years of opposition.—Montreal Star.

STRANGE OLD MANX LAWS.

They Imposed Severe Penalties for Trivial Offences.

G. H. Westley, in an article in the Green Bag, narrates a few of the curiosites of Manx law, past and present. The legislature of the island is called the house of keys, and was formerly a judicial body whose duty it was to interpret the laws—to unlock their mysteries. Any one bold enough and ill-advised enough to slander the house of keys was liable to a fine of £10 and the loss of both his ears. Two deemsters were appointed to execute the laws, which before 1417 were uncodified and were known as Breast laws, being imparted to the deemster in secret, and by them kept within the secrecy of their own breasts so long as they chose, or during the whole service, though they were empowered to impart and explain to the people so much of them as should at any time seem expedient.

Some of the laws as recorded after the codification are extremely quaint. Here is one which recalls to mind the narrow bounds and primitive way of life of the Manxmen. Nowhere else, surely, would the greater crime be regarded as the less—merely because in the nature of things it could result, despite the intention of the thief, only in an enforced loan—and the lesser crime be gravely reckoned as the greater:

"If a man steal a horse or an ox, it is no felony, for the offender cannot hide them; but if he steal a capon or a pigge he shall be hanged."

"In the case of theft," another law declares, "if it amount to the value of sixpence halfpenny, shall be felony to death to the offender; and under that value to be whipped or set upon a wooden horse ordered for such offenders."

A rather ingenious law, designed to check the breaking of pledges by untrustworthy servants who might have an opportunity to get improved wages, decrees that any servant hiring with two masters must give his labor to the first man he is promised to, and his wages to the second; should the offence be repeated, the culprit is to be set in the stocks and whipped.

The arms of the Isle of Man, which, though it sounds like an Irish bull to say so, are legs—three legs bent at the knee and apparently kicking outward from a common center in the midst of a shield—have provoked a number of jocular descriptions, of which the best declares that one leg spurns Ireland, one kicks at Scotland and the third kneels to England. The feeling thus typified appears certainly to exist toward the two former countries, if we are to judge by the two following laws, never repealed, though it is needless to add, never in our day enforced.

"Irish women loitering and not working are to be commanded forth of the isle with as much convenient speed as may be." Why Irish women especially is not explained; perhaps they accompanied their husbands—the "spalpeens" came over for harvesting—and made themselves obnoxious as beggars.

The other law is at least fairer in appearance, since it does not discriminate in the matter of sex, but it is no more hospitable. It enjoins "That all Scots avoid the Land with the next vessel that goeth to Scotland, upon paine of forfeiting their Goodes and their Body to Prison."

Colds and Cold Taking.

A person in good health, with fair play, says the Lancet, easily resists cold. But when the health flags a little and liberties are taken with the stomach or the nervous system, a chill is easily taken and according to the weak spot of the individual assumes the form of a cold or pneumonia, or it may be jaundice. Of all causes of cold probably fatigue is one of the most efficient. A jaded man coming home at night from a long day's work, a growing youth losing two hours' sleep over evening parties two or three times a week, a young lady heavily doing the season or young children overfed and with short allowances of sleep, are common instances of the victims of cold. Luxury is favorable to chill taking.

Very hot rooms, feather beds, soft chairs create a sensitiveness that leads to catarrhs. It is not, after all, the cold that is so much to be feared as the antecedent conditions that give the attack a chance of doing harm. Some of the worst colds happen to those who do not leave their house or even their beds, and those who are most invulnerable are often those who are most exposed to changes of temperature, and who by good sleep, cold bathing and regular habits preserve the tone of their nervous system and circulation. Probably many chills are contracted at night or at the fag end of the day, when tired people get the equilibrium of their circulation disturbed by either overheating sitting rooms and underheated bed rooms and beds. This is specially the case with elderly people. In such cases the mischief is not always done instantaneously, or in a single night. If often takes place insidiously, extending over days or even weeks.

TEN YEARS TROUBLED

With Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia--Suffered Greatly and Found No Relief in the Scores of Medicines Prescribed.

South American Nervine Was Recommended, and Before Half a Bottle Was Taken Relief Came.

Have Since Improved Rapidly, and Am Now Completely Cured—So Says Mr. David Reid, of Chesley, Ont.

What ills come to humanity from a disordered liver! Henry Ward Beecher has said that it was impossible for a man to hold correct spiritual views if his liver was out of order. The liver is so important a part of the mechanism of man that when it ceases to work with ease the whole man is unable to do his work aright. Can we not appeal to thousands, nay, tens of thousands, for a verification of this fact? Certainly it is, that Mr. David Reid, of Chesley, Ont., felt that the enjoyment of life had been taken from him, through the unhealthy condition of his liver. For ten years he says he was troubled with liver complaint and dyspepsia. Employing his own language: "At times my liver was so tender I could not bear it pressed or touched from the outside. Had tried a great many remedies without any benefit. Was compelled to drop my work, and being worse than usual, I decided as a final resort to try South American Nervine, which had been recommended to me by friends who had been cured by it. I got a bottle from A. S. Goodeve, local druggist, and commenced taking according to directions. Before I had taken half a bottle I was able to go to work again, and I have improved steadily since. I can conscientiously recommend South American Nervine to any suffering from dyspepsia or liver complaint." This is Mr. Reid's story as he tells it in his own words. Were it thought necessary it could be corroborated by a host of witnesses. Mr. Reid has lived a long time in Cheeley, and his case was known to be a very bad one. But that makes no difference to Nervine. This great discovery rises equal to the most trying occasions. Let it be indigestion, the most chronic liver trouble, as with Mr. Reid, nervous prostration, that makes life miserable with so many, sick headaches, that sap all the effort out of man or woman, Nervine measures to the necessities of the case. It is a great medicine and thousands to-day in Canada are happier and healthier men and women, because of its discovery. There is no great secret about it, and yet there is an important secret. It operates on the nerve centers of the system from which emanate all life and healthfulness, or if disordered, sickness, even death. Nervine strikes promptly at the nerve centers, hence, as with Mr. Reid, where ten years' use of other medicines had done no good, less than a bottle of Nervine brought about encouraging results, and a few bottles cured.

Something About Rev. Dr. Clarke—The Society has now 2,750,000 Members.

Forty-five years ago on the 12th of last September, Rev. Francis E. Clark, the founder of the Christian Endeavour movement, was born in Aylmer, Que., eight miles from Ottawa. His parents were then temporarily living in Canada. Dr. Clark's father was a civil engineer, and died of cholera in 1833, contracting the disease from emigrants to whom he was administering in their hour of trouble. After her husband's death Dr. Clark's mother taught school in the old stone school house which yet stands on the Aylmer road a short distance on this side of the village, and relied entirely on her own resources and energy to support her family and died five years after her husband's death. The seven year old boy was then adopted by his uncle, Rev. E. W. Clark, who lived at Auburndale, Mass, and afterwards at Claremont, N.H.

Dartmouth College is Dr. Clark's alma mater, he graduating from that college in 1873. He prepared for college at Meriden, N. H., graduating at Kimball Union Academy in 1869. Dr. Clark's first pastorate was the Williston church, Portland, Me., which at that time was a missionary enterprise. The congregation was small and the services were held in an old building. Here Dr. Clark's zeal and organizing ability soon began to make themselves felt. He was an earnest preacher, a devoted, sympathising pastor, and an indefatigable worker. The building soon became too small to accommodate the people. A new church was erected. It was while he was pastor of this church that he formed the first C. E. society.

From Williston church Dr. Clark went to Phillips' church, South Boston, where he remained until 1887 when he resigned his pastorate there to accept the position of President of the United Society of Christian Endeavour and editor of the Golden Rule, the official C. E. organ.

Dr. Clark has seen the movement which he originated grow from one society with sixty members to 46,000 societies with a membership of 2,750,000. He has visited every state and territory in the United States and most of the provinces of Canada. Two or three years ago he and Mrs. Clark journeyed around the world visiting the C. E. societies in the different countries of the globe. At present he is visiting through Europe and purposes going to India, and other places in the East before returning home. His trip is in the interests of Christian Endeavour.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Yesterday morning the anthems "Adeste Fideles" and "Consider the Lilies," were well rendered in St. Andrew's church.

Last evening in St. Andrew's Miss Maggie Fowler and Mr. G. W. Mulligan took the solos and Mrs. Jones the obligato solo in the anthem "Hark! Hark! my Soul." The offertory solo and chorus was entitled "I'll Live for Thee," and was taken by Mr. Mulligan and the full choir.

The Rev. Alex. Macnab, of Toronto, preached an eloquent sermon to a large congregation in St. Luke's church last night from the text Heb. xxii, 1, 2.

The Young Women's Chapter of St. Luke's Guild will meet in the school house on Thursday evening next. A full attendance of all members is requested.

Rev. H. Symonds will preach next Sunday morning on "Parental Authority.' In the evening, it being the festival of St. Luke, there will be special music by the choir, and the Rector will preach on the life of St. Luke.

The choir of St. Luke's have accepted a most kind invitation from Mr. and Mrs. Wilson to spend an evening at their residence in Otonabee.

The choir of the Murray street Baptist church has been doing some excellent work lately. The music which was rendered yesterday was of an exceptionally attractive nature. In the morning the anthem "Come Holy Spirit" was given. Mrs. Scott took the solo parts and Dr. Scott and Miss Hutchinson the duet. Miss Grace Stanley sang that pretty solo "Not Ashamed of Christ," and gave evidence of being possessed of a very sweet voice. In the evening Mrs. Hunter's sympathetic voice was heard in the solos "Abide with me" and "Jesus Lover of my Soul." The latter was sung to the air of "Annie Laurie."

A HOO-DOOED WOMAN.

Toronto, Oct. 12.

Mary McLeod, whose home is in Kincardine, appeared before Magistrate Denison on Saturday to answer to the charge of theft. The young woman has worked in different places in Toronto as a domestic. She had been employed for the past two months by Mrs. Fred Mossop. Numerous articles were missed, found in her trunk, and she was arrested by Detective Davis.

She told the magistrate that she had been engaged to a young man in Kincardine named Angus Matheson and had "gone back" on him. He committed suicide. Since then nothing has gone right with her. She admitted stealing the goods, but as she looked so ill the magistrate refused to accept her plea of guilty and remanded her until the 13th.

The arrest of McLeod and the story she told the magistrate recalls the mysterious disappearance of Angus Matheson, which created a big sensation in Kincardine and vicinity.

Matheson had been working in the States for a time and returned to visit his relatives, who are farmers residing a few miles from Kincardine. On the night of Nov. 21, 1893, he attended a dance at the Walker House, in the town. The fun was kept up until a late hour. About 4 in the morning Matheson was seen to go out of the hotel. That was the last time, as far as known, that he was ever seen alive. As he did not return a search was made, but the only trace found was his hat. It was the general opinion that he had walked out of the hotel and into the river, which is only a short distance away. Some suggested suicide, but his relatives scouted this idea and claimed that he had been murdered. They were so positive that this was the true solution of the mystery that the aid of the Attorney-General's department was asked, with the result that Detective Rogers made an investigation. He reported that there had been no crime committed.

In the meantime the river harbor was dragged for the body without success. It was then thought by many that the missing man had quietly gone back to the States. Owing to the lateness of the season the search for the body was discontinued.

All through the winter the relatives nursed their theory of murder. When spring came they imported a clairvoyant from Port Huron, who was to discover the murderer and locate where the body would be found. She picked on a spot in the lake about 100 yards from the piers. The body was not there. The relatives swore out a warrant against a citizen of Kincardine, charging him with the murder. There was not a particle of evidence against him, and he was soon honorably acquitted. That about ended interest in the case, until the body was brought up by a dredge that was working in the harbor on Aug. 22, 1894, nearly a year after Matheson's disappearance.

If the McLeod girl knows for a fact that the drowned man committed suicide because of his love for her, it will end in what is still a mystery to some.

Brockville, Oct. 12 (Special.—As stated by Mr. Wm. A. Stagg himself, the facts of his quite recent perfect recovery from weakness and ailments many years suffered are as follows:—To a few boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills I owe my complete cure from weakness and lame back, which had clung to me for many years. As soon as I decided that the cause might be from derangement of the kidneys I procured a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills and I am glad to say that only a few boxes were taken before I was as well as ever.

HOW M'AULAY GAVE UP.

Highwaymen Made Him Hand Over Two Gold Bricks Worth $12,000—He's Jolly."

Toronto, Oct. 12.

Geo. B. McAulay of Spokane is at the Queen's. Mr. McAulay is secretary-treasurer of the Cariboo Mining Co. He is the chief character in the famous Cariboo gold brick robbery, which has been talked of in mining circles for two months past.

The Cariboo mine is one of the richest in the west. Over $221,000 of bullion has been taken out of the property, and the mine has already declared $93,000 in dividends. In August last Mr. McAulay left the mine, which is located in Camp McKinley, near the boundary country, for the nearest railway point with two gold bricks, worth $12,000. He drove alone in a buggy, and the bricks were stowed in a saddle-bag in the rear part of the rig.

When he had proceeded some distance he heard a man coming in the bush which bordered the road, and turning he found the barrel of a Winchester rifle against his face.

"Throw those saddlebags out," ordered the highwayman with a string of oaths.

McAulay obeyed.

"Now drive on," said the robber, and Mr. McAulay drove on.

Nothing has been heard of the two gold bricks since.

McAulay goes down to Montreal today. He keeps the object of his visit here a secret, but The World's opinion is that he is here for the purpose of securing the mining claim adjoining the Cariboo, which is owned by an Ontario man. He says he is here to float a western irrigation scheme, but the story is probably a "jolly."

Confusion as to the choice of a blood-purifier is unnecessary. There is but one best Sarsaparilla and that is Ayer's. This important fact was recognized at the World's Fair, Chicago, 1893, being the only blood-purifier admitted to be placed on exhibition.

Mr. E. W. Hazlett, Reeve of Chatham Township, Kent County, Ont., says: "My daughter has been very weakly for some years; she was very pale and always felt tired; she was prevailed upon by a friend, to try a box of Miller's Compound Iron Pills. I must say it was a good investment; she at once began to improve. The colour came to her cheeks, she got stronger rapidly, and now is quite well." Sold in Peterborough by Wm. Madill druggist.

CONTENTMENT.

The isle of contentment we view from afar,
And it dazzles our eyes like a beautiful star;
A reign which thousands gaze wistfully at,
And would dwell there, if 'twasn't for this or for that.

The lord in his palace, the cotter obscure,
The high and the lowly, the rich and the poor,
Are al idiscontented, whate'er be the case,
Because they are not in some other man's place.

In youth, how we long for mature years of men;
In age, how we sigh for our childhood again;
Wherever our station, whate'er be our lot,
We miss countless blessing for joys we have not.

So if you would get more good from your life,
And find the most joy in its flurry and strife,
Don't hunt for each thorn, by your pathway that grows;
But gather each rose, dear; pray don't miss a rose.

—Henry Reed Conant in the Independent.

THE PERFECT FOOT.

How to Tell One That Is So Formed by Nature.

Physiology and art have the same ideal as regards the perfect human form. It is a fact which most people are apt to lose sight of that physical beauty which is not true to the artistic standard also falls below the point of perfection set by the physiologist, and where fashion disagrees with one it is at variance with both, thus violating the canons of hygiene and those of esthetics.

The foot is an instance of the conflict between grace and efficiency. The popular demand in a feminine foot is that it shall be a narrow, pointed, elongated body, curved, or, more accurately speaking, humped, into a nearly horseshoe-shaped arch, the pillars of which are within a few inches of each other and consist of the compressed tips of the toes and a high, narrow heel, brought forward almost directly under the center of gravity. Its functions as an organ of locomotion and support are ruthlessly disregarded, and instead of the long, low, graceful arches, it is distorted into the resemblance of a link of sausage, pointed at one end.

A foot of such a form is denounced by the physician and the skilled pedestrian; the artist also takes the same view and demands the same outlines as the physiologist.

The medical idea of what the plan of the healthy, natural foot should be is that it should resemble an "exquisite combination of arches, one long and low from the heel to the balls of the toes; the other short and high, crossing this at right angles a little in front of the ankle joint. These are composed mainly of a number of wedge-shaped bones, but there is little that is "bony" or rigid by the tension of the three muscles of the leg, whose tendons attach themselves to both the upper and lower surfaces of their keystones in a most ingenious manner."

Mechanically, the human foot is one of the most exquisitely adjusted, effective and enduring instruments in the world.

Laid Up for Repairs.

"It's funny," said the man who was filling two seats in a car while a woman with a baby in her arms stood, "but I have noticed that people who set out to do a disagreeable thing usually got their comeuppance in the same way. Now, there's my neighbor Jorkins; his lawn has a corner that has been worn smooth by the public for years, and what did Jorkins go and do but cut it off without a moment's warning."

"Well, who had a better right?"

"I know that, but it was the way he did it. He just put an invisible wire fence and a man who was running for a car and had taken that corner all his life would be knocked silly. Children and dogs were piled up promiscuously, and the wire fence was never fazed.

"But the biggest fun was with bicycle riders. They had been in the habit of riding on the sidewalk on this particular street, and as they couldn't see that measly fence they went full tilt across the corner and just lay over the grass as if a cyclone had struck 'em. But they had their revenge. Jorkins is laid up in arnica and mustard and won't be out for a month."

"What happened to him?"

"Retribution. He came home late one night on his bicycle, forgot all about that wire fence, and cut across the corner in a hurry. They saved pieces of him, but the bicycle is a total wreck."

At that moment the woman and baby sat down suddenly on the man who was talking, and his eloquence was totally extinguished by the boomerang of fate.—Detroit Free Press.

Dangers of a Scratch.

Scarcely a day passes but many persons do not, in some way or other, get a scratch, a small cut, or a bruise that may break the skin. In most instances not the slightest attention is paid to this beyond the temporary annoyance of the pain and the possible irritation when the hands are put into water, or some subsequent blow in the same spot brings an exclamation on account of the hurt. This, while a common practice, is by no means a wise one. The air is full of floating disease germs, especially the air of cities and towns, and an injury of this sort, be it ever so slight, might furnish excellent breeding ground for some deadly bacteria. It is a good plan always to keep a bottle of prepared carbolic acid and glycerine, and frequently touch all bruises or sore spots with it. This is one of the most convenient and effective germicides imaginable. It is believed that many cases of fever and other serious ailments can be contracted by a floating germ. Once snugly lodged in this most congenial dwelling place, the germ multiplies with amazing rapidity and soon overruns the entire system. Therefore, whenever there is a bruise or scratch, or any injury of this sort, germicidal applications should be at once resorted to.

LINING UP
AFTER THE FAIRS.
Our Prize Clothing.

Our Clothing has had the call at all the Fairs. It was nothing new to find the Directors decorating our display with the Red Prize Tickets. It would have been a surprise if we didn't capture First Prize—not because competition was weak, but because the Clothing could not be bettered in Canada. The reputation of the big store was at stake, and we're more than proud to have deserved the good opinion of the directors as well as the thousands of men folk at the Fairs.

Now we're lining up for a rattling big fall business. We've had a good start already, but the price cards are becoming a more interesting study every day, and the figures startling enough to bring us the trade of the masses.

Doing AS WE PROMISE.

Good advertising does not encourage prevarication in prices. Quibbling or deviating from the plain path of truth and fair dealing, is an abuse which brings its own retribution.

PRICES without anything behind them, have very little meaning. But when they are fixed with care, are not misleading, and really represent something, they bring good buyers.

MANITOBA'S SCHOOLS

Arrival of the Commissioners From Winnipeg

TO CONFER WITH THE GOVERNMENT

The Date of Thanksgiving Day Made to Tally With That of the United States in the Interests of Business—General News Notes From Ottawa.

Ottawa, Oct. 12.—Hon. Robert Watson, Commissioner of Public Works for Manitoba; J. A. Cameron, Provincial Secretary, and D. H. McMillan, Provincial Treasurer, arrived here from Winnipeg this afternoon to discuss the school question with Mr. Laurier and his colleagues. In official circles it is said that, while a basis of settlement has been as good as arrived at between the Dominion and the province, there are still some troublesome details to be disposed of. The three delegates saw Mr. Laurier to-night and made an appointment for to-morrow to meet the sub-committee of the council, which consists of Mr. Laurier, Mr. Scott and Sir Oliver Mowat. Mr. Watson, in the course of conversation, said the Winnipeg despatch crediting him with saying a settlement had already been reached is decidedly premature. It is to finally dispose of this troublesome matter that the present conference is being held.

At to-day's meeting of the Cabinet it was decided to proclaim Thanksgiving Day in Canada for Thursday, Nov. 26, the same date as observed in the neighboring republic. The ground on which the change is made is that, as there is a total suspension of business in the United States, which correspondingly affects Canada, there may as well be uniformity.

Another matter decided upon by the Ministers was to appoint Mr. E. A. Meredith, formerly Under Secretary of State, and J. B. Nuxon, both of Toronto, to investigate and report on the affairs of the Kingston Penitentiary. Other commissions will be appointed to enquire into the administration of the other penitentiaries.

Mr. W. McInnes of the Geological Survey Department returned to the city to-day after his season's work in the Lake of the Woods district. Mr. McInnes made an extended exploratory of the Eagle, English, Seine and Rainy River districts. The prospects for this region as a gold-producing country in paying quantities are very encouraging. Mr. McInnes states that mining development is rapidly taking place.

The following paragraph appears in The Ottawa Free Press to-night:

"Office seekers are still swarming about the Ministers of State, and the lives of members of Parliament are made a misery by the horde of applicants, who seem to think places can be found or made for them. It would be well for it to be understood that the 'spoils system' is not in vogue in Canada, and that it will not be put into operation by the Liberal leaders, who have very emphatically repudiated it. Consequently the public service stands as it did, with the exception of reductions in the interests of economy. Place hunters should remember this and govern themselves accordingly. 'No vacancies' might be hung up on the departmental blocks."

It is reported that Mr. E. J. Langevin, Clerk of the Senate, is to be superannuated and that Dr. Guay, M. P. for Levis, will succeed him.

Mr. W. A. Fraser, the oil expert, who has been boring on behalf of the Government at Athabasca Landing, has been there all summer, but owing to the late period at which the appropriations were voted this year, little has been done. The boring has been carried to a depth of 1730 feet, and a steel casing put down to that depth. The intention is, if possible, to go about 200 feet lower, in the hope of striking a flow of oil. Gas has been freely piped since the casing was put down, but no oil as yet. If the experiment then does not prove to be a success a new location will be tried.

Sir Charles H. Tupper left for Quebec this afternoon. He will be joined by his father there to-morrow. The two will then proceed to Halifax to take part in a provincial Conservative Convention at Halifax on Thursday. Sir Hibbert Tupper expects to leave for British Columbia about the 1st of November. He has been retained as counsel for the owners of the Sayward, Dolphin, Carolina, Anna Beck and Thornton, five of the vessels which were seized by the Americans as far back as 1886-87. It is understood at the department that the Claims Commission will meet on some day between the 10th and 15th of November. Hon. L. H. Davies, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, intends to go out to the Coast to be present at the meetings of the commission.

Commander Wakeham of the Government steamer La Canadienne is on his way up to Quebec. The captain is expected here in a few days to resume work as International Fishery Commissioner in conjunction with Prof. Rathbone of the Smithsonian Institute at Washington. Only a few months remain to the two commissioners in which to hand in their report, but as all the outside work is completed, and the duty remaining is a matter merely of compilation, there will be no difficulty in preparing the report within the time required by treaty.

Mr. Tarte goes to Sorel this week to inspect the public works there. He leaves for Manitoba next week, thence to the Coast.

Great sympathy is expressed here for Sir Richard and Lady Cartwright in the loss they have sustained by the death of their youngest son. Mr. F. O'Hara, the Minister's private secretary, left for Kingston to-day to attend the private funeral.

Messrs. Davies, Borden and Fielding go to Kingston to-morrow.

J. W. Alexander, eldest son of the late Henry Alexander of the Privy Council Office, has been appointed a third-class clerk in the Distribution Office of the House of Commons.

Hon. Peter Mitchell is in town.

Sir Charles Tupper and Sir Adolphe Caron will attend the Conservative organization conference in Montreal to-morrow.

A timely article appears in The National Review for October, from the pen of Dr. Dawson, director of the Geological Survey, on "Canada as a field for mining investment." The Dr. does justice to the Ontario gold region.

FREE SILVERITES BOUNCED.

Dugald Crawford, the Rich Owner of a St Louis Departmental Store, Says He Wants No Anarchists.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 12.—Dugald Crawford, sole owner of one of the largest department stores in St. Louis, is an ardent advocate of the gold standard. Recently he caused a canvass of his employes to be made and found many of them free silver men. Saturday he called 12 heads of departments before him and told them they were no longer in his employ, explaining that he did not want any anarchists to breathe the air of his establishment.

The labor unions took the matter up at their weekly meeting, and Mr. Crawford was excoriated. The indignation crystallized in the appointment of a committee from various unions, who will call an indignation meeting for some evening this week to give expression to the workingmen's views on the matter. Mr. Crawford is a very wealthy man, an ex-president of the Caledonian Society, and a leader in social and business life. Chairman Cook of the Democratic State Committee last night stated that Mr. Crawford's act came within the offences punished by state law for "intimidating, coercing or unduly influencing the choice of a voter."

THE STORM RAGES.

New Jersey Coast Being Swept by Breakers and Much Property Already Destroyed.

Sea Isle City, N. J., Oct. 12.—The storm still rages here with unabated fury and the seas are rushing in against the sea wall on the beach front and on through across the town to the meadows, which for miles are a raging, surging body of water. All along the beach front the wharves have piled up wreckage and drift. All traffic on the South Jersey and West Jersey Railroads is suspended. The former road has had no trains in since Saturday night, and reports are current that the entire road from Corson's Inlet to the mainland is gone. The last train on the West Jersey came in Sunday morning. There are many bad washouts between this city and the mainland. Ocean City and the Five-Mile Beach resorts of Anglesea, Wildwood and Holly Beach are entirely cut off from the outside world. The damage to property at those resorts is large. Washouts on the Seven-Mile Beach branch of the West Jersey Railroad are reported and the Five-Mile Beach Railroad is almost entirely gone.

THE QUEEN'S SYMPATHY

As Expressed to the Widow of the Archbishop of Canterbury—Messages From Many Eminent People.

London, Oct. 12.—The Queen has sent the following message to the widow of the Archbishop of Canterbury: "I am stunned by the awful news. My heart bleeds for you, but my own sorrow is great. I was so fond of the dear, kind, excellent Archbishop."

The Court Circular expresses the grief of Her Majesty and says that she feels that the country has sustained a serious loss by the death of the eminent primate, while she has lost a friend for whom she had strong regard and affection. The Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of York, other members of the royal family and all the eminent men in the kingdom have sent messages of sympathy to the widow of the Archbishop. It is probable that the burial will take place on Friday.

IS IT HYPNOTISM?

People Gave Up Their Diamonds and Jewelry

FOR THE PROMOTION OF MISSIONS

Rev. A. B. Simpson, Formerly Pastor of Knox Church in Hamilton, Ont., Causes Intense Religious Fervor to Permeate His Audiences—$110,000 on the Plates.

New York, Oct. 13.—Outbursts of intense religious fervor marked the missionary meeting in Carnegie Hall yesterday morning. Hundreds of persons contributed $110,000 in jewelry, securities and cash to carry on the work of spreading the gospel.

It was the occasion of the sermon and offering in connection with the thirteenth annual convention of the Christian Missionary Alliance, the climax of two weeks of meetings. Men gave their watches, women their rings, children their pennies under the magic spell of simple sentences uttered by plain spoken missionaries from distant shores.

The hall was filled. There were some even in the topmost galleries. As at all such gatherings, the women were present in the greater numbers. They had gone early, and in the first rows of the main floor hardly a man was to be seen.

The Rev. A. B. Simpson, president and founder of the Alliance, delivered the missionary sermon. It was a simple address, describing the missionary endeavors of Philip, Peter, Paul and Barnabas. The point that he impressed on the audience was that the missionary was not a hero. He simply was paying his debts to God.

Then Mr. Simpson warmed to his subject, and his powerful voice filled the hall to its furthermost crannies, as, pointing to a large map of the world, he exclaimed tragically:

"Yonder 200,000 baby girls thrown to the dogs. Yonder, in Africa, 10,000,000 dying every year in the slave trade. Yonder, mothers daring not to weep for their children, flogged to death before their eyes. There in Spain, scores of insane from seeking in vain for salvation.

"You cannot go to them yourselves. Others will go in your places. In the name of a thousand million dying men, in the name of Calvary, I hand you the bill from the Master's hand. How much will you give?"

Ushers passed through the audience distributing pledge cards. On one side was a table showing that it cost $300 to support a missionary in Africa or China, $250 in India, $100 for a native preacher, $36 for a native female worker, $25 for a boy.

The offerings began to roll in. Mr. Simpson read off the pledges or called out the amount of the cash as it came in. "Twenty-five dollars, fifteen dollars, twelve hundred, a dollar from a boy of 7, five thousand." There were cries of "Hallelujah."

"An anonymous friend has contributed 10,000 shares of stock in a corporation, actual value $50,000," said Mr. Simpson. Some one started "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow," and handkerchiefs waved frantically everywhere.

For an hour the contributions continued. Now a cheque of $5000, now $1.35 in pennies, the offerings of a child, excited applause.

Those who had no money began offering jewelry. Miss Shepard, one of the missionary workers, took a stand at one end of the platform. A young girl in deep mourning laid her diamond ring at the feet of Miss Shepard. A colored man handed her his watch. Other watches and other rings followed in rapid succession till the end of the meeting.

Miss Shepard had seen such outbursts of enthusiasm at meetings before. To each who gave up a watch she gave a cheap but neat iron watch, engraved on the back of which was "Gold for iron, for Jesus' sake." Those who gave up their rings received an iron cross with the same inscription.

It was impossible to count the money as fast as it went in, but at the afternoon meeting it was announced that the morning collection had netted $110,000, more than $80,000 being in cash and stocks, the rest in pledges.

D. L. Moody spoke at the afternoon and evening meetings, and the crowd was even larger than before. Collections were taken up at both meetings, increasing the amount raised in the morning by several thousands of dollars.

Rev. A. B. Simpson is well known in Canada, and particularly in Toronto and Hamilton. Twenty-five years or so ago he was pastor of Knox Church in Hamilton and was very popular. Early in the seventies he went to New York, but has only become specially prominent in late years, since he became so successful in preaching money, jewelry and other valuables out of people for the cause of missions. On former occasions he has secured thousands of dollars in value by his unaccountable power of persuasion.

WHO WAS THIS MAN?

He Deliberately Walked Through Prospect Park at Niagara Falls and Jumped to His Death

Niagara Falls, N.Y., Oct. 12.—An unknown man about 35 years of age, 5 feet 7 inches tall, dressed in a cinnamon colored overcoat, walked through Prospect Park this afternoon about 2 o'clock down to the point, and in the presence of two men deliberately mounted the parapet and jumped into the water, and in an instant was swept over the American Falls. He left his hat on the stone curbing with 40 cents in it. There is no clue as to his identity. The body has not yet been recovered.

A Medical Man's Answers.

Bismarck's private physician, Dr. Schwenninger, recently had a public lecture and conference in Berlin, at which the hearers were invited to ask questions. Among the opinions expressed by the doctor were these: That medicines never heal disease; that the reasons why men lose their hair is because they have it cut and wear hats; that corsets are an abomination, and were first introduced by deformed women; that vaccination is useful, but should not be compulsory, etc

EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE citizens of Toronto, not content with a demand for Sunday street cars, are insisting upon a uniform three cent fare. Toronto seems determined to be consistent with its character and "go the whole hog." But the street railway is not inclined to grant the latter's modest request, influenced, perhaps, by the prudently pliant theology of the old Scotch housewife who, on a Sunday, refused a penny from a traveller for a glass of milk on the grounds that it was unreasonable to ask her to "break the Sabbath for less than saxpence."

INSPECTOR SWEETMAN of the post office department, has closed an investigation into the alleged irregularities at Quebec post office. One of the charges was that copies of a certain Conservative campaign sheet during the late elections had been allowed to pass through the post office for political purposes without the pre-payment of the postal fees. Sweetman has reported to the department that there was general carelessness at the post office in regard to this and other matters of a similar kind. The result of it has been that the officials have got off with a reprimand. They escaped lightly.

MR. J. ROSS ROBERTSON, M. P., East Toronto, is a nobleman, no not that merely but a noble man. He evidently is not desirous of making money out of politics. He has donated his parliamentary sessional indemnity of $1,000 to the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, and to keep it from being lonesome, accompanied the gift with another $1,000 from his private means, making a total of $50,000 donated by him to this institution. Mr. Robertson's munificent gifts of the past to charity prevent one being surprised at this new manifestation of his beneficence. He may make a poor politician in the baser sense of the term, but he is an honour, nevertheless, to Canadian statesmanship. His heart is in the right place.

MUNICIPAL CONTROL OF STREET RAILWAYS.

(Railroad Gazette.)

A little over two years ago Glasgow, Scotland, took possession of all the transit lines within its limits, and the details of operating them, according to the latest published reports, are as follows:

	1894-95.	1895-96.
Miles in operation	31	53
Cars	305	527
Car mileage	5,169,109	6,831,879
Passengers carried	56,9-7,519	85,951,230
Receipts	$1,169,400	$1,633,755
Average per car mile	2 4c	23c
Operating expenses	$1,011,045	$1,255,566
Average per car mile	18½c	17c

The Glasgow fares are arranged on a different scale from those in American cities. Instead of charging one fare for a single ride, long or short, the fares are divided into stages according to the distance, and vary from one to three cents. The average fare is only nine-tenths of a penny, as compared with 2.4 penny in Manchester, 1.9 in Liverpool, and 1.34 in Birmingham. The system of half-penny fares adopted in Glasgow has greatly popularized the service. The employees work ten hours a day for six days in a week. The net profit to the municipal exchequer was nearly $45,000, but, in addition to this, all interest and sinking fund charges were met, and a sum of $100,000 set aside for permanent way renewal.

Mr. E. W. HARLETT, Reeve of Chatham Township, Kent County, Ont., says: "My daughter has been very weakly for some years; she was very pale and always felt tired; she was prevailed upon by a friend, to try a box of Miller's Compound Iron Pills. I must say it was a good investment; she at once began to improve. The colour came to her cheeks, she got stronger rapidly, and now is quite well." Sold in Peterborough by Wm. Madill druggist.

EARL RUSSELL'S UNHAPPY LIFE

Detailed by His Counsel in Bow-Street Police Court—Lady Scott Committed for Trial.

London, Oct. 12.—Lady Scott was arraigned at the Bow-street Police Court this morning, in company with John Cockerton, a marine engineer, and Frederick Kast, a groom, who are prisoners on the charge of criminal libel. Counsel for Earl Russell detailed at length the unhappy married life of the prosecutor, beginning with his domestic troubles, the suit for divorce brought against him by the Countess, and describing the unsuccessful suit which she brought more recently against him for a restitution of conjugal rights. In so doing, counsel referred to the most serious charge made by the Countess, and subsequently retracted, and touched upon the reflections cast upon H. A. Roberts, the master of Bath College, who successfully sued the Countess for damages as a result. Kast and Cockerton, it appears, were employed on Earl Russell's yacht in 1887.

Lady Scott and the other defendants, Frederick Kast and John Cockerton, were committed for trial in the Criminal Court (Old Bailey), under the same bonds as were imposed upon them on Saturday—£2000 for Lady Scott and £500 each for Kast and Cockerton.

M'KINLEY HAS A CINCH.

Boss Quay Has it All Fixed Up Now, and the Bryanites Might as Well Throw Up the Sponge.

New York, Oct. 12.—The following statement was given out at the National Republican headquarters to-day, after a conference of the entire Executive Committee:

"The election of McKinley and Hobart is an accomplished and assured fact. They will receive 270 electoral votes. Bryan will receive 110, and there are six States, having 67 electoral votes, which are doubtful, but the probabilities all point to the fact that these 67 votes will go into the Republican column, and be added to the 270 now assured for McKinley and Hobart. This is the status to-day. We have the election and will hold it. Our present effort in the west is to this end only. The opposition have abandoned the east. (Signed) M. S. Quay."

Neurasthenia.

Weakened Nerves and Nervous Diseases are Cutting Off Thousands.

Paine's Celery Compound Makes Nervous People Well and Strong.

Health is the first and most important thing in this life of ours. Health is a blessing far beyond our computation; it is vastly more important than wealth or great social distinction.

One of the most dreaded troubles of the present day is nervousness. It is generally acknowledged that nervous diseases are growing alarmingly prevalent in our midst.

The causes that lead to Neurasthenia, or weakness of the nerves, are many. Business cares, feverish haste after riches, social and household worries, sexual and alcoholic excesses all contribute to the breaking down and physicial ruin of thousands of men and women.

In words of truth and soberness we set before the sick and afflicted the claims of Paine's Celery Compound as a quick relief and certain cure for all forms of nervous diseases. It is a perfect restorer of nerve force and power to the weakened and debilitated system. Prominent men and women all over the country have renewed their lives and kept their places in business and in society by using Paine's Celery Compound. In all large cities, where nervous diseases are most frequently seen, the best physicians prescribe Paine's Celery Compound with immense success.

The following letter from Mrs. Alfred Perry, Port Maitland, N. S., proves that Paine's Celery Compound has no equal for the cure of nervous diseases in whatever form they may present themselves:

"For two years my system was all run down, and I suffered more than I can describe from nervous prostration and insomnia; at times I almost lost my reason from severe pain at base of brain. My husband advised me to try Paine's Celery Compound, which I did, and the effects were wonderful. I soon began to sleep well, the pain left my head, my whole system was strengthened, and I am now enjoying very good health.

"I would cheerfully recommend Paine's Celery Compound to anyone suffering from like troubles. You have my best wishes for the future success of your excellent remedy."

THE APPLE CROP.

Woodstock Sentinel-Review.

Just now the thoughts and the talk of our farmer friends relate very much to the enormous crop of apples this season. Such a crop was never seen before. If these apples were in England, fresh from the trees, what a fortune there would be in them. But there's the rub. They are no in England, and the question is how to get them there in perfect condition. Unfortunately, we have not the reputation across the water this country deserves. One reason of it is that careless packing in the past has prejudiced the British buyer, and reputation in this, as in most cases, means something. It means a vast amount of money this year. In other words, if all Canadian farmers and all Canadian shippers had been united in the past to send nothing but the finest fruit perfectly packed, the enormous yield of this year would have brought the farmers vastly more money than they are likely to receive. This is a lesson which they should take to heart. No fruit but the best should be sent abroad, and it should be packed with the greatest skill and care. We cannot make money out out of the British or any other market in these days unless we are prepared to send abroad the finest of every farm product that can be produced.

GRAIN MEN ARE NOW ON TOP

Grain Standards Disputes to be Left to the Board at Winnipeg—President Van Horne Consults Sifton.

Winnipeg, Oct. 12.—(Special.)—The Winnipeg Grain Exchange has received a memorandum from the Dominion Government, which, it is understood, consents that the whole matter of the disputes as to the fixing of grain standards shall be left to the Grain Standards Board, which meets here in a week or so. It is certain that western men, being in the majority, will reduce the number of grades and recommend that the standard they fix upon this year be made permanent.

Sir William Van Horne, who was here to-day en route to the Pacific coast, spent two hours this morning in consultation with Mr. Sifton, the prospective Minister of the Interior. What they discussed is the subject of considerable speculation. Sir William proceeded west this afternoon.

Pearl Wilson, a well-known Winnipeg courtesan, swallowed poison early this morning in the Main-street apartments of her paramour. She lies at the point of death and doctors say she cannot recover.

Confusion as to the choice of a blood-purifier is unnecessary. There is but one best Sarsaparilla and that is Ayer's. This important fact was recognized at the World's Fair, Chicago, 1893, being the only blood-purifier admitted to be placed on exhibition.

VICTORIA COLLEGE.

Sixty Years Since Its Charter Was Granted.

A VERY INTERESTING GATHERING

Annual Convocation in the Chapel Room—Addresses by Distinguished Gentlemen—Scholarships and Medals Awarded—A Review of the History of the College.

Toronto, Oct. 13.

Victoria University held its annual convocation in the chapel room last night, before a large number of students and friends of the college. Yesterday was charter day for the college, it being just 60 years old, and it was considered an opportune date for holding the annual convocation.

Chancellor Burwash presided, and with him on the platform were Prof Goldwin Smith, Principal Sheraton, President Loudon, Drs Caven, Rand, Withrow, John Burwash, Wallace and Longford, Profs Bell, Reynar, Dean of the College, Baker, Badgley, Hornlig, Wallace and Petch, J J Maclaren, QC, and C C James, Deputy Commissioner of Agriculture, and many others. Dr. Withrow opened with prayer.

The awarding of the scholarships and medals won by the students at the University examinations last spring came next. On announcing these results, the Chairman said the success of the candidates was a source of great pride to the college.

The following are the medals, scholarships and prizes:

The W E Sanford Gold Medal (first in mathematics and physics)—A M Scott.

Special Gold Medal (first in political science)—G B Henwood.

Aberdeen Gold Medals—A M Scott.

Ames Scholarship (first year honor moderns)—A A Scott.

Robertson Scholarship (first year honor classics)—N R Wilson.

Chown Scholarship (third year honor ethics)—G J Blewett.

Clarke Prize (third year ethics)—G J Blewett.

These were presented by Prof. Badgley.

Webster Prize (first in pass English, second year)—Miss M H Skinner. This prize was presented by Prof. Petch.

Hodgins' Prize (first in pass English, third year)—Miss E B Howson; presented by Prof. Goldwin Smith.

Wilfrid Laurier Gold Medal in French Composition; donated by Prof. Petch—Miss Rossignol.

The Chancellor then called on Dr. Henry Hough, LL.B., to read an address on the history of the University. Young men, he said, were drawn by feelings of sentiment to the denominational college of their choice. Were this sentiment absent or removed probably they would not have been educated at all. For this reason he opened his address with a plea for denominational colleges. Victoria began under such control, but from the very first had opened its halls to all classes and all creeds. Naturally, however, it had been the classic home for Methodists, though there was no chair in theology there for 30 years after it was founded.

In 1829 the Methodist authorities began an agitation for an educational seminary of their own. Cobourg, "on the old Ontario strand," was chosen as the site, it being situated most centrally. After much diligence and trouble had been expended by Dr. Ryerson, Sir John Colborne, the then Governor, was persuaded to overcome his religious scruples, and the charter of Victoria College was obtained on the 12th of October, 1836, just 60 years ago.

In the following year, 18th of June, the doors were opened with Rev. Dr. Ritchie as first principal. In the first year 137 students enrolled, the majority of them being women. In 1839 Rev. Jesse Herbert became principal. During these years the college labored under great financial difficulties, and it was only by great efforts on the part of such men as Dr. Ryerson that it was kept from collapsing. In 1841 University powers were granted. The name of Victoria was given, along with a grant of £500 by the Government. To Victoria was given the honor of graduating the first woman in arts in Canada.

Dr. Ryerson became president in 1842 and held that position for a number of years with honor and distinction to the college. Dr. Alexander McNol followed him, who, in turn, was followed after four years by the late Rev. S. S. Nelles, M.A., B.D., who guided its existence for 37 years. Under him many extensions were made from time to time, and to him Victoria owes its true character as a broad, liberal university. Associated with him as professors were Chancellor Burwash, Dr Reynar, Dr Harvie, F Breslaw and Dr C P Coleman. These men are present professors, save Dr Harvie.

To Dr. Nelles' instrumentality the present endowment fund of $250,000 of the college is due. In 1854 the department of medicine was added to the college; in 1860 that of law, and in 1873 theology was added. In the same year Victoria and Albert College became affiliated and Victoria for the first time was called a university. In 1887 Chancellor Nelles died and was followed as Chancellor by Dr. Burwash.

In 1873 federation began to be agitated. At first both Dr. Nelles and Dr. Burwash strongly favored the movement, but in time the former changed his mind and became a bitter opponent. For seven years the agitation went on, when Victoria became affiliated to Toronto University in 1890, and was at once removed to Toronto.

During its history Victoria has graduated 600 B.A.'s, 963 doctors, 125 LL.B.'s and 41 LL.D.'s.

The next speaker was Dr. Caven. He said the history of Victoria was one of which no academic body need be ashamed. It was in the interests of education and of freedom to establish Victoria, and Canada owed a great deal to Dr. Ryerson for the strong manly stand he took for freedom in her hour of need. He said it was a very noticeable thing that in all ages and in all lands the church had had much to do with the question of freedom.

Referring to confederation, he thought it a good thing. The University helps the colleges and the colleges aid the University. The benefit is reciprocal. He believed every man should be a religious man, and everything should be pervaded with religion, and all institutions should be under religious auspices. If he thought the religious colleges stood in the way of the study of science he would protest against federation, as he believed science should be unfettered. But he thought religion fitted men for such studies pre-eminently. None of the colleges had ever dictated to the University what course it should pursue in such matters.

In concluding, he said he would like to see the Protestant Churches of Canada drawn closer than they had been in the past.

President Loudon, on arising, congratulated the University on reaching its 60th year. He spoke of the friendly relations that had always existed between Victoria and the University, and hoped that time would strengthen them still more. He considered that Victoria received very material advantages from the partnership, as was evidenced by the scholarships that two of her students, Messrs. Scott and Cameron, had won. In the science department Victoria did not contribute any fees, and the former of these gentlemen had carried off a $750 scholarship each year for three years. He then spoke of the plan outlined at University convocation some time ago for raising money.

By a unanimous call from the students Professor Goldwin Smith made a short speech. He said he was always glad to be present on such occasions, as they recalled to his mind his own student days. He was one of the five chosen to promote the scheme of confederation. The main reason given at the time was that Ontario was too poor to support more than one University properly equipped. He did not agree with President Loudon in asking the Government for money as it would mix the institution up with politics too much.

Concluding, he gave the students some sound advice: Observe regular hours and stop reading when the brain is tired, and do more work at night and less in the morning.

The last address was given by the Chancellor himself. He compared Victoria as a college with the colleges in Oxford in respect to numbers of students. In Victoria there were 253; in any of the Oxford colleges there were less than 300, and Cambridge has but one college exceeding that number. He then spoke of the moral motive of the work of the college in contrast to secular education furnished by an undenominational institution. He said the colleges should teach languages, while the University should devote itself to science.

Adverting to the social life in college, the Chancellor said: "College life implies a common life under a common rule in a common house and is a daily fellowship of work. Its result should be the production of educated men, men of liberal culture. And the curriculum, the subjects of study should be those which furnish the best means of broad mental and spiritual development."

The second advantage of college education, as compared with that in a University, was the advantages of personal attention of the professors, which was impossible in the large class of a university. He then dwelt at some length on the value of student influence upon one another.

ANTHONY AND DANIEL.

Brothers Named Willmann Who Died So Nearly at the Same Time That They Will Be Buried Together.

Buffalo, N.Y., Oct. 12.—In death Daniel and Anthony Willmann were not far divided. Anthony Wilmann was one of Buffalo's oldest German citizens. He came to Buffalo from Baden, German, 57 years ago with his parents, who settled in this city. Anthony has ever since resided here. Twenty-two years ago he opened the Farmers' Inn, at the corner of Chippewa and Washington-streets, opposite the Chippewa Market, and conducted this hostelry up to the time of his death Saturday. Anthony had a younger brother named Daniel, who was 18 years Anthony's junior. He was also a Buffalonian up to a few years ago, when he with his family moved to Hamilton, Canada. Daniel Willmann was a strong, rugged young man, but a few years ago Anthony developed symptoms of consumption.

Daniel Willmann, with his family, settled in Hamilton, where he prospered. Friday afternoon Anthony Willmann received a despatch from Hamilton, Ont., signed by James and Mamie, the children of Daniel, stating that their father had just died of neuralgia of the heart, and that they were going to send his body to Buffalo for burial.

At the time the despatch arrived Anthony himself was very low with the wasting disease with which he was afflicted, and his death was momentarily expected. After receiving the news of his brother's death, Anthony began sinking rapidly, and Saturday afternoon he died.

Daniel's body was brought to Buffalo, and the remains of the two brothers were laid out side by side in the residence of the elder, at the corner of Chippewa and Washington-streets. Anthony was 64 years old, and Daniel was 46. Three daughters and a son survive Anthony. They are Eleanor, Clara, Ida and Leo. Both funerals will take place to-morrow morning.

A SENSELESS SCARE.

British Cruiser Talbot Reported Lost Because She Was a Day Late in Reaching Halifax.

Halifax, Oct. 12.—The British cruiser Talbot, concerning the safety of which a startling rumor was given currency in London to-day, sailed into Halifax harbor at 5 o'clock this afternoon. She saluted the flag of Vice-Admiral Erskine as she moved to her anchoring place. The Talbot sailed from Portsmouth Oct. 3, having been commissioned for the British North American and West Indian stations. She is one of Britain's newest ships of war, and this is the first time she has been in American waters. The news from London that she was reported to have foundered at sea created intense excitement in naval circles here, and also among the military. Three hours after the sensational report was received the ship was sighted off this port.

WHAT DOES RUSSIA MEAN?

She is Mobilizing Her Troops at Black Sea Ports—Inland Garrisons Ordered to be Ready for Moving.

London, Oct. 12.—The Daily Graphic will to-morrow publish a despatch from Sebastopol saying that Russia is continuing her preparations for an emergency. The local military and naval forces at Sebastopol, Odessa and Batoum have been mobilized. Gen. Bobrikoff, Chief of the War Office staff, recently arrived at Sebastopol and has held important conferences with the local commanders. He has inspected the garrison and arsenal and has picked out a company of submarine engineers who have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness to immediately embark upon a gunboat. This gunboat is already loaded with mines, shells and torpedoes. The interior garrisons in Poland, Taurida and the Caucasus have received orders to be in readiness at a moment's notice to board special trains for ports on the Euxine.

AMATEUR CYCLIST.

Wants Bicycle Riders and the Public to Know That he was Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, (Special) Oct. 5.—People generally, who take an interest in cycling, as well as amateurs and professionals everywhere, will remember a name familiar in sporting events.—Mr. Louis H. Bounsell, who resides at 573 King street east, this city. Bicycle riders will be especially pleased to learn that his reappearance this season in good form is due to his entire recovery from serious kidney trouble which had for a long time been interfering with his work. He desires all his friends as well as the public to know that his recovery is entirely due to using three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Tobacco Heart.

Much heart and nerve weakness is caused by undue use of tea, coffee, and tobacco palpitation, nervousness, irritability, exhaustability, lack of confidence, etc., are sure symptoms. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills bring ready relief, by steadying the nerves and regulating the heart. They are true heart and nerve food.

A Grim Reminder.

A travelling crematory will hereafter accompany every German regiment in time of war. It consists of a huge kind of baking oven, mounted on four wheels. It is said that the soldiers resent the innovation on the ground that the machine is a too vivid reminder of the horrors of war.

The inventor claims that the machine will dispose of the killed in a few hours but it is not improbable that some of the wounded might be cremated by mistake. The invention does not find favor elsewhere, and it is to be hoped that such a grewsome object will not become general.

Drawing the Line.

A Dutch court martial has decided that it is not insorbordinate for a soldier to refuse to wash his face when ordered to do so by his commanding officer, and the high military court of the kingdom has confirmed the decision.

THE WOMEN TOO.

Back Talk Not Man's Monopoly.

Mrs. Jemima Cole, Havelock, told the following wonderful story:—"For a great many years I have suffered from disease of the kidneys. The pains in my back and side were sometimes excruciating.

"My limbs were so swollen that I could scarcely lift my feet from the floor, and I was in great agony nearly all the time. I thought that I would surely die from the pain.

"I have taken dozens of advertised remedies, ant got no better during their use. I was also treated by several doctors, but am sorry to say they did me little or no good. In fact they stated that they could do me no good, which made me despair of ever getting better.

"When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised I sent to W. H. Jeff & Co's. drugstore and got a box thinking I would try them as a last resort.

"The change from the start was very great and now after one month I am free from all pain. The swelling has gone down and I feel quite strong and healthy.

"I was also troubled with rheumatism and neuralgia which have completely disappeared, thanks to the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. In fact I do not think there is a medicine in the world that in such a short time could have taken me from the almost dying condition in which I was to the healthy and vigorous state that I am in now.

"I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for their wonderful virtues in curing kidney troubles."

MUSICAL INFORMATION!

A GOOD PIANO IS A LIBERAL EDUCATION.

What is there that so opens the mind to good and gentle inspiration as music?

What is there so inspiring or enobling in its influence? The music however must be good music. And good music cannot be produced from a bad Piano. The influence of the most charming voice or the most perfect violin, however well handled, is destroyed if accompanied by a bad piano.

MASON & RISCH PIANOS ARE THE INSTRUMENTS OF THE CULTURED.

They are found in the homes of our most refined and wealthiest citizens, where the Piano is viewed not as a mere article of furniture, but as the interpreter of our deepest feelings.

The prices of Mason & Risch Pianos are not unreasonable, quality considered, in fact they are much lower than most people suppose, but they give satisfaction from the first, and they last.

Our terms of payment are most liberal and we give straight cash quotations, without any nonsense about catalogue prices. We invite correspondence, and will mail catalogues and lists of purchasers free on application.

It particularly appeals to children, inasmuch as one of the principal points of interest in connection with the story is the role enacted by a little child of about six years of age. On Saturday afternoon a children's matinee will be given, when "The Burglar" will be repeated. Saturday night the company will present the comedy drama, "The American Girl," a beautiful play of the highest type. Prices 25, 35 and 50c.; matinee prices, children, 15c; adults, 25 and 35c.

HAZEL BRAE.

Welcome the Coming Speed the Parting Superintendent — Miss Woodgate Retires.

Miss Woodgate who has, for the past six years, been the efficient and popular—both with inmates and the general public—superintendent of the Hazel Brae branch of the Barnardo Homes, retires from the position and will return to England. The success of Miss Woodgate's incumbency and the satisfactory manner in which she has discharged her duties is shown by the fact that she filled the office twice as long as the three preceding superintendents. Miss Woodgate will be greatly missed in Peterborough, especially in the Home where she has so efficiently presided the past half dozen years. She will be succeeded by Mrs. Metcalfe who, with her husband, will become valuable additions to the citizenship of the town. Mr. Metcalfe is a well known writer of books for boys. His book, "The Boy Skipper" had a very large sale and a hearty welcome is assured his forthcoming work, "On the Face of the Deep."

Miss Woodgate leaves for England on Thursday, sailing on Friday by the splendid new steamship "Canada." Miss Woodgate seems to have become so much attached to Canada that she is taking it with her across the ocean. It is hoped that she will miss Canada as much as those who had the pleasure of her acquaintance in Peterborough will miss her.

POVERTY AND WRETCHEDNESS.

The Condition of a Family Visited by the C. A. S. Officer.

The Children's Aid Society officers visited a family this morning composed of the parents and five healthy children. The condition of their surroundings gave every evidence of the utmost poverty and wretchedness. Two of the children are of school age, but it is impossible to send them, as they have no clothes. Nor is the prospect a desirable one if they are fed and clothed and yet left in their wretched state. The problem of how to deal with this class is just beginning to be solved. Not greater effort, but more united charitable effort, is required.

The Price of Apples.

The low prices ruling for fruit in this country seem to be prevalent all over the world. The following extract from the Dublin Irish Times of Sept. 19th shows that fall apples are worth no more in Ireland than they are in this country: "At present in the local markets there are very poor prices obtainable for fruit and in many instances it has to be carted home by farmers without receiving an offer. This is attributable to the plentitude of fruit this season. Never within living memory were apples so plentiful in Armagh and Tyrone. Prices per cwt, bag in the local markets range from 8d. to 10d.

BOARD OF TRADE MET LAST NIGHT.

Arrangements for the Reception of Hon. A. G. Blair.

THE MINISTER'S TRIP OVER THE T. V. C. SYSTEM.

He will Probably be Banquetted in Peterborough, and an Effort will be Made to Present the Advantages of the Scheme in the Most Favourable Light.

The Board of Trade assembled last evening for the first time since the adjournment for the summer months. The President, Mr. Benj. Shortly, occupied the chair, and the following members were present: Messrs. J. S. Knapman, secretary, T. E. Bradburn, T. A. S. Hay, John Carnegie, R. B. Rogers, J. M. Irwin, Wm. Manson, Robt. Fair, Robt. McWhinnie, J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., G. W. Ranney, C.E., A. Clegg, and A. L. Davis.

Two very important subjects came up for discussion during the evening, viz., the arranging for the entertainment of Hon. Mr. Blair, Minister of Railways and Canals, whilst passing through Peterborough on his tour of inspection over the Trent Valley Canal, and the perfecting of arrangements whereby the full merits of the work might be brought to his notice. The other topic of discussion was relative to the memoralizing of the Government in an endeavour to obtain the assurance that no change in the present tariff should be made for a period of six months after the revision took place.

Mr. John Carnegie was called upon by the President to introduce the two subjects. He took up first that pertaining to the trip of the Minister of Railways and Canals over the proposed route of

THE TRENT VALLEY CANAL.

He understood that the trip was to be taken immediately, and urged upon the Board the necessity of endeavouring to offer Hon. Mr. Blair every opportunity of gathering all possible information concerning the subject, and the doing of everything calculated to give the Minister such an impression concerning the importance of the work as to induce him to take back a favourable report to his confreres. As the Board of Trade was a non-political body, their efforts in this direction would have great weight. He had advocated the scheme when the Conservatives were in power, and now that the Liberals held the reins of Government he was prepared to stand shoulder to shoulder with them and he was confident that every citizen of the counties along the line of the canal would do likewise. The opportunity of impressing the Government with the importance of the work was a grand one, and no effort should be spared to bring details to the notice of the minister.

CONCERNING THE OTHER SUBJECT

Mr. Carnegie stated that at present business was in a very precarious condition on account of the expected revision of the tariff, as had been the case when the Conservative party proposed making a change. He thought that the American mode should be adopted of announcing that no change would be made until a certain date. He thought the present Government was acting most wisely in taking plenty of time to revise the tariff, as once the matter was thoroughly investigated and settled, business could be carried on with more confidence as no sudden changes would be made. At present the manufacturers could get no orders for goods, as the wholesalers did not know upon what articles the duty would be lowered and they might stock up with goods at a loss, if imported manufactures could be brought in at a reduced rate. The Board of Trade, he thought, would restore a feeling of confidence if they could persuade the government to announce that any of the reductions which were made in the tariff would not come into force until the revision. The Montreal wholesalers were all in favour of this scheme. The manufacturers could not expect orders under the existing state of affairs and many would have to close for the winter unless some such announcement was made.

Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., stated that in a recent letter received from the Minister of Railways and Canals, Mr. Blair, had expressed his inability to pronounce upon the feasibility of continuing the work on the Canal until he had a more definite knowledge concerning it and that he would arrange to take a trip over the proposed route immediately after the close of the session. Mr. Stratton expressed the conviction that the work would go on and stated that he would be glad to co-operate with the Board of Trade in any way to this end. He suggested that the Board act in conjunction with the Council in sending a deputation to Hastings to meet the Minister at that point and accompany him over the Canal route. An opportunity should be taken while Mr. Blair was in Peterborough to present the

and the best way to do this was through the medium of a banquet, when arrangements could be made for the lucid presentation of all the details of the scheme. Mr. Stratton suggested that the matter be put in the hands of a committee composed of Messrs. J. M. Irwin, D. W. Dumble and John Carnegie, these gentlemen being probably more conversant with the entire details than anyone else. They could address the Minister at the banquet and present the case in the best possible light. He was confident that the committee named could do this in so convincing a manner, as to prove to Mr. Blair the necessity of the immediate completion of the work. Mr. Stratton also stated that he had suggested to Mayor Yelland the advisability of asking the Warden of the county to attend a meeting of the town council to be held to-morrow (Tuesday) evening when the matter would be discussed. The committee he named should also attend this meeting.

In regard to Mr. Carnegie's other suggestion relative to the fixing of the date of coming into force of a revised tariff at for six months, he thought there was a great deal in what had been brought forward.

HE THOUGHT

that there would be no difficulty in arranging matters so that any changes made would not conflict with the manufacturing industries, as the Government was desirous of protecting the capital invested in every way possible. If the different Boards of Trade memorialized the government to this effect doubtless the required assurance would be given so that the manufacturers would be reasonably secure in going on with their work.

Mr. Shortly strongly endorsed Mr. Stratton's idea concerning the giving of a banquet.

Mr. Carnegie further suggested that local deputations should be posted all along the line to receive the Minister as he progressed.

Mr. J. M. Irwin suggested that if the banquet was held a deputation should be present from the northern part of the route in order that the claims of that part of the work might be pressed by those who were thoroughly acquainted with the subject. He read a letter from Mr. Burton, of Barrie, urging that Peterborough do everything in its power to favourably impress the Ministers.

It was moved by Mr. J. R. Stratton and Mr. T. A. S. Hay, That Messrs. Carnegie, Irwin, Dumble, Davis, and the President of the Board of Trade, be a special committee to act in conjunction with the town and county councils of Peterborough and Trenton, Lindsay and Simcoe friends of the Trent Valley Canal, in arranging for the reception to be tendered the Minister of Railways and Canals on his proposed visit of inspection of this very important public work, and that the co-operation of these different representative bodies be invited—Carried.

Mr. Stratton's name was also added to the committee.

ANOTHER RESOLUTION.

On motion of Messrs. J. Carnegie and R. Fair, it was resolved that in view of the proposed revision of the tariff and the consequent unsettlement of prospective values of nearly all classes of merchandise, it is the opinion of this Board of Trade that the Dominion Government may with great advantage to the merchantile, manufacturing and agricultural interests of the country, adopt and at once announce as a part of their fiscal policy, the maintenance of duties now imposed under the existing tariff for a period of (say) six months after the adoption of the proposed revised tariff by the Dominion Government.

That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Premier, the Minister of Finance, and of Trade and Commerce, and the Controller of Customs, and to the several Boards of Trade throughout the country, and that a committee be named by the President who shall have authority to take such action as they may deem expedient to press this matter upon the immediate attention of the Government.

On motion of Mr. Fair, the following gentlemen were proposed and accepted as members of the Board: Mr. F. J. Rogers, of the Bank of Montreal, Mr. Joseph L. McClelland of the People's Coal Company, and Mr. J. E. Whitton.

COMMUNICATIONS

were received and referred as follows:—

From the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, asking that the Peterborough Board of Trade annual report be sent to their library.—Received.

From General Manager Van Horn of the C.P.R., contradicting the report that the Canadian Pacific intended establishing any more shops.

From W. G. Parmelee, Deputy Minister of Trade and Commerce, as follows:

DEPARTMENT OF TRADE AND COMMERCE,
OTTAWA, August 29th, 1896.

The President of the Board of Trade, Peterborough.

SIR,—I am directed by the Minister of Trade and Commerce to request you to call the attention of your Board to the subject of the possible extension of the trade of the Dominion in various directions.

The Minister will be pleased to receive and consider any suggestions which you or your colleagues may see fit to offer on the methods whereby, in your opinion existing trade can be increased, or new traffic developed in any direction.

In particular, he would be glad to be advised whether you have to report any material alterations within the past year in the quantities and values of the principal articles now exported from your section of the Dominion to other countries.

Secondly—Whether in your opinion the traffic in any of these articles could be readily increased, and if so, in which classes and to what countries.

Thirdly—Whether there are any other articles which you consider might be exported to advantage, and if which and to what markets.

I have the honour to be, sir,
Your obedient servant,
W. G. PARMELEE,
Deputy Minister.

Referred to the Committee on Trade and Commerce.

The Board then adjourned.

WINTER'S WORK FOR THE YOUNG PEOPLE.

OF THE MURRAY STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

Exposition of the Christian Culture Course—Rev. V. H. Cowsert Addresses Sunday and Monday—Baptist Young People's Union's Work Cut out for Them—Interesting Addresses—Much Matter for Serious Thought.

Sunday and Monday evenings were devoted in the Murray street Baptist church to special services under the auspices of the Young People's Union of Christian Endeavour. There was a large attendance at both the Sunday services and fine addresses were delivered by Rev. Vernon H. Cowsert, of Belleville, bearing specially upon the subject of the special services.

On Sunday evening Mr. Cowsert took for his text Psalm cxix., 59 and 60:

"I thought on my ways and turned my feet unto thy testimonies. I made haste and delayed not to keep thy commandments."

The speaker quoted the words of some eminent man, who had said, "If a man is not converted he dies two deaths—the natural death and the spiritual death, but he who is born twice shall never die."

The devil is very anxious to put obstacles in the way of persons who are trying to live good lives. He suggests to these all kinds of thoughts—some of them most absurd. He tries to make them believe that because they do not believe some of the mysteries of the Bible, there is no truth in any of it. The Bible has two sides—a human and Divine side—that we must consider. So had Jesus Christ. He was just as much man as God. So with the subject of predestination. Some people will agree on one side and some on the other, while half the time both are right. So in the process of conversion, the man is worked on by human thought and the Holy Spirit. The practical side is the spiritual side. "This," said the speaker, "is clearly defined in the text. If any unconverted person here to-night is stumbling over some object which is in their way and hinders them from becoming Christians, let them take the three steps of the sweet singer of Israel." You will notice, in the first place, that in our text the Psalmist thought first. How few people there are who upon this subject as they should. It is very marvellous when we stop and inquire into the action of all the parts of our brain which causes us to think. One moment you can have your imagination carried to Rome, the next to Jerusalem, and so forth, by thought. It is very wonderful, also, to see some of man's very clever inventions. One is inclined to say, sometimes, on beholding some of these wonderful objects: "What hath God not wrought through human ingenuity and thought?" Man is the only animal that can laugh or think. And another subject for wonder is how miraculously God has taken care of the Jews. In spite of the fact that they have to put up with all kinds of hardships their death rate is 14 per cent. less than any other people. There is one sin that God would hold the Jews responsible for, and that is a lack of consideration. The speaker said that there was not one person present who intended to be damned. "How can be escape if we neglect so great a salvation?" There are plenty of people who are committing the great sin of "putting off" this task. Some people say that they will not go to church because there are so many hypocrites in the church. Well, there are eleven hypocrites out of the church to every one in it, and still you will associate with them every day of your life. Because there is one bad hypocrite in the church, that is not to say that the church is entirely composed of them. Why should you act the fool in this all-important question? If you you will be in the company of hypocrites all eternity. They will not be in heaven. Take the beam out of your own eye and never mind the mote in your brother's eye. How many people are there who would not be ashamed of their character if it were photographed and shown to the world? Then you will notice in the second place that the Psalmist says, "And turned my feet unto thy testimonies. First he meditated upon the subject and then he was convinced of his sins. God has a right to our hearts. He reveals Himself in all nature; in the rain, clouds and thunder. A certain infidel once wrote "There is no God." While he was in gaol a little plant was in his cell and by and by it blossomed, and was the means in God's hands of converting him. He then wrote "There is a God." Another infidel asked a preacher if there really was a God, and when he was told there was, he replied "then why isn't He attending to His business. If He was the devil wouldn't have so much to do." Another infidel wrote "God is no where," and a little Christian girl seeing it, read it "God is now here."

GO TO PERDITION

And the third thought is, "I made haste and delayed not to keep thy commandments." After the Psalmist had thought he became convinced and then he came to Christ. If there were more people as reasonable as the Psalmist and who thought over this matter in the same way they would soon become converted also. What the age needs is more of the Bible and less of the world.

MONDAY EVENING'S MEETING.

The final meeting of the services inaugurating the winter course of the Baptist Young People's Union of Christian Endeavor of the Murray street Baptist church was held last night. There was a fair sized audience present in the church. Mr. Lewis Croly, president of the Union, occupied the chair.

Preliminary to the address of the evening by Rev. V. H. Cowsert, of Belleville, the choir led in a service of song very acceptably rendered.

After the singing of a hymn, Rev. C. E. McLeod, president of the Christian Endeavour Union of Ontario and Quebec, led in prayer.

Mr. E. A. Stanley, vice president of the local union, briefly explained the nature of the special course of study to be pursued by the local union for the third year. The Baptist Young People's Union was international, and that explained the presence of the Stars and Stripes draped with the Union Jack above the platform. The Union was denominational, and the course of study was to familiarize the members with the principles and doctrines of the Baptist church. However, the Union recognized its affiliation with the Christian Endeavour Society. Mr. Stanley mentioned in detail the subjects and course of study from week to week.

Mr. Cowsert addressed the meeting upon to be pursued the coming winter. Before beginning his address the speaker referred to the British and American flags draped together as representing the two greatest Christian forces in the world. The object of the Christian Culture Course was first dealt with. It was in sympathy with the educational impules of the age, and as a rule educated men and women in the world could give the best service to the Lord. The time of grinding an axe was no loss of time in felling the forest, and extensive preparations for Christian work was no less either. But education and culture were a curse unless consecrated. The beauty of the Christian culture was to bring out the Christ life in the character of those that pursued the course. The nature of the Christian culture course was defined. The first was the Bible course which touched upon the devotional life, and in this busy age the need of a devotional spirit was the greatest, and the object of the Bible readers' course was to deepen the spiritual life. The pernicious effects of evil literature were emphasized and the remedy pointed out was conscientious study of the Bible. There was one thing better than reading the Bible and that was doing it.

THE CHRISTIAN CULTURE COURSE

THE MISSIONARY CONQUEST COURSE

was of the greatest importance, for the Gospel was essentially a missionary gospel. The importance of the study of Missionary organization was emphasized, for no other church had so glorious a missionary record as the Baptist. It should be an inspiration to every Baptist, and one could not learn too much of it. It would raise in us an irresistible enthusiasm in missionary work. Next followed the sacred literature course, which was important, because every life was influenced by doctrine which gave a better conception of the work and character of Jesus Christ and his personal life. No Christian could afford to be ignorant of it. These studies would give those that pursued them a better view of the Saviour. Among the results of these courses was that of making one "sound in the faith" without making him narrow. They would show that all doctrine centred around Jesus Christ. These studies would tend to make one doctrinally liberal without making one loose, and to make us broad without being latitudinarian. The study of these courses as a whole would give us a well rounded Christian character, and the speaker closed by praying God's blessing upon the course to be pursued by the local union the coming winter.

At the conclusion of the address a cordial vote of thanks, moved by Mr. Stanley and Mr. Routley, was passed to the speaker of the evening, and was briefly acknowledged.

The musical services were of a special character, and were conducted by the organist and choir leader, Mrs. Brodigan. In addition to the singing of several hymns there was an anthem, "Praise the Lord," in which the tenor solo was taken by Dr. Scott and a quartette by Dr. and Mrs. Scott, Miss Hutchinson and Mr. Routley, the solos being taken by Dr. Scott and Mrs. Scott; and a chorus by the younger members of the choir.

The series of services was considered successful, especially in awakening interest and stimulating enthusiasm in the winter's work of the Union, as detailed in the address of Rev. Mr. Cowsert.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Annual Meeting of the Catholic Literary Society.

The annual meeting of the Catholic Literary Society was held last evening and was largely attended and most enthusiastic.

The election of officers proved keen and exciting in many instances and resulted as follows:

Hon. President—Right Rev. Bishop O'Connor.
Hon. Directors—Ven. Archdeacon Casey and Rev. Fathers Fitzpatrick, Scanlan and Calnan.
President—P. Doris.
1st Vice-President—Jas. Hickey.
2nd Vice-President—Dr. Maher.
Rec.-Secretary—L. V. O'Connor.
Fin. Secretary—J. Hanrahan.
Treasurer—A. Murty.
Board of Directors—James Dolan, Jos. Picard, jr., A. McPherson, T. Begley, John Corkery, R. Sheehy, J. L. O'Brien, M. Riley, A. J. Gouge, W. Thorne, T. B. McGrath, James Lynch, H. LeBrun, F. McFadden.

During the evening Ven. Archdeacon Casey addressed the society in a congratulatory manner regarding the interest which was manifested in the meetings and on the excellent staff of officers which had been elected. It is due to Archdeacon Casey to say that it is largely owing to his unfailing interest that the society has prospered and grown until it is now on a firm basis.

A meeting of the board of directors is called for to-morrow evening, when the standing committees of the year will be struck.

THE TRENT VALLEY CANAL.

The proposed visit of Hon. A. G. Blair, Minister of Railways and Canals, to the route of the Trent Valley Canal is a matter of great importance to this town and district. It is commendable in the minister to make this visit so that he can intelligently consider the situation, and base his action upon personal knowledge of the conditions to be dealt with. The history of the canal is associated with the persistent urging of the matter of its construction upon Dominion Ministers. In spite of the merits of the work, as affording the shortest possible water route from the harvest fields of the great Northwest to the seaboard, it is bound to meet with vigilant opposition from various sources. The great railway corporations object to such a formidable opponent, in the matter of rates, and Toronto views with disfavour the possibility of developing this district, largely at her expense, by the diversion of a great trade to the Trent Valley Canal route. Therefore, it is urgent that the advantages of the canal should be presented to Mr. Blair in the strongest light possible. For this reason it is important that the Board of Trade and the Town Council should co-operate with this end in view. The former took action last night and the Council will fully consider the matter at to-night's meeting. It is to be hoped that some well-matured plan will be arrived at by which the visiting Minister may receive the strongest possible proofs of the feasibility of the Canal and of the necessity of pushing on the work to completion. There is no question or should be no question of discontinuing the work. Already there has been spent upon the work of permanent construction, or will have been, when the pending contracts are completed, between a million and a half and two million dollars. To a very great extent, except for merely local purposes, this would be thrown away unless it is supplemented by further expenditure. To rest content with what has been done, would be very like a man building a fine house and stopping short of putting on the roof.

BRITISH COLUMBIA BENCH.

Mr. A. J. McColl, Q. C., of New Westminster, B. C., has been appointed Judge of the Supreme Court of British Columbia at a salary of $5,000. There has been a great deal of speculation and denunciation of appointments, made by Conservative journals only, in respect of the above vacancy. One journal has nominated and appointed Mr. Joseph Martin of Winnipeg, and another Mr. D. C. Fraser, M.P., of Guysborough. But the Government did not, to suit these speculators in sensations, transgress the provision of the British North American Act, which requires that Judges shall be selected from the bar of the Province. Another evidence of the Laurier Government's determination to respect the constitution and the doctrine of provincial rights.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Wheel Talk and Items of Local and General Interest to Sportsmen.

LACROSSE.

One last word in reference to the lacrosse match of last Saturday between the printers. Last evening Mr. Fred. Lynch, the referee, stated to an EXAMINER representative, in the presence of witnesses, that Rubidge, one of the umpires, had told him personally that the Times players had scored but one goal in the match. When an umpire makes such a statement to a referee there is but one conclusion to draw—the Times hallooed before it was out of the woods.

Word was received in Peterborough last night that the Orillians had been sustained in their protest, as four of the Peterborough boys' certificates had been signed by the secretary instead of by the players. It seems that Lipsett, Mein, Brown and Jack McCabe were not around to sign, and the secretary endorsed their certificates himself. As the boys are all well-known home players who have never played with any other club, it seems hard that Peterborough has to lose through such a trivial technicality. The Toronto papers do not mention a word about the matter, and as Mr. Horkins has not returned home yet it is thought that he may be able to fix the matter in some way.

THE WHEEL.

Interest in the road race continues to grow. Everybody is going in to have a try at the big list of prizes. An entry was received to-day from a rider who has only had a wheel for two weeks. There are so many prizes that almost everyone will get one. The first men in the race are sent off from the Market Square at 3 p.m., Monday. Since it has been known that Mr. R. H. Kells is offering a dress for the wife of the first married man who crosses the line, the entries in this class have begun to rush in. Get your entry filed as soon as possible.

The Toronto Globe says: "Bounsall and Greatrix will be probable starters in the Peterborough road race on the 19th of this month." The race is on the 19th, not the 25th.

CLASSES IN MECHANICAL DRAWING.

A Large Attendance at the Opening of the Course.

The course in mechanical drawing at the Public Library under the tutorship of Mr. Edward J. Banfield, began last night under most encouraging conditions. There was an attendance of twenty, which is considered excellent, for the initial lesson, since a class of twelve is considered sufficiently large to warrant beginning. It is probable that this number will be largely added to at the next two or three lessons, as it is practicable for young men to join the classes with advantage during the next month or so.

The classes will meet for instruction on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 7.30, and the lessons will last till 9.30. But there will be no class meeting to night, Thursday night's being the next. The course consists of forty lessons, and at the rate indicated it will take the class well into March before it is concluded.

It is unnecessary to urge the importance of the information imparted at these classes, especially to young men just entering upon the acquirement of mechanical knowledge; and those who are well advanced in the practical knowledge of mechanics will derive great benefit from the theoretical information to be gained in the classes in question. The seed sown by devoting two nights a week to these classes will, if rightly applied, represent a bountiful harvest of success in after life.

Importing Tailors and Gentlemen's Outfitters

The man who stands idly by and sees the life fading out of his wife's face, sees her health going, sees her becoming old and faded and wrinkled when she should still be in the perfect enjoyment of vigorous, useful health, is either less than a man or else does not know of the one remedy which will bring her back to health and strength. Most women do not understand their own bodies, or the things that make them well or sick. The most frequent cause of sickness in women is the cause last looked for. A women will go to a doctor when she has a severe cold, or some acute digestive disturbance, but she hesitates and procrastinates when the trouble is with the distinctly feminine organism. And yet the latter is infinitely more serious. It is the most serious sickness that any woman can have. It is the most dreadful—the most dangerous. Its consequences are always serious, and serious right at the beginning because it is debilitating. It saps the life and strength and works on the nerves to such an extent that the whole body is disturbed. Appetite leaves, the color goes from the face and hollows sink into the cheeks. Irritability succeeds good temper and fretfulness takes the place of contentment. Little by little life becomes more and more miserable. The woman is killing herself with neglect just as surely as if she were taking deadly poison. Perhaps her husband cannot persuade her to go to her doctor, because she naturally dreads the inevitable examinations and "local treatments." He can persuade her, if she needs persuasion, to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This truly wonderful medicine has cured hundreds of women after the best physicians have failed. It has been in constant use and tested every day for 30 years. It isn't an experiment, there are no chances about it. It is a certain and infallible cure for all derangements peculiar to women. Those who care to know all about it, and to receive the best medical work ever prepared for the general public are invited to send 31 one-cent stamps to cover customs and mailing only and receive a copy of Dr. Pierce's 1008 page book, "Common Sense Medical Adviser." BALMORAL'S CHARMS.

SKETCHES OF THE FAVORITE RESIDENCE OF QUEEN VICTORIA.

Once Prince Albert's Property, It Has Yearly Become More Endeared to Her Majesty—Charming Resort Where Nature and Art Have Joined Hands.

Balmoral Castle, where the Czar and Czarina are now the guests of Queen Victoria, and where she passed the day on which she became England's longest reigning sovereign, is the favorite residence of the Queen. Originally it was Prince Albert's property, the creation of his artistic skill and the scene of the Queen's early wedded life.

Twice every year, in the spring and autumn, she has been accustomed to visit her highland home. Delightful scenery, dry, bracing air and an entire absence of the ceremonies and dignities from which, sovereign though she is, she cannot escape in London, are here to tempt her.

It was due to the royal physician, Sir James Clark, that Balmoral was chosen for a royal residence. The gravelly soil and pure air and a climate in which flowers bloom in the open until late September and even in October, were the first considerations that induced the royal physician to recommend the purchase of this vast estate, and the long life and perfect health of the Queen during her long reign show the wisdom of the choice. The bracing quality of the air is due not only to the character of the soil, but also to the fact that the range of mountains between Braeman and the Atlantic arrests the rain clouds, and their moisture falls chiefly upon the opposite side, leaving the Deeside comparatively dry, and the one region in Scotland the climate of which is not spoiled by rain.

Nature herself seems to have done her best to make this hunting ground of Scotland's kings in the elder day a delightful spot in which to live, while the simple, incurious character of the Queen's Scotch tenantry has added another charm to her highland retreat. At worst she is stared at only by tourists in the little church of Crathie, where she always worships when at Balmoral.

The Deeside railroad from Aberdeen ends at the village of Ballater, and the latter in consequence for many years has been headquarters for tourist travel in this part of the highlands. From the station a drive of some seven miles brings the traveler to the beginning of the Queen's domain, which extends a distance of twelve miles along the River Dee. At the entrance to the grounds is Abergeldie, the Prince of Wales' shooting lodge, and occupied for a time by ex-Empress Eugenie. From almost any point of view the splendid baronial pile of Balmoral Castle, built of fine gray Scotch granite, quarried on the estate, dominates the landscape, girt by a grand range of hills and mountains.

Although so inspiring from without, within the castle is plain and delightfully homelike, with an entire absence of the splendor of Windsor or Osborne. Furnished plainly, and with engravings instead of paintings on the wall, everything is in exquisite taste. The object everywhere in view seems to have been to obtain complete repose. The sitting room has a writing table, on which are books, photographs and periodicals, with dispatch boxes near at hand, while before the Queen as she transacts her daily routine business stands on an easel a painting of the Prince Consort, which accompanies her wherever she goes. From her own journal the world has learned how she spends her days at Balmoral, and the simplicity of her life has left nothing to the curious imaginings of the gossip.

The beautiful and romantic scenery of this part of Scotland and its literary and historical associations early attracted the Queen's notice, and she made visits to it in the summer and autumn of 1842, 1849 and 1850. In 1852 Prince Albert, in compliance with Her Majesty's wishes, purchased the ancient estate for £32,000 from the late Earl of Fife. He had purchased it from the original owners, the Farquharsons of Invercauld. The estate consists of upward of 10,000 acres, and something over 30,000 acres of deer forest, the latter lying on the line of the SOUTHEASTERN FACADE OF BALMORAL CASTLE.

Grampian range of mountains, and affording excellent deer stalking, grouse shooting and fishing. These spacious grounds overlook the River Dee, famous in Scottish history and song.

The castle is situated on a plateau at the foot of the Craigan-Gowan hill, commanding an extended view of the winding Dee. From its tower 100 feet high, may be seen some of the finest mountain scenery of Scotland—richly wooded hills and rocky heights—and far below in the valley to the southwest the royal farm, with a quiet landscape stretching along the Dee in the distance.

Some of the loftiest mountains of of Scotland are found in this country, and one of its beautiful lakes, "Dark Lochnagar," inspired the early muse of Byron, and has charmed every visitor since.

"Another Rosa Bonheur."

Caught a Huge Bird.

Two New York boys, August and Willie Schramm, were out making a playhouse in the back yard of their home, when a huge, long-legged bird fell, flapping at their feet. August at once seized it by the feathers, but it began to kick with its long legs and strike out with its wings and bill until August could hold it no longer. The moment he let go and it started to fly Willie seized it and here was another desperate fight, the bird uttering a wild cry that sounded like an excited alarm clock. Finally the bird was conquered and the boys took it to the Central Park zoo. At first no one knew what it was, but a naturalist finally classified it as a South American bittern. It had evidently started north on its vacation, but was overcome with exhaustion just as it flew over New York city. It will be kept in the zoo. The two boys are very proud of their catch.

Paper Fish That Will Swim.

Any one can make a paper fish that will swim with a pair of scissors. Draw on paper the picture of a fish, as shown in the cut. Then cut a channel from the tail nearly to the head (b), where a round opening should be made (a). Place the fish in a tub or pail of water side down and drop into the head of the channel (a) a few drops of sewing-

THEY TELL AN AWFUL STORY.

Arctic Whaling Fleet Had Mutinies, Fighting Scraps, Desertions, a Duel and a Poor Catch.

San Francisco, Oct. 12.—The first news from the whaling fleet in the Arctic was brought in yesterday by the steamer Tender Jennie, which arrived in a dilapidated condition with 59,600 pounds of bone for the Pacific Whaling Co. It is a story of deaths, desertions, fighting scraps, a duel, mutiny, and, to crown all, a poor catch. The entire fleet took only 43 whales.

The crew of the Baylies mutinied in the Sea of Okhotsk, and the master was obliged to surrender his ship, which was headed for home at once. Captain Mason of the Jennie reports that last winter was the most severe ever experienced in the Arctics, and the summer was correspondingly cold. The men suffered terribly, and desertions from the fleet at the mouth of the McKenzie River were frequent. There was a general exodus at one time, and five men out of the crew got away. They have not been heard of since. The others were brought up when a shower of bullets went after them from the pursuing officers. One of the fugitives was wounded.

Among those who died during the winter were William Misher, second mate, of the barque John, and Winthrop; Harry Williams, a cabin boy of the barque Wanderer, and Jas. Leary, second mate of the steamer Belvidera.

There was a sanguinary encounter on the steamer Balaena during the winter. Chief Officer H. P. Bowen and Second Mate Frank Jones quarreled. The trouble was patched up for a time, but finally it broke out again and the men came to blows. Then a duel on the ice was arranged, and Jones was mortally wounded. He died a few hours later, and was buried at Herschel Island. Bowen is under arrest, and will be brought to San Francisco for trial. The Balaena and Grampers wintered in Franklin Bay, and the former reported four deaths and the latter two deaths.

Nervous Prostration

Complete Recovery by the Use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. Hinson, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.

"WINDOW OF BULBS."

CONCISE DIRECTIONS FOR PLANTING THE BEAUTIES.

A Practical Essay Written by Eben E. Rexford, the Successful Gardener—What to Do and What Not to Do—Planting a Bermuda Lily.

I have written this article on "A Window Garden of Bulbs" to cover the ground thoroughly, and have endeavored to make my instructions so plain and practical that no one need fail who follows them.

Get your bulbs early in the season. Bulbs for outdoor planting should be set by the middle of the present month, and this rule applies to bulbs for winter flowering. It is not necessary to keep the bulbs out of the ground until late in the season in order to secure a late bloom, as many imagine. They are retarded and kept from early flowering—not by late planting, but by holding them back from warmth and other conditions which influence their development. Hence the term "forcing," which means that we take them in hand and oblige them to bloom at our pleasure, at a season when they would be dormant if left to Nature's management. Thus the flowering period of potted bulbs is prolonged by bringing them from the cellar at intervals of a week or ten days, after they have become thoroughly rooted. Having ordered your bulbs, set about getting a compost ready in which to pot them. As good a soil as any is one composed of ordinary garden loam, sand, and well-rotted cow manure in equal parts. One-third sand may seem like "too much of a good thing," but it is not. Nowhere in the world are better bulbs grown than in Holland, whose soil is nearly all sand. Better bulbs can be grown in clear sand, properly fertilized, than in the richest of soils without sand. Mix your compost well, and have it fine and mellow. It is very important that the manure should be old. Fresh manure is harmful to all bulbous plants, out or in doors. Bulbs do not require a great deal of root room, therefore, where single specimens are grown large pots are unnecessary. I should advise, however, the growing of several bulbs in the same pot. The effect is more pleasing because of the greater mass of color in a limited space. Three or four Hyacinths, Tulips or Daffodils may be grown successfully in a seven-inch pot. Half a dozen Crocuses or Snowdrops will be required to fill a six-inch pot. Three or four average-size bulbs of the Bermuda Lily can be grown in a ten-inch pot. If the large-size bulbs are used grow but one in a seven or eight-inch pot.

Water your bulbs well when you pot them. Then set them at once in the cellar or in whatever place you decide to store them in while they are developing roots. The cellar is generally advised because it is likely to be most convenient, and the conditions usually prevailing there are those most favorable to the bulbs at this stage of their existence. But any place will answer that is cool and dark, or can be made so. Bulbs can be left in such places until cold weather sets in, by which time they ought to be fairly rooted. Slight freezing does not injure them, but hard freezing does, in my opinion.

Many persons fail to see why it is necessary to pot bulbs and put them away to form roots, under the conditions spoken of. Why not put them in the window as soon as potted, they ask. I will explain why we do not do this. When first planted the bulb has no root. There is nothing save the vitality stored up in the bulb to develop or support the development of top growth. In the natural order of things roots should be formed first. While the weather is cool, and there is an absence of light, there is nothing to encourage top growth, but these are just the conditions under which newly-planted bulbs form roots and put themselves in shape for next season's work. When the roots are formed the plant will, at the coming of warm weather, put forth leaves and prepare for flowering. A bulb which has strong roots is in condition to do this work well as soon as you bring it to the light and warmth of the window. But without these roots the development of top growth, which light and warmth would encourage to begin at once, must naturally be weak, because there is nothing to support it save the vitality in the bulb, which is not sufficient to satisfactorily develop the plant. Development of root and top cannot satisfactorily go on together because the top will be making demands which the roots are not in a condition to meet. But when roots are formed before this demand begins, the plant is in shape to develop healthily when the proper chance is given it to do so. Therefore, if you will grow bulbs well, give them from six weeks to two months to take root in before you encourage them to do anything else.

Make it a rule to never bring a bulb to the warmth and light of the room in which it is to bloom until the soil in the pot is well filled with roots. Some of them can safely be left there for weeks after roots are formed if you do not want all to come into bloom at the same time. If any persist, as some will, because of exciting conditions which prevailed before they were planted, in putting up flower stalks before there is a satisfactory development of roots, they will have to be brought out of retirement at once, for to leave them there after the formation of buds is to incur danger of blight.

Provide drainage for your bulbs the same as you would for any other plant. Bulbs are really more susceptible of injury from insufficient drainage than ordinary plants are, and you cannot expect to grow them well if the soil about them is heavy and wet. Souring of the soil is likely to take place where there is too great a retention of water in it, and the young and tender roots become diseased, and the result is inferior flowers or none at all. Set Tulips and Daffodils so that their crowns will be about an inch below the surface of the soil. Do not quite cover Hyacinths.

The Bermuda Lily should be planted in deep pots. Put in a shallow layer of soil over the drainage material when you pot the bulbs of this plant, and on this place the bulb, which should be covered lightly. Leave it like this until a stalk starts. Then fill in, as this stalk reaches up, until the pot is full of compost. This may seem a somewhat strange manner in which to grow a plant, but there is a good reason back of it. While the vital part of a lily is in its bulb it sends out roots from the stalk it throws up above the bulb. Therefore, unless the bulb is planted deeply there is nothing but a shallow layer of soil for the stalk to put forth these roots in. These roots not only help to feed the plant by drawing nutriment from the soil, but they strengthen and support the stalk by acting as braces to it.

Watch the plants when in the cellar and give a little water now and then if needed. Aim to keep the soil moist—never wet. When you bring them up do not place them at once in a very warm room. A room adjoining one in which there is a fire is better for them, if it is frost-proof, than one in which the heat is likely to run up to a high figure. When they come into bloom be sure to keep them as cool as possible if you want the flowers to last.—Eben E. Rexford, in October Ladies' Home Journal.

Fascination of Years.

Many a woman over twenty hesitates to meet the great and inquisitive Li Hung Chang. She doesn't care to acknowledge the burden of her years which, just possibly, the Viceroy, being a student of history, lays to the credit of her fascinations. Helen of Troy was over forty when she was a party to the most famous elopement on record. Cleopatra was over thirty when Antony first loved her, and ten years later her fascinations were in the ascendant. At thirty-six Aspasia was wedded to Pericles, and thirty years afterward she wielded undisputed influence over man. Anne of Austria was quite thirty-eight when she was described as the handsomest Queen in Europe; Louis XIV. wedded Mme. de Maintenon when she was forty-three years of age; Mlle. Mars, the celebrated French tragedienne, only attained the zenith of her power and influence at forty-five, and Ninon de l'Enclos is proverbial for her wonderful attractions at seventy-three.

Cucumbers for the Complexion.

To make cucumber cream, which not only clears and cleanses the complexion, but is also very healing, proceed as follows: Remove the soft part from two or three cucumbers, warm sufficiently to make it press through the colander, then squeeze through a hair sieve, to half a teacupful of this add a teaspoonful of glycerine, and five drops of salicylic acid, both the latter are preservatives, and if glycerine does not agree with the skin, the salicylate alone will be sufficient. Add a few drops of any perfume liked and the ointment is ready for use.

While cucumbers are plentiful it is well to have thick slices of the softest, with the soap on the washstand, and to use after the former, to rub face, hands and throat, rinsing afterward. The clean, soft feeling of the skin will answer for its future use.

A MESSAGE TO MEN.

Proving that True Honesty and True Philantrophy Still Exist.

If any man, who is weak, nervous and debilitated, or who is suffering from any of the various forms resulting from youthful folly, excesses or overwork, will take heart and write to me, I will send him confidentially and free of charge, the plan pursued by which I was completely restored to perfect health and manhood, after years of suffering from Nervous Debility, Loss of Vigor and Organic Weakness.

I have nothing to sell and therefore want no money, but as I know through my own experience how to sympathize with such sufferers, I am glad to be able to assist any fellow-being to a cure. I am well aware of the prevalence of quackery, for I myself was deceived and imposed upon until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but I rejoice to say that I am now perfectly well and happy once more and am desirous therefore to make this certain means of cure known to all. If you will write to me you can rely upon being cured and the proud satisfaction of having been of great service to one in need will be sufficient reward for my trouble. Absolute secrecy assured. Send 5c. silver to cover postage and address, Mr. Geo. G. Strong, North Rockwood, Mich.

The "Artist-Priest."

Johannes A. Oertel, known as the "artist-priest," who is now more than 70 years of age, is living in Belair, Md. His best-known painting, "Rock of Ages," was painted for Augustus Storrs of Brooklyn. The production of this picture is widely known. He lived in New York city for a number of years, and painted a series of cartoons for the Church of the Heavenly Rest, entitled, "Waiting at the Gate," suggested by Bryant's poem. At present he is the assistant minister of the Episcopal church at Belair, and is at work on a series of scriptural pictures.

The Ex-Empress Eugenie.

The London Chronicle says that "the Empress Eugenie is now in much better health than she has been for many years. Her tall, graceful figure, her beautiful white hair, and her very distinguished features render her conspicuous wherever she goes, and it may be said with truth that as an old lady her appearance is quite as charming in its way as it was beautiful a quarter of a century ago.

Don't You Remember Long Ago?

As the years roll on we more and more recall the events of the past. School days with their tasks and chores come back again to us in memory, but with the glamour and enchantment of distant views. The old school and church, the boys and girls we romped with, father's voice, mother's smile, the joy of the holiday—no pleasures of the present can compare with those enjoyed in the days now locked up in the eternity of the past. In a similar way we recall the old time tested friend of the past—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor—that never failed us then and is just as sure to serve us now Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is sure safe, and painless. TEN YEARS TROUBLED

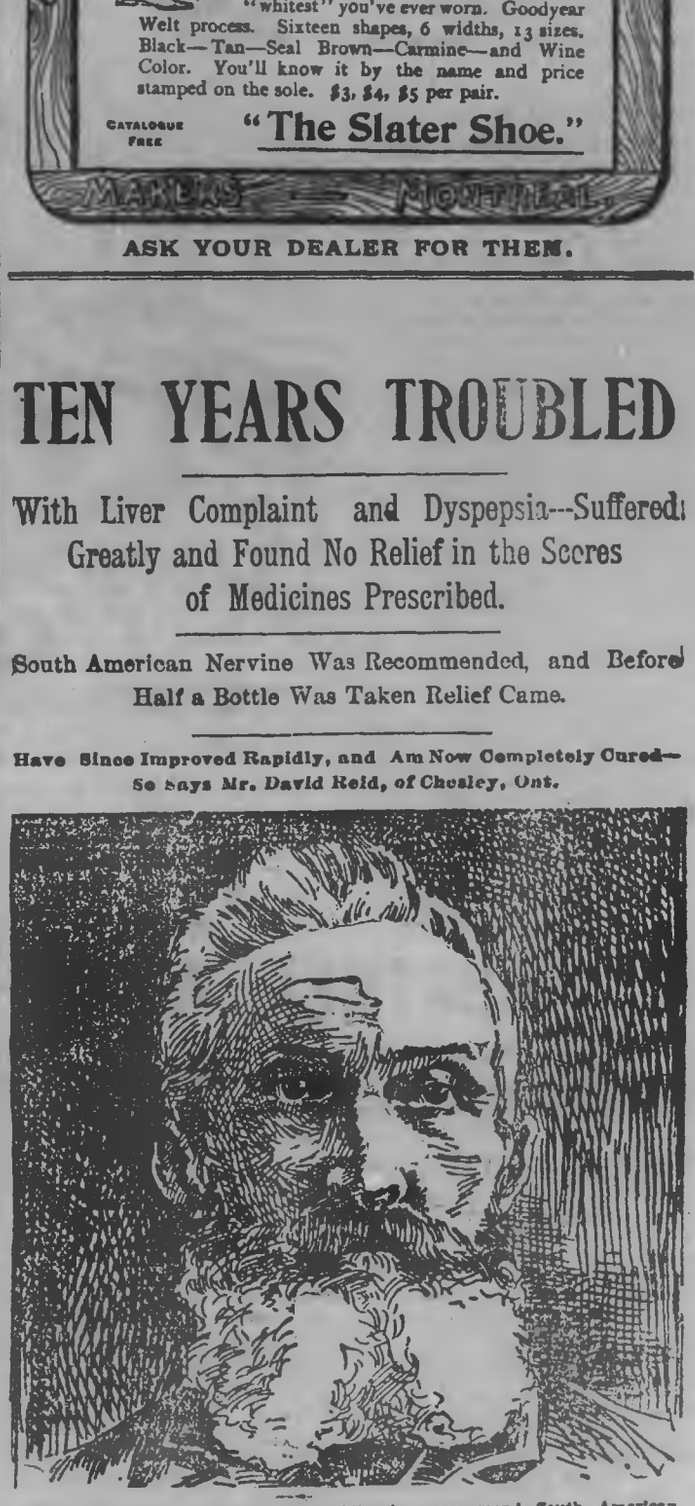
With Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia---Suffered Greatly and Found No Relief in the Scores of Medicines Prescribed.

South American Nervine Was Recommended, and Before Half a Bottle Was Taken Relief Came.

Have Since Improved Rapidly, and Am Now Completely Cured—So Says Mr. David Reid, of Chesley, Ont.



What ills come to humanity from a disordered liver! Henry Ward Beecher has said that it was impossible for a man to hold correct spiritual views if his liver was out of order. The liver is so important a part of the mechanism of man that when it ceases to work with ease the whole man is unable to do his work aright. Can we not appeal to thousands, nay, tens of thousands, for a verification of this fact? Certainly it is, that Mr. David Reid, of Chesley, Ont., felt that the enjoyment of life had been taken from him, through the unhealthy condition of his liver. For ten years he says he was troubled with liver complaint and dyspepsia. Employing his own language: "At times my liver was so tender I could not bear it pressed or touched from the outside. Had tried a great many remedies without any benefit. Was compelled to drop my work, and being worse than usual, I decided as a final resort to try South American Nervine, which had been recommended to me by friends who had been cured by it. I got a bottle from A. S. Goodeve, local druggist, and commenced taking according to directions. Before I had taken half a bottle I was able to go to work again, and I have improved steadily since. I can conscientiously recommend South American Nervine to any suffering from dyspepsia or liver complaint." This is Mr. Reid's story as he tells it in his own words. Were it thought necessary it could be corroborated by a host of witnesses. Mr. Reid has lived a long time in Chesley, and his case was known to be a very bad one. But that makes no difference to Nervine. This great discovery rises equal to the most trying occasions. Let it be indigestion, the most chronic liver trouble, as with Mr. Reid, nervous prostration, that makes life miserable with so many, sick headaches, that sap all the effort out of man or woman, Nervine measures to the necessities of the case. It is a great medicine and thousands to-day in Canada are happier and healthier men and women, because of its discovery. There is no great secret about it, and yet there is an important secret. It operates on the nerve centers of the system from which emanate all life and healthfulness, or if disordered, sickness, even death. Nervine strikes promptly at the nerve centers, hence, as with Mr. Reid, where ten years' use of other medicines had done no good, less than a bottle of Nervine brought about encouraging results, and a few bottles cured.

MARK STREET CHURCH TEA MEETING

Held in the Ashburnham Town Hall Last Evening.

Last evening the anniversary services of St. Mark's Methodist church was brought to a conclusion by the holding of a tea meeting. Refreshments were served from five until eight o'clock, and were very much enjoyed by all. At eight o'clock all adjourned to the church where the entertainment was to be held. Mayor Yelland was in the chair. The programme was an excellent one and is as follows:

Selection.....Choir
Prayer.....Rev Mr McKee, Bailliebore
Chairman's addre s.....Mayor Yelland
Selection.....Choir
Address.....Rev Mr Edmison, Lakefield
Recitation.....Mrs Wesley
Address.....Rev Mr McKee, Bailliebore
Reading.....Mr Matchett
Selection.....Choir
Address.....Rev W R Young
Selection.....Choir

Mayor Yelland in his remarks expressed himself as being pleased to be present. He said he wasn't in the best of humor to give an address, but still he would say a few words. He thought the young ladies of the church, as cooks, were second to none. He had known Rev. Mr. Beer ever since he (Mr. Beer) was a small boy. He was glad to see Mr. Beer present. He was also glad that it was such nice weather to have an anniversary in. He remembered when the church was erected in 1873, and he was one of trustees and consequently he took an active part in its erection. In conclusion he said he hoped all would enjoy themselves and then resumed his seat.

Rev. Mr. Edmison then made a short address. He said he had known Mayor Yelland a long time; and when the speaker was a small boy he remembered going to Mr. Yelland's blacksmith shop to see him work. He always thought that any work done in Mr. Yelland's shop was done in a first-class manner. He then drew an object lesson from this incident, in which he showed how important it is to do everything well—even little things need to be done as well as possible. He was glad that such a man as Mr. Yelland filled the mayor's chair in Peterborough. (Cries of "Hear, hear.") He then explained three different ways in which we could do our duty in small things in Christian life as well as large things. He did not think that it was possible for every man to fill a high position, and consequently he did not agree with Longfellow when he wrote:

Lives of all good men remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And departing leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.

He then resumed his seat, and Rev. Mr. McKee, of Bailliebore, was called on for an address. He was also pleased to be present and so far had enjoyed himself very much. He told some amusing anecdotes. If he had known there was going to have been such a large collection of ministers present, he would not have come, because he thought they could manage very well without him. He also drew an object lesson from his anecdotes, and concluded by urging all to become Christians.

Rev. W. R. Young was then called upon for an address. In his remarks he followed in the wake of the others. He said he was glad the town of Peterborough could boast of having such an excellent Christian man in the mayor's chair. (Hear, hear.) The Sunday following the election he went to see Mr. Yelland's class, and there was Mr. Yelland teaching as if nothing unusual had happened. He could not be easily kept from Sunday schools.

After Mr. Young had concluded his remarks, the choir closed the meeting with a chorus. All the programme was carried out splendidly.

RAILWAY NOTES.

Sparks From the Wheels—Cinders for the Eye.

Nine specials pulled out of the G. T. R. yards, Lindsay, yesterday morning for various points, proving that business is very brisk on this division. It is said that 50 cars of freight were in the Huntsville yards on Saturday waiting to be moved.

The movement of grain from the Midland elevator is keeping a large number of train crews busy. Two large vessels are now unloading, one having 74,000 bushels of corn on board and the other 94,000 bushels of wheat. Most of the grain now being received is billed west.

Driver Dolby and Conductor Geo. Jobitt were in charge of the special train which took Sir Richard and Lady Cartwright to Lindsay Sunday morning. They had instructions to make the best time possible from Peterborough, and they did, covering the distance in 26 minutes. After a short stay there Driver D. Clark and Conductor J. F. Jobbitt took the train on to Toronto with Drs. Cameron and Primrose on board.

LINING UP

AFTER THE FAIRS.

Our Prize Clothing.

Our Clothing has had the call at all the Fairs. It was nothing new to find the Directors decorating our display with the Red Prize Tickets. It would have been a surprise if we didn't capture First Prize—not because competition was weak, but because the Clothing could not be bettered in Canada. The reputation of the big store was at stake, and we're more than proud to have deserved the good opinion of the directors as well as the thousands of men folk at the Fairs.

Now we're lining up for a rattling big fall business. We've had a good start already, but the price cards are becoming a more interesting study every day, and the figures startling enough to bring us the trade of the masses.

There's Wisdom . . In Economy

And there are different sorts of economy. The economy which "saves at the spigot and wastes at the bung" is worse than no economy at all. We sell in such a close margin of profit that our customers feel confident that bottom has been struck. Hence the active, progressive look of things which some people wonder at. It's very simple this honest shop-keeping. when you know how and the trading public will always pin their faith to an establishment of this kind.

Doing

AS WE PROMISE.

Good advertising does not encourage prevarication in prices. Quibbling or deviating from the plain path of truth and fair dealing, is an abuse which brings its own retribution.

PRICES without anything behind them, have very little meaning. But when they are fixed with care, are not misleading, and really represent something, they bring good buyers.

SCHOOL QUESTION TALKED OVER

It is Expected a Settlement Will be Reached on Friday—The Supreme Court Judges Make a Deliverance as to the Fisheries—Ottawa News Notes.

Ottawa, Oct. 13.—An order-in-council has been passed appointing A. J. McColl, barrister-at-law, New Westminster, to be a judge on the Supreme Court Bench of British Columbia, at a salary of $5000 per annum. The matter was brought up at the Cabinet for the first time yesterday, when it was discussed and put through. It is said that D. C. Fraser, M.P., was an applicant for the position, but the Government has yielded in favor of the strong appeal from the bar and the Liberal members of the province in favor of a local man.

Although several Ministers are out of town a Cabinet Council was called for the purpose of conferring with the Manitoba delegation on the school question. The meeting lasted until 6 o'clock. The basis of settlement was talked over with Mr. Cameron, Provincial Secretary, who was invited into the Council Chamber. Negotiations will be in progress two or three days, and by Friday, when a full meeting of council is to be held, terms of settlement will probably be reached. After this week there will be no council meetings for a couple of weeks, some of the Ministers being anxious to visit their own provinces.

In November a sub-committee of the council, consisting of Sir Richard Cartwright, Messrs. Fielding and Paterson, will commence a tour through leading centres of industry, with a view to eliciting information regarding the workings of the tariff. This tour will not necessarily occupy many weeks, as owing to the ready response to the circulars of the Department of Trade and Commerce much information has come to hand before the Ministers actually start out.

Captain Ruelle of Detroit, commander of a garbage scow which plies on the mighty Detroit River, was last year caught in the dirty act of dumping American filth in Canadian waters, and is now pressing for compensation for the indignities which the wicked Canadians heaped upon him at the time his scow was seized. Captain Ruelle did not know when he sought to dump his filthy cargo in Canadian territory that he was "breaking bulk," and that in consequence he was violating the Canadian law, for which he was properly fined. In addition to that, the municipal authorities in Essex County soaked the captain for breach of the municipal regulations and then, when he got over to his own side of the river, the authorities there gave him a third dose. Captain Ruelle has induced a lawyer to write to the authorities at Washington with a view to securing pressure upon the Canadian Government by way of Downing-street to secure $20,000 damages, but the captain of the mud scow may just as well save his dollars, as he will not get anything from Canada if he tries till doomsday.

Although to-day's decision of the Supreme Court on the fisheries reference was expected, undoubtedly the case will be carried to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council for final settlement. The questions submitted to the court arose in the case of the Queen v. Robertson, decided by the Supreme Court of Canada in 1882. That was a case wherein the right of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries to give a lease of a portion of the Miramichi River for the purpose of fishing was challenged by Mr. C. A. Robertson, who was interrupted in the enjoyment of his fishing. The court held that the general power of regulating and protecting the fisheries is in the Parliament of Canada, but that the license granted by the Minister of Marine and Fisheries was void because the law only authorized the granting of leases "where the exclusive right of fishing does not exist by law," and in this case the exclusive right of fishing belonged to the owners of the land through which that portion of the Miramichi flows. It was also held that a license given by the Federal authorities to fish in streams running through provincial property would be illegal. This judgment led the provinces to assert their rights, and a friendly reference to the Supreme Court of Canada was the result.

The Chief Justice announced that four members of the court were practically a unit in their findings, these four being Justices King, Taschereau, Girouard and the Chief Justice. As the judgment seems desperately involved your correspondent presents the following analysis made by Aemilius Irving, Q.C., who conducted the case for Ontario. Mr. Irving says: Practically the judges are in accord in favor of the provinces, except in as much as it confirms judgment in the Queen v. Robertson in respect of non-navigable waters and extends the same rule of law to all navigable rivers and great lakes the beds of which are wholly in the provinces, the right of fishing therein being a public common right, subject to provincial legislation.

By the judgment to-day the Dominion is confined to the powers of conservancy and regulation of fisheries. The Dominion has power to enact the imposition of a general license upon all persons fishing, but such licenses cannot be restricted to any particular locality. The Dominion power is general, and cannot give a license for any particular lake, river or other water.

In the case of public harbors the judgment of the Supreme Court in Holman v. Greene is recognized, the lands thereof belonging to the Dominion, and as a consequence the right of fishing therein also belongs to the Dominion. The Dominion has also control of the waters upon Indian reserves. The Dominion has no power to grant a lease, that is covering a certain area of water for fishing, in any part of the Dominion. In tidal waters, neither the Dominion nor a province has any power to restrict the public right of fishing.

The Ontario Fishery Act is legal, except where it may interfere with the Dominion power regarding the conservancy of fisheries, but the Ontario Act will be good unless the Dominion has legislated in that particular. The court finds that the Fishery Act of the Dominion, except in a few unimportant matters, is ultra vires.

The Customs Department is notifying collectors that a needle company with headquarters in New York is shipping goods to Canada with two invoices, one showing the correct value and the other, which is made for customs purposes, and marked "certified correct," being made out at one-half the value of the correct invoice. Collectors are, therefore, warned to scrutinize carefully the invoices of this firm.

Hon. R. Harcourt, Provincial Treasurer of Ontario, and Mr. A. M. Ross, ex-Provincial Treasurer, were here to-day in connection with the outstanding accounts between the Dominion and provinces. In the absence of Mr. Fielding they had a talk with Mr. Courtney. An appeal on one phase of the case comes up in England next month.

Mr. William McKenzie, President of the Toronto Street Railway, was in the city to-day.

Rev. Dr. Dimock, father of Mr. Dimock, M.P., died at Truro, N.S., yesterday, aged 85.

Mr. Poupore, M.P., and Mr. Ryckman, ex-M.P., were in town to-day.

Mr. John Costigan left this afternoon for a two-months' hunting trip in the wilds of Northern New Brunswick. Mr. Costigan is a mighty Nimrod, and for many years past has spent from 8 to 10 weeks in the bush in the fall and early winter. In his own County of Victoria, moose, caribou, deer, bear, martin, mink, otter and other game is found in plenty.

The Supreme Court to-day, in the case of Sheets v. Tait, an appeal from the Exchequer Court, unanimously dismissed the appeal.

Judgment in Cooper v. the Molsons Bank will be delivered on the first day of the Ontario lists. The last case on the Quebec list will be taken up to-morrow.

Messrs. Laurier, Tarte and Fielding have accepted invitations to the luncheon on board the new steamship Canada at Montreal, to-morrow.

Sir Oliver Mowat leaves for Toronto next Monday for a couple of weeks.

A proposal is made that the work of Assistant Clerk Rouleau, of the Commons, should be performed by Dr Chapleau, one of the translators, without extra pay. In this way the appointment of a new officer would not be necessary. There is a poor lookout for Dr. Guay.

An influential local committee has been appointed for the purpose of working up a scheme to erect a science and art building in Ottawa at a cost of $80,000.

Dr. S. P. May, Superintendent of Ontario Mechanics Institutes, is in the city.

Hon. A. G. Blair, Minister of Railways and Canals, to-day completed negotiations for the purchase of a residence. He has bought for $11,000 the house owned by Mr. Angers, on O'Connor-street.

Fred Ireland of the Congressional Record staff was here to-day. He will accompany Judge Putnam, the United States Commissioner, to Victoria, B. C., as stenographer.

An appeal to the Judiciary Committee of the Imperial Priy Council will undoubtedly be made by the Dominion Government from the judgment of the Supreme Court in the fisheries reference.

Why It Was Rejected.

Alphaca, as I predicted, has not had great success with Parisians, who have preferred, on the whole, to choose for their outing gowns either pique or serge. This material started out the season with a blast of trumpets, but must now be hunted for in the dark corners of the shops. The manufacturers counted without the host. It has a quality too poor; it is inflexible and refuses an intimate relation with the figure, and women have very generally rejected it for gowns.—Paris correspondent Indianapolis News.

MADLY INFATUATED

Was the Man Who Jumped Into the Niagara.

HE WAS A. H. BARTON OF OIL CITY

Left a Letter Cursing a Young Woman Who Declined His Attentions—The Epistle Shows That the Man Was Weak-Minded if Not Absolutely Crazy.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Oct. 13.—The suicide of the strange young man who leaped over Prospect Point, Niagara Falls, N.Y., yesterday afternoon, has had its first chapter in history and the second one came up to-day. The unfortunate man seems to have left a letter for the information of his friends and enemies, and this letter is one of the strangest collections of anger and pathos that have been seen in a long time. The first rounds of the mail carriers this morning brought a plain white envelope, addressed with a lead-pencil, to Chief of Police Dinan. It had been dropped into the Niagara Falls, N.Y., postoffice during the night, and was stamped as received at 6.45 o'clock this morning, and left for delivery at 7 o'clock just 15 minutes later.

Below will be found the contents of that envelope in detail:

Niagara, Oct. 10.

To whom it may concern,—I presume by the time my letter is received, my poor body will be at the bottom of Niagara's roaring rapids. I care no more for no one. I could for one, and she shuns me. Oh, why did she do it? I met a girl here about three months ago. Her name is ———. I wrote her three or four times and received but one letter from her, and she stated she did not wish to hear from me. I thought I would come and see her, but in vain. Oh, God, if she but knew the aching heart and burning brow. In agony I sit and scribble. If but one word of some one could touch her stony heart. I leave this letter to a friend whom—— knows. He will mail it after I am dead. My last words are that I may meet the girl in hell that ruined my life. Curse her! Oh, God, curse her until death; for her I die. I hope her stony heart will bleed if she ever hears the contents of this letter. From A. H. B., Pennsylvania.

Chief Dinan, as soon as he received the letter, sent for the young girl named in it and questioned her. She told him promptly that A. H. B. was Albert H. Barton of Oil City, Pa., and she identified the writing as his. She practically admitted that she did not like his attentions, and the officer could not blame her in this matter. In order to settle matters more definitely the Chief telegraphed to the police at Oil City for further information regarding Barton, who, if he is really the victim of this remarkably rash act, is one of the weakest specimens that Niagara has yet been called to inflict its awful penalty upon.

According to the young woman's description of Barton it certainly comes close to that of the suicide. She said he was 24 years old, dark complexioned and brown hair and mustache. The story told by the young girl certainly absolves her from blame in any way, and her desire that her name be kept from the public is a most reasonable one under the circumstances. Barton had no reason nor excuse for pressing his claim for her attentions, and because she declined to acknowledge his epistles she certainly was not to be blamed for his foolhardy action.

The date of Barton's letter would indicate that he had written it on Saturday or else had made a miscalculation of the date in some way. As to whom he gave the letter to mail no one will probably ever know. The time of its mailing seems to be proof positive that it was mailed long after the suicide occurred. Either the young man handed it to some stranger or boy to mail, or else some one has acted a party to his terrible deed. The most likely is that he imposed the task on some innocent head totally unconscious of the nature of the missile. Chief Dinan up to a late hour this evening had not received any reply from Oil City regarding Barton.

WHAT THE ADVANCE MEANS.

Corn and Oats Worth $100,000,000 More to the Western U.S. Farmers.

Chicago Inter Ocean, Oct. 13.

Traders who a month ago were looking for May corn to sell at 30c are now predicting 30c. This change has been brought about by the shortage in the supplies of foodstuffs and of barley and potatoes in the United Kingdom and Germany, which has increased the export demand, and there has been more foreign buying within a few days than has ever before been known. We have exported 90,000,000 bushels since Jan. 1, against 72,000,000 bushels last year. The price has advanced about 4c from the bottom, and although values are 8c lower than a year ago for cash lots here, May is only 1½c below last year. In the West, however, prices are 3c to 4c better than last year. Then farmers in Iowa were selling at 15c and were glad to get it, now they are securing 18c to 19c, the difference being due to the reduction in freight rates. When the rates were put down two months ago it was claimed that they would not benefit the farmer, but now he is getting all there is in it. An advance of 4c a bushel means more to the Western farmer than double that appreciation in wheat. On a 2,000,000,000 bushel crop it is equal to $80,000,000, and of 3c on 670,000,000 bushels oats $20,010,000. He gets the benefit of the bulge in corn in two ways—first, by selling his corn direct, and, second, by feeding it to hogs, which are also up over 50c from the low point. The movement from the West is unusually heavy, and is only limited by transportation facilities, as farmers are anxious to sell before the rates advance on Nov. 1.

WHEAT UP, SILVER DOWN.

No End to the Rise of the Cereal and Fall of Bullion.

New York Press, Oct. 13.

When will the end be? is the question men are asking one another in Wall-street nowadays concerning the continued rise in wheat and the fall in silver.

Yesterday December future wheat went to the highest point this year, 75½ cents, and silver declined ½ cent to 64½ cents, the lowest of the year. The highest price for the December future before yesterday this year was on Oct. 1, when it sold at 65 11-16 cents. Corn also was higher, the December future selling at 31½ cents, against 31 cents on Saturday noon. Wheat closed at 75¾ cents a bushel, ¼ cent above Saturday's close. Further news of shortage in foreign grain crops and firm and higher European markets were responsible for the advance.

OFFENSIVE PARTIZANSHIP.

Our evening contemporary last night devoted another column to the partizan official but it does not in any way point out wherein the three Liberal officials whom we cited in Monday's issue as being practically dismissed, were not dismissed solely because they were Liberals. The only position assumed with any degree of definiteness is the practical demand that the Liberals should permit every latitude to Conservative officials without any danger of being called to account, while a Conservative Government is to be allowed to hound every Liberal official out of existence. The Liberals from 1873 to 1878 gave the Conservatives fair play; and no Conservative official was removed for party reasons. But the Conservatives in returning to power in 1878 failed to profit by this example, and no hesitation was shown in "firing" Liberal officials right and left; and if every Conservative official in Peterborough were discharged to-day they could have, on the ground of reprisal, no fault to find—they would only be receiving the treatment their own party meted out to Liberals after every general election since 1878. However, we say frankly that it is wrong to make an innocent office holder suffer because some other office holder has become an offensive partizan. The law does not punish the whole family for the crime of one, and we should greatly regret to see introduced into Peterborough the principle of dismissing all officials on the occasion of a change of government, no matter what party comes into power. Those who devote their time and attention diligently and honestly to the exercise of the duties of their office, should be protected by both parties, and only those who do actively and offensively take part in elections, properly and fairly come within the scope of the precedent established by Sir Charles Tupper in 1883. It is too much to expect that Liberal officials will stand idly by and see a band of Conservative Government officials uniting to defeat a government because it is Liberal, in order that they may personally profit by the change of government that may follow. If the officials of a Liberal government see the candidate of the Liberals attacked on all sides by Conservative officials, it is to demand that they be more than human, if they resist the temptation to obey the first law of nature in looking out for self preservation, knowing, from experience in other quarters, the fate that would befall them in case of the success of the Opposition. Still two wrongs do not make a right, and the public who pay the officials would be best pleased to see officials perform their duty as public officials alone, without active regard to the fate of either party in a contest. We do not expect political morality from our contemporary; it has been too long advocating immoral political methods to secure public respect for its adoption of the role of censor.

QUEEN VICTORIA now rules 367,000,000 people—a greater number than has ever before acknowledged the sovereignty of either a king, queen or emperor.

Kidney Trouble of Some Kind—Lame Back and Weakness—Cured by a Few Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Brockville, Oct. 12 (Special.—As stated by Mr. Wm. A. Stagg himself, the facts of his quite recent perfect recovery from weakness and ailments many years suffered are as follows:—To a few boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills I owe my complete cure from weakness and lame back, which had clung to me for many years. As soon as I decided that the cause might be from derangement of the kidneys I procured a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills and I am glad to say that only a few boxes were taken before I was as well as ever.

HELPING THE FARMER.

Globe.

Mr. Laurier has promised that the Government in all measures taken for the development of Canadian trade will pay special attention to the interest of the farming community. The Government cannot raise the price of farm produce, but it can do something to lighten the burden of taxation upon the farmer. It can do much also to dig out trade channels along natural lines, so that the flow of Canadian products to their best markets may not only be unimpeded but may be stimulated. The inquiry now in progress regarding trade extension will doubtless give the Department of Trade and Commerce much valuable information that will be put to advantage in the development of trade routes and in the instruction of producers as to the most profitable markets. There seems to be an impression that the inquiry will confirm what is already a generally held opinion, that Canada can make more money by the export of such things as butter, eggs, cheese, bacon, fruit, poultry and vegetables than by the export of animals and breadstuffs. The natural result of such a conclusion will be that far more care will be devoted to providing means for the economical handling of these smaller farm products, that the transportation system will be remodelled to meet the requirements of this trade, and that measures will be taken to secure for all Canadian produce such a distinctive place in the British and foreign markets as has already been secured by Manitoba wheat, British Columbia salmon, and cheese and apples from older Canada.

There is absolutely nothing to prevent Canadian agriculturists from competing as effectively with the farmers of Normandy and Belgium and Denmark for the fruit and butter and poultry trade of Great Britain as they have done for the cheese trade. We are, it is true, further from the markets, but the margin of profit is very considerable even in the face of the longer haul. We are on an equality with the Normans and Danes in that our farmers are the owners of the soil and have not to carry a system of landlordship by way of a handicap. A glance at the imports into Great Britain of French produce during 1895 shows the direction in which our fight for expansion must be made. The following are some of the items in which we are specially interested:—

		Value
Butter, cwts	454,843	£2,445,734
Cheese, cwts	56,393	175,541
Apples (raw), bush	134 913	43,186
Cherries, bush	96,940	61,542
Pears, bush	185,651	91,627
Plums, bush	185,160	86,160
Margarine, cwts	28,133	99,733
Eggs, gt. hundreds	2,730,332	1,009,580
Milk (preserved) cwts	294,011	611,169
Potatoes, cwts	1,304,349	322,179
Poultry		261,503
Vegetables		358,366

It will be seen from the above that France in 1895 sent over twelve million dollars' worth of butter, $5,350,000 worth of eggs, and large quantities of poultry, fruit and vegetables to Great Britain, after feeding her own large population, while Canada sent but $541,000 worth of butter and $524,577 worth of eggs. With better transportation facilities and a more systematic method of collecting and distributing Canadian produce we should be able to take a very considerable share of the trade in dairy products and other provision stuffs now done by the small farmers of France in the English market. If Argentina can beat us with cheap wheat there are other openings. Our exports to England of cheese are already more than double the value of our wheat exports, and what has been done with the cheese can be done with butter and with poultry.

Confusion as to the choice of a blood-purifier is unnecessary. There is but one best Sarsaparilla and that is Ayer's. This important fact was recognized at the World's Fair, Chicago, 1893, being the only blood-purifier admitted to be placed on exhibition.

HOW TO GET THE BEST PRICE FOR YOUR PORK.

The following circular has been sent us for publication:

DEAR SIR,—We are frequently asked by farmers and stock men for instructions regarding the killing and handling of dressed hogs, and knowing that your valuable paper reaches a large class who are interested, we take the liberty of using it as a medium for this purpose.

During this season of the year it is well to select, if possible, a cool day for slaughtering. The hogs should be starved at least twelve hours before killing. A great many farmers are experienced butchers, and the number of shoulder-stuck hogs is very much less now than some years ago; however, we strongly advise that none but experienced hands should be allowed to stick hogs.

Instructions as to the scalding and removing of the hair, we think, are unnecessary. What we wish to call special attention to is the treatment of the carcase after it has been hung up. The bone between the hind legs, also the breast bone, should be cut through, so as to allow the removing of all the entrails, along with the gullet. This being done, the carcase should be well showered with cold water and allowed to hang up twelve to twenty-four hours, according to the state of the weather; if very warm then more cold water should be used, and a longer time allowed to hang. If the hogs are very fat, (which, by the way, is not desirable, especially in the light weights) they should be split open through the backbone, to allow the animal heat to escape; which, if not attended to, the chances are you will have tainted meat. These openings do not, in any way, interfere with the price in selling, as all hogs have to be divided in the middle when being prepared for curing. We wish to impress this point in regard to fat hogs very strongly. Under no conditions should a hog be cut down from the place where it is hung up to cool, until all the animal heat has left the body, even should it take thirty-six or forty-eight hours to do this. Of course it will be understood that during the winter weather, the care in regard to chilling of the carcase is not so necessary, but as there are large quantities being killed during the present season, when the weather is not so favourable, this is the time that the above precautions should be taken, and if the above instructions are carried out, the result will, in every case, be satisfactory, and the highest market price will be obtained for hogs so prepared.

Yours truly,
D. GUNN BROS. & Co.

THE CRIPPLED PARIS.

She is Steaming With One Screw and Has 2100 Miles Yet to Go.

New York, Oct. 13.—The steamship Paris, which is limping towards Southampton under her port screw, the other having been fractured, was spoken by the Red Star liner Kensington, from Antwerp, to this port, at midnight Saturday. When the Paris was abeam of the Kensington, she signalled: "We are the Paris, American Line."

The Kensington passed the Paris in lat. 44.38, long. 54.18. She was then just 84 hours out of port, and had proceeded about 900 miles in that time. Her position was due south of Cape Race and St. John's, Nfld., and due east of Halifax and Sable Island. The loss of half of the propelling power of the vessel should reduce her speed to about 15 knots per hour, but a computation, based on the distance traveled and the time, shows she has made a little over nine knots per hour. The Paris has undoubtedly met and weathered the gale that has been devastating the coast, and that probably accounts for the poor time she has made. The vessel has yet to go 2100 miles. At the rate of nine miles per hour, it would take her until next Tuesday to steam from where she was sighted by the Kensington to Southampton. Steamship men, however, believe the Paris will increase her speed several knots if the weather moderates and that she will get into Southampton by Sunday.

A LOSS OF $200,000.

Great Barrington, Mass., Swept by Fire on Monday Night.

Great Barrington, Mass., Oct. 13.—The largest fire that ever occurred in this town began at 10 o'clock last night in a tenement house near the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railway Station. The fire soon spread to the Kennedy Hotel and livery stables and the Miller House stables, situated in the centre of the town. A large brick block in Railroad-street was also soon in flames. All of these buildings have been destroyed. Conservative estimates place the loss at $200,000; well insured.

The fire spread distress on all sides. The business portion of the town was almost completely destroyed. The telephone and telegraph wires were burned out. Some estimate the extent of the damage at $300,000 and others at a much higher amount. The fire was got under control at daybreak, and about 5 o'clock was entirely extinguished.

Along Railroad-avenue every building was gutted. The Church Block, the principal one here, was destroyed. About 90 firms, representing all kinds of business, and many families, were driven into the street. The railroad station was one of the few places that escaped. The Miller Hotel was badly damaged. The fire broke out again at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the annex of the hotel, but was quickly extinguished.

THE CASE REMANDED FOR A WEEK

Great Interest Manifested in the Case of the Wealthy San Franciscans Who are Charged With Shoplifting in London—Mrs. Castle Appeared Greatly Distressed.

London, Oct. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Castle of San Francisco, who were arrested on a charge of stealing valuable furs, and after arraignment in the Great Marlborough-street Police Court, remanded for further hearing, were again arraigned to-day and remanded for a week, the Magistrate requiring bail in the sum of £40,000 for the release of both prisoners, pending their arraignment next week.

COURT ROOM CROWDED.

The Great Marlborough-street court room was crowded with spectators, most of them well known in fashionable circles, when Magistrate Newton took his seat on the bench, and the defendants were brought into court. Mrs. Castle was greatly agitated, and as she walked into the court was supported by her husband, who kept his arm around her. Hon. J. E. Roosevelt, Secretary to the United States Embassy, and Mr. Hudson were present as representatives of the Embassy to safeguard the interests of the prisoners, and a number of other Americans, all of them in sympathy with the prisoners, were also in attendance. When the case was called, Mr. Avery, representing the Public Prosecutor, said that the prisoners had hitherto been in excellent repute as citizens of San Francisco. If the case, he said, had been that of an extravagant woman buying quantities of articles under a promise to pay, there would have been some excuse for the prisoners, but instead of the case bearing any such aspect, it was an ordinary affair of shoplifting, pure and simple. The prisoners had lived in one room in the Cecil Hotel, and had gleaned from various shops a variety of articles, such as 18 tortoise shell combs, which were certainly in excess of their requirements; 7 ivory-framed hand mirrors, 7 gold watches, 17 fans, 10 brooches and a great many other articles.

It was difficult to believe, Mr. Avery continued, that the male prisoner could have been unaware of what articles his wife had in her possession, particularly as Mr. Castle had been in the shops when the articles found in his wife's possession were missed. Mr. Avery admitted, however, that it was possible that the husband had been unconscious of what was going on, but, on the other hand, the wife might have been getting the articles by her husband's connivance or through his coercion.

Mr. Charles Matthews, counsel for the prisoners, dwelt upon the integrity, high position and affluence of the prisoners, whose family, he said, were ready to furnish bail for them in any sum, no matter how high. Mr. Matthews said that he was prepared with a complete answer to the charges against the prisoners. The case of the lady, he said, was extremely painful. She had done what she would hereafter be called upon to answer for. Her reputation hitherto had been that of a woman of integrity, but her medical history during the last three months had been of a character which had led physicians, who were present in court, to certify that she was laboring under the effects of a disease which was likely to lead to a temporary overthrow of her mind, and to this these doctors would testify when called upon.

Mr. Matthews' address to the court on behalf of the prisoners was frequently interrupted by Mrs. Castle's sobbing.

Mr. Avery, for the prosecution, said that he would make no opposition to the admission of the prisoners to bail.

The physician of Holloway Jail stated to the court that the detention of Mrs. Castle in jail had been and would continue to be highly injurious to her health, as she was of a highly nervous temperament and disposition.

The prisoners were then admitted to bail in the sum of £40,000 ($200,000) for their appearance in court next Tuesday, they having been further remanded until that day.

ORGANIZED LABOR.

Typographical Union Stronger Than Ever Before—Secret Societies Within the Union—The Cigarmakers.

Colorado Springs, Oct. 13.—One hundred and ninety delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada are present at the 43rd session of the International Typographical Union. President W. B. Prescott, formerly of Toronto, in his biennial address, said that, in spite of adverse conditions during the last five years, the union was stronger to-day numerically and financially than ever before in its history.

The most important committee to report is the one appointed to investigate the condition of the Childs-Drexel Institute, and to make suggestions as to the course to be pursued for the relief and care of indigent printers.

The principal matter of business yesterday was administering to the delegates an iron-clad oath, binding them to do all in their power to put down secret societies known as the Brotherhood in St. Louis; the Carlton League and the Jaunita in New York. It is claimed that these secret societies exist in the unions in the above cities, and that they are formed to control the elections of the officers and the legislation of the International Union in favor of certain subordinate unions throughout the country. The matter created considerable excitement, but finally every delegate present, and some 50 ex-delegates, rose and took the oath.

The 'Gi armakers.

Detroit, Oct. 13.—At yesterday's session of the Cigarmakers' International Union's convention an amendment to the constitution was adopted, which forbids local unions to pay any more per capita taxes to central labor organizations, with which they are affiliated, in case they are conducted by professional politicians or members holding political offices. This action was taken in accordance with the resolution adopted at the last convention of the American Federation of Labor.

Another amendment adopted requires local unions to affiliate only with such central bodies as belong to the federation.

A committee will report on the advisability of establishing co-operative shops in places where difficulties exist which cannot be settled.

MURDEROUS BURGLARS

Attempted to Shoot Constable Graham at Toronto Junction—A Bullet Through His Helmet.

Toronto Junction, Oct. 13.—(Special.)—Policeman Graham had an exciting adventure with burglars early yesterday morning. He was making his rounds as usual at half-past 3, and was in the alleyway at rear of McBride's hardware store, Dundas and Keele-streets. He turned on his dark lantern to look up the passage, as is his custom, when someone struck the lantern out of his hand with a crowbar and fired a revolver right at his head. The bullet passed through the officer's helmet. Graham returned the fire, and gave chase to two men, one of whom dropped a well-filled bag. The night was very dark, and the desperadoes got away clear by going different ways along the railroad tracks.

Graham restored the swag to Mr. McBride this morning. It consisted of several dozen pocket knives, butcher knives, scissors, razors and a large quantity of tea rings and other stuff taken from the store, making quite a heavy load. There is no clue as to who the burglars are. They secured an entrance to the store by breaking a pane of glass and unfastening the window.

GEN. KITCHENER AT CAIRO.

The Commander of the Nile Expedition Gets a Warm Reception.

Cairo, Oct. 13.—Gen. Sir H. H. Kitchener, the commander of the Anglo-Egyptian expedition into the Soudan, with his staff, arrived here early this morning from Dongola. Gen. Kitchener and his companions were received at the station by Lord Cromer, the British diplomatic agent, and the Egyptian Ministers of State. A large crowd of people also gathered at the station, and the reception of the officers was most enthusiastic.

NOW HARCOURT DROPS OUT.

The Liberal Party in England is Without a Head—Who Will Become Lord Rosebery's Successor?

London, Oct. 13.—The St. James' Gazette says Sir William Harcourt has addressed a letter to the Liberal whips resigning the leadership of the Liberal party in the House of Commons, and also intimating a desire on his part to retire from Parliament altogether.

Sir William Harcourt, The St. James' Gazette says, has also written a letter to Mr. Gladstone, in which he says he is about to withdraw from Parliament, regarding such action as the best course he could pursue in order to show that no ignoble ambition has guided his actions.

The announcement of Sir William's voluntary retirement may have the effect to rally upon his side many politicians who have hitherto refrained from taking part in the agitation in regard to the leadership of the Liberal party in succession to Lord Rosebery.

Mrs. Liscumbe Makes a Statement for the Benefit of Others.

Mrs. Liscumbe is well known in Havelock and this is how she spoke to our representative:—

"I have been troubled for some time with severe pains in the side and back. I took many medicines of various kinds, but got no relief.

"The box of Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at W. H. Jeff & Co's. drugstore gave me wonderful relief from the start. The improvement in my general health is not the least of the benefits which I have derived from the use of this remarkable kidney remedy.

"I can recommend them very highly to anyone troubled with any form of kidney disease."

MUSICAL INFORMATION!

A GOOD PIANO IS A LIBERAL EDUCATION.

What is there that so opens the mind to good and gentle inspiration as music?

What is there so inspiring or enobling in its influence? The music however must be good music. And good music cannot be produced from a bad Piano. The influence of the most charming voice or the most perfect violin, however well handled, is destroyed if accompanied by a bad piano.

MASON & RISCH PIANOS ARE THE INSTRUMENTS OF THE CULTURED.

They are found in the homes of our most refined and wealthiest citizens, where the Piano is viewed not as a mere article of furniture, but as the interpreter of our deepest feelings.

The prices of Mason & Risch Pianos are not unreasonable, quality considered, in fact they are much lower than most people suppose, but they give satisfaction from the first, and they last.

Our terms of payment are most liberal and we give straight cash quotations, without any nonsense about catalogue prices. We invite correspondence, and will mail catalogues and lists of purchasers free on application.

HON. A. G. BLAIR'S TRIP OVER THE T. V. C.

The Town Council Decides to Banquet Him in Peterborough.

A special meeting of a Committee of the whole Council was called last evening in reference to the taking of some step towards the entertainment, etc., of Hon. A. G. Blair, Minister of Railways and Canals, as he passes through the district on his trip of inspection over the route of the Trent Valley Canal.

A committee from the Board of Trade was present consisting of Messrs. J. R. Stratton, M. P. P., John Carnegie, D. W. Dumble, J. M. Irwin, A. L. Davis and B. Shortly. These gentlemen stated that they were present to proffer their help to the council in any scheme which might be advanced, and suggested that the residents along the northern portion of the route be invited to send representatives to be present at the banquet and press the claim of the canal from their standpoint.

It was decided that a steamer should be chartered to meet the minister at Hastings and that a deputation sent from the Town Council be composed of the Mayor and Councillors Langford, Phelan and Hughes.

Warden Middleton, of the County Council, was also present, and will appoint a committee to act in conjunction with the deputations from the Board of Trade and Town Council.

On his arrival in Peterborough the minister will be banqueted.

A telegram from the department announces that Hon. Mr. Blair expects to start on his tour of inspection early next week.

WEDDING BELLS.

NUPTIALS OF MR. J. P. HURLEY AND MISS CHARLOTTE RAYMOND.

A Grand Cathedral Wedding Celebrated at Nine O'clock this Morning—Carpet and Canopy from the Doors to the Boulevard.

One of the most noteworthy of cathedral weddings took place at St. Peter's this morning, when Ven. Archdeacon Casey celebrated the nuptials of Miss Charlotte Jane Nicholls Raymond, only child of Mrs. J. A. Raymond, and Mr. J. P. Hurley, of the Grand Trunk Railway.

The great cathedral was crowded to the doors by those interested in a wedding which has been the topic of conversation in social circles for some time past. A bright canopy of red, white and blue was stretched from the cathedral door to the boulevard, a distance of twenty yards, and the space beneath was richly carpeted.

The charming young bride was gowned in rich satin duchesse, en train, trimmed with costly old Irish point lace, an heirloom in the family for years. She wore a tulle veil and wreath of and carried a magnificent bouquet of white Bride roses. Her single ornament was a glorious diamond star, the gift of her mother. Her bridesmaid was was Miss Helen Haggarty, of Bay City, Mich., who looked most attractive in a gown of white organdie over white silk. She wore a handsome Gainsborough hat and carried a bouquet of pink La France roses.

The bride entered the church and ascended the aisle on the arm of Mr. George K. Martin. Mr. Miles Henry attended Mrs. Raymond, mother of the bride, and the groom was assisted by Mr. W. H. Bradburn.

The ushers were Messrs. Edw. McFadden and Alf. Terrill.

Miss K. Hurley presided at the organ, and at the conclusion of the ceremony the swelling notes of Mendelssohn's Wedding March pealed forth. The full choir was in attendance, and the musical part of the service was most exquisitely rendered.

The wedding dejeuner was served at the residence of the bride's mother, Water street, and consisted of a most elaborate course dinner. About twenty-five invited guests partook of the repast. The rooms were most prettily decorated with the intertwined national flags of Great Britain and the United States. The tables were all a-glitter with and presented a most artistic appearance, being most tastefully decorated with flowers and palms. A beautiful trailing vine of smilax ran from one end of the board to the other. The breakfast was served under the supervision of Long Bros.

The wedding gifts were exceedingly numerous a number of articles of most handsome design being received.

The bride is the granddaughter of the late Thomas Nicholls, Esq., grand-neice of the late Robert Nicholls, Esq., and namesake and co-heiress of the late Mrs. Charlotte Jane Nicholls, to whose munificence the town owes the Nicholls Hospital and the magnificent series of parks.

Mr. J. P. Hurley, the groom, is one of the best known and most popular of Peterborough's young men. He has filled the important position of Grand Trunk Ticket Agent for many years with honour to himself and credit to the company. Whilst a thorough business man, he has always found time to encourage every kind of manly sport and his presence on the field of sport is familiar. Kindly, obliging and generous to a fault—"Jack" will be greatly missed amongst his many bachelor friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurley left on the noon train for a trip through the principal cities of the Eastern States. On their return they will take up housekeeping at No. 567 Water street.

A host friends will join with the EXAMINER in extending the most cordial congratulations and the heartiest good wishes for a long and pleasant life of wedded happiness.

A QUIET WEDDING.

Celebration of the Nuptials of Mr. Bert McKee and Miss Eva Thompson.

A very quiet wedding, to which only the relatives and most intimate friends of the family were invited, took place this morning at the residence of Mr. Elias Thompson, No. 891 Water street, when his daughter Miss Eva was united in marriage to Mr. R. E. McKee, (familiarly known among his friends as "Bert,") of Smith township.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. R. Young, B.A., of the George street Methodist church.

The pretty brunette bride was handsomely attired in navy blue costume cloth, her travelling gown, trimmed with silk braid, buttons and lace, with point lace collar. She wore a large velvet hat to match, trimmed with birds, tips, flowers and folds of velvet. She was assisted by her sister, who looked most charming in a crepon gown flowered in pink and green, with garniture of green ribbons.

The groomsman was Mr. Herbert McKee, brother of the groom.

An informal reception was held after the serving of the wedding breakfast, when the guests were given an opportunity of admiring the beautiful display of wedding presents.

The rooms were adorned with a profusion of cut flowers and palms, and presented a most pleasing appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. McKee have gone west on a wedding trip, and on their return will take up their residence on a farm in Smith, which was the wedding gift of the groom's father, Mr. George McKee, of Smith.

MORE BLESSED TO GIVE —

"These of their abundance — she of her penury."—St. Luke xxi. 4.

In St. John's church, last Sunday, one of the noblest offerings, in response to Canon Macnab's earnest appeal on behalf of the St. Alban's Cathedral floating debt, was a dollar on which was written, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." Later on it was discovered that this was given by an esteemed townswoman who, notwithstanding her poverty, felt so keenly, as a churchwoman, the reproach of an unpaid debt, that she determined to give her hard-earned savings for the honour of her church. God alone knows the value of an offering—but those who understand the circumstances of the donor can appreciate the self-denial and generosity that lay behind the gift. Surely of her it may be again written, "She hath done what she could."

We court comparison—we make trade by it. Oak Hall Clothiers.

PETERBOROUGH OUT OF IT.

The Toronto Globe says:—A quiet meeting of the Judiciary Committee of the Canadian Lacrosse Association was held in this city on Monday. No notice of the meeting was given out and no report of the proceedings has yet been furnished to the press, though very important business was transacted. President O'Loughlin, of St. Catharines, occupied the chair, and the other members present were Secretary Vance, Messrs. J. A. Macfadden, of Stratford; F. W. Garvin, of Richmond Hill, and J. D. Bailey, of Toronto.

Peterborough was thrown out of the final competition for the intermediate championship on the ground that five of the Peterborough players' certificates for the match with Orillia were signed by the club secretary instead of by the players themselves.

Mitchell was also declared out for playing Turnbull, of the Toronto Elms, under the certificate of one Fitzsimmons. Turnbull is suspended for a year, dating from July 31.

Orillia, Georgetown, Seaforth and Wiarton are left to compete for the intermediate championship, but no date has been set for the finals, though it is now the middle of October.

LACROSSE.

The Toronto Mail says: Madoc and Peterborough are after each others lacrosse scalp, and these teams will meet on October 29th for a trophy valued at $50. In addition, the supporters of the teams will wager $200 each on the results. The articles of agreement, briefly stated, are as follows:

"It is agreed that the Peterborough and Madoc lacrosse clubs shall play a game of lacrosse on Thursday, October 29th, on neutral grounds. The game shall be for a trophy valued at $50, the cost to be borne equally by each team. It is further agreed that a side bet shall be made of $200, of which cheques for $100 have been placed in the hands of R. H. Elmore, sporting editor of The Mail and Empire, the balance to be placed with the referee on the day of the match. The players are to be bona fide residents of Madoc and Peterborough. W. S. A. Hartley, of Toronto, is to be referee. The gate receipts are to be equally divided. The game is to be played according to C. L. A. rules.

THE WHEEL.

Bald, it is estimated, cleared $10,000 for his season's work on the wheel, half in salary and the rest in winnings. That is a fair six months' work and not bad for a rider who a few years ago was earning a small salary by carving up meat in a butcher shop.

Zimmerman does not believe in paced racing. He believes that it has killed the sport. He is undoubtedly right, and it will not be not many seasons before the practice of pacing in races will be abolished. Zimmy has thrown out a challenge to race any rider in America for $5,000 a side in an unpaced mile, and Bald has declared his willingness to meet the ex-champion on these terms.

RUGBY FOOTBALL.

Although the Rugby football players have been out practising regularly, the club has not as yet been formally organized this year, and a meeting is called at the Oriental hotel this evening, at 7.30, for that purpose. All the old members are urged to be attendance and new ones will be welcomed.

THE ROAD RACE.

Intending competitors in the Peterborough road race are notified that their entries must be in the hands of the secretary, Alf. Terrill, by Saturday evening, at the latest. No post entries will be received. The secretary will be found in THE EXAMINER office on Saturday evening by any who have not an opportunity of entering sooner.

To remove the constipated habit, the only safe treatment is a course of Ayer's Pills, followed by a laxative diet. Most other cathartics do more harm than good, therefore leading physicians recommend Ayer's Pills, especially as a family physic.

RIVAL TELEPHONE COMPANIES.

It will be remembered, says the Boston News Bureau, that some months ago the papers were filled with the great things the Harrison Telephone Company with its $30,000,000 of paper capital, was about to accomplish as a rival of the Bell Telephone Companies throughout the United States. Investigation showed that the main asset of the Harrison Company was an opposition telephone exchange at Fort Smith, Ark., owned by the Harrison International Construction Company, but nevertheless great things were promised for the whole country. The Boston News Bureau is just advised by telegraph from Fort Smith, Ark., that after four years of desperate struggle for existence, this opposition exchange has passed into the hands of the Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone Company, which operates under the Bell patents in Arkansas and Texas. This exchange was the foundation of the Harrison International Company, which capitalized originally at $30,000,000, afterwards reduced to $10,000,000. The exchange was built in a most thorough manner and cost the Harrison International Company over $25,000. The Southwestern Company secures the plant at less than 30 per cent. of the cost. Its failure is attributed to the fact that only one exchange can be operated successfully in any one community, and that the rates charged by the Harrison Company, $3 and $2 per month, were far below the cost of operating. The Southwestern Company can use to advantage a large part of the plant, but the telephones, bells and switchboards will be destroyed. The Southwestern Telephone Company operates in the territory generally known as that of the Erie Telephone Company. A Topeka, Kan., special states that the opposition telephone plant in that city, costing the promoters $50,000, was sold out under a judgment of $35,000 to the company operating the Bell plant at $8,500. —Boston Transcript.

NORTH HARVEY.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

An interesting event took place last Friday evening, Oct. 9th, at the residence of Mr. John Bell, when his eldest daughter Miss Elizabeth, was married to Mr. Daniel Arscott of this place. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock p. m., by Rev. Mr. McInnis, Presbyterian minister of Bobcaygeon, in the presence of a large number of the friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was assisted by Miss Annie Forest and the groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Thomas Arscott. The happy couple received quite a number of useful and valuable presents, showing the high esteem in which they are held by their friends. They will take up their residence permanently here. We wish them joy and happiness on their journey through life.

Mr. Joseph Junkin of Verulam is here now with his steam thresher, and the way he is getting through the work is something extraordinary. This is the first steam thresher that has ever been in this part of the township, and by the way it seems to suit the farmers, the old horsepower is doomed.

Mr. Fremont Crandel, of Lindsay, has just put on a gang of men on Squaw river, where he is going to take out timber for the Dundas & Flavelle Co., of Lindsay.

Rev. Mr. Jamison, Presbyterian missionary, gave his farewell sermon Sunday night. It is not known yet whether his place here will be filled or not.

Mr. James Ward is busy ploughing on the place that he bought lately from R. Gerrard.

Mr. Gerrard is bidding farewell to his many old friends and acquaintances. He says he is loath to leave this place, where he has spent so many years. He will carry with him the good will of everyone and we wish him good luck wherever he goes.

Potatoes, like the grain crop, will be rather slim this year, not being half as good as last year; still, everyone seems to have enough for themselves, but not many to sell.

ONTARIO OWNS HER FISHERIES.

THE QUESTION AT LAST DECIDED.

The Supreme Court Finally Reaches a Verdict on a Question Which Has Long Been in Dispute.

Ottawa, Oct. 13.—By the judgment of the Supreme Court delivered this morning the Provinces acquire enormous properties and important privileges which have hitherto been in dispute between them and the Dominion. The fisheries case, involving the ownership of beds of lakes and streams and the right to lease fishing privileges in navigable waters, is decided in favour of the Provinces. The power of the Dominion to conserve and regulate the fisheries is confirmed. It has power also to impose general licenses upon all persons fishing, still such licenses cannot be restricted to any particular locality. The Provinces alone have power to apportion by lease certain parts of navigable waters to those who purchase the exclusive right to fish in them.

The lands of public harbours are declared to belong to the Dominion and as a consequence the right to fish therein.

The Dominion controls all waters in the Indian reservations.

The Dominion Government has no power to grant leases for fishing in any part of the Dominion.

In tidal waters neither the Dominion nor the Provinces can restrict the public right of fishing. The Ontario fishery act is declared to be legal except when it may interfere with the Dominion power of conserving fisheries, but the Ontario act will be held good unless the Dominion has legislated in that particular.

The Fishery Act of the Dominion is declared to be ultra vires except in a few minor particulars.

AFTER HIM FOR $20,000.

Mr. Franklyn M. Cowperthwaite Has Some Charges Preferred Against Him Which Claim Attention.

Montreal, Oct. 13.—(Special.)—Mr. Franklyn M. Cowperthwaite, the former manager of the Canadian Fibre Chamois Company, ltd., of Montreal, was served with writs in two heavy actions for damages, the amount claimed being $10,000 in each case. The plaintiffs are the International Fibre Chamois Company of London, Eng., and the Canadian Fibre Chamois Company of Montreal, who are represented by Messrs. Macmaster and McLennan. The London company alleges that Mr. Cowperthwaite signed a contract with it in June last, binding himself not to directly or indirectly enter into competition with it in the English market in the fibre chamois business; that the defendant has since entered into negotiations with Mr. Charles Riordon, the well-known paper manufacturer of St. Catharines, Ont., and others, to promote a rival concern, and has become interested in the Standard Fibre Lining Company of St. Catharines, which, it is alleged, are making interlining resembling fibre chamois, and placing it on the English market in competition with the London company. It is claimed that Mr. Cowperthwaite's connection with Charles Riordon and the Standard Company is in violation of his written contract with the London company. Hence the claim for damages, and it is stated an injunction will be applied for. The action by the Canadian Fibre Chamois Company of Montreal also arises out of Mr. Cowperthwaite's alleged connection with the Standard Company of St. Catharines, and his management of some business for the plaintiff in London. It is also alleged that Mr. Cowperthwaite, while the manager and director of the Canadian company, entered into arrangements with Mr. Riordon for the purpose of starting the rival factory, and used knowledge and information which he acquired from his position as director in the Montreal company, to promote the success of the Standard Fibre Lining Company. It is alleged that his duties and responsibilities as a director are inconsistent with his alleged connection with the Standard Company, and that he is liable in damages for any injury which the Montreal company may have sustained from such connection. The case promises to be interesting, as it involves an important question as to the responsibilities of directors of companies.

SOMETIMES the most careful women are the most careless. Many a woman bundles herself up, puts on heavy clothing and wraps and furs to keep out the cold—to keep out sickness—when she is neglecting the very worst sickness that can come to a woman. She is allowing a slight disorder to grow, to become worse, to slowly and surely sap her vitality. The little pain and the other slight indications of trouble seem to her unimportant. She pays no attention to them. By and by they grow a little worse, but she is used to them then and takes them as a matter of course. By and by, they have grown into dragging pains that occasionally keep her in the house—that occasionally put her to bed. Then she knows what is the matter, but she won't go to a doctor because she knows he will insist on "examinations" and "local treatment." She goes on, with increasing suffering, until life itself becomes a drag. Nervousness, "sinking spells," digestive disturbances, and fifty other complications may arise from the same cause. Frequently such symptoms are treated as digestive diseases when the root of the whole matter is the derangement of the organs distinctly feminine. Over thirty years ago, the need for a reliable remedy for so-called "female complaints," was recognized by Dr. R. V. Pierce, then, as now, chief consulting physician to the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, at Buffalo, N. Y. He prepared Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the most wonderfully effective remedy that has ever been used for such maladies. Its sale now exceeds the combined sales of all other medicines for women. Its effect is perceptible almost immediately. It relieves pain, allays inflammation, checks debilitating drains, and quickly subdues other distressing symptoms. It makes the organs and their surrounding tissues strong and healthy, thereby correcting displacements and invigorating the whole body.

THE FAIRY AND THE BURR.

A chestnut burr, with prickly fur,
Upon the parent tree,
One autumn day was heard to say,
To Mr. Bumblebee:
"How sad am I, who cannot fly,
Or run or leap or hop,
Like beast or bee, but on this tree,
Am always doomed to stop.

"The birds and bees float on the trees,
The rabbits leap or run,
The nimble squirrels and boys and girls
Indulge in active fun;
But day and night I'm stuck here tight,
And though I long to roam,
As you'll perceive, I ne'er can leave
My leafy, tree-twig home."

A fairy small, who'd chanced to call,
O'erheard this fretful talk;
She shook her head and gently said:
"Your wish to fly or walk,
I'll grant to you. Which will I do?
Just name it and 'tis done."
Then cried the burr: "I'd much prefer
To be a beast and run."

A gentle wave the fairy gave,
Of jeweled wand so small;
When with a bound unto the ground
The burr was seen to fall,
Lo! there appears eyes, mouth and ears,
Four legs, a tail, some feet,
(Strange you'll agree) and then we see,
A porcupine, complete.

Lighting a Fire With Ice.

If any one was to tell you that you could light a fire with a piece of ice you'd be very likely to shake your head. But it can be done, and if you have a liking for surprising your friends you can try it—after a little private practice behind the barn.

Take a piece of clear ice about an inch thick from the water cooler, whittle it into the shape of a disk and with the palms of your hands melt its two sides convex, thus giving the form of a double convex lens, or burning glass. This you should do with considerable accuracy, and you may have to practice some time before you can accomplish it.

When your ice lens is complete hold it where the sun's rays will fall on it and focus them so that they will be directed on a piece of light paper or tinder. A blaze will burst up at once. The experiment works well only when the sun is very bright.

Pictures of a Song.

Not content with taking pictures of a man's skeleton while he's alive and well, a clever experimenter now says that he can photograph the human voice. He can take pictures of "Annie Laurie," and "God Save the Queen," just as they come from the singer's throat. Indeed, such perfect results are obtained that the voice of a tenor or soprano can be judged, he claims, with absolute accuracy as to its quality and range without hearing it—merely by inspecting a series of photographs.

First thing we know Prof. Hallock, for that is the experimenter's name, will be exhibiting pictures of Patti's "Home, Sweet Home," and no doubt they'll be so beautiful that they'll fairly bring the tears to our eyes. And when one of our girls wishes a position with an opera company or in a church choir all she'll have to do will be to wrap up a photograph of her voice in a bit of paper and send it off to the committee.

They do not Despair.

An utter loss of hope is not characteristic of Consumptives, though no other form of disease is so fatal, unless its progress is arrested by Scott's Emulsion, which is Cod Liver Oil made as palatable as cream.

DANGERS OF TUBERCULOSIS.

A Toronto Veterinary Surgeon Gives Diseased Milk to a Cat and the Cat Will Soon Die.

Toronto, Oct. 13.

For the want of a taste keen enough to detect microbes in her drink a big tabby on Alice-street has come into a world of trouble. Some months ago Veterinary Surgeon McPherson of Alice-street had a cow for treatment that was affected with tuberculosis, and, in order to test the effect of milk from such a source, he gave pussy a cupful of it. About a month later the cat began to lose flesh and now sits moping and peevish by the stove, harassed by a hacking cough that will in a short time hurry pussy to the grave. "The cow's milk was sold for weeks before she was brought to my office and destroyed," said the vet, "and the test shows clearly enough the danger the public are running every day. It is my belief that numbers of the dairies have animals that should be put out of the way."

HORRIBLE STATE OF AFFAIRS.

The Waters of the Bosphorus Full of the Bodies of Young Turks.

Berlin, Oct. 12.—Persistent stories are in circulation to the effect that carts loaded with corpses emerge at night from the Central Prison and hurry off in the direction of the Bosphorus. These victims are supposed to be young Turks. French divers are refusing to work in the Bosphorus, owing to the horrible collection of corpses that they meet while pursuing their labors under water. In an interview Tewfik Pasha, the Foreign Minister, gave in detail the reforms that the Sultan proposes to apply to the whole Empire. He said that the great expense entailed by these reforms would be met by granting new monopolies if the Powers will give their consent. With these and peace, Turkey, he added, would surmount her financial troubles. In conclusion, Tewfik Pasha declared that the Government was resolved to continue the construction of the Asiatic Railway to Bagdad, thus opening up the resources of Anatolia and providing an overland route to India.

The Lokal Anzeiger has a despatch from Constantinople saying that the anti-Sultan movement among the Softas (theological students) is growing. They have circulated another revolutionary proclamation.

THE CASE OF THE CASTLES.

Dr. Savage, the Government Mental Expert, Has Examined the Accused Woman.

London, Oct. 12.—For purposes of evidence, the Government mental expert, Dr. Savage, has examined Mrs. Castle, the American lady who, with her husband, Mr. W. M. Castle of San Francisco, is confined in Holloway Jail, awaiting examination in the great Marlborough-street Police Court to-morrow upon a charge of stealing a number of valuable furs. The result of the examination is not made public, but if Mrs. Castle is committed for trial expert evidence in her favor will be obtained from San Francisco.

DEAD DRUNK AT THREE.

Some Mean Individual Filled Johnny Murphy With Whisky.

New York, Oct. 12.—Thomas Murphy is only 3 years old, but he is a patient in the Hudson-street Hospital, suffering from alcoholism and acute gastritis. The little fellow was in great pain in his home yesterday afternoon, and somebody, thinking to relieve his suffering, poured a large quantity of whisky down his throat. Just who did this is not clear. A neighbor went to the Leonard-street Police Station and told Captain Cross that some one had got the child intoxicated, and that Tommy was extremely sick.

Captain Cross sent Detective Mangan to the house of Thomas' parents, at No. 47 Laight-street. In their rooms on the third floor Mangan found a mixed-ale party. The mother, Ellen Murphy, and the father, Patrick, were "mellow" from imbibing too much ale. It was believed at first that the child would die, but Dr. Brown, after working over the little sufferer for a long time, said he considered him out of danger.

A DIPLOMAT IS THE CZARINA.

Granted an Interview and Said Nice Things, But Was Non-Committal.

London, Oct. 12.—The Czarina, previous to leaving Balmoral Castle for France, received a delegation of ladies, who called upon her to ask for her support for the suffering Armenians. The audience, however, was granted on the condition that nothing should be said regarding it until Her Majesty left England.

The delegation, it now appears, urged the Czarina to do something to stay the hand of the Sultan, and Her Majesty replied that, so far, she had interfered but little in politics, although she was ready to do anything in her power to help bring about a crusade against the existing circumstances at Constantinople. She added:

"A more womanly or Christian action than helping to alleviate the sufferings of the poor Armenians is hardly conceivable. Rest assured of my heartfelt interest in the cause you have at heart."

A MESSAGE TO MEN.

Proving that True Honesty and True Philantrophy Still Exist.

If any man, who is weak, nervous and debilitated, or who is suffering from any of the various forms resulting from youthful folly, excesses or overwork, will take heart and write to me, I will send him confidentially and free of charge, the plan pursued by which I was completely restored to perfect health and manhood, after years of suffering from Nervous Debility, Loss of Vigor and Organic Weakness.

I have nothing to sell and therefore want no money, but as I know through my own experience how to sympathize with such sufferers, I am glad to be able to assist any fellow-being to a cure. I am well aware of the prevalence of quackery, for I myself was deceived and imposed upon until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but I rejoice to say that I am now perfectly well and happy once more and am desirous therefore to make this certain means of cure known to all. If you will write to me you can rely upon being cured and the proud satisfaction of having been of great service to one in need will be sufficient reward for my trouble. Absolute secrecy assured. Send 5c. silver to cover postage and address, Mr. Geo. G. Strong, North Rockwood, Mich.

Constipation Cured.

Gents,—I was in very poor health for over four years; the doctor said it was constipation. Not wanting to spend too much cash I got three bottles of B.B.B. and took it regularly. I can certify that I am now in the very best of health and feel very grateful to B.B.B.

Nervous Prostration
Complete Recovery by the Use of
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. Hyson, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.

AYER'S Pills Save Doctor's Bills.

The women of New Zealand have no very high regard for the gradual process of time and experience in bringing about reforms. They believe that two or three progressive women gathered in convention are equal to a century or two of ordinary civilization. At a recent convention at Christchurch they have expressed a desire to abolish capital punishment, to naturalize the land, to create a system of old-age pensions, and to make judicial sentences reformatory as well as punitive. Not satisfied with so ambitious a program, they go still further in asserting the right of women to sit on juries and be elected to the Legislature. Another resolution was passed that is worth setting forth in full: "In all cases where a woman elects to superintend a household and to be the mother of children, there shall be a law attaching a certain just share of her husband's earnings or income for her separate use, payable, if she desires, into her separate account."

Mrs. Henry Stanley, the wife of the intrepid explorer, will soon be the happy posessor of a very beautiful wheel, which she can use in future explorations of the Dark Continent. The wheel is the gift of an enterprising American firm who have turned out for the purpose one of the most perfect bicycles ever designed. It is a high grade wheel of faultless workmanship, and is enameled in pure white with trimmings of silver, an exquisite and admirable piece of mechanism throughout. Mrs. Stanley is an accomplished wheelwoman and will be able to put the gift to good use.

The followers of Father Kneipe are gaining in numbers in this country. He professes to cure many diseases, particularly those of the nerves, by a foot-bath in the dew-laden grass of the early morning. In Germany it is a common thing to see elegantly-clad ladies and gentlemen ploughing their way barefooted back and forth across a lawn. The municipal authorities of New York have just set apart a public plot of ground in Central Park where the members of the barefooted brigade can march to their hearts' content. This was done in response to a petition after several persons had been arrested for violation of the "Keep off the grass," rules.

Queen Amelie of Prtugal, the daughter of the late Comte de Paris, is evidently not a commonplace royalty. She began the study of medicine over a year ago, being moved to do so by the pain she had suffered from her absolute ignorance of such subjects while helping to nurse her father. Her Majesty has already passed the first one of the ordinary students' examinations. She has now been taking a great interest in the new photography, and by means of Roentgen rays has taken portraits of some girls with fashionably distorted waists, so as to be able by a comparison with the natural skeleton to show her court ladies how much they push themselves out of shape.

After a dread suspense that had lasted nearly three years, Mrs. Nansen, wife of the Arctic explorer, has at last been gladdened by news of his return. Rumors had reached her from time to time—some telling of the alleged success of his expedition, others of the supposed death of her husband—but through it all she has borne an unfaltering belief in his skill and courage, and has been firm in the belief that he would return to civilization. Now her faith has been justified, and Nansen will go down to history as having journeyed nearly two hundred miles further to the northward than any explorer previous to his trip.

Miss Elsie Clews, daughter of Mr. Henry Clews, the well-known New York banker, (whose bulletins are published by the Canadian daily papers), is a young lady of exquisite taste. Her bedroom has been described by an artist as "a poem," and is furnished from her own suggestions. The walls are a pale rose color, the canopy and side-hangings of the brass bedstead the same shade, with a lining of delicate green. The coverlid has a pure white ground, with a delicate tracing of pale pink flowers and forest green leaves and stems. The bed stands in a recess, and on the wall just above it is traced in gold letters a quotation from Tennyson's "Dream of Fair Women."

Sleep sweetly, tender heart, in peace.

An odd, pretty screen in the room is of carved white wood, with here and there the design breaking out into a rose and leaves, forest green, the reliefs just touched with gold, and the whole rendered dainty and unique with an occasional line of dull green. The panels are filled with fulled China silk, in white ground, scantily covered with a vine of pink morninglories.

Outside of Spain and the Orient, fanning is not a graceful art, but a manual labor; it is not soothing, but heating. The only persons to whom fanning is a real relief are those who follow the Oriental fashion, and wave their generous palm-leaves with the same sang froid with which Cleopatra's boys on her immortal barge swung theirs to and fro. Fans are as old as history, and the ancient Egyptians well knew their use, but it is impossible to imagine those stately queens of ancient days permitting in their presence anything so vigorously undignified as the modern method of fanning.

THE SHEPHERDESS.
From the Painting by D. Ridgway-Knight, Salon des Champs Elysees, 1890.

Knee-deep in flowery grasses
The patient flock is browsing,
The downs are gold and purple,
In the sun the fields are drowsing,
And far and near, o'er land and sea,
Is peace as full as full can be.

I led the lambs to pasture,
While yet the morn was pearly;
I mind them, lamb and mother,
And tend them late and early.
But thought is free; o'er land and sea
Dreams of my true-love come to me.

Tell me, oh, errant breezes,
What is my dearest doing?
Say, is he faint with toiling,
Or has he cause for ruing?
Oh! swift and sweet, o'er land and sea,
I send my blessing, dear to thee.

Soft wave the feathery grasses,
The heather bloom is fair,
There's naught but hath its pleasure
In sky, on earth, in air.
And I? No maid more glad can be,
Dreams of my love for company.

The wedding cake made for the marriage of Princess Maud of Wales to her cousin, Prince Charles of Denmark, was decorated in a manner entirely new. Pure white, which is the usual color for a wedding cake, was relieved by the fruits and flowers being inted in delicate natural colors. The cake was in three tiers, mounted on a base, and supported by beautifully modelled British lions, alternated with winged female figures. A spray of the roses of England and Denmark between each figure was moulded in sugar paste. Upon the lower cake were medallions emblazoned with the arms of the royal bride and bridegroom. Wreaths and festoons composed of the rose of England, with that of Denmark, the shamrock of Ireland, and the thistle of Scotland, were interwoven with sprays of orange blossoms, and joined the medallions. The second tier was entwined with wreaths of fruits and flowers, made of sugar paste and carried out very daintily in the natural colors. The smaller and top layer of cake was ornamented with a graceful scroll tracing in white, and at opposite sides were shields with the monograms of the young couple. The upper edge of the cake was finished with a delicate wreath of orange blossoms, and the whole surmounted by a basket filled with fruit and held by three little figures of dancing Cupids, moulded like the figures at the base. Queen Victoria also sent her granddaughter a wedding cake, which is her custom at the marriage of each one of her grandchildren. The ornamentations were of the conventional white, with silver bullion.

The late Lady Tennyson and the poet were lovers even in their old age. Lord Tennyson was forty-one when they were married, and he had known her when she was a mere child. Indeed, they had been companions from her girlhood. Her mother was a sister of Sir John Franklin, the great Arctic explorer, and her youngest sister was the wife of Charles Tennyson Turner.

There is a Russian peasant, named Irma Fedossora, whom we are sure to hear of some day. She is still young and she is already credited with having the most prolific pen in the kingdom of the Czar. Ten thousand poems, many of them are much admired, bear her signature.

It is estimated that Queen Victoria now rules over 367,000,000 people.

Don't You Remember Long Ago?

As the years roll on we more and more recall the events of the past. School days with their tasks and chores come back again to us in memory, but with the glamour and enchantment of distant views. The old school and church, the boys and girls we romped with, father's voice, mother's smile, the joy of the holiday—no pleasures of the present can compare with those enjoyed in the days now locked up in the eternity of the past. In a similar way we recall the old time tested friend of the past—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor—that never failed us then and is just as sure to serve us now. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is sure safe, and painless. Use no other.

THE EYES OF THE WORLD
Are Fixed Upon South American Nervine.

Beyond Doubt the Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

WHEN EVERY OTHER HELPER HAS FAILED IT CURES

A Discovery, Based on Scientific Principles, that Renders Failure Impossible.

In the matter of good health temporizing measures, while possibly successful for the moment, can never be lasting. Those in poor health soon know whether the remedy they are using is simply a passing incident in their experience, bracing them up for the day, or something that is getting at the seat of the disease and is surely and permanently restoring.

The eyes of the world are literally fixed on South American Nervine. They are not viewing it as a nine-days' wonder, but critical and experienced men have been studying this medicine for years, with the one result—they have found that its claim of perfect curative qualities cannot be gainsaid.

The great discoverer of this medicine was possessed of the knowledge that the seat of all disease is the nerve centres, situated at the base of the brain. In this belief he had the best scientists and medical men of the world occupying exactly the same premises. Indeed, the ordinary layman recognised this principle long ago. Everyone knows that let disease or injury affect this part of the human system and death is almost certain. Injure the spinal cord, which is the medium of these nerve centres, and paralysis is sure to follow.

Here is the first principle. The trouble with medical treatment usually, and with nearly all medicines, is that they aim simply to treat the organ that may be diseased. South American Nervine passes by the organs, and immediately applies its curative powers to the nerve centres, from which the organs of the body receive their supply of nerve fluid. The nerve centres healed, and of necessity the organ which has shown the outward evidence only of derangement is healed. Indigestion, nervousness, impoverished blood, liver complaint, all owe their origin to a derangement of the nerve centres. Thousands bear testimony that they have been cured of these troubles, even when they have become so desperate as to baffle the skill of the most eminent physicians, because South American Nervine has gone to headquarters and cured there.

The eyes of the world have not been disappointed in the inquiry into the success of South American Nervine. People marvel, it is true, at its wonderful medical qualities, but they know beyond all question that it does everything that is claimed for it. It stands alone as the one great certain curing remedy of the nineteenth century. Why should anyone suffer distress and sickness while this remedy is practically at their hands?

WORLD'S CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOUR PRAYER CHAIN.

(Subject of Prayer for October.)

Pray especially for those missionaries labouring in hard, discouraging and perilous fields. Pray for the "volunteers" who are making ready to "go to the front."

OTTAWA, '96.

The convention at Ottawa now forms a very important part in the C. E. history of Canada—first, because it was the first inter-provincial convention; second, second, because it was the largest and most loyal and enthusiasiastic convention yet held in Canada. While the realizations of the reception committee were not up to the expectations, still, the 640 delegates who were present spread the Christian Endeavour life throughout Canada's beautiful capitol in a manner that will surely prove beneficial to the cause of Christ and the church in that city. Ottawa was not behind the capital of our sister nation in giving a variety of weather. The convention opened with a downpour of rain, but this did not prevent the reception committee catering to the wants of the incoming delegates. The reception was hearty and the social gathering proved to be one of the most pleasant features of the convention. Some of the most prominent C. E. workers of the Dominion were present and took part in the programme, while the address of the convention was that delivered by Secretary Bair, of the International Committee. The Canadian Endeavourers extended a hearty welcome to Mr. Bair, who is beloved by Endeavourers all over the continent. Hon. G. W. Ross opened the convention with "Christian Citizenship" as his topic and based his talk upon the political and amusement features.

Dr. Clarke forwarded a letter of greeting from London, England.

The report of the Provincial Secretary shows an increase of 49 societies, with 3 394 members during the year. This places Ontario fourth in the list of States or Provinces on the continent as to largest membership. On Wednesday evening denominational rallies were held, at which there was stirring addresses and great enthusiasm manifested. The thought that Christian Endeavour proves to be the missing link impressed itself upon those present at these gatherings.

The address on Missions by Mr. A. E. Scott, of Winnipeg, late of Peterborough, was very interesting and was a masterly plea for increased activity in missionary enterprise. Mr. Scott spoke of the expressed desire for increased opportunity for doing good. In glowing terms he told of the progress made during the past decade.

The next Provincial convention will be held in St. Thomas, and Hamilton is recommended for '98.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—

President—Mr. A. E. Hardy, Lindsay.

Vice Presidents — Rev. J. F. Barker, Hamilton; Mr. W. W. Coulter, St. Thomas; Rev. A. E. Knowles, Ottawa; Rev. W. Johnston, Wardsville.

Secretary—Thos. Morrie, jr., Hamilton.

Treasurer—W. J. Doherty, London.

Editor—A. J. R. Dickson, Galt.

Supt. Junior Work—Miss Lottie E. Wiggins, Toronto.

Editor Endeavour Herald—Rev. J. S. Cumming.

The following resolutions were apopted:

"That we are much gratified with the increase of interest in missions and that we pledge ourselves to strike further efforts in the year to come."

"That we look upon the use and sale of intoxicating liquors as among the greatest hindrances to the advancement of Christ's kingdom and that we stand pledged to do all in our power to abolish the legalized liquor traffic."

The platform of principles was reaffirmed and the societies pledged to seek a deepening of spiritual life. The junior workers were given a breakfast on Thursday morning. This was followed by a conference on junior work, Miss Lottie E. Wiggins, Provincial Superintendent, presiding. "The difficulties and pleasures of junior work" were discussed, as also the many methods of obtaining success. This was the most successful conference ever held in connection with Canadian conventions.

A tremendous crowd and a splendid programme were the leading features of the junior rally. Over 600 people were turned away from the Opera House where this rally was held. The entertainment far surpassed anything heretofore attempted along this line and everything went off without even the slightest semblance of a mistake. At the close Miss Lottie Wiggins, Provincial Superintendent, was presented with a magnificent bouquet of roses by the juniors. The denominations were represented at the convention as follows:—Presbyterians, 312; Methodists, 248; Congregationalists, 50; Baptists, 27; United Brethren, 7; Salvation Army, 1.

At the closing exercises an overflow meeting had to be arranged. Secretary Baer delivered the address of the evening and conducted the consecration service. His address was filled with religious fervor and thought he held the audience spellbound. At the closing exercises many were moved to tears as they listened to his earnest appeals in the cause of Christ.

We can only give a synopsis of his address. His topic was "The Ultimate Aim of Christian Endeavour." In opening he expressed his pleasure at being the guest of the Canadian Endeavourers, and in representing the founder of the movement, Rev. Dr. Clark, who was born in Canada, though the society was born in Maine.

The theme he had to speak on was expressed in one of the planks of the C.E. platform of principles as follows: "Christian Endeavour has for its ultimate end a purpose no less wide and lofty than the bringing of the world to Christ." Hence it is an organization intensely evangelistic and missionary in spirit, and desires to do all it may under the direction of the churches and missionary boards for missionary extension the world over.

Let us see if we are agreed upon several very important matters. First, that each local society of Christian Endeavour, next to Christ, is amenable to no other authority, than that of its own pastor and its own church. Like the Sunday school it is a subordinate part of the church. We also agree that the Christian Endeavour idea will successfully organize the boys and girls for effective service—hence the thousands of Junior C.E. Societies, and we have no more important branch of Christian Endeavour than that of organizing our boys and girls, and saving them for Christ. Christian Endeavour is also a blessing to the boys and girls of from 14 to 18, and for them we have our intermediate societies.

The Christian Endeavour idea has even developed further into the life of some churches, and pastors have found that what was good for juniors and young people would be good for the older people and thus have been developed the Mothers' and Senior societies. Through each and all of them you will find the pledge expressing loyalty to the local church and to Christ. Let us keep well to the front the cry—"For Christ and the Church." So we must stick to this watch-word "Loyalty."

Ours is a religious society above all things; its home is the local church; its field the wide world. It has been truly said, Christian Endeavour is "an influence and not an institution." Our movement is destined to grow to even greater proportions than it has already. Let us emphasize the denominational loyalty that Christian Endeavour fosters and in which it rejoices.

To do effective work, we must be equipped with the Spirit, which is the Word of God. Our lives must reflect, almost as a lightning flash, the life of Jesus Christ. Oh, for a revival of Bible study.

To be an active member means something. It really means an abiding in Christ. Never mind if we are not popular with the world as long as we are loved by "Him whom, never having seen, we love."

The address was a magnificent effort, full of thought and sound teaching, but one that cannot be condensed in the short space at our command.

Seven hundred Endeavourers went to Aylmer to visit the birthplace of Dr. Clarke. Along the route the party sang bright Endeavour songs. On reaching Aylmer the crowd formed into line and marched up the main street to Cherry Cottage, the birthplace of Dr. Clake. The house of such historic interest was gaily decorated in convention colors. The mayor of Aylmer who was a former schoolmate of Dr. Clarke, interested himself in the arrangements with a great deal of enthusiasm. Mr. Bair delivered an address he was greeted with a hearty reception. Twice when he was about to conclude the assembly cried "go on."

Rev. Principal Grant gave an interesting and eloquent address, taking "Patriotism" as his subject.

A pleasing incident of the day was the presentation to Mr. Baer of a beautiful gavel made from a cherry tree cut at "Cherry Cottage" that week. Mr. Baer will present the gavel to Dr. Clarke from the committee of '96 as a souvenir of the first Interprovincial Convention.

CONVENTION NOTES.

This convention was acknowledged to be the most spiritual ever held in Canada. From beginning to end the addresses were deeply spiritual in tone.

When the greetings were read from the States the audience sang "Blest be the Tie That Binds."

Every reference to Queen Victoria was received with enthusiasm. The resolution wishing her long life was responded to by the national anthem.

Mr. Baer has cancelled every other engagement but this visit to Ottawa. The headquarters staff at Boston is depleted by illness.

Hamilton Union captured the first badge given by the Provincial Executive for the Union returning the largest percentage of statistical reports.

The Ottawa Free Press gave a full report of the proceedings and we are indebted to them for most of the information we publish this week.

The leading Endeavourers pronounced this the best Canadian convention ever held and also claimed that the organization of the local workers the most complete and satisfactory of any, and it will go down into history as marking an epoch in the life of the C. E. movement in Canada.

Catarrh in the Head

Is a dangerous disease. It may lead directly to consumption. Catarrh is caused by impure blood, and the true way to cure it is by purifying the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures catarrh because it removes the cause of it by purifying the blood. Thousands testify that they have been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

HOod's Pills are purely vegetable and do not purge, pain or gripe. All druggists. 25c.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry cures Diarrhœa, Dysentry, Cramps, Colic, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, and all looseness of the bowels. Never travel without it. Price 35c.

LINING UP

AFTER THE FAIRS.

Our Prize Clothing.

Our Clothing has had the call at all the Fairs. It was nothing new to find the Directors decorating our display with the Red Prize Tickets. It would have been a surprise if we didn't capture First Prize—not because competition was weak, but because the Clothing could not be bettered in Canada. The reputation of the big store was at stake, and we're more than proud to have deserved the good opinion of the directors as well as the thousands of men folk at the Fairs.

Now we're lining up for a rattling big fall business. We've had a good start already, but the price cards are becoming a more interesting study every day, and the figures startling enough to bring us the trade of the masses.

There's Wisdom . . In Economy

And there are different sorts of economy. The economy which "saves at the spigot and wastes at the bung" is worse than no economy at all. The truest saving is to buy the best your pocket-book will afford at the lowest price for which it can be sold. We buy the best of everything. We sell in such a close margin of profit that our customers feel confident that bottom has been struck. Hence the active, progressive look of things which some people wonder at. It's very simple this honest shop-keeping when you know how and the trading public will always pin their faith to an establishment of this kind.

THE HOSIERY SECTION

Is at the height of its usefulness. Note the busy throng of busy buyers, as they come and go. Want to make a hosiery customer of you. We keep the honest wearable sorts you know.

Ladies Wove Cashmere Hose 25c.

JACKETS AND CAPES.

A room full of them, and a room full of customers, admiring and buying them. You don't need a pocketful of money to be properly Jacketed and Caped here. Your interests are ours and we're here to please you in every way.

CARPETS ARE GOING TO BE HIGHER.

Wool is higher, labour costs more. We tell you this so you can save by buying now. We will have to make the advance when the time comes. So will everybody else, whether they want to or no. You can save a dozen dollars or more by not delaying in buying that Carpet now of us.

Doing
AS WE PROMISE.

Good advertising does not encourage prevarication in prices. Quibbling or deviating from the plain path of truth and fair dealing, is an abuse which brings its own retribution.

PRICES without anything behind them, have very little meaning. But when they are fixed with care, are not misleading, and really represent something, they bring good buyers.

Dress Novelties.

So many of the pretty things have been picked up up in such a hurry that we've had to repeat orders—and to-day new lots are opened up in some of the best novelties.

When people want to pay extravagant prices for their Millinery, there will be no need for our store. But the dawn of that day is yet in the future. This store is the saver of the incomes of all—rich and poor.

THE OTTAWA BUDGET

Mr. Dawson's Tidal Observations in the Gulf.

FISHERMEN HAVE HAD GOOD LUCK

The King of Anticosti Has Engaged a Good Many Canadians—Mr. Tarte Wants Newspaper Men to Go to the Coast With Him—Americans Want Our Whitefish

Ottawa, Oct. 14.—W. B. Dawson, Chief Tidal Officer of the Marine Depart, has just returned to the Capital. During the season just closing the northeastern arm of the Gulf, from Anticosti to Belle Isle, has been under examination, and through it there passes all the Atlantic traffic which takes the Belle Isle route. This arm of the Gulf has an area as large as the English Channel, and to ascertain the nature of the current in such an area, even in a general way, is a good season's work.

The steamship Lansdowne of the Marine Department has now returned after spending three months in this service. In addition to direct investigation of the currents, the tide survey has been continued. There are now seven principal tidal stations, for the Atlantic coast, the Gulf and the St. Lawrence River. These are so equipped as to obtain a continuous record of the tides, both winter and summer. By a careful selection of commanding positions for the principal stations, it becomes possible to determine the tidal data for intermediate harbors by a short series of observations and with little expense. Such observations are in progress this season at some leading places on the Gulf, the coasts of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

Dr. Wakeham, commandant of the Dominion cruiser La Canadienne and International Fishery Commissioner, returned to Ottawa to-day after his season's work in the Gulf. Dr. Wakeham, who was at the Straits of Belle Isle a fortnight ago and visited many points along the north shore of the St. Lawrence, confirmed his previous statement that the fishermen had had an exceptionally good season. He states that "Gat" Howard did not succeed in putting up many lobsters this year, but he is now turning his attention to the manufacture of medicinal cod liver oil. This is an industry, by the way, which is becoming quite extensive in the Maritime Provinces. Capt. Wakeham also visited Anticosti, and learned the true inwardness of the warning of Canadian fishermen out of the three-mile limit. It appears that Mr. Menier's men were engaged in seining and complained that they were not as successful as might be, owing to the Canadian fishermen being in the near vicinity. Mr. Belanger, captain of Menier's steamer the Savoy, was told to go and scare the Canadians off. He did this, but in a manner for which he is probably sorry to-day, as the matter has been the subject of Parliamentary enquiry. Chocolate King Menier has engaged a large number of Canadian fishermen, who will work in the winter time building houses and in the summer time will be engaged in fishing.

H. D. Dean, Superintendent of Cape Vincent Hatchery, New York State, had an interview with Mr. Davies today and requested a grant of whitefish ova to be hatched out in the Cape Vincent hatchery. Mr. Dean says eggs cannot be got on the American side of Lake Ontario. This is an admission that the American fisheries are greatly depleted.

Mr. Tarte says he would like to have a few journalists accompany him through Manitoba, the Northwest and British Columbia, so that they might inform the public as to the suggestions made for the development of the Great West. There are important public works to be done in those regions, he says, and he has made arrangements with the British Columbia Government to inspect the whole of the Fraser River with a representative of the Local Government, as a succession of destructive floods along that river will necessitate the erection of extensive embankments. Mr. Tarte considers that the late Government did not treat British Columbia properly, and it is the intention of the present Administration to rectify this as much as possible.

The report cabled from London that the Government has decided upon a change in its immigration policy, and is already moving in that direction, meets with a denial here. There are a dozen different moves ascribed to the new Government in matters which have never even been discussed in council, and the above is one of those. The immigration policy will be dealt with when the Minister of the Interior takes office, and not before then, as it is a matter in which his opinion would have particular weight.

The Mounted Police Department was advised to-day of trouble among the Blood Indians near McLeod. Yesterday one Indian was killed by another, and an attempt was made to murder Farm Instructor McNeill, but the latter escaped with slight injuries.

The report that Col. Lake, Quartermaster-General, has severed his connection with the Canadian service, is wholly unfounded. Col. Lake sailed for Canada to-day.

Mr. J. H. Hugill of Halifax, agent for the Furness Line, is in the city with a view to the renewal of the contract between the company and the Government for the service between St. John, Halifax and London.

The Manitoba Ministers had a lengthy interview with Mr. Davies today on fishery matters in Manitoba.

The Quebec list was concluded in the Supreme Court to-day. The Ontario list will be taken up next Tuesday.

A. D. Provand, M.P. for Glasgow, and a director of the Chignecto Ship Railway, is here again in connection with the request for the proposed extension of time for completing the road and the earning of the Dominion subsidy.

An effort has been put forth to bring about an amicable arrangement of the Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo Railway case before the Railway Committee of the Privy Council, and the expectation is that it will be settled before the committee assembles again. It will be necessary to call together another meeting of the Railway Committee before long. There is a long list of cases on hand to be dealt with.

Messrs. Blair and Dobell, as already stated, will enter upon an examination of the Lachine Canal and the works needed in connection with the same.

Sir Oliver Mowat and Hon. R. W. Scott were busy to-day looking up matters connected with the school conference. The Manitoba delegates are similarly engaged. There was, however, no meeting between the representatives.

Captain Laurence of the Canadian-Australian Steamship Co., is here en route to England to take charge of the new steamer Aorangi, which is to be placed on the Vancouver-Sydney route next spring.

SECULAR EDUCATION.

Worthy Parents Not to be Denied the Sacraments for Sending Their Children to Public Schools.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 14.—A morning paper says: The question of secular education of Catholic children was officially fixed at a convocation of Bishops and Archbishops of the Church, called by Cardinal Satolli at New York early in 1892. As the Papal representative, and speaking for Leo XIII., the following, which has never before been made public, was given to the hierarchy:

"We strictly forbid anyone, whether bishop or priest—and this is the express prohibition of the sovereign pontiff through the Sacred Congregation—either by act or threat, to exclude from the sacraments worthy parents who choose to send their children to the Public schools.

"As regards the children themselves, this enactment applies with still greater force."

In support of the above prohibition, reference is made to section 198, page 104, conf. TTT, vi. E, 2; TTT, vii., of the proceedings of the council of Baltimore, and throughout the ablegate's paper these proceedings are frequently referred to in support of his rulings.

"When there is no Catholic school at all, or when the one that is available is little fitted for giving the children education in keeping with their condition, then the Public schools may be attended with a safe conscience, the danger of perversion being rendered remote by opportune remedial and precautionary measures; a matter that is to be left to the conscience and judgments of the ordinances."

Then, finally, in section XIII. of Mgr. Satolli's instructions to the archbishops appears the following suggestion for placing Catholic schools, to a certain extent, under the supervision of the State:

"For the standing and growth of Catholic schools it seems that care should be taken that the teachers prove themselves qualified, not only by previous examination before the Diocesan Board and by a diploma received from it, but also have a teacher's diploma from the School Board of the State, awarded after successful examination."

INDIANS IN A DUEL.

And Farm Instructor McNeill Got in Front of a Bullet—One Dead Indian—A St Paul Thief.

Winnipeg, Oct. 14.—(Special.)—On the Blood Indian reserve, near McLeod, N.W.T., yesterday, two Indians fought a duel. In the melee Farm Instructor McNeill was shot through the body. He will recover, it is believed. One of the Indians was shot dead.

Charles Condle, who came here from St. Paul three weeks ago, was appointed Dominion Express agent at Oak Lake. Yesterday he absconded with several thousand dollars of the Express Company's funds.

A Strike and Bloodshed.

Kingston, Ja., Oct. 14.—A despatch received here from Georgetown, British Guiana, says that alarming riots have occurred among the coolies in Demerara. The ringleaders of the rioters were arrested, and while they were being taken to the lockup by the police who had them in custody, the latter were attacked by the mob, and were finally obliged to fire upon their assailants. The fire of the officers was effective, three of the rioters being killed and many others wounded. The rioting was the outcome of a strike among the laborers against a reduction in wages, recently made.

HARCOURT DENIES IT

He Has Not Resigned the Liberal Leadership.

FEELING OF RELIEF IN THE PARTY

St. James' Gazette States, However, That Something Important is About to Happen—Lord Rosebery Remains Loyal to the Party's Principles—The Liberal Federation.

London, Oct. 14.—Sir William Vernon Harcourt explicitly denies that he has resigned the Liberal leadership. Nevertheless, The St. James Gazette again refers to the matter, and says it may be stated that he has arrived at no hasty decision, that he has been dissatisfied at being obliged to seek a Welsh seat, and is disagreeably surprised at so many Liberals rallying to Lord Rosebery's side. The paper also says that the report of his intended resignation is semi-official, and that beyond doubt he contemplates a sensational move.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt's denial of his intention to resign has been received with general relief in Liberal circles. Had he resigned, the position of the party without leaders in either the House of Commons or the House of Lords would have been most awkward. Sir William Harcourt's leadership of the Liberals in the House of Commons never has been impugned. Many think that he failed to support Lord Rosebery as loyally as he should have done; more say that his overbearing manner, his opportunism, his want of one ounce of the enthusiasm of Mr. Gladstone, or even of Lord Rosebery, even were it not for the supposed preference of the Queen for other Liberal leaders, would debar him from a successful leadership of the party, but his fight against the education bill and state doles to landlords last session in the Commons won him the gratitude of the party, and would make his removal from the leadership in the Lower House greatly regretted. The growing feeling in the party is that Lord Rosebery's place had best remain unfilled for the present. Sir William Harcourt leads the Liberals in the Commons and Lord Kimberley can be appointed to lead the handful of Liberal peers. The rest can wait until circumstances force some man to the front for the leadership of the whole party.

Lord Rosebery explains that his reference to Mr. Asquith at Edinburgh was not meant to nominate him to the leadership, as he would not attempt to dictate to the party. Lord Rosebery remains loyal to Liberal principles, and the leaders say that the party will be ready at the next session to renew the united battle against class legislation.

Lord Charles Beresford, who is a captain in the Royal Navy, and was formerly a Lord of the Admiralty, has declined to stand in the Conservative interest for the seat in Parliament for the eastern division of Bradford, made vacant by the death of Mr. Henry Byron Reed, despite the fact that it was stated yesterday that he had announced his intention of contesting the seat.

TALKING IT OVER.

The National Liberal Federation Executive Thanks Lord Rosebery.

London, Oct. 14.—The Executive Committee of the National Liberal Federation met at 2.45 o'clock this afternoon, and spent the time up to 6.30 in discussing the situation. The committee has issued a statement expressing profound regret at Lord Rosebery's withdrawal from the leadership of the Liberal party, and making public recognition of His Lordship's signal services as Prime Minister and leader under circumstances of unusual difficulty. The committee in its statement recognizes also the fact that Lord Rosebery's action in resigning was due to a desire on his part to promote unity in the Liberal ranks, and rejoices to know that the party will continue to benefit by their late leader's high character, ability and enthusiasm.

The Social Reform Committee has decided in view of the public feeling touching personal questions not to call a meeting of the Federation at present. Henry Labouchere, editor of Truth, in an article in that journal voicing the sentiments of the Radical members of the House of Commons and the supporters of Sir William Harcourt, writes: "Nobody cares a brass farthing what the National Liberal Federation may say or do on any subject. The Federation is extinct as a factor in the Liberal party."

Drunk From Chloroform.

New York, Oct. 14.—Emma Nevins, who has acquired the sobriquet of "the Chloroform Queen," by reason of her addiction to the chloroform habit, was found lying unconscious last night in the gutter at Thirtieth-street and Seventh-avenue. She was taken to the West Thirtieth-street Police Station. When searched, a bottle of chloroform was found in the pocket of her dress. She was covered with black and blue spots resulting from falls while under the influence of the anæsthetic. The woman was locked up when she recovered consciousness. She has been picked up on the streets, helpless drunk from chloroform and ether time and time again.

Entirely Without Foundation.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Respecting the report that the Venezuelan boundary commission had practically decided the matters submitted to it in favor of Venezuela, S. Mallet-Prevost, the secretary of the commission, said to-day: "The statement that the Venezuelan boundary commission has come to a decision sustaining the claims of Venezuela in the boundary dispute between that country and Great Britain is entirely without foundation."

Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

Pittsburg, Oct. 14.—The 11th annual convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew opened this morning at Trinity Episcopal Church. The opening services were conducted by Rev. J. C. Roper of Toronto, Ont. The convention will continue until Sunday night. The devotional exercises will be held in Trinity Church, and the other meetings in Carnegie Music Hall. Registration of delegates continued throughout the day. By to-morrow it is expected between 700 and 800 will be in attendance.

A Crooked Legs.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 11.—The police have arrested G. W. Legg, defaulting treasurer of Waverly, Pike County, Ohio, who is a defaulter for over $10,000, and for whose arrest a reward is offered by Pike County. Legg arrived here on Sept. 17, and registered at an hotel under the name of J. J. Manning, Cincinnati, Ohio.

There is a great wailing and gnashing of teeth among our local sportsmen, as the trial of the corporation of Lakefield vs. Strickland, will come off at Peterborough on the 9th of November, before Justice Ferguson. A large number of our local sportsmen have been subpœned to attend. Some of them feel highly indignant over the matter, others of a conciliatory mood, are anxious to have the matter settled out of court, but according to a resolution passed at the last meeting of the council it was decided to press the case, and come to a definite understanding as to the rights of citizens occupying the streets. The following of our hunters are, we are informed, subpœned to attend the court:—Reeve W. H. Casement, F. J. Lillicrap, Dr. Bell, J. F. Moore, J. R. Richardson, R. C. Strickland, Geo. Baptie, W. Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

WAS SHE HELD FOR RANSOM?

The New York Police are Puzzled Over the Finding of Grace Dickerson's Body.

New York, Oct. 14.—With the finding of the body of Miss Grace Dickerson, who had been missing from her home in Brooklyn for three weeks, the police thought that their work in the case was over. They were undeceived yesterday, when they found that the deepest mystery is yet to be solved, and that is: Where did Miss Dickerson spend the time between the day she left home and Sunday, when she probably died from exposure to the storm? That she was in some house during the time the police are now sure. Where that place is, and why she was detained there, are the questions they are now trying to answer.

When the body was found the police jumped to the conclusion that Miss Dickerson had been wandering in the Canarsie Swamp since she left her home, No. 134 Pacific-street, Brooklyn, on the afternoon of Sept. 22. They were satisfied to establish the fact that she had not been murdered and concluded that she must have starved to death. An examination of the corpse by physicians showed that this theory was false. Neither did it show sufficient signs of exposure to justify the belief that the woman had been without shelter for that length of time. It showed evidence of having been well cared for, and that Miss Dickerson had not wanted for food until a day or two before her death.

When these facts became known to Inspector McKellar he detailed several detectives to find the place where Miss Dickerson had spent the time after she ran away from her home. It is believed by the police that when Miss Dickerson left her sister's house she wandered aimlessly about, until she finally sought shelter with some poor family living in the suburbs, who gave her food and a place to sleep. Who these people are is what the police are now endeavoring to ascertain. The men from police headquarters are being assisted by the mounted police of the Canarsie station.

The swamp in which the body was found comprises about 200 acres of land, and was formerly part of the Wyckoff Farm. Around it are the homes of many small farmers, mainly Germans or Bohemians. Most of these people speak English only with difficulty, and do not read the papers. As a consequence, the police think it probable that some of them, not knowing of Miss Dickerson's disappearance from home, may have sheltered her and given her food for many days, ignorant of the fact that the police were looking for her.

"There is no doubt that Miss Dickerson died from exposure to the storm Saturday," said Inspector McKellar. "What we want to know is: Who cared for her during the three weeks we were searching for her? She had been sheltered and given food by someone. Whether this was done merely through charity, or whether these persons were keeping her out of sight in the hope of getting a big reward from the family is uncertain."

Miss Anna Dickerson, the sister of the dead woman, will take the body to Chicago, leaving here to-morrow night. The body will be buried there with those of other members of the family, Chicago having been the home of the Dickersons for years.

MEN ROASTED ALIVE.

A Terrible Railway Pitch-in Down South —Trainmen Killed and Injured, But No Passengers Hurt.

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 14.—Through a misunderstanding of an order, the north and south-bound trains on the Florida Central and Peninsular Railroad had a head-end collision at 3.05 o'clock this morning, two and a half miles below Swansea, about 20 miles from this city. The trains came together on an embankment. The engineers and firemen jumped and escaped without injury. Express Messenger W. D. Lines and Mail Agent L. A. Thomas were pinioned in the wreck, which caught fire from the coal oil lamps.

The crews of both trains who were uninjured tried to cut them out, but the flames spread so rapidly that they could do nothing to aid the two unfortunates, who were roasted to death.

W. E. Ulmer flagman, is missing and is undoubtedly among the killed. Ulmer was last seen standing between the first and second-class coaches. He was doubtless caught in one of the telescoped cars and burned up in the wreck, together with Lines and Thomas. Thomas is supposed to have been killed outright, as he was in the forward end of the combination mail and passenger coach, which was telescoped by being driven upon the tender. Lines' death was a horrible one. He was not killed outright, but was caught under trunks and other wreckage. His cries for help attracted attention and an effort was made to rescue him. The cars burst into flames almost immediately after the wreck occurred, and before help could reach Lines he was surrounded by flames. A barred window prevented the rescuers from reaching Lines, and while they were trying to pry open the bars he fell back in the flames. The horrified passengers listened to his screams without being able to render any assistance.

Express Messengers T. C. Farmer and F. W. Price were slightly injured.

Not a single passenger was injured. There were very few passengers in the day coaches, nearly all the passengers being in the Pullman car in the rear of each train. The Pullman cars were not damaged. Although the accident occurred on a high embankment, not a single car left the track. The train left Columbia over an hour late and was instructed to wait at Swansea, 25 miles south of Columbia, for No. 36. The engineer of No. 35 read his orders Sweden, a station 30 miles further on, instead of Swansea. Before the conductor, who read the order properly, could ring him down the collision occurred.

THREE MEN KILLED.

Hazelton, Pa., Oct. 14.—Three men were killed, two persons were fatally hurt and a score of others injured in a collision between a locomotive and a trolley car here this evening.

The dead are: David John Williams of Plymouth, Pa.; William Stapleton, traveling man, of Milton, Pa.; Jefferson Kirschmer, telegrapher, of Hazelton.

The fatally injured are: Morris Ferry, boy, skull fractured and internally hurt; Patrick Doud, conductor of the trolley car, skull fractured.

The most seriously hurt among those not fatally injured are the following: William Dixon, leg crushed; Burt Boon, head crushed; Charles Hoodler of Jeansville, Pa., body crushed; Mrs. Hughes, face cut; Samuel Counfer, motorman, head and hands cut.

Of the 20 passengers aboard the trolley none escaped injury of some kind. The cause of the accident cannot be stated definitely to-night. The trolley car stopped at the railroad station to place a mail bag in the office before crossing the railroad track. It was dark and a heavy fog prevailed. Several men got aboard the car and the forward end had just passed over the crossing when an engine without a headlight dashed into the car, cutting it in half.

MUSICAL INFORMATION!

A GOOD PIANO IS A LIBERAL EDUCATION.

What is there that so opens the mind to good and gentle inspiration as music?

What is there so inspiring or enobling in its influence? The music however must be good music. And good music cannot be produced from a bad Piano. The influence of the most charming voice or the most perfect violin, however well handled, is destroyed if accompanied by a bad piano.

MASON & RISCH PIANOS ARE THE INSTRUMENTS OF THE CULTURED.

They are found in the homes of our most refined and wealthiest citizens, where the Piano is viewed not as a mere article of furniture, but as the interpreter of our deepest feelings.

The prices of Mason & Risch Pianos are not unreasonable, quality considered, in fact they are much lower than most people suppose, but they give satisfaction from the first, and they last.

Our terms of payment are most liberal and we give straight cash quotations, without any nonsense about catalogue prices. We invite correspondence, and will mail catalogues and lists of purchasers free on application.

unfortunate

Cod-liver oil suggests consumption, which is almost unfortunate.

Its best use is before you fear consumption; when you begin to get thin, weak, run n; then is the prudent to begin to take care, and the best way to take care is to supply the system with needed fat and strength. Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil, with hypophosphites, will bring back plumpness to those who have lost it, and make strength where raw cod-liver oil would be a burden.

A substitute only imitates the original.

The Grand Trunk Annual Meeting in London.

DIRECTORS' REPORT ADOPTED.

Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson Commends the General Manager and Believes Better Times Will Come After the Presidential Election in the United States is Over.

London, Oct. 14.—The annual meeting of the directors and shareholders of the Grand Trunk Railway was held to-day, as previously announced. The room was crowded, and a more representative meeting has never been held in the history of the company.

Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson, the president of the company, presided, and in the course of his remarks said, in reference to statements which had been made regarding the increase of the expenses of the company during the past year, that when the Presidential elections in the United States were over, the west-bound traffic of the road would resume its ordinary proportion, and the expenditures under the general charges would be reduced in the future.

Referring to the general charges against him of having ordered a new special car, the president said that these allegations had been caused by the picturesque imaginations of Canadian local reporters. It was necessary, he said, to have a new car to replace the old one, which had outlived its usefulness. Continuing his address, Sir Charles said [illegible] Mr. Charles M. Hays, general manager of the G.T.R. had shown himself to be the very best man for the position.

The statement that the management had shown a tendency to Americanize the Grand Trunk road, he said, had been greatly exaggerated. The G.T.R. was to a very considerable degree an American line, and the company must be guided by the interests of the shareholders, which he would never subordinate to sentimental considerations. The times which had beset the present administration, Sir Charles said, had not been propitious, but the horison was clearing. The volume of business had been generally paralyzed, but after the American election the prosperity of the company would be returned. American railways, he said, must pursue a waiting policy at the present time. They must not be considered experimental, though the conditions were exceptional and transitory. No scheme for the reconstruction of the capital of the company would be taken into consideration by the Board. The finances of the company were in a condition to relieve all anxiety, and upon the arrival of business the company would be in a condition to avail itself of the fullest advantages accruing to the shareholders.

Mr. Jeffries advocated the sale or rental of the property of the company at Toronto, and complained of the dismissal of certain officials from the road. "If," he said, "we should go to war with the United States" (here the speaker's remarks were drowned with hisses.)

Mr. Bristol Baker, a shareholder, assailed the administration for its extravagance, which, he alleged, had brought the company to its present lamentable condition, and at the conclusion of his speech moved an amendment to the resolution to adopt the annual report that the meeting should not confirm that portion of the report relating to the arrangement entered into between the authorities of the company and those of the city of Portland, Maine, contemplating the joint erection of an elevator for the use of the company in loading trans-Atlantic vessels with grain. The directors and shareholders of the company, he declared, must not approve of any scheme which involved handing over the control of any part of the system of the Grand Trunk to Americans, who seemed to be playing into the hands of American steamship lines.

The chairman, Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson, interrupted the speaker at this juncture, and said: "Most of the statements which you have already made are inaccurate and have been refuted."

Mr. Bristol Baker said that the sum of £1500, which had been alleged to have been pocketed by the committee in charge of the arrangements made with the Portland authorities for the erection of the grain elevator, had all been spent in communicating with the shareholders of the company on the subject.

Shareholder Viers supported the contention of Mr. Bristol Baker in a humorous and poetic speech, in which he described the address of the president, Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson, as an impractical sermon.

Mr. Landon and other shareholders supported the chair, Mr. Landon saying that evidently a number of the shareholders expected the Board of Directors to work upon penny-in-the-slot principle, which was simply to put a new Board in the slot, and the outcome would be something sweet.

Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson said, in reply to the gentleman who had spoken in opposition to him, that the company had been laboring under an inherited accumulation of liability, which he was anxious to dispose of.

The Toronto Belt Line, he said, had taken steps to turn its system into that of a street railway or to sell the line if they could do so. The line appeared to be of no value. The information which Mr. Bristol Baker was in possession of, he said, had been obtained from a circular written by a clerk who had been dismissed from the service of the company.

Mr. Bartholomew described the criticism of the management of Mr. Hays as rubbish. The Portland elevator, he declared, while it was of the utmost importance to the company, was absolutely without cost to the company; the receipts would pay for it all. He therefore moved, seconded by Mr. Price, that the report of the company, as submitted to the meeting, be adopted.

Mr. Tomlin followed the motion with an amendment which was lost by a practically unanimous vote, there being no supporters besides the mover. The report was then adopted unanimously. The meeting was an exceptionally orderly one.

A Money-Making Concern.

New York, Oct. 14.—The Western Union Telegraph Company reports for the year ended June 30 show net revenue, $22,612,736, an increase of $304,717. Expenses, $16,714,756; increase, $638,126. Balance, $5,007,980; decrease, $243,409. Interest and sinking fund, $983,958; increase, $145. Balance, $4,964,022; decrease, $243,554. Dividends, $4,767,805; increase, $71. Surplus, $196,217; decrease, $243,625. Total surplus, $7,643,003; increase, $196,218. At the annual meeting of the stockholders to-day, Roswell G. Rolston and Edward H. Perkins, jr., were elected directors to fill the vacancies caused by the deaths of Austin Corbin and George Bliss.

WYATT A MURDERER.

He Swore Two Men Into Penitentiary for 30 Years—Now He Has Hanged Himself.

Canton, Ill., Oct. 14.—John R. Wyatt, who was sentenced to the penitentiary at the Fulton County Court last week for grand larceny, hanged himself in the county jail Saturday. Before the act he sent for William R. Gilliam, who was at the Sherman House in Chicago. To Gilliam and a fellow-prisoner, he confessed that he murdered D. T. Gilliam at Alton six years ago. The murdered man was an ex-State Senator, and at the time of his death a member of the State Board of Agriculture. He was killed by burglars, whom he discovered in his house. Tom Brown and George Sterchy were found guilty of the killing and sentenced to the penitentiary for 30 years on the testimony of Wyatt, who said he held their team outside.

WHO IS THIS DEAD MAN?

He Died While Walking Along Madison-Avenue, New York—Is He W. M. Hall, Formerly of Toronto?

New York, Oct. 14.—An unknown man died yesterday afternoon as he was walking along Madison-avenue at Forty-fourth-street. He was well-dressed, of middle age and carried a silk umbrella.

The body was removed to the police station at the Grand Central Station. In a pocket was found a cheque drawn on the Fifth-avenue Bank, by W. M. Hall, in favor of Howard & Co., for $200. The cheque was dated Oct. 13. There was no money in the pockets.

Other articles found were a railroad ticket to Yonkers or Glenwood from New York, dated Sept. 29, and a memorandum book and gold-rimmed glasses.

The man was five feet eight inches in height, with black eyes, mustache, dark overcoat, dark suit of clothes, button shoes and light silk underwear. He wore a black derby hat.

In the directory appears the name W. M. Hall, cashier, residence No. 204 West Ninety-fifth-street. The police sent for the janitor of the Fifth-avenue Bank, but he said he did not remember ever to have seen the man.

W. Middleton Hall, formerly a Toronto barrister and an alderman, has been a resident of New York for some time, and the description above tallies somewhat with that of the Torontonian.

WHEAT IS GOING UP.

A Higher Mark Reached in San Francisco Than Had Been Recorded in Three Years—Foreign Demand.

San Francisco, Oct. 14.—Prices of wheat went up to a higher mark yesterday than had been recorded in three years. On December wheat the gain was 6c a cental, on May 1-2, and on spot from 3 3-4c to 5c. These prices, which are 10c higher than at Chicago, are caused mainly by the heavy foreign demand and a rapid shrinkage of the available California wheat supply. The bulk of the demand comes from Great Britain, but what gives a speculative tone to the market is the uncertain element of East Indian and Australian consumption. It is reported that a third cargo is now being made up for India, and that in a few days several vessels under charter will be loaded for Australia.

DEATH OF MRS. JOHN SMITH.

She Passes Away Suddenly on Wednesday Morning.

A very sad death occurred yesterday afternoon in the demise of Esther Sparling, widow of the late John Smith, of Stewart street, Ashburnham. The deceased was 69 years of age and for the past twelve months has been a sufferer from Bright's disease. Her death, however, was not anticipated, as only last week she was out of town visiting.

Mrs. Smith was born in Limerick, Ireland, and came to Canada in 1843, residing in Streetsville until 1861, when she removed to Ashburnham. As the result of her subsequent marriage four children survive, viz., Misses Annie and Emma, who reside at home; John, of Peterborough, and Arthur, who teaches in Roseneath.

Mrs. Smith always took a prominent place in Methodist church circles and her death will be a severe blow to her many friends, to whom she had endeared herself by her many acts of thoughtful kindness.

The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon at three o'clock from the family residence, Stewart street, to the Little Lake cemetery. Rev. W. R. Young, B.A., of the George street Methodist church, and Rev. Mr. Bear, of Ashburnham, will conduct the funeral service.

OBITUARY.

Death of Mrs. George Cochrane.

This morning at 2 o'clock Mrs. George Cochrane, wife of Mr. Geo. Cochrane, License Inspector, passed away after a long illness, at the age of sixty-two years. The deceased had not been strong in health for several years. Last September her illness, which was a complication of diseases, took a more severe form. Her symptoms began to develop more seriously till death relieved her from her suffering. Mrs. Cochrane was a daughter of the late Christopher Quinn, of Smith. She was united in marriage to Mr. Cochrane in 1868. To this union were born two children, a son and daughter. Five years ago the family removed from Lakefield to Peterborough, taking up residence at the corner of Aylmer street (No. 697) and Aberdeen avenue. Mrs. Cochrane was in religion a Baptist and a member of the Murray street church. She was highly respected and esteemed in her large circle of friends, and the public sympathy will be heartily extended to Mr. Cochrane and family on the occasion of their sad bereavement.

The funeral takes place on Saturday at 2 o'clock p.m. from the family residence to the Lakefield cemetery.

RUGBY FOOTBALLERS.

They Meet and Elect Officers for the Season.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Rugby footballers was held last evening in the Oriental hotel parlours and by the interest evinced it is evident that the boys mean business this year.

Officers were selected as appended:
Hon. Pres.—Dr. Burnham.
Pres.—R. B. Rogers.
Vice Pres.—W. J. Montgomery.
Sec.-Treas.—E. M. Poussette.
Executive Committee—A. L. Mudge, Sam Adams and Howard S. Macgachan.

It is a pity that the boys did not organize sooner and enter one of the leagues, as there is material available of a nature that should make up into a hard club to defeat. However, it is proposed to have a number of good matches take place during the fall, and it is hoped that the public will liberally patronize all games. The first of this series of matches will take place on Saturday next, when the crack team from Upper Canada College, Toronto, will be here and will play on the P.A.A.A. grounds in the afternoon.

PERSONAL.

Mr. F. B. Knowles, of Toronto, is in town for a few days renewing old associations.

The Lindsay Post says: Dr. Armstrong, of Peterborough, who recently completed his final course in dentistry, is spending a few days in town, the guest of his brother, Mr. Thos. Armstrong, of Fairweather & Co.

Miss Lily Symonds left on Tuesday to take a full course in the Ottawa School of Oratory. There is little doubt, health given, that Miss Lily will make a decided mark in her chosen vocation. She has unusual natural aptitude as an elocutionist.

The Port Hope Guide says: Rev. J. J. Rae, of Peterborough, who has been attending the church opening at Wicklow, was in town today. Mr. Rae delivered his celebrated lecture, "Mind Your Own Business," at Smithfield, last (Tuesday) evening.

Rev. Father C. J. Phelan has received the responsible appointment of incumbent of St. Joseph's, Douro, during the illness of Rev. Father Kelly. On his leaving North Bay the Despatch referred in very warm terms to the high place he held in the esteem of his parishioners as well as the general public of North Bay. In practical evidence of these sentiments Rev. Father "Joe" was presented with a beautiful marble clock and a purse of gold.

Mr. Fred. J. R. Mitchell has returned from a ten days' trip to Chicago, in company with Mr. Robert Walton, who will remain in the Windy City a few days longer. While in the city, on Oct. 9th, Mr. Mitchell witnessed a monster procession of a double character—in a civic sense to celebrate the feat of Mrs. O'Reilly's cow in warming up Chicago, and politically to boom the campaign of the gold bug presidential party. The procession required six hours to pass a given point.

NEWS NUGGETS.

Paragraphs Picked Up and Pencilled for Public Perusal.

—There was a man once on a time who thought him wondrous wise. He swore by all the fabled gods, he'd never advertise. But his goods were advertised ere long, and thereby hangs a tale; the ad. was set in nonpariel and headed, "Sheriff's Sale."

—There are a lot of $1 bills made similar to the old Jacques Cartier $2 bills being circulated at present. These bills are a little smaller than the ordinary Dominion of Canada notes, and are counterfeits. In the left hand corner is the head of the famous Frenchman. They are of the denomination of one dollar and are rather yellower than the bills now in use. They are dated 1870, and the left hand signature can easily be distinguished as a counterfeit.

—Don't miss seeing the beautiful play, "The Burglar," at the Opera House, tomorrow night. Saturday afternoon, by request, a school children's matinee will be given, when "the Burglar" will be repeated. On Saturday night "the American Girl," a comedy-drama of the highest order, will be produced. Remember this is not a repertoire attraction but one of the finest dramatic companies on the road. Matinee prices—children 15c, adults 25 and 35c. Night prices, 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Orders will be taken as usual at our down town office, corner of Simcoe and Bethune streets. Telephone No. 113. MELDRUM & MCALLISTER Millers.

ANOTHER NUPTIAL EVENT.

Wedding of Miss Lillian Miller and Mr Frank S. Schneider.

The beautiful October weather is being taken advantage of for the solemnization of a large number of weddings. One of the prettiest of the series took place at six o'clock last evening, at the residence of Mr. J. Wesley Millar, McDonel street, when his second daughter, Miss Lillian, was wedded to Mr. Frank S. Schneider, one of Peterborough's most popular and substantial business men.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. R. Young, B.A., of the George street Methodist church, in the presence of about forty invited guests. The spacious parlours were beautifully decorated for the occasion with a profusion of palms and ferns, which lent a very pretty effect to the scene.

The fair bride looked most attractive in a pretty costume of nansoc muslin with garniture of lace and satin ribbons and wore a bridal veil caught up with roses and smilax. She also carried a beautiful shower bouquet of white roses. Her sister, Miss Ada Miller, made a charming bridesmaid in a similar costume. She carried pink roses.

The groom was supported by the bride's brother, Mr. F. C. Miller, and at the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding march was played by Mr. George Schneider organist of the George street church, and brother of the groom. The wedding dejeuner was served immediately afterward and the tables presented a very pretty appearance, the floral decorations being very artistically arranged.

A very fine array of wedding gifts were displayed in the dining room, some of them being received from New York, St. Thomas and Toronto. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch set with diamonds and garnets and also a pretty chain and gold bracelet. He presented the bridesmaid with a handsome gold chain bracelet.

Mr. and Mrs. Schneider left on the evening train for a wedding trip to New York, and were accompanied to the train by a large number of their young friends. On their return they will take up residence at No. 476 Aylmer street.

The EXAMINER desires to join in most cordial congratulations.

KILLED BY THE CARS AT COBOURG.

An Aged Lady Struck Fatally by a Train at a Crossing.

(Special to the Examiner.)

Cobourg, Ont., Oct. 15—At 10.45 this morning Mrs. Sennett, 70 years of age, and mother of Constable Orr, of this town, while crossing the Grand Trunk Railway track on William street was struck by a passing train and instantly killed.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

A Lad Run Down on the Norwood Speed Track and Seriously Injured.

Yesterday afternoon during the fast trot a lad about 14 years of age named Bert Conway, an orphan without father or mother, stepped on the track to get a better view of the leading horse, not noticing the next horse, which came on at a 2:50 clip. The horse struck the boy knocking him down and the wheel passed over him. The shuddering spectators expected to see him picked up dead, and he was indeed seriously injured. One leg was broken in two places and it appears that one hoof of the horse stepped on his face, which was badly lacerated. Besides there was a gaping wound on the back of the head. The unfortunate little fellow was picked up and conveyed to Dr. Ford's office in the village where he received proper surgical attention, and may recover. The driver was not to blame for the accident. He was unable to stop his horse in time to avoid the boy, who stepped suddenly and thoughtlessly out on to the track.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Wheel Talk and Items of Local and General Interest to Sportsmen.

THE ROAD RACE.

It has been decided to make a change in the handicappers, as those at first chosen now intend riding. Three other wheelmen have been selected who will, it is thought, be able to place the men impartially. Another change has been made regarding the finishing point. Both the start and finish will be at the market square. A list of the prizes will be published to-morrow.

THE WHEEL.

It will greatly please the noble army of wheelmen to note that a rider has secured damages from a dog owner, whose canine terror tumbled the exasperated rider from his bike. There is nothing meaner in the wheelmen's catalogue of nuisance than a snapping, persistent cur, and everybody except the dog owners will be glad that the courts have established a warning precedent.

The Toronto Globe says,—It is very strange that every year an agitation for the abolition of the of the official organ of the C. W. A. is started, either by clubs or individuals. Hitherto nothing has been accomplished, although there has been a great expenditure of wind and ink, but this time it looks very much as if the C. W. A. has, in the language of sports, got up "against it." The Athenaeum have been contemplating the plunge for a long, long while, and were only staying their hand until a fitting opportunity had arrived. The time has come and now red, red war with the association has been declared. A warm time is promised, and before the Good Friday "hat talking" contest comes around prodigious quantities of eloquence will have gushed forth, and wheelmen will wish the C. W. A. higher than Gilroy's kite. A large-sized, full-grown matured grievance has been discovered by the A. C. C., and they claim that they have been promised the support of the majority of the local clubs in their agitation for the reduction of the fees of the association. The present rate, they contend, is too high, altogether disproportionate to the benefits they receive, and if it is not moderated at the next meeting they will secede from the ruling body, and they will not be alone, they assert. "The official organ is not read by 75 per cent. of the members," said a prominet member of the Church street club last night to the Globe, "and the quality of the stuff that is served up for its readers would be a disgrace to a squash town paper. Some people will say that the association has got itself into a hole by letting out the contract for its publication for five years, but that is absurd. The contract is not valid from a constitutional point of view, as it was made by officials whose tenure of office is limited to one year, and they have not the authority to bind their successors in that manner. Official organs and bulletins have been abolished by the L.A.W. and N.C.U." he continued, "and the Wheelman has outlived its usefulness." There are to be found scores of cyclists who predict that the C.W.A. is doomed, that its life will go out with the present year, but that they were not out out for the Eva Fay business.

On Hand

now, at A. Clegg's, another lot of those oak finish extension tables, at $5.00, $5.50, $6.00 and $6.50; common chairs, 35c.; good hard wood bedsteads, only $2.00; oak finish bedroom suites, $12.00, $13.00 and upward. Our stock is complete in every line. A. CLEGG, 427 George street.

Good Roads.

The Provincial Road Commissioner, A. W. Campbell is issuing a bulletin on road-making, which is expected to be in circulation in a couple of weeks. It will contain an article on road labour and expenditure in Ontario, dealing chiefly with the statute labour system as at present operated, articles on the practical work of road construction, including drainage of roads, rolling forming and metalling. Other subjects dealt with are bridges, snow fences, culverts, road machinery and waggon tires. The construction of residential streets in towns is also discussed. The bulletin will be illustrated with several photo-engravings of gravel and macadam streets and roads. The time will be most opportune to place literature on good roads in the hands of the people when bad roads are being practically illustrated. Mr. Campbell is in in Seaforth, at present, and during the next two weeks has appointments in the interest of road improvement in six townships and three town municipalities.

EAST RIDING ANNUAL SUCCESS.

A GOOD EXHIBITION AT NORWOOD ON WEDNESDAY.

Fine Weather and Large Attendance—Good Exhibits in all the Departments—An Unusually Fine and Large Exhibit of Sheep, Swine and Poultry—Entries Over 250 in Excess of Last Year.

The managers of the East Riding exhibition held at Norwood for years, must be on the soft side of the clerk of the weather, for that uncertain character almost invariably sends a good article for the annual show. Yesterday the weather was simply faultless for such an occasion. The weather with its soft autumnal haze and tempered sunshine, was a very fair imitation of Indian summer. If it was not the real article it was a counterfeit that could be passed upon the shrewdest. And it was the weather that brought the people of the districts in thousands. From early morning the exhibitors and visitors began to arrive, many having come as early as seven o'clock Wednesday morning, as young men and women in the awkward constraint of painful consciousness and in the agonizing attempt to steer conversation into a channel where it would flow smoothly were heard to declare. When the hundred odd visitors from Peterborough were entering the village en route from the station, as they looked across the crawling Ouse, they could see down the long slope of highway leading to the exhibition grounds a long wrapped in an atmosphere of tawny dust of their own raising. Of course there was a light attendance the first day, which was given over to getting ready for the big day that Wednesday proved to be. Beginning at noon fully four thousand persons passed through the turnstiles and thronged the grounds. The grounds were a lively scene with numerous tents, marquees and pavilions, from that of the noisy vendors of peanuts and taffy to the circus-like tent of the steam hobby horses—and the way the lads and lasses, the Jacks and Jills, rode these poor, over-worked wooden steeds, was a case for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. There was the lively music of the Norwood brass band, the hum of conversation, and the roar of stentorian saluation between farmer neighbours, and over all an air of gayety and enjoyment; for the people of the East seem to enjoy the Norwood Fair as their one great annual holiday.

And the directors are very proud of the success they scored. The number of entries showed a gratifying increase over last year, and were pretty evenly distributed throughout all the departments. This year's entries footed up to 2,500, as against 2,200 last year. The show was a good one in all respects, especially in the department of stock. The later dates—after all the fairs are over elsewhere—permitted the presence with their stock of many outside exhibitors.

THE INSIDE EXHIBIT.

The inside exhibit was of unusual excellence and well displayed. As has been the case at every exhibition in the country this year, the show of fruit—especially apples—was magnificent. Every known variety, almost, was largely represented, and there was a large number of exhibitors, showing the general character of apple culture in this district.

There was also a splendid exhibit of grains of all kinds and of excellent quality, including a fine collection of grains in the ear, and also of ensilage corn in the stalk.

In roots the displa was excellent as usual, the late date on which the East Riding Exhibition is held permitting of about full maturity.

Vegetables were also well represented, though the exhibit was not say large.

There was not as large a showing of dairy products—cheese and butter—as might be expected for this district.

Creditable display was made of domestic manufactures, quilts, blankets, flannels, etc.

A fine show of canned fruits, pickles, etc., testified to the housewiferly skill of the ladies of East Peterborough.

A notably excellent display of ladies' fancy work of great beauty and variety, was made.

The representation of the fine arts was also very creditable. A few good oils were hung and there was a large and fine collection of crayon work. A good exhibit of specimens of plain and ornamental penmanship was made. Altogether the interior exhibit was large and of generally good quality. Its extent pretty well tested the capacity of the building.

THE LIVE STOCK EXHIBIT

was a most creditable one, there being a large number of good animals and a very lively competition in nearly all classes.

Horses.

There was an excellent showing of good animals and among the chief exhibitors were the following:

Thoroughbred horses were shown by E A Kirwin, John Brackenridge and R. Honey.

The numerous exhibitors of roadsters included A. Stillman, F. Birdsall & Son, H. Dunham, R. Reesor, A Patterson, Jas. Howson, B. Cardwell, Jas. Thompson, T. J. O'Neill, W. A. Stewart & Son, H. P. Kennedy, F. J. Macklin, W. Stillman, R. Scott, Geo. Taylor, F. Harding, J. F. Doherty, Geo. Skinkie, D. Kelly, J. W. Beavis, E. J. Honey, John Brackenridge, P. Drummond, C. H. Curtis, L. A. Darling, H. Humphries, J. Dickey, W. Elmhurst and G. Hutchinson.

Carriage horses were shown by A. Stillman, F. Birdsall & Son, H. Dunham, T. J. O'Neil, F. W. Malcom, W. Sherwin, F. J. Macklin, W. Stillman, J. R. Kindred, Geo. Skinkie, J. F. Doherty, D. H. Ketcheson, E. J. Honey, J. Brackenridge, C. H. Curtis, John Kelleher, P. Drummond, R. Honey, J. W. Harrison, W. Elmhurst, G. Blezard, J. W. McMillan, J. E. Henderson, Jas. Howson, W. H. Down and Jas. Keleher.

Robert Reesor, of Markham, was on hand as usual, with his fine herd of fourteen Jerseys, to which special reference will be made further on in this report. W. A. SHEEP AND SWINE.

Old directors claim that the show of sheep this year was never equalled at any previous exhibition. All were thoroughbreds. To have pedigrees is a requirement of the rules.

In Oxforddowns Birdsall & Son exhibited twelve fine animals; Mr. John Roxbury, a shearling ewe; A. Terrill, of Wooler, a pen of seven Oxford downs.

In Shrops Mr. W. J. Miller showed a flock of eleven, J. B. Ewing, of Dartford, four; W. H. Phillips, thirteen head, and C. Skinkie four grade short wools.

In Cotswolds R. Honey showed a pen of eight rams and ewes, including the ram "Corbett," which won second prize in Toronto and first in Ottawa and Montreal; E. J. Honey, of Oak Hills, showed a pen of nine Cotswolds; and F. Bonnycastle & Sons, fifteen head—nine thoroughbred and six grades; Wm. Stillman, fifteen Cotswolds. Besides entries in Cotswolds were made by R. O. Morrow.

In Lgicesters D. Forsythe, of Douro, showed seven head, and E. J. Honey and Adam Campbell a similar number. E. J. Honey was also an exhibitor, as well as A. Cameron, who showed seven. A Leicester of Mr. Cameron's, after a most exciting contest, won the special prize offered by Mr. Jas. Cumming, of the Norwood Woollen Mills for the best fleece for domestic use. There were twenty-one competitors, as sheep of all classes were elegible for a "spin" for this prize.

South Downs were shown by R. L. Holdsworth & Son; and by L. W. Bate & Son, of Brighton, with fourteen head.

There was a large number of fine grades shown, chiefly by the exhibitors of the thoroughbreds above mentioned.

Swine.

There was a very fine and large exhibit of both large and small breeds of swine. Berkshires were shown by J. B. Ewing, Dartford, and W. H. Phillips, Murray; Poland Chinas pigs by L. W. Bate & Son, Brighton, who also showed a Tamworth. This firm sold a beauty of a Poland China sow to Mr. W. C. Rightmyer North Monaghan, and from the Berkshire exhibit of A. Terrill, Wooler, Mr. S. Rightmyer purchased a fine thoroughbred sow. Chester Whites were shown by C. H. Curtis, Warkworth, who had in his lot a 10 month boar that, he asserted, weighed 450 lbs., by D. Tierney, Norham; J. H. Tierney and F. Birdsall & Son; C. H. Curtis also showed Poland China pigs. Tamworths were exhibited by John Brackenridge, R. O. Morrow, Hilton; G. L. Duncan, Cramahe; and Robt. McDonald of the same township. Other exhibitors of Berkshires were R. McDonald, W. and A. Knox and D. Forsythe. Yorkshires were shown by R. Honey, L. A. Darling, Jas. Keleher, Duncan Campbell and John Crosby. R. L. Holdsworth & Son exhibited two Suffolks. Archibald Paterson of Dummer, was the only exhibitor of the somewhat new breed, which he claims is very easily fed, the Duroc Jersey.

Poultry Exhibit.

The poultry exhibit was of large extent and excellence. There were a great many fine birds. The coops were a centre of attraction, and the judges had no little difficulty in coming to a decision. Some of the exhibits were from a distance of twenty miles.

SPECIAL EXHIBITS.

MR. ROBERT REESOR'S JERSEY HERD.

Mr. Robert Reesor's splendid exhibit of Jerseys is always a feature of the Norwood Fair. As President of the Markham Agricultural Society, Mr. Reesor this fall entertained His Excellency, Lord Aberdeen, who was greatly pleased with the splendid appointments of "Jerseyhurst," Locust Hill, one of the most, if not the most admirable, of Jersey breeding farms in Canada. The fourteen splendid animals of the St. Lambert and St. Helier strains of pure Jersey blood on the grounds yesterday was only a small portion of Mr. Reesor's fine family of nearly three score and ten thoroughbreds that roam the fertile and well meadowed acres of Jerseyhurst. Mr. Reesor has a national reputation for Jerseys and the part he has done in distributing the best butter breed of cattle all over the country entitles him to rank as a public benefactor and his usefulness is only beginning. The increased demand for Canadian butter in the old country demands increased breeding of by all odds the best butter breed of animals on earth. The Jersey is seen in its best form in Mr. Reesor's herds where the finest flow of butter building blood is available at low prices to the farmers of the country. There are many of Mr. Reesor's Jerseys in this district and there will be more; for as the demands for butter producing cows increase, the farmers will largely avail themselves of the opportunity of dealing directly with the breeder of the finest herd of Jerseys in this province. The farmer who wishes to procure Jerseys at reasonable figures can have his wishes met by writing to Mr. Robert Reesor, "Jerseyhurst," Locust Hill, Ont.

GRAFTON'S CLOTHING.

Messrs. Grafton & Co., the energetic clothing house of Peterborough, continue to recognize the importance of exhibiting at this fair. They show much wisdom in doing so serving as it does to keep them prominently before the people of the extreme eastern section of the county, farthest removed from their Peterborough business. They insist upon being as well known in one end of the county as the

GAS STRUCK NEAR LONDON.

Artesian Well Borers in Westminster Township Found Several Things.

London, Oct. 14.—On the farm of John Dale, lot 76, Westminster, about 2 1-2 miles south of Springbank, while sinking an artesian well, at 302 feet, they struck what is known as the oil-bearing rock, with a light show of petroleum. At 302 feet a vein of gas was struck, and, a match being applied, it burned freely four feet above the casing, and continued until put out. At 303 feet water was struck and raised 160 feet. A pump was put in and started, and for three days pumped at the rate of 600 gallons per hour. The water is of excellent quality. A remarkable feature was that when drilling at the depth of 180 feet the drill went through a soft substance, which, upon examination, was found to be wood, and also at a depth of 281 feet a like substance was struck, but more of a petrified nature.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Wheel Talk and Items of Local and General Interest to Sportsmen.

THE ROAD RACE.

It has been decided to make a change in the handicappers, as those at first chosen now intend riding. Three other wheelmen have been selected who will, it is thought, be able to place the men impartially. Another change has been made regarding the finishing point. Both the start and finish will be at the market square. A list of the prizes will be published to-morrow.

THE WHEEL.

It will greatly please the noble army of wheelmen to note that a rider has secured damages from a dog owner, whose canine terror tumbled the exasperated rider from his bike. There is nothing meaner in the wheelmen's catalogue of nuisance than a snapping, persistent cur, and everybody except the dog owners will be glad that the courts have established a warning precedent.

The Toronto Globe says,—It is very strange that every year an agitation for the abolition of the of the official organ of the C. W. A. is started, either by clubs or individuals. Hitherto nothing has been accomplished, although there has been a great expenditure of wind and ink, but this time it looks very much as if the C. W. A. has, in the language of sports, got up "against it." The Athenaeum have been contemplating the plunge for a long, long while, and were only staying their hand until a fitting opportunity had arrived. The time has come and now red, red war with the association has been declared. A warm time is promised, and before the Good Friday "hat talking" contest comes around prodigious quantities of eloquence will have gushed forth, and wheelmen will wish the C. W. A. higher than Gilroy's kite. A large-sized, full-grown matured grievance has been discovered by the A. C. C., and they claim that they have been promised the support of the majority of the local clubs in their agitation for the reduction of the fees of the association. The present rate, they contend, is too high, altogether disproportionate to the benefits they receive, and if it is not moderated at the next meeting they will secede from the ruling body, and they will not be alone, they assert. "The official organ is not read by 75 per cent. of the members," said a prominet member of the Church street club last night to the Globe, "and the quality of the stuff that is served up for its readers would be a disgrace to a squash town paper. Some people will say that the association has got itself into a hole by letting out the contract for its publication for five years, but that is absurd. The contract is not valid from a constitutional point of view, as it was made by officials whose tenure of office is limited to one year, and they have not the authority to bind their successors in that manner. Official organs and bulletins have been abolished by the L. A. W. and N. C. U." he continued, "and the Wheelman has outlived its usefulness." There are to be found scores of cyclists who predict that the C. W. A. is doomed, that its life will go out with the present year, but that they were not cut out for the Eva Fay business.

On Hand

now, at A. Clegg's, another lot of those oak finish extension tables, at $5.00, $5.50, $6.00 and $6.50; common chairs, 35c.; good hard wood bedsteads, only $2.00; oak finish bedroom suites, $12.00, $13.00 and upward. Our stock is complete in every line. A. Clegg, 427 George street.

Good Roads.

The Provincial Road Commissioner, A. W. Campbell is issuing a bulletin on road-making, which is expected to be in circulation in a couple of weeks. It will contain an article on road labour and expenditure in Ontario, dealing chiefly with the statute labour system as at present operated, articles on the practical work of road construction, including drainage of roads, rolling, forming and metalling. Other subjects dealt with are bridges, snow fences, culverts, road machinery and waggon tires. The construction of residential streets in towns is also discussed. The bulletin will be illustrated with several photo-engravings of gravel and macadam streets and roads. The time will be most opportune to place literature on good roads in the hands of the people when bad roads are being practically illustrated. Mr. Campbell is in in Seaforth, at present, and during the next two weeks has appointments in the interest of road improvement in six townships and three town municipalities.

EAST RIDING ANNUAL SUCCESS.

A GOOD EXHIBITION AT NORWOOD ON WEDNESDAY.

Fine Weather and Large Attendance—Good Exhibits in all the Departments—An Unusually Fine and Large Exhibit of Sheep, Swine and Poultry—Entries Over 250 in Excess of Last Year.

The managers of the East Riding exhibition held at Norwood for years, must be on the soft side of the clerk of the weather, for that uncertain character almost invariably sends a good article for the annual show. Yesterday the weather was simply faultless for such an occasion. The weather with its soft autumnal haze and tempered sunshine, was a very fair imitation of Indian summer. If it was not the real article it was a counterfeit that could be passed upon the shrewdest. And it was the weather that brought the people of the districts in thousands. From early morning the exhibitors and visitors began to arrive, many leaving home as early as seven o'clock Wednesday morning, as young men and women in the awkward constraint of painful consciousness and in the agonizing attempt to steer conversation into a channel where it would flow smoothly were heard to declare. When the hundred odd visitors from Peterborough were entering the village en route from the station, as they looked across the crawling Ouse, they could see down the long slope of highway leading to the exhibition grounds a long wrapped in an atmosphere of tawny dust of their own raising. Of course there was a light attendance the first day, which was given over to getting ready for the big day that Wednesday proved to be. Beginning at noon fully four thousand persons passed through the turnstiles and thronged the grounds. The grounds were a lively scene with numerous tents, marquees and pavilions, from that of the noisy vendors of peanuts and taffy to the circus-like tent of the steam hobby horses—and the way the lads and lasses, the Jacks and Jills, rode these poor, over-worked wooden steeds, was a case for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. There was the lively music of the Norwood brass band, the hum of conversation, and the roar of stentorian salutation between former neighbours, and over all an air of gayety and enjoyment; for the people of the East seem to enjoy the Norwood Fair as their one great annual holiday.

And the directors are very proud of the success they scored. The number of entries showed a gratifying increase over last year, and were pretty evenly distributed throughout all the departments. This year's entries footed up to 2,500, as against 2,200 last year. The show was a good one in all respects, especially in the department of stock. The later date—after all the fairs are over elsewhere—permitted the presence with their stock of many outside exhibitors.

THE INSIDE EXHIBIT.

The inside exhibit was of unusual excellence and well displayed. As has been the case at every exhibition in the country this year, the show of fruit—especially apples—was magnificent. Every known variety, almost, was largely represented, and there was a large number of exhibitors, showing the general character of apple culture in this district.

There was also a splendid exhibit of grains of all kinds and of excellent quality, including a fine collection of grains in the ear, and also of ensilage corn in the stalk.

In roots the display was excellent as usual, the late date on which the East Riding Exhibition is held permitting of about full maturity.

Vegetables were also well represented, though the exhibit was not say large.

There was not as large a showing of dairy products—cheese and butter—as might be expected for this district.

Creditable display was made of domestic manufactures, quilts, blankets, flannels, etc.

A fine show of canned fruits, pickles, etc., testified to the housewifely skill of the ladies of East Peterborough.

A notably excellent display of ladies' fancy work of great beauty and variety, was made.

The representation of the fine arts was also very creditable. A few good oils were hung and there was a large and fine collection of crayon work. A good exhibit of specimens of plain and ornamental penmanship was made. Altogether the interior exhibit was large and of generally good quality. Its extent pretty well tested the capacity of the building.

THE LIVE STOCK EXHIBIT

was a most creditable one, there being a large number of good animals and a very lively competition in nearly all classes.

There was an excellent showing of good animals and among the chief exhibitors were the following:

Archibald Paterson of Dummer, was the only exhibitor of the somewhat new breed, which he claims is very easily fed, the Duroc Jersey.

Poultry Exhibit.

The poultry exhibit was of large extent and excellence. There were a great many fine birds. The coops were a centre of attraction, and the judges had no little difficulty in coming to a decision. Some of the exhibits were from a distance of twenty miles.

SPECIAL EXHIBITS.

MR. ROBERT REESOR'S JERSEY HERD.

Mr. Robert Reesor's splendid exhibit of Jerseys is always a feature of the Norwood Fair. As President of the Markham Agricultural Society, Mr. Reesor this fall entertained His Excellency, Lord Aberdeen, who was greatly pleased with the splendid appointments of "Jerseyhurst," Locust Hill, one of the most, if not the most admirable, of Jersey breeding farms in Canada. The fourteen splendid animals of the St. Lambert and St. Helier strains of pure Jersey blood on the grounds yesterday was only a small portion of Mr. Reesor's fine family of nearly three score and ten thoroughbreds that roam the fertile and well meadowed acres of Jerseyhurst. Mr. Reesor has a national reputation for Jerseys and the part he has done in distributing the best butter breed of cattle all over the country entitles him to rank as a public benefactor and his usefulness is only beginning. The increased demand for Canadian butter in the old country demands increased breeding of by all odds the best butter breed of animals on earth. The Jersey is seen in its best form in Mr. Reesor's herds where the finest flow of butter building blood is available at low prices to the farmers of the country. There are many of Mr. Reesor's Jerseys in this district and there will be more; for as the demands for butter producing cows increase, the farmers will largely avail themselves of the opportunity of dealing directly with the breeder of the finest herd of Jerseys in this province. The farmer who wishes to procure Jerseys at reasonable figures can have his wishes met by writing to Mr. Robert Reesor, "Jerseyhurst," Locust Hill, Ont.

GRAFTON'S CLOTHING.

Messrs. Grafton & Co., the energetic clothing house of Peterborough, continue to recognize the importance of exhibiting at this fair. They show much wisdom in doing so serving as it does to keep them prominently before the people of the extreme eastern section of the county, farthest removed from their Peterborough business. They insist upon being as well known in one end of the county as the

GAS STRUCK NEAR LONDON.

Artesian Well Borers in Westminster Township Found Several Things.

London, Oct. 14.—On the farm of John Dale, lot 76, Westminster, about 2 1-2 miles south of Springbank, while sinking an artesian well, at 301 feet, they struck what is known as the oil-bearing rock, with a light show of petroleum. At 302 feet a vein of gas was struck, and, a match being applied, it burned freely four feet above the casing, and continued until put out. At 303 feet water was struck and raised 160 feet. A pump was put in and started, and for three days pumped at the rate of 600 gallons per hour. The water is of excellent quality. A remarkable feature was that when drilling at the depth of 180 feet the drill went through a soft substance, which, upon examination, was found to be wood, and also at a depth of 231 feet a like substance was struck, but more of a petrified nature.

What a great quantity of work a "good housekeeper" finds to do! There are so many little time-and-strength-taking chores that have no names. And it must all be done whether the housekeeper feels like it or not. This is true of men's work too, but men's manual labor is never so complicated as housekeeping. In some way or other "the world's work must be done." This iron-clad rule is harder on women than it is on men. A man can't be as sick as a woman.

As a man's organization is simpler and stronger, it follows that his ailments are less complicated. He is not subject to the chances and changes, physiologically, that come to the average woman.

If a woman is in good health there is no more healthful employment than housework. Generally speaking, there is no happier woman in the world than the one who is well and busy all day long "making home" for dear ones who depend upon her. But how different when every breath is pain, every step torture! This state of health, in nine cases out of ten comes from derangements of the delicate, feminine organs of generation. The family doctor inquires first concerning these. He most usually insists upon an "examination." From this the modest woman naturally shrinks. She is right. Excepting in very unusual cases of "female weakness" examinations are unnecessary. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a simple, natural remedy for these ills. It cures gradually, safely, permanently. Here is one testimonial out of thousands:

"I was ill four years with 'female weakness.' I took two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I do my house work now without pain or faintness." Yours truly,

(Mrs.) Lilla M. Foot

FOOLISH SALESMAN.

Cause and Effect in Business Success Vividly Illustrated.

Lundy Foot, the Dublin tobacconist, laid the foundation of his large fortune by saying to each dirty, ragged little girl, as he handed her the pennyworth of snuff she had asked for, "Thank you, my dear, please come again!" The largest retail grocery business in Boston was built up by the founder's rule to his salesmen, "Treat every servant girl as you would her mistress if she were buying." The Saturday Evening Gazette tells of an airy salesman in a Boston dry goods house who had a fall by failure of courtesy to a purchaser.

A young lady was in search of some material to use for a waist with a very handsome silk skirt, and she advanced to the counter where this particular clerk was presiding. She was quietly dressed; she did not scintillate with spangles and gilt belts, and her sleeves and skirt did not extend to the full width of space between the counters, consequently the clerk decided that she did not come from the magic precincts of the Back Bay.

Attracted by a certain piece of goods, she asked the price and width. The man answered shortly, "Three dollars a yard; 47 inches wide." She looked at various other things on the counter, and then returning to the first thing as the most pleasing, she said politely: "Will you please give me a sample of this?"

The man did not move. "I told you that was $3 a yard," he said.

The girl looked at him. "Yes?" she said. "The silk with which I intend to use it cost $2.75 a yard, but I think I can make this stuff of yours do, as it is only for house wear."

A smile stole over the faces of two or three shoppers, and the salesman cut the sample with a meekness that would have done credit to Moses; but that girl says she'll go without a dress rather than buy a yard of that man.—Youth's Companion.

What Mohair and Alpaca Are.

Mohair is the fleece of the Angora goat, grown in the orient and at the Cape, and is the most lustrous fiber known. In its natural state it is white, and can consequently by dyed to any color. Alpaca is the fleece of the animal of that name, also of the goat family (llama is a near relation), and is grown in South America. In its natural state it is black, brown or piebald, with a very small proportion of white. Consequently it can only be dyed a darker color, generally black. Whenever, therefore, you see a luster dress which is lighter than dark gray, you may be sure it is mohair, especially if it has a peculiar sparkle which is something like that of a newly broken piece of lump sugar. Alpaca, being somewhat finer and softer than mohair, is mostly used for coat linings, but it is also made into dress goods in its natural gray. It was introduced and intended for linings, but was taken up by a whim of fashion for dresses and had a great run 30 years ago. Its popularity gave the name of alpaca in a rough and ready way to all bright goods, although most of them are made from cashair, and many of them from English wool.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

THE SKELETON WAS SCOTT'S

Evidence Points to the Fact That the Bones Lately Discovered in Winnipeg Were Those of Riel's Victim.

Winnipeg, Oct. 13.—(Special.)—A few weeks ago a skeleton was discovered while digging a Main-street foundation. Evidence now collected seems to prove that the skeleton is that of Thomas Scott, murdered by Riel in the Red River Rebellion of 1869.

The residence of Rev. A. Henderson, pastor of Zion Church and brother of Rev. Dr. Henderson of Toronto, was burglarized last night. The minister lost his valuable watch and some cash.

A GIGANTIC BLUFF

Is What Boss Jones Says of Boss Quay's Prediction, and He Goes Him One Better.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, to-day characterized the probable electoral vote as given out last night by Senator Quay as "a gigantic bluff." Chairman Jones then gave out a table showing the votes of the respective candidates in the electoral college, according to his view: Bryan 279, McKinley 81, doubtful 87. Senator Jones added that thousands of Democrats in Connecticut and New Jersey had informed him that those states would cast their vote for Bryan, while the Democrats of Iowa looked upon that state as safe for Bryan by a large majority.

PRICE WANTED TO DIE.

Shot Himself Twice and Carries a Bullet in His Head, Yet Lives.

Danbury, Conn., Oct. 13.—Albert Price, a farmer, aged 48, of Brewster, N.Y., made a desperate attempt to kill himself yesterday. He went to his bedroom and shot himself in the head. The ball struck his skull, went through his forehead and lodged in the bed. Price then got a looking glass and, lying down upon the bed, aimed the revolver at himself, with the aid of the glass. The second ball is in his head. He is still alive, but will probably die.

Kidney Trouble of Some Kind—Lame Back and Weakness—Cured by a Few Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Brockville, Oct. 12 (Special.—As stated by Mr. Wm. A. As soon as I decided that the cause might be from derangement of the kidneys I procured a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills and I am glad to say that only a few boxes were taken before I was as well as ever.

TWO OUTLAWS KILLED.

Peck Thomas, the Man Who Ran Bill Doolin Down, is a Tartar.

Fort Smith, Ark., Oct. 13.—In a fight between a posse and the Green gang of outlaws at Oclagh, I.T., last night, two of the outlaws were killed and the others captured. The dead men are Jim Green and his brother, and they were members of one of the worst gangs of desperadoes in Indian Territory. Last night the Greens and their gang rode into Oclagh, 40 miles west of Fort Smith, for the purpose of robbing the town, but encountered Peck Thomas and party, and a fight followed, which proved most destructive to them. Thomas is the man who ran Bill Doolin to earth.

Don't You Remember Long Ago?

As the years roll on we more and more recall the events of the past. School days with their tasks and chores come back again to us in memory, but with the glamour and enchantment of distant views. The old school and church, the boys and girls we romped with, father's voice, mother's smile, the joy of the holiday—no pleasures of the present can compare with those enjoyed in the days now locked up in the eternity of the past. In a similar way we recall the old time tested friend of the past—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor—that never failed us then and is just as sure to serve us now. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is sure safe, and painless. Use no other.

MR. ROBERT M'LEAN DEAD.

The Secretary of the Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association Passes Away in His 80th Year.

Toronto, Oct. 14.

Mr. Robert McLean, the Secretary of the Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association, died last night in his 80th year. He had only been confined to his bed for two days, but for the past six months he has not done any active work. His health had been failing ever since the death of his wife about a year ago.

The late Mr. McLean came to Toronto twenty years ago from Galt, where he taught school for a number of years. He organized the Underwriters' Association, and was a contributor of insurance articles to The Monetary Times and New York journals. He was a life-long Reformer and an intimate friend of the late Hon. Geo. Brown. He was vice-president of the Temperance and General Life Insurance Co. He leaves two sons, R. G. and D. H., and four daughters, Mrs. James Byrie, Mrs. Fred Shaw, Toronto; Mrs. James Whittet, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. James Cranston, Galt.

The funeral will take place on Friday at 3 p.m. from his late residence, 6 Selby-street.

LOST WITH ALL HANDS.

The Barquentine Thomas J. Stewart, Coal Laden, Has Not Been Seen Since Going Out Last Friday.

Boston, Oct. 13.—The owners and agents of the barkentine Thomas J. Stewart, bound from Weehawken to this port, have given the vessel up for lost with all her crew. The Stewart left New York on Sept. 8, and since passing Sandy Hook that same forenoon nothing has ever been heard from her.

The vessel was loaded with over 1400 tons of coal, and she was very deep in the water when she left port. The presumption is that she was caught in the hurricane of Sept. 8 and 9, and that her cargo shifted and she capsized. The Stewart was commanded by Capt. L. C. Blake of Brewer, Me., and her first mate was Joseph Connors of North Castine, Me. The cook was C. W. Gray of Orland, Me. The names of the second mate and crew are unknown. There was also on board the vessel P. B. Boynton, a young man belonging in Bangor, who was learning navigation and engineering.

A MESSAGE TO MEN.

Proving that True Honesty and True Philantrophy Still Exist.

If any man, who is weak, nervous and debilitated, or who is suffering from any of the various forms resulting from youthful folly, excesses or overwork, will take heart and write to me, I will send him confidentially and free of charge, the plan pursued by which I was completely restored to perfect health and manhood, after years of suffering from Nervous Debility, Loss of Vigor and Organic Weakness.

I have nothing to sell and therefore want no money, but as I know through my own experience how to sympathize with such sufferers, I am glad to be able to assist any fellow-being to a cure. I am well aware of the prevalence of quackery, for I myself was deceived and imposed upon until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but I rejoice to say that I am now perfectly well and happy once more and am desirous therefore to make this certain means of cure known to all. If you will write to me you can rely upon being cured and the proud satisfaction of having been of great service to one in need will be sufficient reward for my trouble. Absolute secrecy assured. Send 5c. silver to cover postage and address, Mr. Geo. G. Strong, North Rockwood, Mich.
